Why Buy a Home? A real estate salesman tried to sell a house to a newly married couple. Said the wife: "Why buy a home? I was born in a hospital ward, reared in a boarding school, educated in a college, courted in an automobile, and married in a church; get my meals at a cafeteria, live in an apartment; spend my mornings playing golf, my afternoons playing bridge; in the evenings we dance or go to the movies; when I'm sick I go to the hospital, and when I die I shall be buried from an undertaker's. All we need is a garage with a bedroom."

The Late Mrs. Jas. Bruce

Last week we referred briefly to the death of Mrs. Jas. Bruce, who departed this life Oct. 10th, 1926, at the good old age of 88 years. The deceased lady was born in the Township of Dumfries in 1838, near the village of Ayr. She came to Holstein when a young woman and resided for a number of years with her brother, the late W. T. Petrie. She was married to the late James Bruce in 1871, he predeceasing her in 1911. She had one son Alexander who died in 1902, at the age of 25 years. She is the last of a family of five brothers and three sisters. The funeral service was held in the Presbyterian church and was conducted by Rev. W. Johnston, her pastor. At the close of the funeral sermon, her favorite hymn "In the Garden" was rendered by Miss Inez Allan and Mr. Arthur Brown. Mr. Colin McMillan had charge of the remains. The pall bearers were Robt. Christie, Robt. Aitken, Jno. Orchard, J. D. Roberts, J. A. Smith and Wm. Nelson. Beautiful flowers adorned the casket and were contributed by Mrs. Edna Oeler of Raymond, Nebraska; Mrs. W. T. Petrie; sprays from Mrs. Christie, G. Petrie, Mrs. W. A. Reid of Toronto, and Miss Ethel Sharpe.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Christie and Geo. Petrie; Mrs. W. A. YEOVIL

Threshing, silo filling, mangold and potato picking have kept a good many employed the past few weeks. Fortunately involuntary muscles control our breathing.

Nature's artist has again been very lavish with tints and shading, but our woods are losing their blaze of glory. Many of the beautifully colored leaves lie thickly on the ground where they "rustle in the eddying blast or to the rabbit's tread." A walk through the bush is delightful.

Death of Doug. M. Ferguson

After an illness of two months in Durham Hospital, Donald M. Ferguson passed away on Saturday evening last, his ailment being ulcers on the stomach. The deceased was a well known Egremont farmer, who recently has resided with his mother, near Mt. Forest. Over a year ago he underwent a critical operation at Lockwood Clinic, Toronto, for the same trouble, and while it brought great relief to him, it did not prove a permanent cure.

Forty eight years ago, Mr. Ferguson was born on the 19th. con. Proton, the son of the late Daniel and Mrs. Ferguson. His father was an old-time Disciple preacher, who held services in Priceville and elsewhere, passing away thirty three years ago. About forty years ago the parents with their young family, removed to the 22nd con. Egremont, where the deceased farmed the greater part of his life.

In 1918, he removed with his mother to Holstein, thence to Mt. Forest, and for the last three years, has lived on a small farm on the 9th con. Egremont, 1 1/2 miles from Mount Forest.

The deceased was unmarried and besides his aged mother, leaves as chief mourners, five brothers and two sisters: Alex., in Lanark, North Dakota; Jno. A., the well known Deputy reeve of Egremont; Mrs. Farquhar McKinnon (Sarah) of near Priceville; Charles, of 22nd con. Egremont; Daniel and Archie, near Beattie, Sask.; Mrs. Thos. Watson, on 14th con. Egremont. One sister, Lydia, and three brothers, Peter, David and Garfield died in mature years, while two others died in infancy.

In religion the late Mr. Ferguson was a Disciple. He was possessed of a retiring disposition, but was an industrious and successful farmer in years of good health. The remains were conveyed from Durham Hospital to the home of his sister, Mrs. Farquhar McKinnon, Priceville, with whom the mother now resides, and from whose home the funeral was held Tuesday. Interment took place in McKelvie's cemetery, Durham Road, Glenelg.

Presbyterian Anniversary Well Attended

Good congregations were present at both anniversary services Sunday, of Holstein Presbyterian Church, especially in the evening, when the edifice was filled. The inspiring and earnest sermons, delivered by Rev. J. T. Strachan of Owen Sound, were greatly appreciated by all. Mr. Strachan is a new speaker in this locality and made a splendid impression. At both services the choir rendered special musical numbers.

Monday evening, a fine fowl supper was a big attraction. There was an abundance both of fowl and other edibles, prepared by the good ladies of the congregation, and while the tables were filled several times, the gathering was well over an hour, and possibly a few followed the supper the next once.

Following the supper the large gathering assembled in the auditorium of the church, which was almost filled, despite the unfavorable weather all day. Rev. W. Johnston was in the chair, and left the program in the hands of the Rupert Legate Concert Co. of Owen Sound.

They presented an enjoyable entertainment consisting of songs by Rupert Legate, readings by Miss Ayerst, violin selections by H. Parker, a gifted boy violinist, and solos, a duet by Mr. Legate and "Miss Dunbar," who also acted as accompanist throughout. At the close, Mr. Legate lifted "her" wig, revealing and announcing Harry Dunbar, entertainer. He made a good female impersonator.

The chairman announced the evening's proceeds to be $113.80.

RLYTH'S CORNERS

Mrs. James Vincent and little son Donald of Agincourt are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoeflin, of Mt. Forest, also her sister, Mrs. D. McIlvride, in Normanby, for a few days.

Between silo filling, threshing and somewhat bad weather, farmers are having quite a guddle to get their mangels and potatoes housed.

Mrs. McCaul and Miss Mae Mitchell of Mt. Forest, visited the week end over with Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall.

That there will be a Provincial election is now assured in December, and the promised Government supervision of the liquor question which was to satisfy all concerned, is anything but comforting and encouraging to prohibitionists. It is Government Control pure and simple and the proposal to substitute a government agency for the present system of prescription by doctors, will work out admirably to the delight of the "wets", if Currie and McBride are appointed ministers without portfolios, to that position. At all events it is an assured victory for the wets.

Judging by extensive repairs to a dwelling house a short distance east of Knox Corners, we may have something to report later, concerning the bride, the groom, etc. in the meantime.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother and wife, Mrs. Jacob Smith, who died Nov. 1st, 1925.

The warmest heart, the fairest face Was taken unawares; God gently called, His angels came, And carried her from earthly cares.

—Husband, Daughter and Son

In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Jacob Smith, who departed this world, Nov. 1st, 1925.

God called her home to take her rest, Without a warning to those loved best;

She quietly passed to a brighter place, Where we hope to meet her, face to face.

Can You Find the Twins?

No, they are not all twins! Two and only two are identical, and are the twins you are asked to find. Can you? To be sure, the 18 pictures all look alike; but look closer. How about their hats? There are other differences, too. Read the clues. Only two girls are exact duplicates. They are Twins—can you find them?

CLUES

At first glance all of the pictures look alike. But upon examination you will see that almost every one differs in some way from all the others. In some the difference may be in the light or dark band on the brim of the hat or in the brimming on the hat or the collar. Or, some may wear necklaces, or ear-rings, or both. Only two are exactly alike. No, it's not as easy as it looks. You must search carefully.

Just look closely—make sure that you have the twins, then send in your answer. Somebody who finds the right twins is going to win a big prize. Make that "somebody" be YOU.
