A minister visited a sick and apparently dying highlander ,named Donald, The good man said to comfort him "You are pretty sick Donald. But there in the home above there is no sickness and a grand feast is prepared for all who wish to partake.' "Very good' said Donald, "but will they have the bottle there ?" "No, no," said the good "Tut, tut," said Donald," always liked to see a bottle at each end of a feast table." Poor Donald thought his old habits would be continued at the feast referred to. This is a true story told us by the late Rev. Chas. Cameron, once of Price-

ville and Rocky Saugeen.

SWINTON PARK

We of the Park extend best wishes for a joyous Christmas and a bright happy New Year to all readers of Review, ye Editor and family, Pleasant events are happening all over our land at present, so many concerts and Christmas Trees. Monday evening last was the big night in the church here, when the S S. gave a splendid concert. The program was prepared by Miss Christie of Boothviile school and Miss McIntyre of S. Park. Almost all of the pupils of both schools belong to the Presbyterian S. S. and those of other churches just as actively and cheerfully gave of their best. Each school had an entertainment last week and for the Christmas Tree they gave of their best in both programs. Everything was well arranged and there was no waiting.
