Induction of Dromore and Knox, N'by, Pastor

Thursday afternoon last, Amos Presbyterian Church, Dromore, was the mecca of many of its members and adherents, as well as those of its sister congregation, Knox, Normanby. The occasion was the induction into these pastoral charges of Rev. F. G. Purnell, who comes to break the Bread of Life to them after a vacancy of two years.

Rev. John McKenzie, Palmerston, Moderator of Presbytery, was in charge of proceedings; Rev. Wallace Johnston, Holstein, addressed the congregation and minister; Rev. McKay of Moorefield preached the sermon, while Rev. Mr McKenzie put the necessary questions regarding to beliefs, etc., to Mr Purnell.

The choir favored the audience with a number and there was also a duet from Mrs. A. Kellar and Miss Webber of Knox.

At the close tea was served all in the basement of the church and hopes are bright that ultimately much fruit will result from the new choice.

A Good Time We'll Say The United Church minister in Ashfield in the last eight days, has preached seven times to different good sized congregations, attended and taught in two Sunday Schools, on three different occasions giving addresses to large crowds of people, attended and enjoyed three fine picnics, took in one garden party, spent half a day and assisted at a church building, held an important and lengthy Quarely Official Board, made seven pastoral calls and travelled by car, largely in the interests of the church, 187 miles. Who said the ministers weren't busy and didn't have a good time?

Mr and Mrs Ernie Greenwood and Mrs Herb Greenwood and children, visited at Jas. Geddes' Sunday last. Mr and Mrs Wm Wells and Mrs. W. G. Wilson spent the 12th in Walkerton. Will reports 32 lodges in the march there. On a recent Sunday we were shocked to see a large Chrysler car parked near the river and the occupants busy fishing. We got their number all right but will let them go this time. But the next guys we notice showing the same disrespect for the Sabbath, someone else will have a chance to look after them and we don't mean "maybe."

Wedding bells are ringing in this locality—not for some bachelor to get tied up. This is going to be a golden wedding. More later. Congratulations to Mr Joe Watt and Miss Gladys Rawn who were married recently.

A large number from this locality spent the glorious 12th in Markdale. We Orangemen were ever favored with splendid weather and with no advance notice of the day in the local papers as usual. However the 12th always draws the biggest crowd any day we are aware of.

Messrs Geo. and Joe Wilson along with some others, spent over the week end visiting relatives in Milverton.
