Bentinck School Fair Growing in Interest

Miss Reta Bailey, S S No. 2, (Allan Park) scores highest number of Points in School Drill

All roads in Bentinck led to Lam last school on Monday last, where the annual school fair of the Township was in progress. It is estimated over 500 were in attendance and the healthy rivalry and interest displayed by parents as well as children, augers well for future fairs.

It was certainly a school fair day, and while perhaps the exhibits were not in quantity to that of last year, they made up in quality and competition was keen. The pupil who received a first prize ticket was worthy of it.

The Judge of indoor exhibits was Miss Edith Zavitz of Ilderton and in a brief speech in the afternoon had complimentary remarks for the exhibits. As regards to the cookery exhibits, she pointed out the essentials to be desired were texture, color, moisture and flavor, the latter counting for 50 per cent out of the 100 given.

After a basket lunch during the noon hour had served many people, the District Representative, G. S. Cooper, Markdale spoke in a few words and was followed by Reeve McDonald of Bentinck. The latter had praise for Mr. Cooper in this work and claimed the outlook for the school fair was exceedingly bright. This fair had the largest representation.

Passing of John MacArthur

The death occurred early Wednesday morning of John MacArthur, "of the Glen" which has long been associated with his name. With his passing another of the pioneers who knew this country in its crude state, has gone, leaving an honored name to the generation of to-day. He had been seriously ill only since the 12th of September, a general break up of vigorous system which withstood the vicissitudes of life for over 87 years.

Deceased was born at Ross-Mull, Argyleshire, Scotland, coming to this country with his parents at 5 or 6 years. They settled in Glenelg where the name "MacArthur" as borne by him and his family has since been known. Growing to manhood, over 60 years ago, he married Miss Isabella Black, whose mother was killed by an accident at the hill two miles east of Durham.

Interment takes place Friday to Priceville cemetery. To all he conveyed the Review extends sympathy. To the Editor his "death breaks a pleasant friendship of over 50 years."

Rev. Jno. Coburn Coming to Durham

A series of evangelistic services, under the auspices of the United churches of Durham, will be held during the week beginning on Sunday October 10th. The preacher will be Rev. John Coburn of the Department of Evangelism and Social Service for the United church of Canada.

South Grey Fair Scores a Success

Despite weather conditions, a large crowd see a good Show

Once more Durham Fair has rolled into history, and though not the best ever, it was one of the good ones. Skies were gloomy and rain seemed never far away but it did keep away until the close of the second day and most of the events were carried out.

The Hall had a fine collection of farm products and ladies' work. Vegetables in this wet season made a good showing. Entries in grain and potato classes were scarcely as numerous as usual, but quality good. Same may be said of flowers and quilts. An abundant supply of edibles tempted the eye and the display of penmanship, etc. in the juvenile classes won favorable comment.

The Live Stock classes were well represented and contests keen—except in the poultry classes which were off color. Some splendid horses were shown and the ring events were followed with great interest.

The school drills were a bright feature, four competing. Rain commenced falling while in progress, which marred the enjoyment of the last two, but not the execution, as teachers and children continued undaunted in the rain.

The horse races resulted as follows: Farmers' Trot—1st heat "Kate McGregor," Wm Pringle, Mt. Forest, 1st; "Willow Mac," Alf Fritz, Walkerton, 2nd.

2nd Heat "Willow Mac," 1st; "Kate McGregor," 2nd. Fritz and Pringle agreed to divide sum of 1st and 2nd prizes.

220 Pace "Redmak," C. Hillgartner, 1st in both heats. "Grace Mac," E. Rowbottom, O. Sound, 3rd in 1st heat, 2nd in 2nd heat.

"All Expense," D. Cummins, Mt. Forest, 2nd in 1st heat, 3rd in 2nd heat. Rowbottom and Cummins divide prize money.

230 Pace "Chestnut," McIntosh, Mt. Forest, 1st; "Vera Patchen," A. Mountain, Durham, 2nd. "Pearl Mace," A. McLeod, Owen Sound, 3rd. "Harbor Boy," M. Ryan, Durham, 4th.

Grace Mac: E. Rowbottom, Owen Sound, 5th. W. Lines, Hanover, starter. We refer readers to Prize List published herewith for details. The gate realized about $350 and a crowded concert also helped to keep the Society on firm ground.

Miss MacPhail Banquetted by Clubs near Markdale

Thursday evening of last week the Armories at Markdale was the scene of a large banquet in honor of Miss Agnes MacPhail, M.P. It was held under the auspices of the United Farmers of that district, and an idea of the number present may be gathered from the fact that there were 3 long tables, each accommodating 30 people, and these were filled three times. At the close a lengthy program was listened to, Miss MacPhail and Mr. F. R. Oliver being the speakers.

In her speech, Miss MacPhail stated she had been invited to speak to two different clubs in Boston on the 24th and 25th October. She is the first Canadian to be asked to address these very exclusive clubs. The subjects chosen for these addresses are "Canada your neighbor" and "Canadian Elections." Another invitation received by her just that day was to deliver an address before a society in Springfield, Illinois. This is one of the most exclusive American clubs and only speakers of world fame, have been asked to speak for them.

Serious Motor Accident Near Hamilton

Delbert Moore, the eight year old son of Mr and Mrs Chas Moore, was critically injured in a motor collision at Clappison's Corners, four miles north of Hamilton, last Sunday afternoon.

Early Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. John Crutchley, Mrs. Geo. Moore and Mrs. Chas. Moore and son Delbert, motored to Grimsby, where they spent a few hours at the home of Mrs. C. Moore's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Catton.

The Hall had a fine collection of farm products and ladies' work. Vegetables in this wet season made a good showing. Entries in grain and potato classes were scarcely as numerous as usual, but quality good. Same may be said of flowers and quilts.

Received Vivid Letters from Relatives in Florida

An interesting and vivid letter has been received by Mrs Thos. Brown, of town, from her sister, Mrs. Dane, who resides in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, who had their house unroofed, and moved off its foundation in the disastrous hurricane there. Fortunately all came through safely. Her letter reads:

"Well the worst is yet to come. You will probably see it in the papers before this. All vessels had been warned of a storm coming. Friday night it was quite windy and kept getting worse. About 4 o'clock it started to rain. We moved our bed in, but it grew worse. We all got up and dressed. Our house started to shake and I went into the front bedroom. I had to grab the bed and I just went reeling against the wall. The house went off the foundation; we thought we would all be taken away if we could only get there. Some one opened the door just in time to see the garage turn right over, and the other two houses went off their foundations, and the roof of every one. Being in terrible danger, we thought we would make it to Brown's. Before we left two women came in, just frantic. One had her Bible with her. We thought they were coming behind but the wind blew them the other way. They were knocked down three times before they got across the Dixie.

MacArthur-Nichol Nuptials

A quiet wedding that was witnessed by only the immediate families of contracting parties, was solemnized on Wednesday, Sept. 29, at the home of Mr and Mrs Thos. Nichol, Durham Road, Glenelg.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was unattended and was attractively attired in white georgette with satin trimming, surmounted by a white veil and carrying a bridal bouquet of pink roses and fern. Miss Rebecca Nichol, the bride's sister, played the wedding music.
