

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Miss Janet McDonald after a lengthened visit to many friends, returned last week to her home in Ottawa.

Miss Sadie McKinnon is at present on a visit to her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar McKinnon.

Mrs. Clifford Ramsden of New York will be the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. John and Miss Minnie Stothart for the next month.

Mrs. Jas. Dingwall of Celarville is visiting her sister, Mrs. Watson and nephew, W. G.

Judging by the new roofs being put on the owners must expect more rain in the future, W. G. Watson covering his stable with corrugated metal roofing. Mr. Geo. Arrowsmith is the artist.

Another fine service was held in St. Columba Sunday night Rev. S. C. McCormack preaching on another fine old Psalm "O God our help in ages past." It is by Sir Isaac Watts, who by the way is buried in Westminster Abbey, among Britain's great.

Mrs. Thos. McKenna, nee Laura McMillan of Toronto, is at present on a visit to her mother and brother. Mr. and Mrs. Lachlan McKinnon returned to their home in Calgary this week after a lengthy visit among their many friends and relatives. It is many years since we saw in the early '70's, he and his sister "Totie" (famously called) walking to the old log church at Amos, hold of their father's hand.

Congratulations and best wishes to his sister Mrs. McKee (Tena McKinnon) on the occasion of her recent marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Parslow, nee Katie McDonald) are on a visit to each of their parents.

Mr. Jack Parker, Palmerston, spent Sunday at Mrs. Everist's.

Miss Marjory Everist has returned home after spending a month in Toronto and Niagara Falls.

Seldom has the weather been so free from adverse criticism as in the past month. The growing crops are in that stage of development that requires a lot of rain and a moderate temperature for a good harvest.

And we have it. A marked advance has been made in the past week and the outlook is very good. Most of the farmers around here are busy cutting alfalfa and report a fine crop.

SWINTON PARK

Born on Friday, July 15, to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McLean, con 14, Proton, a son.

There are fine prospects for an abundance of oats for both man and beast. The fine rains and warm weather have been a blessing to the country. And now good weather is desired for the saving of the hay. We notice fields in coil equal to anything ever seen in Proton and three loads per acre will be harvested in some fields.

Arch. McKinnon is suffering with blood poisoning in his hand and arm at present—and work so pressing.

Mrs. J. H. Richardson is also in poor health at present. We hope for them both a speedy recovery.

Misses Ruby Haw and Marjory Kinell are home from the city for a short holiday.

Mrs. Knox of Guelph, made a short call in the Park the other day, coming by way of Durham and her old home in Egremont at Wm. Leith's.

Hugh McMillan's having a niece's husband and children from Webbwood, New Ont. visiting them.

Mrs. Neil McKinnon of Toronto, is spending some time with McKinnon's on the 14th con.

Miss Joan Knox is visiting friends at Hopeville.

Mrs. Jas. Kennedy and children of Shelburne, spent last week with her parents and sisters, the Aldcorn's, Heard's and McMillan's.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watson entertained a carload of friends from G. Sound Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Copeland, son and daughter dined with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hardy Sunday. Miss Hardy, of Toronto, a daughter of Wm. Hardy, Sask., is visiting the Martin's and Hardy's here at present.

Sunday last we had as minister, Rev. Jno. Hart, lately from Manitoba, coming by auto. We enjoyed his sermon and noticed a resemblance to our old minister, Rev. J. A. Matheson, especially in the length of him, and certain actions. Mr. Hart will be here next Sunday also.

Also you will all take notice that the far famed Orange picnic at S. Park is to be held this year on the 17th August on the usual grounds.

Eighty-four Years Young

On Sunday last, Mr. Thos. Dargavel celebrated his 84th birthday. On his return home from morning service a very pleasant surprise awaited him. Several of his nieces and nephews from various parts of the province, fifteen in all, came to spend the afternoon with him and a very enjoyable time was spent.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. Cairns, Ceylon; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. O. Dargavel and children of Rock Mills; Mr. and Mrs. F. Collinson and children of Ceylon; Mrs. A. B. Balfour and Mr. Bonar Balfour of Piltir Farm, St. Catharines, and Miss Sybil Collinson of Regina.

Mr. Dargavel is one of the old school, those old-time Scotch pioneers who opened up this province, whose word was as good as their bond and whose eye was eye and their way was right.

Most of whom are now sleeping in the kirk cemeteries throughout the countryside. Though well on past the allotted span of life as given by the Psalmist, he is as bright in mind and active in body almost as in ever.

As might be expected, he is a staunch Kirkman, is a Liberal of the George Brown type and we might add is still a reader of the Globe though he mourns its degeneracy from the stern and rigid course it used to pursue in the good old days.

His many friends will congratulate him on having attained this ripe old age, at the same time wishing him many happy returns.—Winton Echo.

bridge, 18 rods south of the gate. He claimed Hahn struck him: he was keeping the right side of the road and insisted to both counsels he was going 15 miles an hour. To Mr. Culpe he said he didn't blow his horn to attract his boy to open the gate: 'twas a warning blow to coming car, could see about 300 yards ahead.

Alvin Morrison, young son of defendant, said he heard the horn blow from the house and ran to open the gate: about a rod from the gate saw the car coming and "going faster than usual." Saw the cars clash together his father being thrown out. Saw Hahn get out of his car accusing his father and thought he smelt liquor. Mr. Culpe asked "How did you know the smell of liquor?" and the lad declared his parents did not tell him what to say.

Mrs. Morrison sworn said that Hahn's car was "travelling quick," faster than usual, and she too declared she could smell liquor.

Mr. Culpe addressed His Honor as did also Mr. Robertson in an interesting summing up. Mr. Laidlaw thought they had not proved that Morrison had not violated the Highway Traffic Act and driving his car around the curve at 35 miles an hour, so he dismissed the case. Practically a verdict for Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Anderson spent the first of the week with Mr. John Burnett, Artermesia.

Miss Mary McNab spent a week with her cousins, Mary and Agnes Anderson.

Edge Hill and Glenroaden played their second game of ball Monday night when Glenroaden came victorious. The first game was played at Waudby garden party on the 15th when Edge Hill were the victors.

15 YEARS AGO

From Review file, July 25, 1912

We extend congratulations to Mr. Geo. Ylirs, who on Sunday evening, July 21st, was united in wedlock to Miss Florence Wilson, at the home of the bride's parents, Elgin St.

We announced two weeks ago as we thought a finality, that the site of our new Post Office was settled. We were wrong it seems. It is impossible to please all the local Conservatives and some of them seem bound to tear down the decision reached by the engineer at Ottawa.

A meeting of the council was held Thursday last, and a proposal was carried by the majority to ask that the Post Office be placed on the site of the present Town Hall, the town offering their area for $2200, while the necessary width would be obtained by securing the north wing of the Hahn House for which an option has been got for $1800.

The school board are advertising for a new teacher for the third class in Durham school, owing to the resignation of Miss Gretta Nichol, who has had charge of that room for over three years.
