

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

The meeting held in the interests of Mr Farquhar Oliver on Saturday evening last was large and enthusiastic...

After a song by W. W. Ramage, Miss MacPhail took the platform and took exception to many things said by Dr Jamieson in the afternoon at Markdale...

All honor again to Hon. W. F. Nickle, who broke with his chief on his liquor policy and there are thousands like him...

We are glad to report Miss Grace Ramage is making a favorable recovery.

We were glad to have a visit from a faithful and loyal member of an old time choir...

with her husband called. Glad to know of her fine recovery and promise to call again.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

This heavy fall of snow reminds us that winter is again with us. A number of the faithful went to Markdale on Saturday to the Nominations.

A number of people are complaining with colds and some other ailments. We were pleased to meet Mr and Mrs Duncan McLean and son...

Mrs. Staples is getting along well from the effects of a broken hand some weeks ago. Earl McLeod and Mrs. Hector McEachern are home from the hospital and getting along well.

In our history in last week's Review, we regret that some who served faithfully as elders were omitted. Mr John Nichol Sr. was a faithful elder until his departure...

Cutters have been running, and this Monday, Nov. 22nd, has the appearance of winter. The young doctor Milne is getting along well in Priceville and vicinity.

Our mail man, Albert, will have to take his old horse this morning.

BUNESSAN

A pleasant evening was spent on Friday last, when about 60 people, chiefly neighbors and friends from Bunnissan district, gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs Lawrence McKeown, 4th con., Glenelg...

Following is the address: Dear Mr and Mrs McKeown, We, your neighbors and friends from Bunnissan have gathered here this evening to spend a few hours with you in your new home.

Both of you have practically lived all your life in our community and we wish to show appreciation of your kind neighborly qualities.

Our neighbors' Mr and Mrs C. McArthur, Herbert Hollis John McFarlane.

Voice from the Prairie Warns South Grey Electors

Rev. Wm. McWhinney, pastor of a church at Kamsack, Sask., has written to a relative at Geylon, Ont., a strong Conservative, strongly urging him to vote against Government Control and the Ferguson candidate.

"I have been intending to write for some time to warn you against making the mistake of voting for Dr. Jamieson in the present provincial election. I see by the reports we get that every effort is being made to get the people of Ontario to think that a government control of liquor is a success in the West and in Quebec.

Anyone who says that either does not know or is wilfully telling what is not true. They told us here in Kamsack as they told throughout Saskatchewan and are now telling in Ontario that if we had government control of liquor, it would put an end to bootlegging.

I hear there are Conservative candidates in some Ridings who refuse to support the liquor policy. Such men if they are trustworthy, are all right. But in South Grey there is no chance of that since Dr. Jamieson has been taken into the cabinet and is therefore pledged to support the liquor policy of his own party.

"If I were in Ontario now, I would take the public platform against the Ferguson Gov't and every man who supported it on its liquor policy. I say again, don't make any mistake, but vote and do all you can for the defeat of Dr. Jamieson. I know people will talk of what a fine man he is and how much kindness he has done. That is all very well. But it is no excuse for bringing a curse upon the province.

The wine manufacturers of France and Spain and distillers and brewers of England and Scotland, are going to pour in money and do everything possible to defeat the O.T.A. as it stands. Why are they doing it? Surely not for the cause of temperance, but to fill their pockets with money.

Dear Mr and Mrs McKeown, We, your neighbors and friends from Bunnissan have gathered here this evening to spend a few hours with you in your new home.

"It certainly was great to hear Mother's voice!"

"I telephoned home a few minutes ago, Bill, and it certainly was great to hear mother's voice!"

"You telephoned to Argyl! But it's well over a hundred and fifty miles isn't it?"

"Oh, sure—a hundred and sixty-five to be exact, but it was just as easy to talk as if she was only on the other side of the college grounds."

So satisfactory is Long Distance service that talks between friends separated by hundreds of miles are daily occurrences. The practice is growing.

Have you tried the service? If not, give it a trial today. Surprise the folks at home by a telephone visit.

Shall we sound the retreat?

THE scarred old battle-ground of Ontario is about to witness the supreme temperance conflict of its history. Is booze coming back again?

After twenty years of struggle, twenty years of victories hammered out with blood and tears—are we now to sacrifice the ground we have gained?

In the long, bitter struggle against the liquor-traffic, every trench has been held and consolidated. Now the great bulwark of the Ontario Temperance Act is assailed by all those who would make Ontario "wet" again.

Shall we then sound the retreat? Shall we yield up the ground won in the countless, heart-breaking struggles of men, women and children in bygone days? NEVER.

Let every man and woman, every voter, stand firm in the onslaught and hold up the hands of the Prohibition candidates.

Mrs L. Robertson Tells of Trip to the Holy Land

Addresses I. O. D. E. in High School Landmarks of Biblical Days

Despite poor weather conditions, the High School was the mecca of many interested in the address of Mrs Lorne Robertson of Stratford, Ontario, in relating her experiences and impressions of the Holy Land as she and her husband saw it in their trip of last winter.

In the absence of the Regent, Mrs. Keatney, Mrs. (Dr.) J. P. Grant introduced the speaker in a few well chosen words. At the close of her address, Little Miss Mary Town, on behalf of the local Chapter, presented Mrs. Robertson with a sheaf of "mums, as a little practical appreciation of her willingness to come to Durham and share her trip with others.

A short program was previously rendered and gave variety to the evening, viz: piano solo, Mrs D. C. Town; duet, Mrs Moore McFadden and Miss Alice Ramage; figure dances, Miss Jean Hime the violin solo, Miss Jessie Withnall; solo, Mrs McFadden. Mrs J. H. Harding was accompanist of the evening.

"There is only one Holy Land, and you cannot help but be thrilled," said Mrs. Robertson, in opening her address. The feeling that you are travelling on the highways where travelled our Lord, is predominant, and though in many cases, one is sadly disillusioned, one has but to remember that Jerusalem alone has been destroyed several times and only a wreck of its former self. Since coming under British rule, the country has become more commercialized and even the Turkish Gov't has now banned the wearing of the fez and the veil.

Good roads are a feature of the country, and while the water is doubtless contaminated, it did not prevent Mrs Robertson from sampling it. Between Nazareth and Jerusalem, an extremely fertile country exists and wild flowers of much beauty grow abundantly, such as lily of the valley, rose of Sharon, poppies, wild cyclamen, etc.

However nearing Jerusalem one passes through the wilderness of Judea. This country is called the land of milk and honey, but it is so passing an extent that only goats and bees can live thereon. A large British colony passing through is called "The Milk and Honey Express."

Of Jerusalem, Mrs Robertson had much to say and of the grand view of the city which can be obtained from the Mount of Olivet. Upon the top of this mountain is a large British cemetery which the Prince of Wales will dedicate next spring. The slides were all bearing on scenes and events during the sojourn of Christ upon earth and while nothing authentic can be said, yet it is pleasant to think tradition has handed down to us the stories and tales of a past age.

Little Girls' Game Causes Heartache To Lonely Mother

Two little girls sit at a window playing a game. They make believe that every woman they see coming up the street is mamma coming home to them. They shut their eyes until she gets almost to the door and then open them hoping it is really the one they long to see. They firmly believe that some day their wonderful dreams will come true. Mother knows of this game, and she is doing her best to make it come out right, but just at present she is having too small a struggle to stay on this earth at all.

Her slides included views of the Garden of Gethsemane, Via Dolorosa, Jews wall of wailing, Jaffa Gate, where General Allenby received the keys of Jerusalem from the Mayor at the time of his triumphal entry; Mosque of Omar, where Abraham is supposed to have offered up Isaac as a sacrifice. While the latter is not authentic, it is a certain fact that it is the site of Solomon's temple.

There were many more points that might be enlarged upon, but space forbids. Suffice to say that every hill and valley teems with historical spots dating from the time of our evening, viz: piano solo, Mrs D. C. Town; duet, Mrs Moore McFadden and Miss Alice Ramage; figure dances, Miss Jean Hime the violin solo, Miss Jessie Withnall; solo, Mrs McFadden. Mrs J. H. Harding was accompanist of the evening.

The address from first to last was most informative and interestingly told and the hearty vote of thanks the speaker received, was the best expression of the opinion of the audience as to the merit of the talk.

At the close the officers of the Chapter and those assisting in the program, were kindly entertained at the home of Mrs J. H. Harding, when a social time was "on", followed by light refreshments.
