The charge is based on the alleged payment by Mr. McCallum and Ernest Tolton of Walkerton, of $1,250 to J.G. Anderson of Lucknow, Liberal nominee for South Bruce, of his election expenses up to that time as inducement, it is stated, to retire and avoid a three-cornered contest. At the sessions of Hamilton Conference last week, several changes have been made in the placing of clerics known to Durham and district. In the ruling, Rev. J. E. Peters is scheduled for Belmore; Rev. J. Ward, formerly of Verney, to Teworth; Rev. J. W. Crawford, to Bethel and Melville; Drew, Rev. J. W. Bean; Kenilworth, Rev. C. G. Cole, formerly of Durham.

DIAMOND JUBILEE OF EDITOR IN CANADA

The celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of the Dominion on July 1st next, is casting a big shadow before the event, and while we intend giving generous notice to the notable event, our readers will excuse us if we dilate a little on our own experience.

Sixty years ago to-day, June 1st, we set off from Glasgow to cross the Atlantic ocean, our objective being Canada. We crossed it in fourteen days and after some delays en route, reached Egremont, then in "Canada West" on 22nd of month, and found but a mild enthusiasm existing over the proposed change of name it was to undergo on July 1st, in 5 days more.

Of course we did not think they were changing it in our honor. But all the same, our landing and the big date being synchronous the difference between THEN and NOW is forcibly impressed upon us.

Then in Egremont, on the "new survey" every field showed the stumps of the departed forest, now 60 years after, a stumpy field is rarely seen. Horses were few and the plowing between the stumps with a "Highland Mary" plow was chiefly done by oxen, the driver of which after a kick or two from stone or roots was tempted to, and often did use profanity.

Now, with tractors and fancy plows it is hard for modern boys to visualize old times.

Those days however, could show fields of Spring wheat of such luxuriance that every stump was hidden; now with changing climate or some other cause, Spring wheat is not responsive. Then, in many cases a tree was an enemy to be got rid of, and any one talking of reforestation would have few listeners. Winter's work at that time, in addition to feeding stock and cutting down brush was not seldom "splitting rails" out of big cedars to make the "snake" fences that one yet sees occasionally. Transportation was by wagon, or "shankers nag." A buggy was a rarity, they are getting so to-day but for a different reason. Then the cost had to be considered, and roads were rough for the tender thing. Now—hang the cost—the buggy is put in cold storage and a motor car is secured. The days of the buggy, the light wagon, the democrat are numbered.

Rivers were crossed by log bridges and swampy ground on the way was made possible and passable by "corduroy roads" made of logs laid side by side, and before covering a trip over them with a spring-less wagon, "bumpy-bump," was an experience, unknown in these days of motor traffic.

But enough of this at present. With all that we moderns call disadvantages in the olden days, there were happy days and happy nights even then, with an absence of the hurry and sometimes the worry that modern conditions entail.

Ont. Liquor Stores Now Open

Have you got your Permit?

June 1st saw the opening of the liquor stores which are part of the fundamental scheme in the operation of the new Government Control Act. We think Guelph and Kitchener are the nearest points where stores are opened in the meantime, but there may be others later.

D. B. Hanna, Chairman of the Liquor Control Board, has stressed the importance of vendors watching for fake tourists. An applicant for a tourist permit must tell where he came from, what hotel he is registered at, the number of his room and other details. "He can't simply step off the ferry or the train and get a permit." If visitors play tricks in this regard an example is to be made of the offender.

The restraints and safeguards being thrown around the method of liquor distribution gives one the idea that when wild thing is to be liberated, and every precaution taken that it works no harm! The purchase of the stuff can be made only from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. but that will not hamper evening carousals of parties so inclined.

There can be no doubt that the greater freedom of liquor distribution is causing much concern in the minds of many citizens.

Meanwhile the O.T.A. is superseded, is off the Statute books, and the so-called advanced temperance legislation in full swing.

SIR JOHN WILLISON DEAD

The death took place last week of this widely known journalist and public man. In public and private life, he was highly esteemed and his accomplishments were of such an uplifting nature that his removal is a national loss. He was honored by royalty and all ranks and conditions of men have paid tribute to his worth.

Since his death and at last mortuary services, abundant tributes to his worth, his fine personal qualities and to his distinguished public services have been paid. The coffin bearers were Sir Robert Falconer, Sir Joseph Flavelle, Sir Wm Hearst,

Sir Edward Kemp, Premier Ferguson and Mr C. B. Robertson. Lord and Lady Willington, Premier King, the Senate of Canada in the person of Hon. Geo. P. Graham, all sent condolences. Even the London Times, for which he was long correspondent sent tribute, and notables in all ranks sent floral testimony. A great man has passed.

So far the Ontario public has been tardy in buying government of Ontario permits to purchase intoxicants. Perhaps the cause is to be found in the fact that so far the government shops have not been opened, but doubtless some are moved by the knowledge that they are called upon to pay $2 for a permit to last till October, whereas from the first of the month the rate will be $2 for 12 months. In any case, if such liquor is not purchased from the government shops it will not be because of a lack of officials. There is not only the high paid Commission, but a Controller, manager, private secretary to Mr Hanna, a purchasing agent, a large office staff and abundance of salesmen in the depots throughout the country. It is not likely that a liquor shop will be established in Flesherston, but anyone here or elsewhere throughout the Province can get a permit to buy, and if a visiting motorist sets his tent in a motor rest, it is regarded by the law as his home and he can consume intoxicants under his permit within its flapping door.—Flesherston Advance.

Aged Sullivan Pioneer Passes

There passed away Friday, May 20 one of Sullivan's oldest pioneers in the person of Wm. Lister, in his 83th year. Mr Lister was born in the village of Darlington, Eng., on Jan. 12, 1843. His grandfather established an iron and brass foundry there. He repaired engines that ran from Stockton to Darlington, a distance of 13 miles. That was the first railway that was ever in England. Later this engine was placed on a pedestal in Darlington. Mr Lister possessed a picture of this foundry and his birthplace. Another souvenir of England which Mr Lister prized was a silver gilt which was presented to his grandfather. The following inscription is written on the gilt: "Presented to Wm Lister, as a token of respect by Thomas Raynor, of Middlesboro', May 2nd, 1820."

At the age of 14 years, this pioneer crossed the Atlantic Ocean with his parents, two brothers and a sister. This journey took 17 days. They settled on a bush farm on the 4th con. of Sullivan. They cleared their farm little by little until it is now nearly all clear land. It is 70 years since Lister settled on this farm and it has been under the same name since.

When this pioneer was 17 years old he walked to Guelph and back. He then went to the Bruce Mines, worked during the winter in the copper mines and then returned home. There was no way of getting to O. Sound from the mines only by walking.

At the age of twenty eight, Mr. Lister was married to Catharine Sweeney of Louise. They settled on the base line of Bentinck. They were married only 13 years when Mrs. Lister died, leaving eight small children. Four of the children died in childhood.

This pioneer has been late and hearty until about two months ago, when he took pneumonia. However he improved somewhat but took a relapse about a week ago.

It was his wish that six of his old neighbors act as pall bearers and the following were chosen: Messrs Wm. Hodgson, Jas Walsh, Robt. J. Corlett, John Mills, Patrick O'Neil and Wm. O'Mara.

Despite the inclemency of the weather the large number which attended the funeral, testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The funeral took place Monday to St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church of which Mr Lister was a regular attendant when in good health. Rev.

Father McNulty sang requiem mass, and Rev. Father N. Roach preached the sermon.
Deceased leaves to mourn his loss one son and three daughters, viz: Mrs Patrick Sullivan (Julia) and Mrs Stephen Martin (Eliza) both of Irish Lake, near Markdale; Mrs James Sullivan of Dornoch and Jas on the farm, near Dornoch. His only sister (Mary Jane) Mrs Vasey, is still hale and hearty. She is the only member of the family now living. Eighteen grandchildren also survive.

PRICEVILLE

Today's sunshine is very welcome after the long spell of wet weather. Mrs Cameron Smellie spent a few days last week in the Queen's Hotel, Misses Catharine McKillop and Jean McLean spent the week with friends on the South Line.

Dromore played the return game on Friday night at Mr. Currie's. The score was 7-3 in favor of O. D. R. This is a start for the first of the season. Sorry to report Miss Mary McLean is in very poor health. Miss Bertha Hincks was hostess of her friend, Miss Alma Hood, Sunday.

Mr Griffin conducted service at Priceville and Swinton Park on Sunday after being quarantined with the measles for two weeks and will be able to attend school again this week.

The 24th passed off very quietly in this burg on account of the very rain.
Messrs Ray McLean and Patterson were in Detroit last week bringing home a new Essex for Edgar.

Miss Christine McKinnon visited Sunday at Wm. Alderson's. Mrs Murchison called at Mr Ferris, Swinton Park. Mrs. died on Friday and the funeral was held Tuesday.

This Saturday night, Priceville Duneson will play a game of the school grounds at Priceville. Miss Kathleen McPhail visited Sunday with Jean McLachlan.

(This week's budget)
The services at St. Columba Sunday were largely attended. Rev. Dr. McCrae, Mt. Forest, presided at both morning and evening services, citing new faith, new spirit, after the dismal sorrow of the disciples at theifixion and the impossibility of Heving at first in the resurrexion. He mentioned four instances of the many, where the risen Lord been seen—Mary, Peter, the disciples on the way to Emmaus, Thomas all by their testimony planting strength, power and dence.

Mr. Russell, Mt. Forest, accompanied Dr. McCrae and spent some on Monday sampling the stroma with indifferent results.

Mrs McLaren of Mitchell attended on a visit to her daughter, (Rev.) S. G. McCormack.

Mrs Jones, Owen Sound, called on a visit to Mrs John Hornsby brother Tom, the former not well.
