

Mr and Mrs Jos. Patterson tendered a Farewell

On Tuesday, 30th August, several of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Patterson, Egremont, met at their home as somewhat of a farewell gathering, ere their departure for Varney, where they purpose in future residing.

courage the tremendous problems of the years gone by, and of how they conquered these almost impossible conditions, how they worked out for us the principles of British Institution and tradition, and of how they implanted in the minds of their children the principles of righteousness, honesty, independence—in short a desire to labor honestly to obtain their own living in that state of life to which they were called.

Seeing South Grey People in Saskatch'n

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McClintock of Saskatoon, Sask. recently enjoyed an extensive motor trip through Saskatchewan, and the racy letter we received this Monday from Mrs. McClintock, shows that they made the most of their time.

morning train but were disappointed as Miss McPhail came in later by motor, having spent the Sunday at the Lake.

Had a pleasant hour with Mrs. Paul (Miss Horburg) in her spacious home. Mrs. Paul has had a sad bereavement lately in the loss of her son by drowning.

Balcarres is a cheerful town with good heavy farm lands and splendid buildings, but were disappointed in Abernethy, an older village, in which the stranger felt the town fathers or some one had lost their vision.

Through Lemburg and Neudorf are mostly German settlers,—liquor board stores and their effects very evident. One feels sorry for the children in their long full dresses and head shawls and high, heavy shoes.

The little girl visiting me here has knickers, socks and sandals and only a visor on her pretty bobbed head, enjoying the great out-of-doors to the fullest.

I call Esterhazy the "friendly village" for nearly every man, woman and child who passed the car in the hour I had to wait, gave a cheery greeting.

Hazel cliffs, a depot deep down in the beautiful Little Bel Arm Valley, has very steep wooded valleys and hills and winding roads that almost makes ones heart forget to beat.

When one dares to look across at the magnificent landscape it feels like another world and one misgives would surely land them there in a hurry. Through Tantalou too, was Nature's own beauty spot with its hills and trees and "danger" curves.

At Rocanville chanced into the Gray family who were nearly all in town at Chautauqua. Had tea at Jim's: they have a splendid family, good home and the little visit there was a happy reminder of early school days.

Mrs. Gray, Sr. in her cosy home in town, has not been so well of late but was as cheerful and interesting as of old and it was with regret we had to say "Good bye" so soon.

Mrs. Matthews looks as if prairie life was both kindly and agreeable: her son and daughter, married, live near. Phoned Charlie, 11 miles distant, but he happened to be out at the time, so didn't see them, but Archie's wife and children were with the mother, so was pleased to meet them also.

From Welwyn at the Manitoba line we phoned Mrs. Ernest Gadd at Foxwarren and would like very much to have visited them but time would not allow.

At Grenfell, found old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Morrison, in their comfortable home that is inside of beauty with flowers—inside and out. They have had many sorrows since coming West and now Mr. M. has lost his sight, but he has found the God of Love and that is a great comfort. In the same town is Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Baird and had a few minutes with them.

At Summerberry, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Lindel, of early days at Varney, made us very welcome and were pleased to hear of old friends there. Mr. Lindal has the Post Office and telephone exchange so are kept busy.

Parked the car at Indian Head on Saturday evening by a familiar looking sign, "Geo. Stinson, baker," and on investigation it truly was the same one from Durham. "George" was out of town but we had a pleasant visit with Mrs. Stinson in their home. They have a thriving business in grocery, confectionery and bakery.

Sunday afternoon, a drive through the Government Experimental Farm and through avenues of trees, flowers and well kept plots at the well-kept farm, was thoroughly enjoyable.

Through the beautiful farming district about Wolsely, I looked with keener interest, for there my brothers, Mansfield and Charlie Leeson "batched" years ago, when I was young. Even found a man who remembered them well and who was pleased to talk of early days. Now a beautiful soldier's monument adorns a beautiful courtyard. An old folks home, a hospital, large brick and stone dwellings, speak of a prospering, older settlement than these farther west.

Regina is on the boom again, large blocks, places of business and residences are going up, signs of building all over that growing city. Met there Mrs. F. Smith, daughter of Geo. Neil of Varney and later, Mt. Forest.

At a night with them in their beautiful home. It certainly brought back the days when we were little girls together.

At Regina Beach found Mr and Mrs. Ad. Little in one of their own summer cottages, cunningly named "Little Rest Cottage." Their daughter is married but a little adopted boy helps them enjoy life. "Ad" has a little blacksmith shop still and Mrs. Little is busy and jolly as ever. We had a very enjoyable visit, the resort has about 500 cottages, 3 dance halls, a church, bake shop and a very pleasing place to spend a holiday.

At Edlestone we found Mrs. (formerly Mrs. Sam Stewart) who looks about as young and happy as when she lived near Knox Corners. Mrs. Pettigrew, Sr. had just gone to Stony Beach a few days previous so missed seeing her.

These and many other friends, not familiar to Durham turned a 1100 mile motor trip into one of the most enjoyable outings. We saw the beauties of our own adopted province, wondered as to the wisdom of our statements in allowing foreign peoples to stay foreign in our land and often so decidedly antagonistic to our own people and customs. Saw where farmers do not live on their

Did You Ever Stop to Think. Just what a ten dollar bill which a farmer spends in his home town may accomplish? Let us follow it around. Probably the dry goods merchant gets it first. He passes it on to the hardware merchant in payment of an account. The hardware merchant pays it in wages to one of his employees. This employee pays it to his landlady, who pays a grocery bill with it. The grocery can then pay his butcher. The butcher passes this on to his produce merchants, buying largely from the farmer, pass on this ten dollars back to the farmer, from whom it originally came. Thus it has, in its ramblings among the home town people, served many useful purposes and yet it is still in the community to again serve.

If Sent Away To Distant Merchants. That ten dollar bill is done for good. It may serve to build up the large city elsewhere. But so far as the home community is concerned its usefulness is at an end and the community has been drained of just that much working capital. When in Need of Printing. Remember that orders left with your home town printer will serve to pay the wages of workmen who in turn spend this money with local business houses, thus serving to maintain that round of business which is necessary in order that rural towns throughout Canada may flourish and prosper.
