O. SOUND MAYOR DIES IN OFFICE

Our county town has been deeply moved this week over the sudden passing of Mayor Leslie, who died on Friday last. His funeral Monday saw great crowds in mourning, every place of business closed, every heart conceding the city's great loss, looking upon his death as that of a personal friend and a public benefactor.

The address of Rev. Strachan, his pastor, revealed a Christian with a beautiful example, a citizen with high ideals, his home life, his church life, models in every way and evidently a great and good man has passed on.

Holstein Wins Round from Mildmay, 4-2

HOLSTEIN 3, MILDMA 1

Holstein played their best game of the season to defeat Mildmay 3-1 at the Athletic Field here on Friday evening last. Holstein unleashed a burst of speed in this game and were over their opponents for the greater part of the game. Combined with this speed, they were using a smooth combination which baffled the opposing defence and let the forwards close in for shots and only the good work of Wendt kept the score down as he had easily 4 shots to handle to 1 by McKenzie.

Gibson and Blyth played a stellar game on the defence, while the half backs broke rush after rush at centre field. In the absence of one of the regulars, Alex Sim filled in at left half and did exceptionally well and received a good hand from the fans. In a couple of years time, Alex will be a star player for the locals.

To Seim goes the credit of scoring the first goal on a rebound. It was a nice effort as he picked the corner of the net after Wendt had stopped three shots from the local forward line. Seim was unlucky in the remainder of the game for to have two shots hit the upright.

In the second half the game speeded up to that of the first and both goal keepers had a number of shots to handle during the period. Ron Pinder put Holstein two goals up with a side shot that Wendt made a nice stop off. Referee Bell ruled that he had stopped the ball inside the goal and drew it out and allowed the locals the decision.

Mildmay was next to shoot when Edgar drove one close to the stakes that McKenzie came back and in 2 minutes, were two in the lead when H. Pinder scored from a scrimmage.

Line up: Mildmay—Wendt, Kunkel, Schurr, Lobsinger, Scheffer, Illig, Kaufman, Harper, Edgar, Harper, Schuett.

Holstein: B. McKenzie, Gibson, Blyth, J. McKenzie, Long, Sim, Calder, H. Pinder, Eccles, Seim, R. Pinder.

Referee, Bell, of Hanover

HOLSTEIN 1, MILDMA 1

Holstein journeyed to Mildmay with two Juniors, Alex Sim and Geo. Gibson and held Mildmay to a tie on their grounds. There was a shift around in the line up, H. Pinder going to full back and Sandy McKenzie to outside right with the Juniors filling in very creditably at half back. Mildmay played a much better game than in Holstein but at that were lucky to get an even break. There was no scoring in 1st half, tho' both sides were in close for shots but the goalies made them look easy. Seim opened the scoring early in the 2nd half. It was a nice effort. The forwards came up abreast and was passed to McKenzie at right wing, who dribbled to the goal mouth and passed in front of the goal to Seim for a neat goal, Wendt having no chance. A few minutes later the forwards came in fast again, Seim slipped and fell as he was about to shoot. Holstein worked a smooth combination in the second half and were working in on top of Wendt time after time, only to have him make a brilliant save. Twice he got the ball as it was drifting for the corner of the goal. McKenzie at the other end made some hard stops and was unlucky to be scored on. The ball hit the referee and his view was cut off as Harper shot from close in.

Blyth at full back played a steady game and was well supported by Pinder in his new position. J. McKenzie played a brilliant game at right half while R. Pinder and Seim on left wing were a treat to watch, romping up to left wing time after time to work in close for shots.

In the games against Mildmay the locals showed great form, having improved wonderfully since the group games.

Line-up: Mildmay—Wendt, Kunkel, Schurr, Lobsinger, Scheffer, Illig, Kaufman, Harper, Edgar, Harper, Schuett.

Holstein: B. McKenzie, Blyth, H. Pinder, J. McKenzie, Long, Schenk, Sim, S. McKenzie, J. Calder, Eccles, Seim, R. Pinder.

Referee, Bell, of Hanover

The annual U. F. O. picnic held in Wm Carson's bush on Friday last, passed off quite pleasantly, though the crowd was not as large as usual. F. R. Oliver M.P.P. was present and gave a brief but interesting talk on the general business done in Parliament during the past session. As there was a picnic at Yeoivil the same afternoon, the young M.P.P. left shortly after to give an address there.

After lunch was served spirited foot races by the children were indulged in, also a young man's race, which had to be run over the second time, to decide the championship between Cecil Barber and Norman McIvoride. With the former's best girl waiting at the winning post with outstretched arms, Cecil won out by a small margin.

A tug of war between the married and single men was the chief centre of attraction. After a minute or two of desperate pulling, the young fellows began to seriously realize that the pulling powers of the married fellows had diminished very little, and Ab. Mearns and Jack McKenzie with the other fellows, took refuge behind a big stump and a big beech tree. Just whether Jack would take the rope around the tree we won't say, (but still have a lingering suspicion.) Tug as the married fellows would and did to maintain their high dignity, coveted so much by their opponents, they still stubbornly refused to come across and rather than submit them to too great a strain, the old fellows gave in when it leaked out that the young fellows had scarcely enough wind left to give a cheer.

BARNYARD GOLF

The West we learn, is limbering up for a series of inter-provincial contests in the ancient and honorable pastime of pitching horseshoes and the Globe suggests that a Dominion tourney as a feature of the Jubilee year of Confederation is not improbable. Ontario then must look to her laurels and we anticipate keen rivalry for the honor of upholding the prestige of our fair Province. So that our readers may have an opportunity of becoming posted on the finer points of the game as it is played in the best circles, we reprint blow the rules adopted for western tournaments. Our contemporary is authoritative for the assertion that they are "according to Hoyle."

"Two one inch iron or steel stakes are driven firmly in the ground, 49 ft apart, so that 8 inches remains above the surface. Each stake has a lean of one inch toward the other. A box, 26 inches square, is built around each stake and sunk level with the surface of the ground and filled with fine earth.

The pitcher may stand with his heel at the stake and the other foot must not be further than 36 inches in front of the stake.

The regulation shoe is made from dropped steel, weighs 2 1/2 pounds, is 7 inches long and 3 1/2 inches between the heel calks: the calks are 3/4 inch long.

In order to score the shoe must light within the box and lay in the proper position, that is, with the calks down, and must be within six inches of the stake. A finger counts three points and all other positions one point each."

Ben Davis Apple Banned

At a meeting of the Georgian Bay Fruit Growers' Association at Shallow Lake, the members decided that the Ben Davis apple is a detriment to the successful marketing of orchards. Although for evaporating purposes the Ben Davis is equal to any, yet for shipping it lacks the appetizing and keeping qualities which have won favor for such varieties as the Spy, Greening, King and McIntosh Red.
