PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

We welcome to Priceville, the new medico, Dr. J. E. Milne, a young man of promise, who by the way was at one time a pupil of Mrs. Alex. Milne, Dromore (nee Eva Renton) while teaching at Louise in Bentinck. This is a good contributing factor of itself.

Mrs. Arch. Darroch, together with her sons, James and Mr. and Mrs. Alex (nee Louisa Ramage), came over from Harrison on a visit to the latter's parents on Monday, where her sister Grace has been under the Dr's care. At time of writing she is considerably improved though still weak from the strain received.

Messrs. Frank Kelly and H. B. McLean motored to Toronto Sunday afternoon on a visit to relatives there and returned Tuesday.

The most important coming event is the anniversary services on the 7th inst., when Rev. Dr. Alex. McGillivray of Toronto, will conduct the services. He will also be at the fowl supper and entertainment on Monday evening, 8th inst. where he will deliver an address. Good musical talent will be present from Durham, and Flesherton. The ladies will also have a bazaar in connection. A pleasant and profitable time is promised and expected. Don't forget the dates.

We feel like adding our quota to the praises of Hon. W. F. Nickle. He is certainly deserving of the title "Honorable" for his manly stand for principle. He is no rubber stamp! We wonder if church members, S. S. teachers and superintendents will vote for this fop to the liquor traffic.

Mrs. Andrew Ford is very low. She has been a long sufferer.

A pleasant time was spent at the Halloween social at the church on Tuesday ev'g, when the usual accompaniments of ghosts, goblins and guessing games, fortunes foretold, etc. A lunch was served at the close.

Farewell Gathering ere Moving to Ceylon

Mr and Mrs Dougald MacPhail and Miss Agnes C., remembered by Neighbors and Friends

A pleasant time was spent Wednesday evening last, at the home of Mr. D. MacPhail, when the neighbors gathered in to spend a few social hours with them, before their departure for their new home in Ceylon. The evening was spent in music and chat, Mr. Donald Stewart acting as chairman. Mrs. Dan Campbell gave an interesting reading, "The Quitting Party." Then Mrs. Alex Carson gave a splendid recitation "It can be done." Our M. P. gave a short sketch of her trip to Boston; Messrs. F. Oliver, Wm. McKenzie and Alex Carson each spoke a few words and wished them all happiness and prosperity in their new home.

On behalf of the gathering, Mrs. Donald Stewart presented them with a beautiful pyrex casserole in a silver stand, with a cut glass top. Mr. MacPhail made a neat reply, thanking them for their kindness. The following address was read by Mrs. Andrew Hincks:

Mr and Mrs D. MacPhail and family, Dear Friends,—
We, your friends and neighbors, have assembled here to-night to spend a few social hours with you before your departure from our immediate midst, to take up residence in the village you are not going far hence, so we will still have the pleasure of neighboring with you in a sense, but we felt we could not let you leave without expressing our appreciation of you. As neighbors and friends you were unsurpassed—a joy to know, ever ready to give a helping hand, sharing your joys and lightening our cares. We treasure that high and noble friendship.

Mr and Mrs MacPhail are widely known and respected, and Agnes has shown her ability and genius in her untiring and painstaking service as our worthy M. P. We may well

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO
From Review file, Oct. 2, 1911

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, Orchard, was the scene of a pleasant wedding last Wednesday, when their daughter Mary, was united in marriage to Mr. George Nelson, Ruttle of Mt. Forest.

The induction of Rev. W. I. McLean into the pastorate of Hanover and Hampden Presbyterian charges, took place on Oct. 26th in Hanover.

The meeting of the Provincial Reform Association met in Toronto last week when the great incident of the meeting was the resignation of Hon. A. G. MacKay as leader of the Liberal party. The vacant position was accepted by Hon. N. W. Rowell.

The Grim Reaper has again been in Dornoch's midst and called to her long rest, Mrs. Robt. Corlett, Sr. The anniversary services of Durham Presbyterian church were held on Sunday last and were made memorable by the presence of the Principal of Knox College, Rev. Prof. Gandler.

Some of the members of the local Rifle Association, gathered together at the ranges here and enjoyed a friendly shoot together. Following is the score at 200 yds with a six inch bulls eye, seven shots each, making a possible of 35 points:—
S. Hughes 25 G. Piers 19
W. Ramage 24 T. Goodwin 19
J. P. Telford 23 Everett 18
E. Glass 21 Wm. Scarf 17
J. White 21 W. Hunter 17
Dr. Hutson 20

HOPEVILLE

Rev. D. J. Storms was in Kingscote Sunday evening conducting special services.

Mr and Mrs Lynn and other members of family, Owen Sound, were early in the week visitors at Mr Sam Crawford's.

The regular monthly meeting of Hopeville W. Institute will be held on Nov. 10th at the home of Mrs. Joseph Black. Program: A Thanksgiving paper by Mrs. John Scott; Piano solo—Miss Sara Black. Roll call—A Thought for Thanksgiving.

The W. M. S. of United congregation are holding their annual special Thanksgiving meeting in the church on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 8th. Mrs. Shaw, Owen Sound, Pres. of Grey, will be present to give an address.

Bethany Church anniversary services will be held Sunday, Nov. 7th, when Rev. Wm. Hay of Toronto will be present. Service will be held on Friday evening previous to Sunday. Special services each night the following week. Good music is being prepared for Sunday services.

Former neighbors regret to learn of the severe illness with typhoid fever of Mr. Oscar Ostrander, Vineland in Sunday, Nov. 21st. Rev. E. C. Marshall, Earls Court, a former pastor of Cedarville congregation, will conduct services in United Church. Communion will also be dispensed at this service.

Mr Wm. Dingwall has visited his brother, Mr. Jas. Dingwall, Cedarville several times lately.

SWINTON PARK

It is still wet and disagreeable outside. After the 1st of Dec. will it also be wet inside? Not if the wish of the people is granted. We apparently have three candidates running for office, tho' Dr. Fortune is not quite certain.

Halloween is by and few tricks were played. The nights are too dark and wet for the fun.

The weiner roast on Saturday was well attended and all enjoyed a good program of songs, readings and recitations by the young people of the neighborhood, also games of different kinds, everyone taking part. Mr. Knox was chairman of the evening.

Delbert Haw got up early one day last week and grabbed his gun, whistled on the dog and after a 10 mile walk landed back home with a dandy fox, all of his own.

Killing fowl and tying in young cattle is keeping all busy on the farms this week as winter is sure upon us. And Thanksgiving next Monday. When we read of those terrible calamities in other countries we have a great deal to be thankful for. But we must all go careful this winter for a calamity has also befallen Ontario in the crop failure and loss, by weather conditions all over the province. There is loss in fruit, roots and grain. Can we make our expenses correspond with our income this year?

Sunday last Mrs. J. H. Richardson was pleased to have a brother and family of Lucknow, but more especially her mother, now a very old lady, and who will remain for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jamieson and Mr. Brown of Elora visited with the Alder's here lately. Also Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kennedy and children of Shelburne.

Thanksgiving services will be held in Swinton Park on Nov. 14th.

Having sold out the delivery business to my son, all accounts for milk, must be settled by the 15th of November, as after that all tickets will be strictly cash.
