"Dad certainly was pleased!"

"As soon as Dad read my last letter, with the news of my appointment in it, he jumped for the telephone.
"I felt like a million dollars when I heard his voice, and if I can live up to the things he said to me, I'll go a long way."
There are many inspiring moments when Long Distance is the only adequate vehicle for our emotions. As in the case above, the proper word at the right moment has a great appeal. Let Long Distance speed your message of inspiration when it will be most appreciated.

Anniversary Services
of Queen St. Church

accomplishments since its inception over sixteen months ago.

There was a very fine musical program by the choir of twenty one voices, who rendered two anthems while Miss Cullis of Stratford and Mr Wm. Benson gave splendid solos.
The Monday evening function proved to be simply a repetition of the success of the Sunday services. The social side of an anniversary is an important factor in church life and this was evident in the happy gathering in the basement of the church. Three long tables were laden with the very best in the culinary line, and he or she would have been despondent indeed, who could not participate in the viands before them. But there is also room for some thinker to evolve a plan whereby the feast of good things could be handed out at stated intervals throughout the week!

Shortly after 8 p.m. the literary side of the evening began, with Rev. Mr. Peters as chairman. His remarks were sandwiched in among the musical numbers and also took occasion to tell of the early doings of the church here and read some of the early minutes, which Dr. Wolfe, as an early official of the church, had unearthed. The details will appear elsewhere.

The musical side of the entertainment was of a high character and all enjoyed. We are not going to comment on any particular star save that of Miss Cullis of Stratford, who sang on Sunday—delighted her audience with her vocal gifts. She has a sweet, well-modulated voice and was happy in her choice of selections. The other numbers were solos by Mrs. Will Lawrence, Wm. Benson: piano duets (which were brilliantly executed) Misses Purnan; Bass horn solo, R. Padfield; duets, Mrs. Mark Wilson and Mrs. W. Lawrence; Messrs. Benson and Padfield; Mixed quartette, Mesdames E. A. Hay and M. Wilson, Messrs. Padfield and Benson; recitation Master George Hay, Misses Stella McCrae and Mrs. Padfield were sympathetic accompanists.

Hearty votes of thanks were extended to the Ladies' Aid of the church and those who in any way assisted to make the event the success it was.

Queen St. W. M. S.

On Thursday, 21st October, the monthly meeting of the W. M. S. of the Queen St. United Church, met at the home of Mrs. H. McCrae. The meeting was led by Mrs. (Rev.) Peters who opened the exercises by singing the hymn "How firm a Foundation, ye saints of the Lord," followed by prayer by Mrs. Dr. Wolfe. Mrs. E. Twanley read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Peters read a devotional leaflet based on the text "We walk by faith, not by sight," entitled "Faith and Works." Mrs. Knechtel read an interesting leaflet entitled "Everyday Thanksgivings." Letters from our heralds were read by Mrs. McGowan on India, Korba by Mrs. May, Africa by Mrs. Moon, West China by Mrs. Wiggins.

The study book "New days in old India" was commenced and the first chapter was read with the help of the map of India placed before the members. The readers Mrs. McClocklin, Mrs. Wolfe, Mrs. Glass, Mrs. Hay and Mrs. McGowan gave us realistic glimpses of the old days in Indian life and habits from our mission life and habits from the Indian variety, introduced a knowledge of foreign customs and faith in Jesus Christ. A pleasing part of the program was the singing of a beautiful duet by Mesdames Knechtel and McCrae. A letter was read from Mrs. Breeze on the requirements of the Supply Committee.
The meeting closed with the benediction.

ada, all of the colleges were closed, with the exception of the Hackett college in Canton. This uprising, she contended, is due to the anti-foreign feeling that prevails among the natives. However, despite this temporary setback, great progress is evident in every line of missionary endeavor and hopes are high that the Christian gospel may yet triumph. Dr. MacBean is a pleasing and fluent speaker and her story had the sympathetic hearing of her audience.

On Thursday afternoon last, at the home of Mrs. John Morrison, the Thankoffering meeting of the W. M. S. of the church, was held. The President, Mrs. Andrew Derby, led in devotional exercises, followed by the speaker of the afternoon, Miss Edith Sinclair of Harrison. The quite young, Miss Sinclair has shown an aptitude for the missionary and organization work of the church and her address was a bureau of information and facts. She related the general outline and program of the W. M. S., as well as new phases of work being taken up. Mrs. Hardin and Mrs. W. Leander contributed a pleasing duet and the collection taken up proved to be a generous one.

Mount Forest Church
Celebrates Golden Jubilee

The celebration of the Golden Jubilee of the building of Wellington St. United Church, Mt. Forest, was successfully and inspiringly undertaken on Sunday, Oct. 24th, followed by a Jubilee Festival on Monday night.

The Mount Forest church was built under the pastorate of Rev. R. J. Foreman in 1876, at that time one of the most elaborate and commodious edifices in the Methodist church. At the original Board of Trustees, W. J. Gilroy and Abel Humphries remain, the former of whom with Mrs. Gilroy, were guests of honor.
The services were conducted by Rev. R. A. Fitch, pastor of the church, with Rev. A. Lloyd Smith, M.A., B.D., of Brampton as speaker of the day. Mr. Smith delighted and inspired his audiences with his forceful messages. His theme in the morning was "Devotional People" and in the evening, "The Philosophy of Life."

A large attendance in the morning and a packed house at the evening service, expressed the public interest in the unique anniversary. The music of the day was rendered under the direction of Mrs. H. E. Yeomans, choir leader and Mr. A. J. Lyons, the efficient organist. The local choir of 40 voices was assisted by Rev. R. A. Fitch, Miss Bagshaw and Mrs. Crooks.
The occasion was fittingly marked by an open session of the Sunday School, at which Mrs. Duke reported impressions of the Toronto Convention for "World Service" and addresses on "Building Character" by Rev. Wm. Kettlewell and Rev. T. R. Clark and Mr. Fred Gilroy.

On Monday night, about 600 sat down to an abundant and elaborate supper prepared by the active co-operation of the ladies of the church. The program was musical and reminiscent as furnished by Rev. T. R. Clark, Wm. Kettlewell and A. C. Edy, followed by greetings from local ministers present. The musical program was delightfully rendered by their choir, Miss Bagshaw, Mrs. T. R. Clark, Miss Nellie Gardiner, Mr. F. Gilroy and Robt. Neilson, together with a number of instrumental selections pleasingly rendered by local talent, while Mrs. W. J. Gilroy and Mrs. Currie gave recitals.

Greetings and regrets were received from Rev. Dr. A. J. Irwin, of Waterloo, David W. A. A. B. D., of Peterboro; A. P. Latta, Hanover; T. L. Kerruish, Hamilton, former ministers unable to attend and from Mrs. Dr. Williamson, Toronto. Greetings were also received from Rev. W. E. Gilroy, of the Congregationalist, Boston, Mass.; Mr. Rees Morgan of Winnipeg and Rev. Wm. Mc-Niven, old boys of the congregation.

Jarvis Scott, formerly of Holstein, was very badly hurt in an accident near Newmarket a week ago Sunday. He was riding his motor cycle en route from Newmarket to Toronto, when an approaching automobile cut across without giving the signal. He could not stop and in attempting to swerve past was caught by the fender and hurled into the ditch with his motor cycle. When picked up he was unconscious and was rushed to the Hospital at Newmarket where it was found he had nine bones broken.

A meeting of the Library Board was held on Friday evening with a good attendance of members present. Our Library is an institution which is much appreciated by the patrons throughout the township, as well as by the neighbors in the village. A discussion took place at the meeting on how best to put our Library on a better financial basis. To meet present urgent requirements, a concert is to be held in the near future. We hope the day is not far off when our Library will be recognized by everyone as an educational institution which it really is, and that it may receive recognition in the form of grants from our local authorities. It is now 25 years since it was first organized. Many have enjoyed the privilege of being members during these years, and we would like to see the interest kept up and increased.

GREAT YEARS IN THE NATION'S HISTORY

Interesting things have happened in 1926. Commander Bryd in a Fokker airplane, circled the North Pole. Photographs taken in Europe were transmitted in radio waves to America, and published in newspapers, a few hours later. Gertrude Ederle, daughter of a New York butcher, swam the English Channel one hour faster than any of the five men who had swum it before her.
Is anything interesting going to happen in 1927?

Barely one hundred were present, but the audience thoroughly enjoyed it. Neither the Ladies' Aid or the players, however, received much financial benefit.

While Mr Thos Johnston with a party of friends, was motoring to Durham Sunday, he was unfortunate in coming in contact with a steer on the road, about a mile and one half from the Gravel Road. The force of the impact was so strong that it caught up the steer on the radiator and put such a dent in it, that it refused to hold water. The lights were also knocked out.

YEOVIL

"Snow, rain, go away. Come again some other day," has been the general wish, uttered or expressed, during the past week but the sunshine this morning, even tho' spasmodic, has been encouraging. "Hope springs eternal in the human breast."

Those who attended Fairbairn Anniversary yesterday report good services and are expecting a pleasant time to-night.

We were sorry to hear of the death of our dear old friend Mrs Durrant. CHANGED CONDITIONS

Once upon a time, says the Bruce Herald and Times, Walkerton had no fewer than six cobblers, all fully occupied, but now in that town is only one shop repairing establishments. Would the Herald Times, says the Midland Free Press, kindly make a similar comparison of the former and present number of blacksmith shops, pool rooms, ice cream parlors and hotels? Continuing, the Free Press says, "Conditions have changed. The housewife used to walk to the grocery store; now she telephones. The farmer used to walk as far as three or four miles to the post office; now his mail is delivered at his door. Families walked what are now considered long distances to concerts; now they turn on the radio, and sitting at home, they hear the best there is in entertainment. A young man in the former days, would walk seven or eight miles if he thought the occasion demanded it: now he hates to walk seven or eight rods. This is not a walking age: therefore shoes last longer. The motor car, the telephone, rural mail delivery, the bus, the radio—all these things have led to changed conditions."
