The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid of St. Columba Church, Priceville, was held at the home of Mrs. R Parslow on Oct. 19th. The president, Mrs McCormack, was in the chair and conducted the opening exercises. Mrs F Reilly read a clipping from an O. Sound paper regarding the bales received by the Presbyterial. It was a very gratifying report. Sentence prayers were offered by several members and Mrs Fred Karstedt gave a reading.

The special feature of the meeting was an address by Miss MacMillan of Fleshe ton, one of the vicepresidents of Grey Presbyterial. She spoke on the conditions and prob- sometime, underwent an operation Miss Reta, visited with the Aitkens lems which the foreign element of last Saturday-Dr's Sneath, Dromore family near Holstein recently. our population present to the Chris- and Perry, Mt Forest and a nurse Mrs Jos. PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

Chill November's stormy blasts make fields and forests bare. Summer time is past and gone and winter storms are near. October finished fine, and we expect some pranks by some of the youngsters to-night. We spent last week at the old home at brother and sister's. We thank mail-courier F. McKinnon for a lift part of the way, and like good Samaritan, Reeve Allan Bell of Durham, overtook the mail-courier, stopped his car, and took us the rest of the way. Our good neighbor, Mr Wm. Edge, left us at home, so our thanks are due to all who assisted us on our journey home to Edge Hill. We had a long letter from Rev. Mr Sutherland of Miriam Bridge, N. S. His many friends at Priceville will be pleased to hear he is getting along fairly well. He says he is able to preach three sermons every week.
