Rev. and Mrs Jay and Douglas, motored to Smithville Friday to attend a reunion of relatives, the occasion being celebrating the 80th birthday of Mrs J's grandmother, Mrs McPherson.

Mrs Jno. Leith received the sad news of the sudden death of her mother, Mrs Jno. Backus Durham. We extend to her our sympathy.

Mr Alex Cameron of Oklahoma, is at present visiting his niece, Miss Ethel Sharp.

Mr and Mrs J.T. Winter, Fordwich announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Maureen, to Mr. John Frederick Philip, son of Mr and Mrs J. B. Philip, Mt. Forest of the marriage to take place quietly this month.

Mrs Jas Kennedy and Mrs Ivan Edwards of Shelburne, were visitors with their sister, Mrs Wm Kennedy here.

On Wednesday evening, June 1st, a public speaking contest and musical program was given by the Community Circle in the Agricultural Hall. There were five speakers, viz: Deanie Thorne, Robert Haas, Arch Walls, Miss McKechnie, Miss Rolufs.

The first and last one spoke on "Agricultural Education," while the others spoke on "Pioneer Life in Ontario." Rev. Mr Stewart from Mt Forest was the judge.

The musical program consisted of choruses, one selection by the Male Quartette, a trio and a number of selections from the Fairbairn orchestra.

After carefully considering the contest and congratulating all the speakers on their strong points as well as telling them how to overcome their weaker ones, Mr Stewart pronounced Miss Rolufs as the winner.

Miss Rolufs will represent the Holstein Community Circle in the Final Public Speaking Contest, which is to take place on June 11th in Priceville.

Tuesday evening, the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian church held their annual free will offering and Home Helpers meeting combined. There was a good attendance and a generous offering. Mrs J. Nicholson gave a splendid paper on "Work and Recreation." Even as our talents vary, so also does the work God assigns to each. As our Saviour looked for figs on the leaf producing fig tree, so also God looks for results in each and all of our lives.

Mrs (Rev.) Armstrong, Durham, gave a missionary address on China and the Chinese, taking as the basis of her address "I was sick and in prison and ye visited me." Mrs Armstrong dealt very ably with the three phases of a missionaries' life, viz: medical, educational and evangelical. The mental picture she portrayed of China's condition and needs as she carried us with her in thought to that far away Eastern land will long live in our memories and by God's grace produce fruit in our lives.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting, and a happy social time spent together.

OWEN SOUND 4, HOLSTEIN 0 Holstein received a severe drubbing from the O. Sound eleven last Tuesday evening, but on their return game here on June 23rd, expect to turn

MORRISON - SHANNON

A pretty June wedding took place at St. Marys R. C. Church, Mt Forest, on June 6th, at 8 a.m., when Miss Margaret Elizabeth Shannon, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs Martin Shannon, became the bride of Mr Wm. Morrison, son of the late Samuel and Mrs Morrison. Rev Father Malone officiated. The bride wore a charming gown of rose beige crepe, with hat to match. Her bridesmaid was also prettily gowned in blonde georgette and hat to match. Mr Jos. T. Morrison, London, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the Commercial House, when the happy couple left by motor for a honeymoon trip to Hamilton, Niagara Falls and Buffalo on their return the happy couple will reside on the groom's farm in Egremont. Congratulations.

YEOVIL

Have you plucked the apple blossoms in the spring? And caught their subtle odors in the spring? Pink buds putting at the light, Crumpled petals, baby white; Just to touch them a delight— In the Spring.

Have you walked beneath the blossoms in the Spring? Beneath the apple blossoms in the Spring? No sweet sight can I remember Half so precious, half so tender As the apple blossoms render In the Spring.

—William Martin We extend best wishes to Mr and Mrs Willard Jack. A large number of neighbors and friends attended the reception given by Mr and Mrs J. Hamilton in honor of their daughter Evelyn, last Wednesday evening. An enjoyable time was spent and the happy couple were the recipients of hearty good wishes and many beautiful presents.
