NEW HEAD FOR FARMERS' SUN

R. W. E. Burnaby, President of the Farmers' Publishing Co., has resigned from the Presidency and the Board. The Farmers' Sun Publishing Co. publishes the Farmers' Sun, and which at one time was the Weekly Sun, the personal journal of Goldwin Smith, but which is now the organ of the United Farmers of Ontario.

WORK AND LEISURE

The lazy man's view of the proper relation between work and leisure is shown in this ingenious table: Each year has 365 days. If you sleep eight hours a day, it equals 122 days.

LATONA

Mrs R. H. Ledingham of Welbeck, spent a few days in Durham with Mrs. Twamley.

A few from here attended the party at Mr A. Crutchley's on Friday night, under the auspices of the 'Rocky Live Wires' and report an enjoyable time.

We are pleased to state that Mrs Simpson, who is in her 97th year, is keeping quite well, considering her advanced years.

Mrs. Ernest Greenwood and Master Ralph, Edge Hill, are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs Chas Mortley.

We hope that Durham Hockey team will have the best of success in their games Wednesday and Friday nights.

Our teacher, Mr Campbell McLean must be congratulated on his success in securing a number of up-to-date books for the school library, from the proceeds of the box social.

Mr Bob Mortley went to Mt. Forest Monday morning to oversee the overhauling of his engine which is being done by Ernest Bros.

EBENEZER

The many friends of Mrs Benj. Coultts, Vickers, are glad to see her able to be out again after her lengthy illness.

Mr and Mrs Jos. Brown and family, Vickers, and Mr and Mrs Geo. Turnbull spent the first of the week with Mr and Mrs Ben Coultts.

NOTICE

Any person giving information that will lead to the recovery of a concrete wheelbarrow, taken from the Presbyterian Church last fall, will be suitably rewarded.

CRAWFORD

(Arrived too late for last week. Reeve McDonald, Crawford, is attending the sessions of Grey Co. Council this week.

Mr. Wm. and Miss Ethel Henderson, visited over Sunday with their sister at the home of Mr Tom Scales near Hanover.

Mrs Edgar Boyce and son, are spending a week in Brant.

The C.Y.P.S. held their regular meeting on Thursday, Jan. 20th. A large attendance was present to listen to a well arranged literary and musical program. Mrs Wilfrid Wright read a very interesting paper on 'Journalism in Canada' and Mrs G. Hastie's topic was 'Canadian writers and poets.' This paper touched on the lives and some of the works of each one. It was both interesting and instructive.

Master Gordon Krauter favored the audience with a poem written by one of our Canadian poets. Mr Willard Krauter gave a paper describing some phases of education and work carried on in universities and colleges of India. This was the concluding number of the literary part of the program.

A solo entitled 'Only a Smile' rendered by Miss Elsie Boyce and a duet by Mrs A. Hastie and Miss B. Boyce were listened to with pleasure. A most helpful and educational contest was enjoyed by all at the close of the evening's program.

(This week's Budget Mrs Thos. Stinson was called on Sunday to attend her daughter, Mrs Geo. Brown of Glenelg. Mrs Brown, who has been suffering from an attack of the grip, has suffered also from further complications.

Miss Laura Kaufman has returned home after spending a month at the home of her brother Louis in Sullivan. Miss Elsie Boyce is enjoying a couple of weeks with Durham friends.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Miss Eliza Green who lived at Louise a number of years ago. She was well and favorably known by all Crawford people, having been a regular attendant at service in the local church. She suffered a paralytic stroke last week at the home of Mr. John Boyd in Owen Sound. She is survived by five brothers and one sister, who is Mrs W. A. McCallum, wife of the M.P.P. for S. Bruce. The remains were taken to Chesley on Tuesday for interment.

A splendid missionary program is being prepared by the younger members of the C.Y.P.S. for the meeting this Thursday evening, Feb. 3rd. It is being directed by Mrs Alex. Mc-Donald with Miss R. Blyth assisting in the training of those of school age. Missionary dialogues, hymns and recitations will be the chief features of the program.

HAMPDEN

Mr John A. Derby has gone to Niagara on the Lake and Toronto, for a few weeks' visit with relatives. Mr F. Selbert was the guest of Mr and Mrs Wm. Henderson and family at the beginning of the week.

Mr and Mrs Alex. McLean entertained Mr and Mrs Hugh Fulton and Isabelle, also Mr F. Selbert last Friday evening.

The young people are making preparations for the 7 school Tuesday evening, at No. 7 school house, when the Rocky young people come over to debate.

dilemmas Day as that is the day which foretells a short winter or a long one. We wonder if old Bruin will see his shadow Surely not in Grey Co. anyway.

January did its best to finish up with another thaw but a cold wave gave it a chill and Sunday found us picking our steps while Monday reminded us of the old proverb 'Pride goeth before a fall' and maybe some of us did have a tumble. It was very icy. The young people would be apt to say 'good skating'.

Dr. Easton of Ayton, was out this week the beginning of the week looking over whooping cough patients.

She was peevish and called him Mr. Not because he went and Kr. But the thing that made her sore was, that on the night before This same Mr. Kr. Sr.
