Plaintiff won Jury Case at Division Court

Only Two Cases before Judge Sutherland on Tuesday

Only two suits at Division Court on Tuesday but they occupied over four hours in the hearing. The most controversial was the jury case Cotton and Dulmage, Owen Sound, vs. D. A. McIntosh, Dornoch, arising out of a collision of their respective cars in June 1926, in Dornoch. W. S. Middlebro for the Plaintiff, O. E. Klien for Defendant. The plaintiff Dulmage, was on his way from Guelph to Owen Sound, McIntosh was backing out of his garage onto the highway, when unknown and unseen his car was struck by the Dulmage car. which, it was alleged, was going a bout 25 miles an hour. The striking car went about 50 yards, a broken rod scratching into the highway and of Durham, President of the United upset against a bank. # A WORD TO SPORTS

One of the world's greatest hockey players gives good advice to them. Perth-Expositor seems to know what it is talking about:

That was sound advice Frank Nighbor gave Pembroke boys when he was their guest at a banquet to the Pembroke nockey team. "Watch your company" will come with more effect from Nighbor, the greatest of all hockey players, han it will through a sermon There is a feeling in every town against sports and it is held that sports lead a young man into bad company. Sports do if the young man is weak enough to yield. But sports or atheletics build young men. They develop him mentally physically, morally, and spiritually, Boys who play the games have no time for the bottle or cigarette. The one undermines their stamina and other takes their wind.
