Lacrosse Here Today: Walkerton vs. Durham

Durham Midlets are Durham's only lacrosse exponents this summer, having revived the game locally after two or three years of dormancy. Although the youngest bunch of stick-handlers ever welded into a team here, they are a sturdy aggregation, and already have developed many fine points of the game. Grouped with Hanover and Walkerton the Durham lads have bright prospects of leading the district and as their first step, will endeavor to take Walkerton's measure in the opening game here, today, Thursday, at 5 p.m. Come and see them play on the Show Grounds, and give the boys a good start before a good crowd.

Miss E. Oliver Won Public Speaking Contest

The auditorium of St. Columba Church, Priceville, was well filled on Saturday night, for the final public speaking contest, under the auspices of the South Grey Farm Youth Association. The event attracted wide interest and young people from all parts of the riding were present.

The men, as the chairman, President Howard Graham of Vandeventer, expressed it, were backward in coming forward to contest the honor, but four young ladies were entered. However only three of these appeared—Miss Esther Petty, R. R. 3, Durham, who spoke on "History of Normanby Township"; Miss Pearl Rolufus, teacher at No. 9, Egremont who spoke on "Agricultural Education"; and Miss Emma Oliver of Onward Club teacher at Promore, whose topic was "The Pioneers of Ontario." All had exceptionally good material and the award was close. Miss Oliver who is a sister of F. R. Oliver, M.P.P., was given first place and Miss Rolufus second. The judges were: Barrister Henry, Markdale and Principal Donaldson of Markdale High School, the latter presenting the association silver cup to Miss Oliver, which she holds for a year. Miss McPhail, M.P., also donated gold and silver medals to first and second winners, and she had the honor of presenting these.

In addition to the speaking a good program was presented, consisting of introductory remarks by Sec'y T. S. Cooper, community singing led by P. Ramage, solos by Robt Haas, Holstein and W. W. Ramage; recitations by Miss Blair, Orchard and Miss F. M. Normanby; story by L. Findlay; instrumental music by Bunesan orchestra and the judges' decision by Mr Henry.

U. F. O. Hold Annual Meeting in Priceville

The joint annual meeting of South Grey U.F.O. Political Association and Co-operative Co., held in Priceville, Saturday, was not largely attended, there being nothing momentous before the meeting. R. D. Carruthers, Ephrasia, is the new President of Political Ass'n. R. Lawson, Vice Pres and Harold McKechnie, Sec'y Treas. The latter succeeds M. E. Murray, of Neustadt, who was decided on retiring after several years good service. On motion of Miss MacPhail—H. McKechnie, a hearty resolution of appreciation was tendered him. Both members reviewed the work of past sessions and a resolution giving urban municipalities authority to send delegates to convention was passed.

W. H. Hunter, Pres. and Riding Director, was in the chair for the co-operative meeting. His successor is R. L. Aitchison, Sullivan, and Harold McKechnie Sec'y Treas. Mrs. Pedlar was re-elected UPWO Riding Director and Joe Crutchley UPYO Director. We reserve space for a report of the discussions.

Death Calls Two Respected Residents

After weeks of patient suffering from an illness which was sapping all her lifeblood and vitality, Mrs. Peter Reid, Jr. passed away, on Friday afternoon last. For over two years she has been more or less of an invalid from a cancerous malady, but mingled with fears were hopes for her recovery at times. Two years ago she was a patient in Durham Hospital for some weeks and again this spring for a term, but her desire to be home with husband and friends was strong and she passed away as above stated, leaving her husband as immediate mourner.

The late Mrs Reid was formerly Martha Eccles, daughter of the late Wm and Mrs Eccles and was born in Egremont 58 years ago. Her girlhood was spent in Egremont Township and 33 years ago she was married in Mt. Forest by Rev. Dr. Ramsay of the Presbyterian Church, to Mr. Reid. They continued to reside in Egremont till about 15 years ago, when they moved to Durham and have since been respected citizens. For one of these fifteen years they returned to the Eccles farm home on the 16th con. Egremont.

There were no children of the union, but with the husband three brothers will mourn her passing, viz: Samuel, near Mt Forest and Major and David near Dromore. Three brothers and one sister are also deceased—James, Wm. and Jos and Mary (Mrs. Brown), Wiaraton.

The late Mrs Reid was held in the highest esteem and her many good qualities were an open book to her friends. In the absence of Rev. W. H. Smith, her pastor, the service on Monday last, was taken by Rev. J. E. Peters and remains were interred in Durham cemetery.

Crowded Hall hears of Work of Salvation Army

Commandant Hurd gives fine address Miss MacPhail in the Chair

The Town Hall was crowded at 8:15 Sunday evening last to hear Commandant Hurd speak for and of the Salvation Army and its many activities. Miss MacPhail, M.P., by special request had been asked to take the chair. She was on hand and fittingly introduced by Mr Wm Laidlaw, who is the most outstanding supporter of the Army in this community. He thanked Miss MacPhail for consenting to take the chair. He had no apologies to offer, the Army had a mandate and the good will of the King and many public men.

Miss MacPhail was pleased to show a helping hand to the S.A. and thought a chairman hardly needed. Lots of people ask for funds and such requests were not always welcome, but S.A. appeals were an exception for the public recognized its worth.

After a clever cornet solo by Master Gordon Dix and a fine piano recitation by Miss Alice Pope, Mr Hurd was introduced to give his lecture on "The Helping Hand."

He opened with compliments to the chairlady, whom he met for the first time. They had no politics in the Army, only the desire to help the needy and save those who were going down. He had compliments also for Mr Laidlaw, being a consistent standby in Army ranks.

The Great War proved the Army's

He is looking well; wind and weather can't hurt him.

Robert S. McGowan Passes Away in Detroit

News of the serious illness of Mr Robert McGowan in Detroit, reached his brothers here last week and on Friday Wm. A. McGowan left to be with him. On Sunday morning he passed away after only four days in a hospital there, his illness being the culmination of a heavy cold contracted last winter. He was fifty five years of age.

The deceased was born in Hawkesbury, Ont, coming to Durham in 1888. After two years residence here, the family moved to Oakville, but in 1898 returned to Durham. In 1902 Robert left town for Rockmart, Georgia, where he was employed in the Cement plant there and later was engaged in the cement industry at Independence, Kansas; Mason City, Iowa and Dallas, Texas. Returning to Durham he was associated with his brother Wm. in the Rob Roy Mills here and for a couple of years he conducted a grist and chopping mill at the McKechnie Mills. About four years ago he went to Detroit where he was employed at his trade as master electrician and millwright until his recent illness.

The deceased was most warm hearted and possessed expert mechanical and electrical knowledge. In his younger days he was an athlete of renown, bicycling being his outstanding sport. He held a 24 hour continuous riding record and participated in several relay races from coast to coast.

McFADDEN'S Drug Store

Stores will be Open Saturday, July 2nd

Although July 2nd, as well as July 1st, has been proclaimed a public holiday by the Dominion Government in commemoration of Canada's Diamond Jubilee, Durham stores will not observe the holiday, but will remain open for business all day and evening.

This was decided at a meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association in Morlock's store on Tuesday morning. The store will be closed Thursday afternoon before (the usual half-holiday) and Friday July 1st, Dominion Day and it was the feeling that with Saturday and Sunday also closed, it would be too long a stretch, and might seriously inconvenience customers requiring groceries and provisions unexpectedly. Walkerton, Mt. Forest and Owen Sound are all open on Saturday as well.
