

CANADIAN NATIONAL THANKSGIVING

July 3rd, 1927

On Sunday, July 3, at the hour of 2.30 in the afternoon, from the coasts of the Atlantic ocean to the coasts of the Pacific ocean, the people of the Dominion of Canada are invited to assemble and participate in an expression of Thanksgiving which will be nation-wide.

The selections below have been made and issued by the National Committee for the Celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation, with a view to providing an order of proceedings which may be followed in all parts of the Dominion and which will permit of participation in the National Thanksgiving by the people as a whole.

AT OTTAWA

At the capital of the Dominion, Their Excellencies the Governor General and Viscountess Willingdon, the Prime Minister and Members of the Cabinet, Members of the Privy Council, the local Members of Parliament and of the Ontario Legislature, the Mayor and Members of the Council of the City of Ottawa, and other public personages, together with the heads of all religious denominations, will be asked to take a central position immediately in front of the entrance to the Houses of Parliament. Announcement of the several selections will be made by His Excellency the Governor General, and participation in the singing or recital thereof will be aided by such facilities as the Local Celebration Committee may decide.

At the Capitals of the several Provinces it is proposed that gatherings similar in character take place immediately in front of their respective Legislative Buildings, the Lieutenant Governors to be responsible for the order of proceedings.

LOCAL THANKSGIVING

In Canada the municipal system lies at the very basis of its parliamentary institutions. It is therefore proposed that in cities, towns and villages other than capitals the National Thanksgiving proceedings should be accorded a relationship to the Municipality similar to that given it at the several Capitals. No settlement or hamlet in the Dominion is too small or too remote to participate officially in the National Thanksgiving.

THE PROGRAMME

Whilst the order of proceedings here set forth is one which it is hoped may be followed in all parts of the Dominion, it is recognized that additions thereto, or subtraction thereof may be deemed advisable by local Committees; also that substitution of other numbers for those printed may be necessary, especially where translations are required. It is therefore understood that alterations of this kind may be made whenever local Committees so decide. The person presiding shall announce the several numbers in the order of proceedings and read aloud the explanatory passages. With the exception of the first and last numbers, the singing should, where possible, be preceded by the playing of the air by accompanying musical instruments as arranged for by the local Committees. To facilitate union in the passages to be read aloud, such methods shall be followed as local Committees may arrange for in advance.

Order of Proceedings

Precisely at 2.30 in the afternoon, (local time) the proceedings shall commence.

All present shall sing.

TUNE—OLD HUNDREDDTH. L.M. Key of G.

No. 1. Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

COMMEMORATIVE OF THE PIONEERS AND SETTLERS WHO LAID OUR COUNTRY'S FOUNDATIONS.

To be read by the person presiding.

It is appropriate that the first note of Thanksgiving should also be commemorative of the early pioneers and settlers who by their labors laid the foundations of our nation. The words of the following hymn have been sung through many generations and in many lands. They acquire a new significance as they call to mind the trials and privations of those heroic men and women who, in deep forest or lonely clearing, made the first Canadian homes. Leaving behind many of their own kin and friends and the securities and comforts of their native birth, they brought with them a high courage, firm endurance, and an abiding faith in the God of their fathers.

Then shall be sung by all present.

TUNE—MARTYRDOM. C.M. First Tune.

No. 2. O God of Bethel! by whose hand
Thy seed still here below;
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led:

Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before Thy throne of grace;
God of our fathers! be the God
Of their succeeding race.

Through each perplexing path of life
Our wandering footsteps guide;
Give us each day our daily bread,
And raiment fit to provide.

O spread Thy covering wings around,
Fill all our wanderings cease,
And in our Father's love and peace
Our souls arrive in peace.

Amen.

Then shall be read aloud by all present.

PSALM C.

No. 3.

O be joyful in the Lord all ye lands;
Serve the Lord with gladness and come before His presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord He is God:
It is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
We are His people, and the sheep of His pasture,
O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving and into His Courts with praise:
Be thankful unto Him and speak good of His name.
For the Lord is gracious, His mercy is everlasting:
And His truth endureth from generation to generation.

To be read by the person presiding.

The text of the Lord's Prayer as here set forth is as used at the opening of each day's proceedings in the Parliament of Canada by the Speaker of the Commons and the Speaker of the Senate.

Then shall be said by all present.

No. 4. Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.—Amen.

COMMEMORATIVE OF THE FATHERS OF CONFEDERATION.

To be read by the person presiding.

The value and interest of history are derived chiefly from the lives and services of the men whom it commemorates. Without these the progress of the nation would be little worth recording. Upon this day of National Thanksgiving it is fitting to recall the eminent services of the Fathers of Confederation, through whose efforts the scattered Provinces of Canada have been united under one constitution. Our appreciation of their greatness increases with the passing years. To follow in their footsteps in devoted service to our country is the highest tribute we can pay to their memory. Expression is given to this tribute in the words of the following hymn.

Then shall be sung by all present.

TUNE—T. ANNE. C.M. Third Tune.

No. 5. Lord, while for all mankind we pray
Of every clime and coast,
O hear us for our native land,
The land we love the most.

Our fathers' sepulchres are here,
And here our kindred dwell,
Our children too;—how should we love
Another land so well!

O guard our shores from every foe;
With peace our borders bless,
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness.

Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth, and Thee;
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

Lord of the nations, thus to Thee
Our country we commend;
Be Thou our refuge and our trust,
Our everlasting Friend. Amen.

Then shall be read aloud by all present.

No. 6.

i Therefore thou shalt keep the Commandments of the Lord thy God, to walk in His way and to fear Him.
For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land; a land of brooks of water, of fountains, and depths that spring out of the valleys and hills;

A land of wheat, and barley and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil, olive and honey;
A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.
When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which He hath given thee. Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping His Commandments, and His Judgments and His Statutes.—Deut. viii. 6-11.

ii Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be My people; and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.—Jer. vii. 23.

iii Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.—Deut. v. 16.

iv. And what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.—Micah vi. 8.

v. If thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as noon day; and the Lord shall guide thee continually.—Isa. lxxviii. 10-11.

vi. These are the Statutes and Judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the Lord God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days, that ye live upon the earth.—Deut. xii. 1.

iii.

COMMEMORATIVE OF THOSE WHOSE LIVES HAVE BEEN GIVEN IN THE COUNTRY'S SERVICE.

To be read by the person presiding.

On this day of National Thanksgiving it is especially appropriate that we should keep in remembrance those brave men and women who have made the Supreme Sacrifice in the service of our country. We cannot more worthily commemorate their memory than in prayer that we, the living, may derive strength and courage to hold fast the principles of service and freedom for which they died.

Here shall be sounded

THE LAST POST

To be followed by a minute of complete silence. At the conclusion of the minute of silence shall be sung by all present

ELDERS. 10.10.10.10. Second Tune.

No. 7.

Through dust of conflict and through battle-flame;
Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
Your memory hallowed in the Land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank to war,
As who had heard God's message from afar;
All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave
To save mankind—yourself you scorned to save.

Splendid you passed, the great surrender made,
Into the light that nevermore shall fade;
Deep your contentment in that blest abode,
Who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.

Am.B.N.

iv.

A PRAYER FOR DIVINE GUIDANCE IN THE GOVERNMENT OF OUR LAND.

To be read by the person presiding.

On February 19, 1927, a Select Committee of the Canadian House of Commons reported "that it is desirable that the business of the House be opened, each day, by prayer to Almighty God to invoke His blessings upon its deliberations." Save as to the italicized parts, rendered necessary through its adaptation to the present occasion, the text of the following prayer is that of a portion of the prayer as since read by the Honourable the Speaker of the House of Commons.

Then shall be said by all present.

No. 8. "Most Gracious God, we humbly beseech Thee especially for this Dominion, and herein more particularly for the Governor General, the Senate, and the House of Commons, in their legislative capacity, as also for all legislative and municipal bodies in the discharge of their public duties; that Thou wouldst be pleased to direct and prosper all their consultations, to the advancement of Thy glory, the safety, honour and welfare of our Sovereign and His Dominions, that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavors, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth, and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all general. Amen.

Then shall be read aloud by all present.

No. 9.

PSALM LXVII.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us;
And cause His face to shine upon us;
That Thy way may be known upon earth,
Thy saving health among all nations.
Let the people praise Thee, O God;
Let all the people praise Thee.
O let the nations be glad and sing for joy;
For Thou shalt judge the people righteously,
And govern the nations upon earth.
Let the people praise Thee, O God;
Let all the people praise Thee.
Then shall the earth yield her increase;
And God, even our own God, shall bless us.
God shall bless us;
And all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

Then shall be sung by all present.

Our rivers, lakes and fountains,
To Thee shall tribute yield. Amen.

War Scare Resting

Europe Breathes Again As Boiling Pot Cools Down

NEWS IN BRIEF

Relations between Poland and Russia appear from despatches to have been, temporarily at least, patched up by Poland's acceptance of Russia's three demands. Jugo-Slavia and Albania still look at each other askance while Italy and France watch the situation with interest. Europe does not seem even yet to have learned its lesson: that it is impossible to carry lighted matches into powder magazines. Pseudo statesmen with "monkey with the buzz-saw" of national dignities, and sooner or later drastic action will be taken by the same hotheds that may cause another Armageddon. On the League of Nations rests the hope of a peaceful future. Mussolini talks of building a future Italian war machine, his authority having apparently gone to his head when he pictures Italy taking a foremost place in the European arena by the strength of her armaments.

IRELAND.

Ireland is rapidly assuming normalcy as Cosgrave's (Government) majority gradually becomes stronger as the intricate election returns are interpreted.

RUSSIA.

Still more murders are reported (or "executions" as they are called in that land of liberty). Some 46 have been done to death as enemies of the Soviets.

ENGLAND.

Canada's Minister of Trade, Hon. Jas. Malcolm, made an excellent impression in his recent address in London. Unemployment continues to improve. The Anglo-Egyptian crisis has apparently been averted.

THE UNITED STATES.

Lindeberg, while having passed from the headlines, will live long in the memory of this generation as a sterling national character. Even the great oration accorded him failed to dispel his inherent modesty. His future will be watched with great interest by all. It is hoped he will accept an invitation to visit Ottawa during our July 1st celebrations.

Washington.—U.S. Treasurer Mellon is reported to have had a rather busy day Thursday last when the treasury turn-over was about $1,138,000,000. About $378,000,000 was paid out on matured certificates of indebtedness and $70,000,000 interest disbursed. More than balancing these outputs were receipts of approximately $400,000,000 of tax payments, $209,000,000 subscriptions to the new bond issue announced early this month, and $89,000,000 due from foreign governments on account of debts.

The Treasury's balance will approximate 240,000,000. Did Mr. Mellon work overtime, we wonder?

CANADA.

Winnipeg.—A maniac supposed to have left a trail of brutally murdered women across the United States, did two innocent victims to death in Winnipeg. After a four-day hunt he is behind the bars. The question now naturally arises what to do with him. If hopelessly mentally deranged should he be executed or incarcerated for life, and if the latter, should Canada or the United States (his native country) shoulder the expense of his future. Eighteen victims are credited his mania in the States, extending from the Coast to Detroit over a period of two years.

THE MISSING FLIERS.

Rumer still holds out hope that Nungesser and Goll may still be alive in North Quebec. Search parties are scouring the section from whence the rumber emanated. Everyone hopes against hope these French heroes may be found alive and unharmed.

THE LIMIT REACHED

Man Cannot Travel Faster Than the Speed of Light

HUMANLY IMPOSIBLE

In the clouds, of course, move, and has moved, fast but on terra firma it is difficult to obtain that much greater speed than that made by Major Segrave in his race car on Daytona Beach, Fla. He made 238 miles an hour in the wind, over 207 miles an hour on a straight course, an article contributed to Civevic (Paris), Jean (Paris) cussa: this record-breaking race, and gives reasons for the opinion that it represents practical limit of man's speed-power earth's surface. We transmit condense as follows:

"Says Segrave:—'I have beaten the world for speed. The kilometer at 325 and the five kilometers at 327. These figures represent age of going and returning same track. My greatest speed reached while running south. I lived in a vertigo. I felt as if my car was getting from me. I shrank to a point in a straight course. I made the greatest effort in a straight course. I will add that 50 kilometers is the absolute limit of automobile can run and keep ground.'"

"Such was the spoken broadcast over the track on March 29 last—a worthy of the recently opened telephone."

"This record, which Major Segrave has established on a track to which we can scarcely give the name of 'vehicle'—we believe, the limit of achievement for several reasons. The principal is not mechanical, but human. The record depends as much on constitution of the human body as on the resistance of pneumatic tires. Let us begin by examining the human body."

"When the French engineer Constanten, had finished building English 'Sunbeam' when he stalled on the huge chassis of 500 horse-power forward—other like it in the rear, when specially made by Dunlop subjected in a closed vessel to the centrifugal force of 10,000 revolutions per minute when all was ready, the driver Segrave, who was to race, went in search of a road in England was found for any sea-beach."

"This supercar required a track of at least 30 kilometers (19 miles). A straight line, for speed of 300 kilometers three question of taking curves. 'And besides, a road without flanking ditches was necessary. At least 250 feet wide road in old England or in East filled these conditions, and such were next examined. Some have said that it is so solid that serve as a race-course with mumm of preparation. In straight benches are interrupted. It was therefore necessary Segrave to go to Florida to car, on the famous Daytona long devoted to this form of his car, when he left, was of what elaborate shape, worked the course of tests at moderate speed. When he reached 300 kilometers per hour, this proved to be dangerous to be changed. When the published a picture of the car, they showed its original shape, not the American shape in the races."

"What, then, is the exactness of this shape? He gave few words: 'Of the 1,000 horse-power in a steel machine was cup generating, machinists agree at least 550 are employed, some coming air-resistance. That other fifty would be enough vacuum, to make the record ed at Daytona. 'But if air-resistance is so important, why of the projectile. 'The driver's problem is a ways similar to that of a waterman; it depends on a logical reaction. 'How long does it take for from the brain to reach the and contract them? American motorists think that in a trail like Segrave it takes about four of a second. Now in this mystery would run over a foot—far enough to it to track altogether. 'I doubt whether a man's attention thus on the steady way long. The mechanic may increase, but that of the logic reaction can not. On the other and will bring the breaking business to an end. 'It is a pity; for the doubtless has not said his last we might, for instance, add meters to the Mystery or replace 1,000-horse-power motor by 1,600. Nothing mechanically able in this."

"No, Charles, it is not correct to say yourself as a grain because your wife has lay feet"

EVERYONE CELEBRATE

Let Nothing Intefere With Your Arrangements for Joining in Canada's Birthday Party Festivities.

FROM SYDNEY TO DAWSON A NATIONAL JUBILEE

On Friday, July 1st, Canada celebrates her sixtieth Birthday. Every true and loyal Canadian should have, and no doubt has, plans for participating in that glad event. From Sidney, Cape Breton, to Dawson, Yukon, true Canadians are entering into the spirit of the day and are either actively engaged in promoting the celebration through work on one or more of the many entertainment committees or else planning to participate as a cheering onlooker.

Pageants, unveiling of commemorative tablets and memorials, public speeches, folk dances, old-time regimens will be the order of the day. Every hand in the country will be doing its utmost to stir the patriotic sentiment of our people. In the large centres, well organized parades with floats representative of recent progress or reminiscent of bygone days are all ready to take their appearance.

young, so that they will appreciate a consciousness of healthy Canadianism, and while joining in a national celebration may they join in a spirit of national unity arising above and beyond party affiliations and the narrow confines of race or creed, making our country's birthday the symbol of a closer-knit, kinder Canadian people rejoicing in the heritage of Canadianism and all for which it stands.

CANADA'S DIAMOND JUBILEE RESOLUTION

(Passed Unanimously by the House of Commons and the Senate, Ottawa, April 14, 1927.)

"Resolved, that as Canada is approaching the sixtieth anniversary of her founding as a Dominion, the Parliament of Canada place on record its deep appreciation of the achievements of the Fathers of Confederation, and with united voice express its faith and confidence in the future of this our country, and its development as a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations, owing allegiance to His Majesty the King.

"It is the earnest wish of Parliament that the Diamond Jubilee Celebration for which plans are now being rapidly matured shall commemorate appropriately and enthusiastically the accomplishment of Confederation and the subsequent progress of the Dominion. We trust that this commemoration will lend added inspiration to the patriotic fervor of our people, and afford a clearer vision of our aspirations and ideals, to the end that from sea to sea there may be developed a robust Canadian spirit, and in all things Canadian prouder national unity."

Port Chambly, Quebec
Fort Chambly, twenty miles southwest of Montreal on a conspicuous headland of the Richelieu river, is a most picturesque and interesting ruin. The first Port Chambly was erected by the French in 1666 and the building of the present structure was begun in 1700. In 1851 the fort was abandoned as a military post and in 1821 was placed under the care of the Canadian National Parks Branch of the Department of the Interior to be preserved as a valuable memorial of the early military history of Canada. It is near end of Quebec's main highways and is visited by many motorists every year.
