I AM THE NEW YEAR

(By J. D. Templeton.) I am the New Year, and I come to you pure and unstained, Fresh from the hand of God. Each day, a precious pearl, to you is given

That you must string upon the silver thread of Life. Once strung can never be unthreaded but stays An undying record of your faith and skill. Each golden minute link you then must weld into the chain

That is no stronger than its weakest link. Into your hands is given all the wealth and power To make your life just what you will. I give to you, free and unstinted, twelve glorious months Of soothing rain and sunshine golden The days for work and rest, the nights for peaceful slumber All that I have I give with love unspoken, All that I ask-you keep the faith unbroken.

RECIPE FOR A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Take twelve fine, full-grown months see that these are thoroughly free from all old memories of bitterness, rancor, hate and jealousy: cleanse them completely from every clinging spite; pick off all specks of pettiness and littleness; in short, see that these months are freed from all the past-have them as fresh and clean as when they first came from the great storehouse of Time. Cut these months into this ty or thirty one equal parts. This batch will keep for just one year. Do Lot attempt to make up the whole batch at one time (so many persons spoil the entire lot in this way,) but prepare one day at a time as follows

Into each day put twelve parts of faith, eleven of patience, ten of courage, nine of work (some people omit this ingredient and so spoil the flavor of the rest), eight of hope, seven of fidelity, six of liberty, five of kindness, four of rest (leaving this out is like leaving the oil out of saladdon't do it), three of prayer, two of meditation and one well selected resolution. If you have no conscientious scruples, put in a teaspoonful Mr and Mrs J. Robertson of good spirits, a dash of fun, a pinch of folly, a sprinkling of play, the Review a prosperous and a happy and a heaping cupful of good humor. New Year. Pour into the whole love adllibitum and mix with a vim. Cook thoroughly into a perfect heat : garnish with a few smiles and a sprig of joy: then serve with quietness, unselfishness and cheerfulness and a Happy Ladies and dentlemen: New Year is a certainty.

The bride, who drove the cow home again and put had already served her country for her in the stable. On Monday mornseveral years as an efficient teacher, ing Albert let the cow out to water and went to work doing his chores. Some time afterwards he missed the cow and told his dog he suspected she had gone to Chesley, a distance of over three miles, to be with her calf. Shortly afterwards Albert missed the dog too and started on the way to trace the missing animals. About half way down to town he met the dog bringing the cow back. Verily truth is often stranger than fiction and Albert Fortune is the owner of a more wonderful cow than the female member of the bovine species with the crumpled horn that Manfred Denvil used to recite about and as far as his collie dog is concerned he is the embodiment of brute instinct and cannot be bought and we hope nobody steals him after reading this article.
