5000 Facts About Canada

Canada's jubilee year celebrating the sixty years of Confederation, is fittingly emphasized in the 1927 issue issue of "5000 Facts About Canada." It is the famous tabloid cyclopaedia of the Dominion, compiled by Frank Yeigh, the well known Canadian publicist, lecturer and author. It is a tonic to read of our remarkable national progress as tersely set forth in this unique booklet, under 50 chapters from "Agriculture" to "Yukon' The contents are more varied than ever, and will prove a revelation to At a largely attended meeting of the reader. No better way of making known our resources, wealth and prospects exists than this publication and it should have a wide circulation this year. The Government could well afford to use it widely in this and other countries Copies may be had from leading bookstores, or by sending 35c to Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 588 Huron St., Toronto 2,
