PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE Mr Harold Karstedt disposed of eight dogs, some of them fine collies and others Police dogs, to a dealer in Toronto last week. The Misses James had some sheep worried by dogs lately. They were badly lacerated and torn.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG (This Week's Budget) Here we are yet. In last week's Review we were too late in sending in our budget from here, but we hope this week will find both this and last week's put together.

Successful Anniversary at St. Columba Church Sunday and Monday last were red-letter days for Priceville. It was their anniversary, but just what was the first year of St. Columba, the writer does not know, but the series of anniversaries dates away back to the '50's of last century and this one was of no whit less importance than any of its predecessors.

PRICEVILLE Mr Wallace Riddell is home from Luther. Miss Margaret Wallace spent over the holiday with her sister, Mrs Geo. Riddell.

MONDAY EVENING Monday night there was the usual social evening and if anybody went hungry at the basement function it was their own fault, for rarely indeed could be seen such an abundance of excellent viands prepared by the ladies of St. Columba. Rev. Mr McCormack was in the chair at the literary program upstairs and gave a model opening address. The spirit of yesterday that accomplished so much, should not differ from that of to-night, was one of his pregnant remarks. He had a full program before him and happily carried it out.

EDGE HILL Mr John McDonald is spending a week with friends at Priceville. Miss Meta Glencross, who is attending Normal School at Stratford, was home over the holiday.

PRICEVILLE SCHOOL REPORT Form I—Alice Reiley, Anna McEachern, Alice Prodigy, Francis McEachern, Jewel McArthur, Jean McLean, Eleanor McEachern, Jean McLachlan, Murray McMillan, Jack McEachern.

HOPEVILLE Mr Wallace Riddell is home from Luther. Miss Margaret Wallace spent over the holiday with her sister, Mrs Geo. Riddell.
