HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Rev. C. A. Jay was in Meaford one day last week attending a meeting of Grey Presbytery.

Mr and Mrs Rife visited friends in Heppeler recently.

Mr and Mrs Fenton visited friends in Conn the first of the week.

Miss Blair, Orchard, spent the week end with her friend, Eunie Tyndall.

Miss Floyd spent the week end in Durham with Miss Patterson and took in the opening services in the Presbyterian Church.

The following officers for Holstein Softball team were appointed at a meeting held in Robert's Hall Tuesday evening of this week: Honorary President, George Fenton; Pres., W. B. Rife; Vice Pres., Dr McLellan; Sec'y Treas., C. Lucas; Manager, H. McCauley; Captain, C. Lucas; mascot, Billy Arnill. The Manager and C. Fenton were appointed to see about getting a place in either of both Mt Forest and Durham leagues.

The Community Circle met in the basement of the United Church on Monday evening. Mr Ewart Allis resigned his position as President as he will be busily engaged this summer during building operations and would not be able to do justice to the position. The Vice Pres., Mr Earl Hunt, was then appointed President, and Arch. Walls Vice Pres. The scripture reading was given by Miss E. Gibson and an interesting talk on "Pauline Johnston" was given by Miss McKechnie. After an hour spent in community singing and games the meeting was closed by the National Anthem.

FIRE THREATENED THE VILLAGE
The peaceful slumbers of the inhabitants of the village of Holstein, were rudely disturbed by the fire bell early Friday morning, rung by Mr. Clarence Fenton.

The fire started in Mrs E. Hoy's barn. With the combined efforts of Mr Jas Todd, Mr Brebner and Mrs. Geo. Burrows, the village and community were soon on the scene and formed a bucket brigade. Men, women and children all worked and the fire was not allowed to spread.

The buildings destroyed were Mrs Hoy's and Mr Gibson's stables, Mr. Abbs and Mr Woodyard lost their cars and Mr Abbs' truck had a very narrow escape. The losers have the sympathy of the community as Mrs. Hoy was the only one who had any insurance and that very little.

The chemical fire engine worked real well when loaded after the fire was put out by the bucket brigade.

FOX HOUND LOST: Mostly white, with tanned coat, one black spot on body. Anyone knowing of its whereabouts, please notify owner. Selfried, R. R. 2, Holstein

NORTH EGREMONT

A few of our farmers intend to finish seeding this week. We expect to sometime during 1927.

Mr and Mrs Reuben Watson are back on the farm again and busy at the seeding.

After spending the past couple of weeks at Mr. John Legate's, Mr. A. Osborne returned home to Hamilton the first of the week.

Miss Esther McLean of the Rocky, who taught two years at S.S. No. 13, visited at J. M. Allan's the first of the week.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Jack Pearson on the arrival of a bouncing baby boy on May 1st.

A number from this vicinity attended the opening services of the Presbyterian Church in Durham on Sunday last.

Misses Irene Hooper and May Andrews, who spent the winter in Toronto, will return home this Saturday.

Mr and Mrs Martin Wilson, Swinton Park, spent Sunday at W. A. Lawrence's.

W. R. Watson is busy at the seeding on his farm on the town line.

News is scarce Mr. Editor since you shut us off last week. I was just getting nicely started. You no doubt know we are sold for 'Aggie' in N. Egremont.

YEOVIL

Born in Durham Hospital, on April 28th, to Mr and Mrs Alex Nicholson, a daughter.

Mr and Miss Snell, Dromore, were guests at A. Haas', the beginning of the week.

Mr and Mrs Geo. Rawn and children of Woodland, Mr and Mrs Everett Rawn and baby Fred of South End, Mr and Mrs John Conway and sons of Arthur, recently visited at W. Sim's.

Mr and Mrs A. Wagner, Cedarville were recent visitors at her sister's, Mrs J. Nicholson.

Lillian Florence and Mary Reid spent some enjoyable play days last week in the home of their uncle, Will Reid.

We are glad to hear Mrs Watson is feeling better and hope Miss Ruby will soon be quite strong again.

Miss Myrta Alles returned to school this week after several month's absence.

Medames Rogers and Sim are in O. today attending the W.M.S. Presbyterial as delegates from Holstein United Church.

Mr Maxwell, Owen Sound, agent for the Daly tea company, has been making his annual call.

The grain and vegetable seeds for the school fair arrived safely, and were distributed, but they are still waiting for the eggs and potatoes.

Our teachers are being visited and flattered these days by life insurance agents—but so far of no avail.

RYLTH'S CORNERS

The fine rain this Tuesday was a great boon to the country and heartily welcomed.

Miss Florence Melville spent the week end over in Toronto and Agincourt.

Hoedlin of Mt. Forest, visited her daughter, Mrs D. Melville on Monday last and combined pleasure with business in making the yearly supply of home made soap at which she is an expert. "Granny comes handy."

We have a last year's pullet which makes a specialty of laying double-yoked eggs. On Saturday last one was collected which weighed seven ounces. Judging by the amount of cracking she makes about her work, we think she belongs to the Liberal Conservative breed.

A few of our farmers are through seeding while others are nearly there—nigh unto a month earlier than last year.

Mr Henry Damm is among the lucky ones on the line to hold on to his cattle, over 40 head of prime beefers. Small wonder Henry can sport a brow Ford sedan and carry his hat on three hairs.

We read with considerable pleasure the fine write-up of the annual meeting of Knox United Church, its financial showing and encouraging activity generally. The motion to support a missionary out and out, was a worthy one and quite in keeping with the object of the United Church of Canada, "The World for Christ."

WILSON'S CORNERS

Mr and Mrs Wm Nelson with Mrs Wm Aberdeen and daughter, returned to Guelph Sunday, returning the same day, accompanied by Mr. A. Aberdeen who had gone the day previous on business.

Miss Katie Davis went to Owen Sound Saturday last where she is engaged for a few months with her aunt, Mrs Ed. Lee.

Mr Metcalfe and friend, Hanover, spent Sunday with the latter's sister Mrs R. Mighton.

Mrs Ben Woods, Jr. has been under the Dr's care the past two weeks but at present is improving.

Mrs J. C. Queen and son Carman, visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs Robt. Lewis.

The U.F.O. meeting will be held Friday at the home of Mr and Mrs. W. J. Allan where an interesting program will be rendered, arranged by members of the Irish, English and Scotch nationality.

Mr and Mrs Jas. Eden called the first of the week at Calderwood at the home of Mr Jasper Smith.

Mrs Cecil Eccles with twin babies is spending a few days with her sister in town, Mrs Geo. Gliddon, before the latter's departure for Toronto, where they have decided to locate.

Rev. J. H. Whealen, pastor of St. Paul's Church for the past four years, has decided to make a change and will leave Durham for his next station, Courtwright, about the 1st of June. Sorry to lose Mr and Mrs. Whealen from our midst.

Death of Harry Caldwell
From the Dauphin Herald of last week, we extract the sympathetic account of Mr. Caldwell's record as a citizen and of his sudden death: "With bewildering suddenness death took our midst on Tuesday one of Dauphin's most familiar figures in the person of Henry F. Caldwell. Mr Caldwell had not been in robust health for some time, but was well enough to go about his regular business as late as Monday and his death was entirely unexpected. During Monday night, he suffered an attack of sickness but not sufficiently serious to cause alarm. He passed away alone, between 9 and 10 a.m. on Tuesday, while resting in bed, giving no sign to members of the family.

Henry Fleming Caldwell was born at Orchard, Ont. in 1857 and spent the first 43 years of his life there. He was married at Orchard and the family of six children were born at the same place. For some years he kept the Post Office and also engaged in many phases of agricultural life in that district.

In the year 1900, Mr Caldwell with his wife and family came to Manitowish and settled in Dauphin, he entering into the general store business with Mr A. Rzenoski as partner and engaged as before in many branches of farming. In public life Mr Caldwell had a record not attained by many men. He served on the town council for 5 years as councillor and three as mayor of the town, the latter term for the years 1911-12-13. He was also identified with the Bd. of trade in the earlier days of the town's history. His most outstanding activity resulted from his connection with the Dauphin Agricultural Society of which he was President for several years and of which he was Vice Pres. at the time of his death. He gave freely of his time and labor in furthering the objects of the society and his advice on all agricultural matters was freely asked for and given. In religion he was a Methodist and a member of Grace Church. He belonged to the I.O.O.F. a member of Dauphin lodge No. 36. Mr Caldwell will long live in many minds for his quiet, pleasing personality, his interest in local affairs and his understanding sympathy with the many problems of life.

WIN THIS GILSON FURNACE FREE
INSTALLED IN YOUR HOME

Here is a marvellous opportunity to win a Gilson Magic Furnace, installed in your home, absolutely free. Nothing to buy, no money to pay, no entrance fee. This is a test of your knowledge of the English language. How many words do you know? To make Gilson Furnaces better known, we are offering twenty valuable prizes (see list) to the persons who send in the largest number of words composed from the letters which are in the three words—

GILSON MAGIC FURNACE

Several words suggest themselves at once—for instance, son, ace, face, again, etc. Some person or family is going to win a Gilson Magic Furnace, value up to $300.00, installed complete in their home, including a ton of coal, rotary type ash sifter and coal shovel—everything you need to heat your home. Nineteen others are going to win valuable prizes. Your chances are as good as any person's. All you need is a little patience and a good dictionary. If you haven't one at home, borrow from your neighbour.

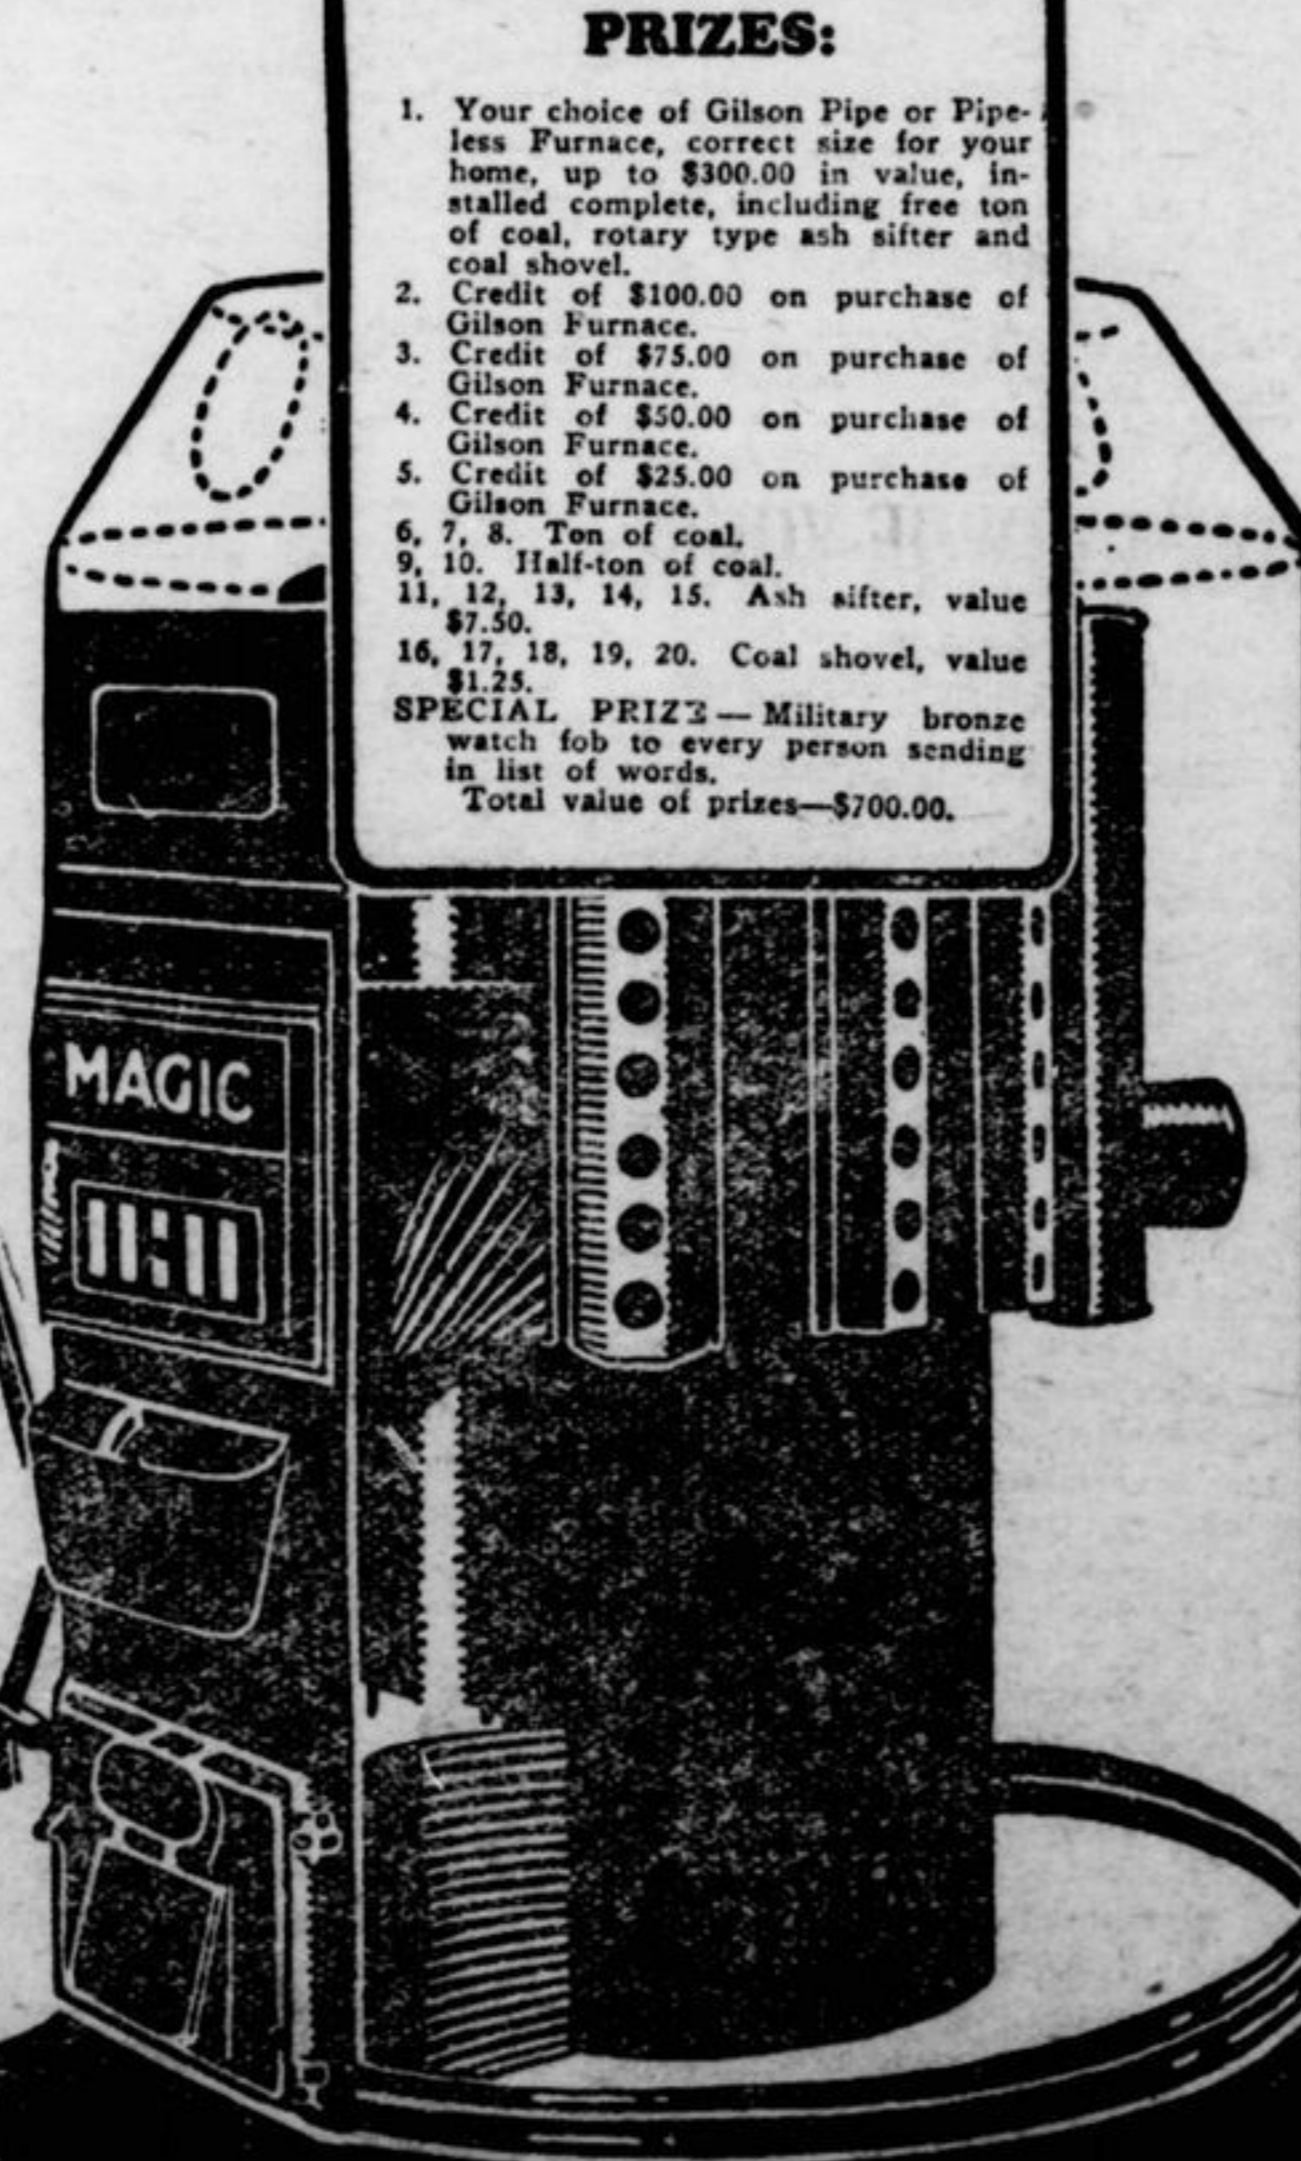

Follow these simple rules: (1) Send for entry blank. (2) Write plainly. (3) Only the letters which appear in these three words may be used; if a letter appears twice, it may be used twice in one word. (4) Contest is open to every person in Canada. (5) Contest closes June 30th and entries postmarked after that date will not be accepted. (6) Our employees or agents may not enter. (7) Three competent judges not connected with this company will award the prizes.

Extra Special Prize! We will send absolutely free a handsome military bronze watch fob to every person securing entry blank and sending in a list of words.

PRIZES:

- Your choice of Gilson Pipe or Pipeless Furnace, suitable for your home, up to $300.00 in value, installed complete, including free ton of coal, rotary type ash sifter and coal shovel.
