Mr Allan Melnis has been engaged to teach at Mono Road.

Rev. S. G. McCormack acted as chairman, finely appropriate in his remarks and references. The ice-cream booth, cool drinks, etc., did a thriving business with Mr McGillivray and Allie Melnis dispensing dishes up.

The funeral of the late John McDougall was held Thursday last to McNeil's cemetery. A sister missing the train, an auto was dispatched to Toronto, delaying the services until her arrival.

The funeral of the late Mrs Angus Kennedy same day, was delayed thereby to near 5 o'clock awaiting the hearse and undertaker. Rev. Mr. McCormick officiated at house and grave. Mal. and Donald McLean, Mal. Melnis, Donald McMillan, Dan Campbell and Alex Carson were pall bearers.

The frame work of the new saw-mill was raised Friday afternoon the tramer being David Dow of Proton.

Yes, all are enjoying many things they never paid a cent for any more than the church bell referred to two weeks ago, but all have whatever benefit may be in it, as it cannot be canned or bottled up, as all within hearing can realize "what a world of harmony their melody foretells."

Mrs McCormack and Miss Edith James were in attendance at the Ladies' Auxiliary meeting in Markdale on Tuesday.

The Garden Party held on Friday last by St. Columba church people, was well attended. Owing to the threatening rain, supper was served in the church, tho' a game of softball was enjoyed on the grounds between Onward Club and Bunnassan, score not known. The concert was opened by the fine Campbell orchestra of Walkerton, who gave several selections during supper and again in front of the church while assembling. Their entire offerings were highly appreciated and was voted the best thing of the night with violin, guitar, saxophone piano, drums, cymbals, etc.

The performance of little Billy, who plays on several instruments near by him in such excellent time, harmony and precision, was the delight of all. Two fine readings by Miss Jeanette McLeod of our own neighborhood and Miss Annie Milne of Chesley, cousin of our Dr., both merited the applause they received.

A solo by Jas. Milne and a duet by the same and J. Bolander of Chesley, was given in fine harmony and a quartette from Elmwood including the two above, also gave a selection.

Mrs (Dr) Milne gave a fine address, was well received and encored and R. Oliver, M.P.P. gave a fine address on Confederation Jubilee, touching upon Canada's greatness in mining, forests, agriculture, etc.

But the young people of today was Canada's greatest asset. Canada had only yet touched the fringe of greater possibilities. Men of the highest quality trained in the home, school, and the church was another great asset. He paid tribute to the early pioneers in Agriculture as great makers of Canada. A fine speech, fluently given.

Rev. S. G. McCormack acted as chairman, finely appropriate in his remarks and references. The ice-cream booth, cool drinks, etc., did a thriving business with Mr McGillivray and Allie Melnis dispensing dishes up. The bazaar also made well, the candy booth being handled by the Mission Band. The amount realized is not available at time of writing. Viands of the finest quality and great quantity graced the table, visitors from Chicago and Calgary being welcome guests.

Mr. Milne, Sr. our Dr's father, accompanied by a friend, Mr Duncan McKinnon of Elmwood, were visitors here and took in the services Sunday a.m.

Miss Grace Braiden of Shelburne, was a visitor over the week end with the Misses McMillan, S. Line.

Miss McDermid arrived home on Tuesday night from Toronto, on a visit to her parents and brothers.

DO YOU REMEMBER ?

DO YOU REMEMBER when having was done by using the old scythe among stones and stumps and raked up with a home made rake and sometimes pitched on the wooden sledge by a wooden fork patented from a branch of the small bushes, etc.

The inventor of the mower in use now days, probably was not born then.

DO YOU REMEMBER when the new settlers in the vicinity of Durham and Priceville went down to the old settlement for having and harvesting and the old farmer sometimes questioned them from whence they came. They were looked upon as beggars and small wages were offered.

What do we find nowadays? The hired man down there is partly boss, for he will leave the farmer in a fix should he leave. Instead of $10 and $15 a month then to the $40 and $50 is a big thing. The new settler had only from 50c to $1 in his pocket and took two days to make the journey.

DO YOU REMEMBER when the cows pastured in the woods, eating leeks and effected the butter so much that you could smell the flavor of the leeks before you came to the table.

DO YOU REMEMBER when the district of Scotchtown contained all Gaelic residents? Now one fellow boasts of how he can spell 'Murock' or Murdock.

DO YOU REMEMBER the first burial in Scotchtown cemetery on the old Butters farm? The first burial was Mrs Butters in 1852, and the grandmother of A. B. McLellan of Durham. The writer's father made th rough coffin from rough hemlock boards and probably in all the years that have passed, the strong materials used, are not all yet decayed.

DO YOU REMEMBER when no Saturday holidays were kept by school teachers. Then every other Saturday was a holiday and finally every Saturday. 70 or 75 years ago there were only a couple of weeks holidays at harvest time, the teachers getting only $200 to $250 a year.

DO YOU REMEMBER when Priceville was honored by having the late John McArthur, merchant, as warden of the county of Grey?

DO YOU REMEMBER when Glenelg was honored by having four of its council members warden, viz: the late Jas. Edge, Chas. Moffat, Finlay McRae and Geo. Binnie, the latter yet holding several offices in school, etc. Mr Chas McKinnon, who was commissioner for Glenelg, Ben-tinck and Durham, was also warden of the county.

DO YOU REMEMBER when the late Angus McCormick and the late James McArthur, two highland pipers of the olden times, and a young couple getting married, were the objects of interest? The young couple thought they were not properly united unless those good musicians headed the procession going through the woods on their way to a lawful preacher or minister to officiate and call them man and wife.

Mr and Mrs S. Mead Tendered Presentation

On Monday evening of this week, the people of S. S. No. 9, Glenelg, met at the home of Mr and Mrs S. Patterson, to spend a while with Mr and Mrs Stanley Mead ere their departure for their new home in the West.

Mr. Arch. McDonald acted as chairman and after bringing the gathering to order called on Mrs Lawrence Chapman to read an address and Mrs Jas Atkinson presented the young couple with a dessert set of silver and serving tray. Both Mr and Mrs Mead made suitable replies, thanking their many friends for their kindness. Others present were called upon for speeches, after which the evening was pleasantly spent in social intercourse, games and singing.

Following is the address: To Mr and Mrs S. Mead, Dear Friends,— We, your neighbors and friends and associates, take this privilege of gathering here this evening to spend an hour or so ere your departure for your new home in the West. We make this an opportunity of extending to you our felicitations and sincerest good wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Many of us present have known you Eliza, since your childhood and have always found you bright and cheery qualities which have won for you admiration and respect. In social activities as well as in S.S. work you have rendered inestimable assistance. Thus, through your departure we feel we are losing a valuable member of our community.

To you, Stanley we extend our hearty congratulations on your success in winning one of the fairest. You have been well and favorably known, being for some years near us. Therefore we wish for you both more happiness than is possible to express and as you journey together through life, may your future wherever spent, be crowned with good health and prosperity. As a token of our appreciation of you we ask you to accept this silverware, not for its value, but in its use you may long remember your friends at S. S. No. 9.

Signed on behalf of section — Mrs Jas Atkinson, Mary Whitmore Mr and Mrs Mead were recipients of many beautiful gifts on the occasion of their marriage, amongst which was a beautiful Bible from the session of the Presbyterian Church, they being the first couple married in the new church. They also received double damask table linen Presbyterian choir of which Mrs. Mead was a valued member and stainless steel cutlery from No. 9 Sunday School.

Mr Neil McKechnie was in Toronto attending the funeral of his late brother-in-law, Mr Alfred Rowland. Mrs Sophonra Matthews spent a few days recently in Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Wm Dingwall and sons motored to London to visit her parents, Mr and Mrs Thos. Ball.

Mr and Mrs Foster and son and Alvin Scott, Brantford, were visitors over last week end with the former's daughter, Mrs Wm. Scott Jr.

Owing to the extremely damp weather, Bethany S. School were compelled to hold their picnic on the church grounds instead of in woods. Miss C. Pettes, matron of Durham hospital, is holidaying with her sister, Mrs Neil McKechnie, and other friends in this vicinity.

A number of members of the United Church purpose attending a missionary convention in Markdale on Tuesday of this week.

Rev. D. J. Storms, Mrs Storms and boys left last Monday for Kitchener in response to a message telling of the sudden death of their sister-in-law, Mrs Edwin Good. They are remaining a week or so visiting among relatives at Kitchener and Hamilton.

Mr and Mrs Ed. Scott and children recently visited with her sister, Mrs Ritchie Scott, Moorefield.

Mrs J. McPhail and daughter Miss Flora, Mr and Mrs G. Gillies, Messrs Alex. McPhail and Harold Harris visited friends at Guelph the beginning of last week.

Hopeville and Fairbairn baseball teams played a good game in the village Thursday evening, Fairbairn winning out.

Mr and Mrs Wm. McKechnie and Miss N. Haw visited his sister Mrs H. Allen, Durham last week.

Quite a number from this part attended the funeral of the late John McDougall, Boothville, last Thursday and extend sympathy to his widow and children so suddenly bereaved. Mr McDougall was well known having for a number of years done the butchering for our local beefing and many deeply regret his passing.

Mrs George Pryde visited with her sister, Miss Alice Stewart last week.

Mr and Mrs Feistand and daughter have returned to their home in Toronto, after a pleasant holiday at Mr C. Wale's.

Honest now old timers, don't you remember how chesty you felt when you received the word you had "passed the Entrance."

First Garden Party at No. 9 a Success

An ideal evening favored No. 9, Glenelg, S. S. Garden Party last Thursday night—the first ever held in that section. The school grounds were well illuminated by Smith's Delco lights and well laden tables were first surrounded by a crowd with hearty appetites.

Rocky Saugen and Dromore mixed teams contested a softball game, the former winning.

An excellent program followed, with a former teacher, Mr Jno. A. Graham presiding. This consisted of a duet by Mrs T. M. McPadden and Miss Jessie Bell; music by Ritchie orchestra, monologues by R. Padfield and by May Collinson; recitations by Violet Collinson and P. Ramage.

The audience were pleased to hear from Mr Thos. Turnbull of Walkerville, at present visiting in the section, who assisted in the building of No. 9 schoolhouse. Messrs Allan Bell and F. Irwin, Durham, also gave addresses. A unique number was the "hobo drill", given by 10 boys in hobo outfits and trained by Mrs Collinson. An amusing playlet, "Annt Jane's hobby" closed the program, the characters being Dorothy and Annie Arnett, Mima Hargrave, Mary Whitmore, Geo. Whitmore, Reg. McPadden, Geo. Collinson.

The gross proceeds of gate were over $56, all S.S. children free and ladies of the section being admitted free. With net proceeds of booth as well, the Sunday School will have a nice balance.

Mr Jas. Burt a few days ago received a letter from his nephew, Mr. Barrett, in Bagot, Man., which gives a first hand glimpse of conditions there. Spring wheat and corn were 3 1/2 feet high on the 14th July and everything else looked well. The wet season however, is making straw soft and would be easily blown over and was hindering their haying operations. He was delighted to learn of Mr. Burt's good health.

From Review file, July 18, 1912 In Durham, on July 17, at "The Poppers", the marriage took place of Violet, eldest daughter of the late Geo. Blackburn, to Dr John Ferguson Grant, eldest son of Mr and Mrs C. L. Grant.

Saturday last, some of the workmen under the foremanship of John Crutchley at the Cement Works, discovered that this was his 25th wedding anniversary. The impulse to surprise them was strong and in quiet order they were presented with a silver gold lined cream and sugar set on stand.

Dornoch corr.: Last week Rocky Saugen was the scene of two events which attracted a goodly number of our citizens. The first was the raising of the mammoth frame barn on the farm of Mr Neil McLean, our townsman, Harry Heft being the contractor. Messrs C. Mortley and John McDonald were captains and the race proved an exciting one. The other event was the annual garden party held on the lawn of Samuel Petherborough, when the genial R. T. Edwards of Traverston filled the chair.

Holstein corr.: Miss Reta Roberts is deserving of special mention and congratulations, she having obtained 525 marks at the recent Entrance examination and standing 4th among those writing at Mt Forest centre. The other successful students are Francis Brown 462, Daisy Irwin 419, Earl Hunter 415.

On Tuesday evening the people of Ebenezer Methodist Church gathered at the home of Victor C. Adams and presented his bride with a shower of linen.

From Review file, June 10, 1902 Sunday evening last news flashed around town that two young men had been drowned and as the churches dismissed, crowds wandered their way to the river bank, just west of the show grounds, where the drowning took place. The clothes on the river bank were soon identified as belonging to two brothers, George and John Gregson, both of whom not long out from England.

The Methodist people preferred holding their service on the Parsonage lawn last Sunday evening and proved to be much cooler and pleasanter than the basement as the body of the church is in the hands of painter and paper hangers.

Mr John Lavelle and bride, Miss Parlow, Toronto, are expected in Durham to-day, on a visit.

Mr Phillip McKechnie and bride, returned from their honeymoon trip to Hamilton and Dundas last week.
