PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

To-day, Tuesday, is quite mild and some of the farmers are busy plowing. This has been a wonderful fall for to get fall work done.

Mr John McMeekin, of Hopeville, spent the week end at his home.

Mr Allie McLean spent a few days in Toronto at the Winter Fair.

This Sunday are Anniversary days at Swinton Park and on that account there will be no evening service in the Hall.

The next meeting will be held on Dec. 12th, and all the young people are urged to attend for a social evening.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the Hall on Sunday when Rev. E. E. Annand of Dundalk very ably occupied the pulpit.

Mr Hugh McKinnon and son Lachie visited on Sunday at H. R. McLean's.

Dogs are still rambling round and doing damage. Mr David Hincks had another sheep killed the other night.

Mr Cameron Smellie has purchased the saw mill from Mr Ed Sargeant of Ceylon.

Mr John Nichol, Jr. had a severe attack of quinsy and had Dr Milne in attendance, but glad to report he is better and able to again resume his duties.

Fox farming in Priceville is still on the progressive tendency. Now another new ranch is being built by Messrs McGillivray and Ford, on Mr Thos. Ferguson's property.

Mr Thos. Ferguson's property, just east of the school ground; a high board fence with the necessary skirting wiring above and below now being erected for probable escaping prisoners.

We were reminded recently of an invitation given to take sandwiches with us to a party if they would supply the tea, of the story of the young woman who wanted to get married, though times were hard, promising to live on bread and water for a while.

The young man readily assented: "If she found the bread, he would find the water."

Mr Frank P. Reilly is unfortunately under the weather through taking a heavy lift on a piano. Mr Forrester, a blacksmith of Kimberley, is busy in the shop.

HOPEVILLE

Miss Jessie Merchant, Yeovil, visited the first of the week at Mr Wm. Scott's.

Mr Mac McTaggart is home from Penae, Sask.

Mr Alex Spence, Toronto, has been holidaying at his parental home.

Mrs S. Matthews has been visiting relatives in Toronto.

Miss E. A. Slichter, Kitchener, sent by Women's Institute to judge the work of the Girls' Garment Making Club, was at the home of Mrs John Scott Saturday.

Four girls, Dell Scott, Helen Gow, Helen Mitchell, M. Sinclair received their certificates and words of praise for having successfully completed their 2nd years work.

Mrs. Jos Clarke arrived home from her western trip last week end.

The W. M. S. of the United Church held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs Sam Crawford Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs Chesher and children are staying at the home of Mr. Geo. Christie until they get their household effects settled in the Manse.

Miss Scott, London, was a recent visitor at Wm Dingwall's. Mrs Dingwall was in London a short time ago attending the funeral of her father, Mr Thos. Ball. Sympathy is extended to the family.

SWINTON PARK

Tuesday morning, Nov. 29th. We are, I believe, getting our share of weather. If any locality has more kinds than we during the past week, what did they do with it.

However through all the rain and bluster, Sunday was a fine day and enjoyed by many who attended the different churches. In the Park, it was communion services conducted by Rev. Annand of Dundalk. Fully 70 per cent of the members were out and a fine sermon was enjoyed.

Yesterday I received a letter from our late pastor, Rev. Mr Sutherland, expressing good cheer. He is enjoying good health, preaching 3 sermons every week and only once being unable during the 7 mos. in Cape Breton.

Mrs Sutherland and children are well.

Arthur Lane was a very sick man for some days last week suffering from quinsy. Dr Sneath was in attendance. Sunday a.m. he got relief and will soon be out. There is seemingly an epidemic of stiff necks among the school children, none of them seriously sick. But stiff necks seem inherent in the Scotch at any time.

We noticed in our correspondence of last week where anniversary services were rather beclouded, so will report on Sunday next. Rev. Peter Taylor will conduct service at 2.30 and 7.30; then on Monday evening a fowl supper from 6 to 8. This will be followed by a lecture by Dr Inkster of Knox Church, Toronto. Suitable music will be furnished. This is somewhat different from the usual Anniversary services, but we believe a treat is assured.

BUNESSAN

The annual UFYPO business meeting was held in the school Monday night. The officers were all re-elected and are:

President, Mr Eldon Weppeler Vice Pres., Mr Earl McLeod Sec'y Treas., Mr Neil McArthur

Misses Winnie Binnie and Anna N. McLean were elected leaders for the coming year. Mr Neil McArthur was appointed delegate to the Convention

The next meeting will be held on Dec. 12th, and all the young people are urged to attend for a social evening.

Mr and Mrs Stewart McArthur, Mr Dan McArthur of the Garafra and Mrs Gordon Courts of Conn., visited Sunday with relatives here.

Miss Marybelle MacArthur of the Orangeville Business College, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs Angus MacArthur.

SUNSHINE BELT OF THE SOUTH

The longest beach in the world, "Strung" way, along the Gulf of Mexico, down around Key West, up the coast of blue to somewhere east of Jacksonville will not mean a thing to those who never see it, nor will the warm tropic suns of midwinter of the sea bathing of January. There are oranges to be picked when the snow is barricading your door, golf and tennis down South when the weather stings alone will not debar the things at their best. They are really at their best in Florida and along the Gulf coast. Hotel rates are reasonable and long limit winter tourist fares giving you a wide choice of routes are surprisingly low. Why not make a travel investment in health?

For all travel information consult R. MacFarlane, Durham, or any Canadian Pacific agent.

DANGERS IN COUNTRY LIFE

Bank your money at once

A farm on the 13th con of Carrick, near Mildmay, was the scene of a repetition of what might have been the Beeton tragedy last Thursday evening, when the owner, John Wilson, who had disposed of his entire season's wheat crop during the day, for a sum of $400 in cash, was called out of bed by two men in a car, who drove into the yard at a late hour at night and gruffly demanded admission to the house.

Mr Wilson left the men in the car for a few minutes while he went to the house, supposedly to get his hat. Returning to the car with a double-barrel shot gun, he ordered the intruders to leave the premises under threat that if they refused to do so, he would shoot, and shoot to kill.

The men refused to leave at first but after a consultation between themselves, they evidently arrived at the conclusion that the farmer meant business and they stepped into the car and calmly drove away. They were complete strangers to the farmer or else were wearing a disguise. The farmer deposited the money in the bank in the morning.

Arkansas Gazette: Stories about movie people getting married should end with a comma.

President Coolidge has decided that he is under no obligation to attend and make a speech at all the public functions to which he is invited. Public men in other countries have long felt the same way, but have not the nerve to make it known.

Tobermory's Doctor to Benefit For years at every Convention of the Central Ontario Women's Institutes, the late Mrs Walter Buchanan of "Breezy Brae," Ravenna, Grey Co. took up a collection that a treat might be sent to the soldiers in Christie St. Hospital, Toronto. That collection ($55) was taken up again at the Provincial Convention last week, but instead of going to the soldiers, it will this time, by the wish of Mrs Buchanan's daughter, Mrs McGowan, also of Ravenna, go to swell the sum required to send a doctor to Tobermory. The money was given in grateful memory of a fine woman, and will aid the soldiers' wives and bairns, who have been far from doctor or nurse in "the Bruce."

Keen Fight in Bentinck Tp.

had been expended in salaries, $227.50 in all was Bd. of Health expenditure, $239 for sheep killed by dogs for which there was no value. Two new graders were bought at $120 each: $275 paid on Noble bridge and $999.67 on Aberdeen bridge. $209 was saved by building it now, and $900 for flooring, joists, grading, abutments and engineers fees, was required to complete it. The Edith bridge, near Hanover, destroyed by a truck, was nearing completion. In all it would cost $8500, of which a Gov't grant paid $2550, leaving $5950 for the township to meet. Debitments for this purpose for $6000 at 4 1/2 per cent had been authorized but were not yet sold.

Subsidy on patrol work this year totalled $3034.49 and tp. assets were $885 greater than a year ago.

"Why did you buy graders?" C. Goldsmith enquired, stating there was little done for Welbeck roads. The reeve replied some places expect more than they can reasonably get: he was not discussing patrol work, having nothing to do with it.

"Why are taxes higher?" was another query. Mr McDonald stated Co. rate is 12 2-10 mills, 6-10 higher than a year ago; twp and debenture rates were the same and if taxes were higher, it was because school rate was up.

He told of settling dispute for timber cut on sideline 30, near Welbeck. F. Shewell had sold timber to R. Ledingham, but some on sideroad had been cut and Couns. McGregor and Magwood had settled with Ledingham for $25 and F. Haug for $4 for this.

Touching on County matters, he said no new roads would be taken over till present ones were constructed. Co. rate was 1/4 mill or $490 up. Under a new Act, the county is liable for half keep of hospital patients. Under this act $3150 had been collected from townships, all Bentinck's cost before was $1375.

Education was an uncontrollable Co. expense: in 1921 it was $32,000; in 1922, $70,000. Mothers' Allowances increased from $7500 in 1921 to $12000 in 1922. Of $170,000 expended by Co. this year, $148,000 was uncontrollable. Actual County expenses to-day are lower than 5 years ago.

He didn't favor or vote for keeping O. S.-Meaford highway open in winter. He believed a candidate should say what he stands for. He did not favor returning to Statute Labor. With $6000 gov't subsidy on roads and bridges this year, it would be height of folly to go back. Ferguson and Henry said they favored increased subsidy to twps and under statute labor, the roads couldn't be kept up with increasing motor traffic.

Some had appealed assessment this year but only 3 were reduced by the judge. The ass't act calls for 100 per cent valuation. He was standing for re-election.

Robt. Grierson was again back for the deputy's chair and confirmed the reeve's figures. He knew Welbeck roads were bad but if Mr Goldsmith repaired his fume, he thought it would improve them there.

Jas. Turnbull was not present, being in Toronto, but has retired from the Council after a number of years good service, in favor of Alex Hopkins.

Geo. Magwood had been 3 years in Council and had been asked to stand for Deputy this time.

Alex. McGregor had given two years service and tried to be fair to all. He liked to know a man's stand on every question. He referred to the assessment appeals, stating the council had no right to burden a large number of ratepayers to relieve a few who should be raised. Explanation of his settlement of the Welbeck timber dispute was also given.

Chas Bailey had taken 391 votes for council in 1925 but was beaten for Deputy next year. He was out again for council.

Irwin Brown was in the field to help keep the fire on.

Robt. McCaslin was yet undecided, but if elected, would do his best. He later qualified.

Wm Hodgson had refused before, but was pressed to stand. He retired at close of meeting.

Herb. Hunt had been asked to stand for reeveship and had decided to do so. He was not seeking the position. Coun. McGregor, he claimed, had been unfair to him in his assessment remarks. He wanted to see assessment equalized. Believed statute labor better abolished. He had heard reports that if he were elected he'd give it back, but "I wouldn't change present system unless people by vote demanded it" he remarked.

Isaac and Fred Haug were nominated to air their side of the timber dispute and expatiated for three fourths of an hour without getting anywhere, except to stir up a commotion by charges against Coun. McGregor, the reeve and Robt. Ledingham. They all replied to same, and Isaac Haug again took the floor, when the meeting decided they had heard plenty about it and howled him down. And thus ended 1927 nominations.

This is not a merger but it has the same effect, although a Toronto financial paper has the temerity to say that mergers do not enhance prices. The public will wait and see if the price of electric bulbs is advanced as a result of the competition being stopped.
