Prof. Kyle of Mt. Forest, was the guest of Mr and Mrs Colin McLean, S. Line, Sunday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Willing Helpers was held in the Hall last Friday, when a large number were present.

Mr and Mrs Neil McLeod of S. Park, visited the first of the week at Mr. Andrew Hincks.

Miss Eva Carson was the guest of her friend, Miss Emma McLean over the week end.

Miss Catharine McMillan is spending a few days in Toronto. Mr Glen of Knox College, Toronto, occupied the pulpit in the Hall on Sunday and preached an instructive sermon to a large audience.

Mr Sandy McLeod is visiting his daughter, Mrs Neil Cameron, 4th Line. The masquerade St. Patrick's social on Wednesday evening was of a classical nature, when there were all kinds of pretty costumes. A splendid program was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs Wm Aldeorn and Miss Marjorie McLean won the prize for the best dressed pair, "The farmer and his wife." Miss Elizabeth McCuaig received the prize for the best dressed lady and Mr And. Hincks for the best dressed gentleman. A fee of 10c was taken at the door. The proceeds were $10. After refreshments were served, the evening was brought to a close.

A most successful and enjoyable St. Patrick's Social was held in the United Church on Thursday, the 17th of Ireland. The meeting was opened by a fine recital of St. Patrick by Mrs. S. G. McCormack, who also with fine tact and ability kept the meeting going unflaggingly to the end, a good manager. The first was a chorus by a large group of singers, "Come back to Erin." Miss Grace Ramage in an instrumental solo on the piano, encored, gave an Irish jig. Mrs H. B. McLean in fine voice, contributed "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," encored, repeated on request the last verse in beautiful pathos.

At this point a Canadian touch was given by all singing a couple of verses of the "Maple Leaf." W. W. Ramage sang "Rory O'Moore," followed by an encore. Another chorus "Believe me if all those endearing young charms" closed the entertainment. Mrs Fred Karstedt accompanying on the piano throughout. The audience were later divided into six different groups, recognized by distinguishing badges and popular Irish games and required to act collectively a scene in a photograph gallery. Many were the comical stunts presented. One of each group or collected. One of each group, kiss the blarney stone, draw a pig, both blindfolded and tell an Irish story. Points were allowed for all the events by the judges, viz: Mr George Pallister of Dundalk and Fred Karstedt. There was a first, second and third prize. A duet was sung by Mr Reggie and Miss Grace Ramage, "Life's Dream is O'er" A sumptuous lunch was served at the close and the National Anthem sung, near the midnight hour of midnight. A splendid, lively, sociable and friendly time was voiced by young and old. Mr.

Pallister voiced his pleasure at being present and commented upon the fine feeling and good will prevailing. He is at present installing electric lights in the home of W. G. Watson.

Quite a number from here attended Mr Joe Hall's sale last Friday. The March meeting of Zion Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs R. T. Edwards when 21 ladies were present. Papers were given by Mrs. Will Timmins on "Gardening" and Miss Mina Edwards on "St. Patrick" which were both enjoyed. A recitation by Miss Lily Black and a solo by Mrs Walter Clark were musical numbers and the roll call was answered by humorous stories. At the close, a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Edwards.

The St. Patrick Social held at Zion last Thursday evening under the auspices of the Women's Institute, was a splendid success, the main feature of the evening being the debate between Edge Hill and Zion: "Resolved it is in the interest of the rural community to establish consolidated schools, to take the place of district sectional schools."

The affirmative was taken by Miss Reta Barber and Mr Chas. Robson, while the negative side was upheld by Messrs Cecil Moffat and Howard Ritchie. The judges, Messrs Hector McDonald, W. R. Jack and Miss Mina Edwards, decided in favor of the affirmative by only a few points.

The remainder of the program consisted of two short plays, solos by Mrs J. O. Greenwood and Miss Elsie Mays; recitation, Clara Jack; quartette by Messrs Oren Pearl, Charlie Robson, Misses Mary Gencross and Margaret Greenwood and music by the Staples family, Edge Hill orchestra. Messrs Jim Peart, Bryson Morlock and Mrs A. McNally and a contest. Lunch was served at the close of the program.

SWINTON PARK

The snow has quietly slipped across the line again bringing a little cold weather. Is this a sign of the following three months? However the sleighing this morning is fine and is being made use of this morning by most people doing the odd chores in preparation for Spring. A number are out with stock and bringing home feed, which has been the great drawback this year. Considerable fertilizer is coming in, which with good cultivation will certainly help the crops this year. The incubators are all being put to work to speed up production. The old hen is out of date in these stirring times. Coops will next be in use.

Coups also are being looked over these days and the chicks which will enjoy riding in them is also under consideration.

About the 1st of May this Province is expected to begin drinking itself rich, which is a problem that will puzzle the deepest thinkers. Unto Mr Raney is due great credit for the consideration most subjects are receiving in the Legislature, as he is only offering criticism tho' his views are seldom accepted. Yet it serves to show up the other side of the question.

Miss Margaret Knox who has spent the last month taking care of her mother here, is this week returning to her position in the city. Mrs. Knox is now better and able to be around again.

Miss Nellie Haw has spent the past two weeks at her home in the Park and returned to her aunt's in Hopeville this week.

The St. Patrick's concert owing to the break up of the roads and other conditions, was called off last week. It will take place Friday night of this week when a good program is promised. The concert will be held in the Orange Hall. All Irish are especially invited.

HOPEVILLE

Miss Doreen Scott returned to her position in Toronto on Saturday, her mother, Mrs Jas Scott being greatly improved in health.

Miss Mary Wale has been spending a while at the home of her uncle Robt. Wale who is now on the way to recovery from his severe illness.

The sewing class under their new supervisor, Miss Marie Wolsey, did not meet last Saturday on account of poor roads.

Mr and Mrs Robert, Caulfield, Woodland, visited recently at J. Sinclair's. Miss Jean Donald is assisting Mrs. Mrs Thos. Walton who is gaining strength since her long sickness.

Mr Clarence Ferguson, a student of Victoria College, Toronto was the guest of his aunt, Mrs Wm Werry, while supplying the pulpit in the United Church and at Cedarville.

Mr Jake Schmidt was home from Port Loring for a short holiday and intends returning with other members of the family.

Mrs Wm. Scott, Sr. has been in failing health all winter from a weak heart.

Mrs Vanstone, Toronto, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs Paxman. Mr and Mrs Jno. Bittorf are now settled in the village, but sorry to hear are not in good health.

Mr and Mrs W. F. McLean were recent visitors at Mr Wm McEachern's.

A number have tapped but so far not much syrup has been made. Quite a number have been indisposed with bad colds lately. The weather this winter has been what we would call ideal, still poor, frail mankind suffers with various aches and pains.

Pricevilleites in Toronto Remember a Worker

A number of the members of the "Priceville Re-union" met at the home of Mr and Mrs Donald MacDonald, 157 Snowden Ave, Toronto, Tuesday, March 15th, to show their appreciation in a small way for the kindly manner in which Mr MacDonald contributed to the success of the annual Priceville picnic held in High Park.

The majority of the Priceville people are of Highland Scotch extraction and nothing stirs their Scotch blood like the sweet strains of the bag pipes and the highland dances. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, music and dancing, also a social cup of tea and dainty luncheon provided by the ladies.

Mr and Mrs MacDonald were then asked to come forward, when Mrs. McPherson read the following address and Mrs Walker presented Mr. MacDonald with a set of white gold initialed cuff links and Mrs MacDonald with a bouquet of roses and spring flowers.

The taken completely by surprise, Mr. MacDonald made a nice reply, saying it was always a pleasure for him to attend the Priceville picnic, and was looking forward to the next one, and would be delighted to do his share in making it the success which it had always been.

The address: Mr and Mrs Donald MacDonald Dear Friends:—

We, your friends gathered to-night in your cosy little home desire to express our sincere thanks to you for your splendid assistance in making the picnic which we have been holding in High Park of recent years

The fact that you are not a native of that little hamlet, but rather of that famous land overseas, "Scotland." (The Highlands — God bless them)—has made us all the more anxious to show our appreciation of your kindness in bringing along to our picnics your "skirling pipes" and playing on them the tunes Adam used to play to Eve when in the Garden of Eden.

We have never had a real opportunity of expressing our thanks to you, but to-night we are trying to show this in a small way and would ask you to accept this gift as a token of our friendship and thanks.

We wish you and yours always the best things in life. "Your Priceville friends in Toronto" Toronto, 15th March, 1927
