Philip Taylor, one of the proprietors of the Revere House at Thornbury, appeared before Magistrate Crossin in Owen Sound police court on Friday morning, and after being convicted on a charge of having liquor in a place other than a private guest room, was fined $500 and costs. Constables Denton and Widmeyer made the search and found gin in 4 small bottles in a cupboard back of the bar; a quart bottle nearly empty in the kitchen; and one half full in the proprietor's bedroom.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

A great deal has been said about the weather but very little done. Snow flurries are over and balmy weather is again ours this Monday.

Miss Jessie Nichol spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Jean MacLean. Mr Young of Knox College, Toronto, occupied the pulpit in the Hall on Sunday. Mr Young is an able speaker and preached a very impressive sermon.

Mr John Alex McCuaig arrived home on Saturday night from the West, after spending three months out there.

Miss Eva Carson was the guest of her friend, Miss Olive McMeekin on Sunday.

Mr Neil McLean took a few truck loads of potatoes to Hanover for $1.50 per bar.

Mr Farquhar McKinnon visited the first of the week at Mr Alex Carson's and Mrs Wm Hay, Swinton Park, visited recently at Mr A. L. Hinek's.

The funeral of the late Mrs Campbell took place Thursday, Nov. 17th, from her son's residence, to Priceville cemetery and was largely attended by sympathetic friends and relatives from far and near. Rev. Mr Annand, Presbyterian minister, Mr Dundalk, conducted the service at house and grave. The pall bearers were Messrs Alex Carson, Alex Stewart, Angus Clark, Hector McLean, J. McLachlan, Duncan Sinclair. She leaves to mourn five daughters: Miss Flora, at home; Mrs Donald Stewart, Katie, Bella and Elizabeth in Montreal, who operate a successful business there. Deepest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing ones in their sad bereavement.

Miss Anna Mary McLean was in Dundalk on Saturday.

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Wm McLeod Monday evening and danced the light fantastic till wee sma' hours of the mornin'. Everybody enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr A. B. MacArthur came home from Durham hospital Monday and we are glad to know he is feeling much improved. We hope Mr MacArthur will soon be out and around again.

All consents must be in by the 1st of December: after that date they will be void.

Karstedt Bros.

We extend heartfelt congratulations to our townsman, Mr Harold Karstedt, in securing 1st prize for a female fox, out of many entries, at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto. He was also within a point or two of three others in winning. This ranch, recently enlarged on the Glenelg side of the townline, is fast becoming one of the finest in Ontario, with an excellent line of foxes, securing as they have honors from other provinces and from P. E. I., the original home of the breed.

There passed away on Tuesday a. m., the 15th inst., Mrs Christina Campbell, at the ripe old age of 94 years. Emigrating to Canada with her husband, shortly after marriage in 1856, by sailing vessel, being 6 weeks on the ocean. Arriving at Quebec, Montreal, Toronto and finally Owen Sound, they came from there to Durham and Rob Roy, on a lumber wagon with the late Chas. McArthur of Bunesan. Living here continuously, ever since near Priceville at the home of her son Donald Campbell, she has proven herself to be a mother in Israel to her neighbors in sorrow and trouble. A faithful attendant at church services when able, walking many miles to the old church at Smellie's corner. By the union were born to them 7 children, one of whom died at the age of 14. The others are all in good health, three of whom are in Montreal but home for the funeral. Mrs Don Stewart, (Mary) and Flora living with her brother and his wife, north of Priceville, are the other members.

The funeral service, largely attended by sympathizing friends and neighbors, was conducted by Rev. E. E. Annand, Dundalk, who spoke very comforting, his subject dealing largely with life here and the life beyond and referred touchingly to the last days of her life, in recalling scenes and old reminiscences of her early life in Scotland, in Gaelic. Having a warm heart to old Psalms, 'O God of Bethel' and 'O God our help in ages past' were sung as a tribute to her revered memory.

Pall bearers were all near neighbors. Alex Stewart, Alex Carson, Hector McLean, Duncan Sinclair, Angus Clark and John McLachlan, who laid her body to rest in the north east corner of the old cemetery, near her husband, who predeceased her 17 years ago. The sympathy and regard of the whole community goes out to those who are bereaved of a dear old mother. Flowers were given as a loving tribute by the daughters in Montreal and by those at home. Friends from a distance were Mrs Henry, an old neighbor and two sons of Toronto.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr and Mrs Donald Campbell and sisters, wish to thank all friends and neighbors for help rendered and for all expressions of sympathy during the illness and death of their beloved mother.

Convention in Priceville

Rev. W. H. Smith, Durham and a Mr Bott, returned missionary, from Japan, the speakers

At a largely attended meeting of the southern part of Grey Presbytery delegates were present from Maxwell, Ceylon, Inistogo, Dundalk, Durham, etc. The meeting was opened by devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. S. G. McCormack; Rev. G. Kendall Maxwell, read the scripture lesson, and Rev. Harrower, Flesherston and Rev. Spencer, Dundalk, leading in prayer, after which a missionary from Japan, Mr Bott, gave an interesting description of that country and its peoples, habits and customs. One, in particular, attracted our attention, that of being an hour or more later in assembling than the hour announced, which unfortunately prevails here to a certain extent in Canada. He told of trials had in singing and preaching, the after meetings proving more beneficial, inasmuch as they can ask questions. The rural churches there are a source of spiritual activity. Signs of superiority, pride or condescension has to be strictly avoided by the missionary. He declared that western civilization is not Christianity and that we can never secure peace, as 'They who fight by the sword, shall perish by the sword.' 90 per cent of moving pictures are injurious, funny to us, but a serious matter in Japan. There are no great open spaces there, farms being 1/2 acres in size, intensively worked and densely populated as a result. Christian influence largely instrumental in Sunday observance.

The United Church was flourishing in Japan and conveyed their appreciation to us for our assistance. The Japanese are a fine people, the name of Heathen not being applicable to them as a bond of Brotherhood and Friendship is readily formed. A fine address pleasingly given.

Rev. W. H. Smith, Durham, in opening his stirring, forceful address, referred to Canada's Jubilee year, its wonderful resources of mines, forests fisheries, agriculture, etc. But the great source of success in Canada was often overlooked, being the church and its influences which we have failed to boast about.

Canada was ahead in church union by 50 years of Presbyterianism in Scotland and 40 years of Methodism in England and stated that more Protestants have come from Europe than have come from the British Isles to Canada. He cited the progress in New Ontario in church building and every one of them will go over the top in the Maintenance Fund. Our church is the pioneer church whose men shall be banded together for the advancement of God's Kingdom. We are not going back, we are going forward. No excuse for failure with the endeavor to have the gospel preached in every hamlet. The meeting closed with the doxology and the benediction by Student Prosser of Ceylon. A lunch and tea was thereafter served in the basement by the ladies of the congregation.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

The weather has taken a change, and this Monday, the 21st Nov. is mild and rainy looking. However there may be another change before long. It is a good time to provide fuel for the nearby winter weather.

We are pleased to hear that A. B. MacArthur will be able to go home shortly from Durham Hospital.

We had a friendly visit from some of our good neighbors one evening lately and enjoyed an historical talk of olden times.

Miss Margaret McLean of Lambton St., Durham, is spending some time with friends in Toronto and elsewhere for the last couple of weeks. Reeve Weir, Glenelg, spent last week at the Co. Council. We haven't heard of any opposition for 1928.

The communion held in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday was fairly well attended. The pastor, Rev. Mr Armstrong, gave a suitable sermon for the solemn occasion. We were pleased to hear the old Psalms sung to the old tunes of long ago by a large choir. It brought back to memory the days of long ago in the old manner of leading the praise part of the service: the preacher sitting in a box in front of the pulpit and the whole congregation as choir members, singing the 116th Psalm to the old tune of 'Martyrdom'. Another familiar paraphrase to the tune of Evans. Surely the memory of the past is yet blessed to the aged veteran of that far away date.

As was seen in last week's Review, the death of an old lady, Mrs John Campbell, of the North Line, Arden, at the age of nearly 95 years took place. Mrs Campbell was an old resident of the North Line for over 70 years and when in the prime of life, her seat was seldom vacant in the Presbyterian church. She was one of those kind aged ladies who always took pleasure in entertaining her friends and her home was always a delightful place for them to spend a short time with her dutiful son and Mrs and daughters. They will now have the vacant arm chair but their loss is her gain for she is in a simpler home than that made of brick and mortar. Many from the vicinity of Durham would like to have attended the funeral but as the inclemency of the day made it a little too far to travel. But sincere sympathy is sent to all members of the family on the occasion of the death of a loving and loved parent. Rev Mr Annand of Dundalk, conducted service at the house and grave. The pall bearers were from the neighborhood. Personally we would have liked to attend the funeral but circumstances over which we have no control prevented. The grim messenger is sure to find its victim out, whether old or young.

HYMENEAL

MALTBY - BUCKHAM

A pretty wedding took place on Nov. 2nd, at high noon in Old St. Andrews Church, Toronto. Rev. Dr. Sclater officiating, when Jean Kirkwood, only daughter of Mrs Mary J. Buckham, Pricville, became the bride of Albert Stanley Maltby, second son of Mrs M. J. Maltby, Toronto. The bride who was given away by her uncle, H. D. Buckham, looked charming in a gown of gold lace with hat and shoes to match and carried Butterfly roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Margaret Smith who wore a most becoming gown of blue moire silk with hat to match and carried Hord roses. Dr J H Reid assisted the groom. The wedding march and music were played by Mr Ernest Hawkstone. Following the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs J. H. White, Browning Ave. Later Mr and Mrs Maltby left on a motor trip to Detroit and Chicago. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

GRIEDER - STONEOUSE

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at Carman, Man. on Saturday, Nov. 12th, at 1 p.m. when Mary Howena, daughter of Mr and Mrs David Stoneouse was united in marriage to Mr Paul Grieder of Elm Creek, Man. To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Inez Overton, the bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The bride was gowned in French blue georgette with transparent velvet trimming and wore a corsage bouquet of roses. Rev. D. M. McKay officiated. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left on a short trip to Winnipeg, after which they will reside at Elm Creek, Man.

SWINTON PARK

Swinton Park is enjoying those dark days as best they may and indeed sometimes think they have got up too soon as daylight is so long in coming. But we think of the many bright days that have gone and the many more that are coming. And we are thankful we can enjoy them. The road have been very good up to the present, but slippery for a few days.

Sunday last we had a car accident in the Park which might have been very serious at any other time. As the people were going from church, Arch. Ferguson's car skidded and went over the bank into the creek, turning over the wheels in the air with Mr and Mrs Ferguson in under. But help being right there, they were quickly pulled out and not much the worse. Though the back seat was right in the water, the front of the car was on a soft bank. Mrs Ferguson is suffering from the shock and wetting but all are pleased they came out so safely. When the car was placed on the road, Mr Ferguson got in and drove it home. The windshield and top were broken.

Sunday next, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in the church here by Rev. Mr Annand of Dundalk, interim moderator during the time we are without a minister. Service will be held in the church at 2.30 and 7.30 p.m. Mr Annand assures us of a minister suitable for the occasion. On Monday following Dec. 5th, the ladies have decided to feed all comers on the best fowl of the season with all the necessary accompaniments. Supper served in the Hall from 6 to 8 o'clock and after that a lecture in the church by Rev. Dr Inkster of Knox Church, Toronto. Subject 'The signs of the times and the second coming of Christ.' Mr Inkster was a much loved student here over 30 years ago and has since preached in the large cities of the Dominion. Suitable music will be provided.

Miss McIntyre and pupils are preparing for a concert on Dec. 16th, thus ushering in the Christmas season.

Hugh McMillan made a business trip to Toronto last week and took one day at the Show while there. He was greatly taken with the exhibits from the western provinces, both in grain and live stock.

This week Noble Wilson and Walter Broughton, also John McMillan and sisters Beatrice and Isabel, and Kenneth Ferguson, are taking in the Fair and the city.

You can tell people from the company they keep. You can also tell some of them around the Park as they go by that they are trappers. We hear of several mink, coon and skunk being caught.

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO

From Review file, Nov. 21, 1912

The Durham Furniture Co. has sold the E. Graham property down in the valley to a syndicate of Toronto gentlemen who will hold and improve it as a trout fishing preserve. It is an ideal property for such a purpose, containing a fine residence which will be used as a club house. We understand the price was $3000, the vendors to retain the timber.—Flesherton Advance.

Mr R. J. Ball M. P. Hanover, has purchased a seven passenger hand-some Russell automobile.

Pricville: We were pleased to meet Mr Frank Jackson of B. C., an old Glen boy, Glenelg. He is over seeing his aged father who is sinking fast. Mr Jackson left this part 25 years ago when a young man and no doubt sees many changes in the people and country. His brother John is M. P. in that part of Canada.

The Tweed 'News' of the 7th inst. records a hearty yet reluctant farewell to Rev. James Binnie, for two years pastor of the Presbyterian Church there. He accepted a call to Parry Sound a few weeks ago and is now stationed there.

25 YEARS AGO

From Review file, Nov. 29, 1902

Mrs Newton is now prepared to take a limited number of advanced pupils for Piano, Theory, Harmony and History.

At the special meeting of the P. S. Board Monday, increases were made in the salaries of Misses Davey, Gun, McKenzie and Anderson of $20 each.

The business changes taking place are an indication of the expansion of Durham so we note a few of recent occurrence: W. E. Theobald in the J. M. Hunter Block for Gents Furnishings; Jordan and Burnett in the Grocery business; T. Noble, continuing the implement business of Barclay and Noble; C. McKinnon selling out his implement business to John Clark, Jr. of Aberdeen.

Born, in Bentinck, on the 13th inst., to Mr and Mrs John Turnbull, a son.

Born, in Durham, on the 16th inst. to Mr and Mrs Wes. Williams, a son. Zion: Mr Sam Edwards is home from New Ont., looking rosy, fat and as nifty as ever. He has wonderful tales, to tell of his experiences and he believes it to be the best part of the world for a young man. We understand he has commenced to pick stones on his farm on the 8th con. and someone was whispering of a new house and wedding in the near future.
