Will Durham Receive Some?

As somewhat of a token of appreciation ere leaving Canada, the Prince of Wales is making a gift to every city, town and village of this country, of peony bulbs. There are 105 cities, nearly 500 towns and almost 1000 villages. Durham should be among this list and we suggest that the Horticultural Society get in touch with the proper authorities.

Harrison Girls Here Today.

Arrangements have been completed for the famous Owen Sound Wawanekas to play Durham girls here this Thursday at 5.30, but they received word Wednesday night to play a semi final in Galt on Friday, and they immediately cancelled their exhibition game here. Harrison has a smart girls' team, and they have been secured instead to meet Durham here at 5.30 sharp today. Come and see them.

Ten Prizes from Eleven Tournaments

As a bowler, Mr. Fred Ramsey of Meaford this summer has established a record which is hard to beat. He has played at eleven tournaments and won ten prizes. At Durham he took two events; at Owen Sound North one event; at Warton he took the first event and was runner up in the second; at Winton he took two events; at Collingwood one, at Stayner one and at Chatsworth one. In the team events Mr. Ramsey was each time skip of the rink. The personnel of the rink changed at different tournaments. In the Scotch doubles Mr. Ramsey's partner was Mr. N. Young who has also been a consistent winner during the bowling season.

The Aberdeen Branch of Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Herb Hopkins, on Sept. 8th, when 27 ladies were present. After the opening exercises and business concluded, an interesting program was given. Mrs. J. F. McLean sang a solo which was much appreciated. Mrs. D. Lamb gave a splendid paper on 'Friendship'; Mrs. Germon Johnson prepared a paper but was unable to be present and was read by Miss Annie Smith, entitled, 'Way Worry.' A letter of appreciation was read from Mrs. Arch McLean. A book was sent to their son John when in Durham hospital. The roll call was answered by silver collection and helpful hints. All joined in community singing and the National Anthem closed the meeting. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and a few of her friends and a social hour spent. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Donald Stewart, on Oct. 21st, at which fruit will be packed for the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, and Red Cross Hospital, Durham. All ladies cordially invited.

Operation was Successful

Mr. C. P. Kinnee was pleased to receive the news this week from B. Columbia, that an operation for cancer, performed on his sister, Mrs. C. Leavens of near New Westminster, had been quite successful. Mr. and Mrs. Leavens were old-time Durham residents, leaving here for the West in 1901.

The Late George Moore

Thursday of last week, Mr. George Moore passed the bourne, after weary months of suffering, patiently borne, from a cancerous affection of the throat a year and a half ago he underwent a severe operation, which gave relief for a time, but seven months ago he quit work at the Furniture Factory, and since has been tenderly cared for by Mrs. Moore, as it was seen that medical service was of no avail. His last thought was for her, asking his boys to care for their mother.

He was 72 years of age, and was born at Palermo, near Toronto, but early in life came with his parents to the 19th con, Egremont, in which district as well as in Durham he was well known. Forty six years ago he was married to Miss Anna Hopkins, who survives him. To them were born three sons, Joseph and Charles, both married and living near by. Another son, Delbert died at the age of five years. Other mourners are his sister, Mrs. W. Lawrence (Ellen) of Durham and his brothers, Thos. in Sask., John in Holstein, Wm and Robert on the old home in Egremont. A brother Joseph died some years ago.

Deceased for some years was a member of Durham Council and was on the Board of Works. He was a carpenter by trade and an efficient one. For 11 years he was a valued workman in Durham Furniture Factory. He took a warm interest in the Orange Order and was also a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters, both of which bodies conducted the funeral.

Interment took place Saturday to Trinity Church cemetery and a large number of friends paid the last tribute. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. H. S. Fiddes of Queen St. United Church, assisted by Rev. Jno. E. Peters, of Meaford, his late pastor, whose action in coming to the funeral was greatly appreciated by the chief mourners.

Floral offerings were a pillow by the family; wreaths by the L.O.L., the Foresters, the Furniture Co., Mr. and Mrs. Mel and Mr and Mrs. Wes. Storrey; sprays from Mr and Mrs. Jas. Lloyd, Queen St. Ladies' Aid, Mr and Mrs. John Crutchley, Mr and Mrs. Thos. Cook, Sanford family of Windsor, Mr and Mrs. Harold Wass of Windsor, Mrs. Jas Hopkins and family, Dr and Mrs. Wolfe, Mr and Mrs. A. McClocklin.

Mr Louis Sanford and son Charles of Windsor, were up for the funeral. We extend our sympathy to all the mourners, who have lost a loving husband and father. The writer has known him for 60 years and the friendship was always pleasant.

Startlingly Sad Death of Mrs. J. P. Hunter

Died in Presbyterian Church which she saw for the first time

The town was shocked to learn on Tuesday afternoon that Mrs. J. P. Hunter had passed away at the age of 70 years. For a year or two back she had not been in the best of health, but bore up patiently and on Tuesday she ventured to attend the Presbyterian Church where the Ladies' Aid had a work meeting on hand. She was motored to the church, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Pickering and remarked going up the steps that she felt weak and faint. She was led to a seat, Mrs. Lauder ran down stairs for a cup of water, Dr. Bell was summoned, but before he arrived the vital spark had fled.

Thus her last earthly impulse was in the interest of the church, for which in earlier days she was a faithful attendant. She has left a name and a record behind her which her family and friends will always cherish. Mrs. Hunter was born in Brantford, was the eldest daughter of the late Robert and Mrs. McFarlane, who in the early 60's of last century moved their family to Durham. Here their young people grew up and entered upon life. Some 48 years ago she was married to Mr. Hunter, the union proved a happy one and to them were born their well-known son, Wm. S. and four daughters, who to-day have been plunged into grief. The daughters are Jessie, (Mrs. Chas. McKinnon) of Bassano, Alta.; Mamie, (Mrs. Dr. Pickering) and Miss Effie, in Durham; Grace, (Mrs. G. C. McDonald) Chatsworth. Robert McKinnon, (Mrs. A. H. Jackson) Durham, are brother and sister of deceased. Another brother is George of Toronto and these will grieve for their sister only less keenly than the immediate family, who were much attached to wife and mother.

The funeral, private, takes place on Saturday at 2 p.m. to Saugeen cemetery. We join in the general sympathy for the family so sorely and so suddenly bereaved.

Baptists Hold a Successful Anniversary

It is the good fortune of the managing Board of the Baptist Church, whoever has the selecting of the anniversary function, to choose a man big in scholarly attainments as well as big in matters pertaining to our inner selves and spiritual existence. Such a speaker Sunday and Monday last was in the Baptist pulpit here on the occasion of the anniversary here. This was Rev. G. R. Duncan, M. A., B. D., the Educational secretary of McMaster University, Toronto. In the evening he dwelt upon Jesus' great life purpose—to seek and save the lost. It was sin which brought God from His throne to earth, and made necessary the sacrifice of Calvary. Jesus always sought the lost. The speaker related the determined efforts of Zachaeus to see Jesus, and sorrow and repentance as expressed in Zachaeus' declaration is what God wants.

MONDAY EVENING

This was a runner-up of Sunday's successful services. The church was beautifully decorated for both occasions with a profusion of bloom—bright red dahlias, tinted gladioli, and the hardy foliage vying with each other for supremacy. The choir of the church, augmented by Glenelg Centre choir sang spirited anthems both days, and the solo sections were taken by Mr. H. Phipps, Mr. Herb. Hollis and Miss W. Binnie. Mr. Phipps, leader, and Miss Eva Redford, organist, are to be congratulated on the results of their work.

The assisting artists for the evening were Mr. Ernest Warren, tenor, and Miss Myrtle Hare, contralto, of Toronto. It was an evening Durham hears not enough of. Mr. Warren is an old favorite here while it was Miss Hare's first appearance. She is also an artist on the piano and her solo numbers upon it were executed with much fineness of touch and a proper appreciation of the work she was playing. Her vocal numbers were all new here and accompanying herself, sang with much charm and left such a pleasant impression, that Durham wants her back some time. Mr. Warren's repertoire was very varied and some one of other of his selections caught the fancy of all. He is a big man and carries a big voice, which also is marvelously sweet and clear and sings his songs whether plaintive or dramatic in an artistic manner. "Come to the Fair" we thought his best rendition of the night.

Mr. Phipps pleased the audience with his cornet solos and had the able assistance at the piano of Miss Jemima Lawrence.

At the close, Mr. Allan Bell, on behalf of the program committee, of which he was chairman, thanked the audience for responding in such large numbers and also all who in any way assisted in making it the success it proved to be.

The address of the evening and its chief feature was that of Rev. Mr. Duncan, who is a clear, convincing speaker with a dash of humor which is taking and a fund of illustration which makes clear his points. The address was styled "Men who have moved and lifted the world" and he claimed attention first to the great period we live in, the world was cleverer and wiser, and it was being advanced by worthy men in church and state. He recalled the Greek Archimedes and his saying that, given a place to stand he could, with his potent lever, lift the world. The world could be lifted still in another way by men of honor, of perseverance, of righteousness and of determination. To advance only in material progress was to invite deterioration, but where that progress was accompanied by moral and intellectual progress the world was lifted and civilization advanced.

He named world-known men such as Augustine, Savonarola, Luther, Knox, Taylor, Wesley, Moody and others whose influence had moved the world because they had advanced the mass of the common people.

Every man, said the speaker, was made for a purpose, and his topic might be called "The value of a purposeful life." He used with fine effect Paul's dictum "This one thing I do," and the apostle's words were still moving the ages. Livingstone had one great purpose in life, to Christianize Africa. The great Abraham Lincoln long before he was President, had determined to hit slavery and hit it hard and so with other of the world's great men who had a purpose in life: even Wilberforce though a hunchback, honored the British Empire by his purposeful efforts against slavery. Livingstone's cry was "O that I might finish my work" and greater than all the influence of the Christ sacrifice, was to be an earnest talk, rising not seldom into eloquence.

Good Attractions for Durham Fair Wednesday

Next Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 20 and 21, are Durham fair dates, and Wednesday should see a bumper attendance if favored by fine weather, from town and many miles around. Durham is noted for having one of the best displays of agricultural exhibits among fairs in this district, and an increased entry list is probable this year. Then the management have arranged for two horse races, 2.20 and 2.30 classes, for each of which three prizes are offered. School drills and band music will complete the afternoon sports.

In the evening "Ye Olde Tyme Village Quartette", fresh from Toronto Exhibition engagement, with Gus Kennedy, comedian, will supply an unusually fine program at the concert in the Skating Rink. Buy tickets now at McFadden's Drug Store.

Let every one boost Durham Fair Wednesday, and there's no better way than by bringing the whole family and your neighbor as well.

New Heating System for Town Hall

Town Council making a Thorough Renovation.—In full accord with Old Home Week Movement

There was only a bare quorum at Monday night's postponed Council meeting, Reeve Bell and Couns. Arnold Noble and McLean being absent. The Finance Com. reported accounts totalling $519.51, which were ordered paid. By-laws 831 and 832 were given their several readings and passed. No. 832 is one designating Garafraza Street as a through highway and all vehicles entering upon it must come to a full stop before proceeding. This by-law gives the constable full authority to take action against all parties who disregard it. By-law 831 appoints Hamilton Allen, local constable, as Liquor Control Officer, giving him full authority (Continued on Page 8.)

Messrs Alex and Eddie McQueen visited with Stayner relatives over the week end.

Mr. E. A. Weppeler who has been in Kitchener the past summer, has left for the Western harvest fields and writing this on Monday of this week we figure he will now probably be stoeking grain in the vicinity of Spuers, Sask. He says crops "in that district were very good but have been frozen in spots. Some parts of a field are very good while other parts of the same field are not worth cutting. There will be quite an acreage not cut as there is practically nothing in it. I heard one man say there was not even bran in some of his wheat. Crops look very good between Regina and Saskatoon, also around North Battleford and Prince Albert. I am 40 miles north east of Battleford."

HYMENEAL

WHITMORE - McFADDEN

A pretty September wedding took place at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 7th, at the home of Mr and Mrs Wm. John McFadden, Durham Road, Glenelg, when their daughter Ella M., became the bride of Mr George Whitmore, Glenelg's popular councillor and son of the late Mr and Mrs N. W. Whitmore.

This event was witnessed by about one hundred relatives and the friends of both contracting parties, and took place on the verandah of the home which was gaily decorated for the occasion with evergreens, bells and flowers. Entering the verandah on the arm of her father who gave her away, the bride looked lovely attired in Grecian rose georgette, with blonde shoes and hose and carrying pale pink roses. She was attended by Miss Mary Whitmore attired in sand canton crepe, while the bride's brother, Freeman McFadden performed the duties of groomsmen. Miss Barbara Ritchie, Durham, played the wedding march. Rev. H. S. Fiddes of Queen St. United Church, was the officiating minister. The ceremony and good wishes over, the guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served. The table was centred with a splendid bridal cake, the three stores being separated by spoons and on top was surmounted by doves, bells and wheat, indicating respectively love, peace and prosperity. Many beautiful gifts were received by the happy couple, and showed evidence of respect and good will. The gift of the groom to his bride took the form of a white gold bar pin set with pearls and to the bridesmaid and organist and groomsmen respectively bar pins and gold cuff links. The evening was given over to dancing, which was enjoyed till the wee sma' hours broke. The Review extends felicitations to bride and groom and wish for them a long and prosperous life together.

Walkerton girls were too much for Durham in a 7 inning softball exhibition Saturday night here, winning 21-13. The visitors played a little snapper ball and took full advantage of the local errors. Blanche Murdock, Daisy Mather and Lizzie Hind all pitched for Durham, with L. Hind and Ellen Hay receiving, while Ruby Cowley was Walkerton's blinger. Erma Keller, visiting here from Shallow Lake, played well at first for her old team. Other Durham players were Mary Brown, Florence McDonald, Grace Baird and Violet Mervyn. The score:

Durham	0	6	1	4	2	0	0	13
Walkerton	4	0	5	0	1	5	1	21

Site Picked 15 years ago

Strange irony of fate isn't it, that fifteen years ago Durham was wrangling where the new Post Office should be and now the building is going up. See "In days of yore" on page 5.
