Diamond Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Hiscock

Mr and Mrs Hiscock of the village, celebrated their Diamond Wedding on Christmas Day. The only relatives present were a brother and his wife, Mr and Mrs Robt. Nicholson of Yeovil and a daughter, Mrs John Hamilton, Mt. O'Frest. These together with a number of friends made up a happy gathering. They were remembered by three daughters and one son of Western Canada and Seattle who sent congratulations and old gold coins.

At the morning service in the United Church, they were presented with a bouquet of roses by Mrs Adam Main, while Rev. C. Jay addressed the honored couple before the commencement of the sermon. They were so taken by surprise that they could not reply at the time, but after the sermon, Mr Hiscock made a very appropriate and touching reply.

The above couple were married 60 years ago at the Wesleyan Parsonage by Rev. Mr Potter, which resulted in a family of four daughters and one son, 13 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. They have lived almost continuously in the Tp. of Egremont as farmers with the exception of two years in Mt Forest and the last eight years as residents of this village. They have always been held in the highest esteem and respect and their many friends can only hope that their evening of life will continue to be serene and peaceful.

DIED WHILE ON RADIAL CAR

Father of Mr Bert Gibson Succumbs

Suddenly seized with a heart attack John Gibson, residing at Stop 26, at Kingstons Road, collapsed on a radial car at 2 o'clock Thursday. He had been spending the winter to date with his son Bert in Holstein and had gone to Toronto Wednesday preceding Christmas and on Friday he was about to return. Deceased was born in Pickering Township but had resided in Scarborough for the past 30 years. He was a farmer for many years and later lived a retired life, mixing but little in the affairs of the community. Surviving are three married daughters and one son, Bert.

NORTH EGREMONT

Happy New Year to Editor and staff of Review.

Eleven families have been quarantined for small pox. Mr W. H. Hunter is one of them. He is also a candidate for the Deputy Reveship. It will seem tough luck to be shut in at this time. However don't get downhearted Bill, we're all going to vote for you.

Mrs Austin Hann spent last week in Toronto.

Mr Cecil McDonald returned to his home in Sarnia this week.

Miss Belle Lohman is visiting with relatives in Arr and London.

Visitors from Toronto for Christmas were Misses Eva Lawrence, May Andrews, Mildred Scott, Florence Renwick, Mr and Mrs Harold Atchison.

Contest in Egremont Tp.

There was not as large an attendance as usual at Egremont nominations in Holstein Monday. There is to be a contest this year for the two main seats, two of the present council stepping out to try conclusions with the present incumbents. Reeve Neil Calder is being opposed by Coun. Noble Wilson and Dep. Reeve J. A. Ferguson by Coun. W. H. Hunter. The Council is in by acclamation—Erwin Robb, at present a member; Jas. Mack a former councillor, and W. J. Philp, a new man in the field.

YEovil

Mrs Catherine McInnis Mark, relict of the late James Mark, passed into the Great Beyond last night, (Dec. 26) in the home of her daughter Mrs C. Schenk after a brief illness of less than two weeks' duration—in a grip. She was in her 76th year. Her husband predeceased her last March and her brother, Chas. McInnis last October. Mrs Mark was many years a resident of this vicinity and was much respected by her neighbors and friends, who join in extending sympathy to the two sons and five daughters who this year have been bereft of both parents. The interment takes place to-morrow in Reid's cemetery.

Pine weather, good sleighing, merry greetings and home gatherings enlivened the three Christmas days.

The Christmas sermons and music were much appreciated. In the United Church the desirability of "giving roses to the living" was exemplified when a dozen of fragrant roses, a token of loving esteem, were presented to Mr and Mrs Hiscock—Christmas being the Diamond Anniversary of their wedding day. Rev. Mr Jay made some pleasant and suitable remarks and the completely surprised, Mr Hiscock very feelingly replied, expressing thanks that during these long years the Everlasting Arms had been underneath them and now it was light. Formerly Mr and Mrs Hiscock lived at Yeovil and were faithful church members he being the first S. S. Superintendent and presider—all so teaching a class and being a church official. Their Yeovil friends heartily hope that for them the coming year may prove very happy.

Mr and Mrs Robt. Nicholson visited his sister, Mrs Hiscock yesterday. Mr and Mrs McDonald and family of Hopeville, were Monday guests at W. J. Philp's.

Messrs and Mesdames J. Nicholson and A. Eccles and children joined the family party in the Woodland home.

Miss Islay Sim is enjoying a few days play with her cousin, Miss Myrtle Alles.

Messrs and Mesdames W. J. and P. Reid and Miss J. Merchant visited at J. Lane's, S. Park, Saturday.

Mr and Mrs Ralph Lamont, Elgin, Isabel, Rosie and Jean Lamont, are enjoying yesterday and to-day with Harriston friends.

Mr and Mrs W. Crispin, South Bend, Mr and Mrs C. Witherow, Calderwood, Mr and Mrs R. McGillivray, with their families, enjoyed Christmas dinner yesterday with Mr and Mrs Mutch.

Mr and Mrs F. McCaw and daughter, Arthur; Mr and Mrs F. Watson, Toronto; Mr and Mrs J. McLean, of Bentinck, were Christmas guests at W. H. Rogers. Mr and Mrs W. Motored from Toronto Saturday, coming in three hours.

Mr and Mrs Norman Drimmie and Master Corley, spent Christmas Day with her mother, Mrs Corley Mount Forest.

Miss Mary Drimmie, R. N. Oshawa, has been enjoying the Yuletide with home friends.

RLYTH'S CORNERS

(Arrived too late for last week.)

The 26th annual beef ring meeting of this locality, was held in Schoolhouse No. 1, Monday evening last, with President Frank Murdoch in the chair. This ring is a "32-er" and in the neighborhood of 15000 lbs of beef was gobbled up by those husky farmers. Mr Jas Marshall was butcher for the season and was engaged again for the season of 1928, as was also the efficient Sec'y Treas., Mr Wilbert Blyth.

Miss Lillie Calder visited her cousins and aunt, Mrs John Marshall. On account of the small pox scare in Egremont, the monthly meeting of the young people of the U.F.O. club had to postpone their meeting at the home of Mr and Mrs Wm. Allan of Egremont.

And now it's the Anglians that are up against it. Truly there is a great stirr of the nest" all round. That the opening of the flood-gates of the drink traffic is proving a tremendous set back to the temperance cause, one may conclude by the enforced combined efforts of Attorney General Price and the police force to keep it within reasonable decency—and then they won't be able.

We take this opportunity of thanking you for your past patronage and wishing you a Happy and Prosperous New Year. R. J. ARNILL HOLSTEIN

Greetings For the Year 1928. The spirit of this beautiful season which brings us all closer together prompts our desire to express to you, our friends, the real pleasure we have derived through our business relations, and to wish you and yours, a Very Happy and Prosperous New Year, in which we aim to be of continued and greater service to you. Smith Brothers

News is very scarce as everybody appears to be lying low watching for Santa Claus. However everything is lovely. We heartily wish the worthy Editor, staff and all the Review's correspondents and numerous readers, a happy and prosperous New Year. People who think February the shortest month, didn't buy many Christmas presents.

Election Card

To the Electors of the Township of Egremont Ladies and Gentlemen: I am again a candidate for the Reveship of the Township of Egremont and respectfully solicit your vote and influence at Monday's election. I have received this honor at your hands on three previous occasions. With nine years' experience, three as Reeve, three as Deputy and three as Councillor, I feel I can represent the Township interests much better than one who has had only a limited Township experience, and none whatever at the County Board. During my years at the council table, I have endeavored to discharge my duties faithfully and in again soliciting your favors, promise that my every thought and action, both in the Township and County bodies, will be for the best interests of the township as a whole.

Wishing you the compliments of the season and again soliciting your votes and influence, I am, Your obedient servant, NEIL CALDER

Durham Nominations

(Continued from page 1) He pointed to the retaining wall and improved street lights as necessary expenditure. They had cheered the Clark Metals difficulty. He regretted the loss to the town of the band and was trying to have this asset restored.

He thought we had the best industries of any town of our size and quoted many big figures showing the extent of the out-put for freight, etc. and spoke of their value as labor employers. He was glad to be able to announce that more back taxes came in this year than last, closing with the compliments of the season. REEVE BELL

Reeve Bell confirmed the optimism of the Mayor and pointed out as one sign of progress that the overdraft of $6000 in 1925 has been wiped out and now we were enjoying a surplus. They had had differences of opinion but no rumpus and he believed even man at the council board was conscientious in his views of what was for the town's best interest.

He pointed out that the County rate was higher but the grants were larger and in other ways there was advantage. He took credit for having the local Registry Office cleaned and repaired after many years of neglect and promised, if elected, to see more done in the coming year.

He dealt with the "County Link" as it affected Durham and Hancover; thought the special meeting of Co. Council to discuss a North Grey road was unnecessary and closed with the compliments of the season.

Mr Calder not being present, Mr. O. S. Hunter was called upon and pointed out the attention the fire hall had received as well as the Town Hall. He was not in favor of issuing bonds and incurring debt unless we could increase our population, and was glad to know from the speeches of Mayor and Reeve that our industries were prospering.

J. S. McILRAITH Mr J. S. McIlraith said the Public School Board tried to be economical without sacrificing efficiency and dealt with the salary question in rural and urban schools.

H. W. WILSON

Commissioner Harvey Wilson spoke on Hydro matters and thought the Statement should show where the Hydro money went. And the nominations were over.

It is worth noting that this is the 26th consecutive time our worthy Clerk had officiated as Returning Officer, never having missed once. More power to him! as well as congratulations.

Here is our Council for 1928: Mayor, John M. Murdoch; Reeve, Allan Bell; Council: Thos. Henderson, A. McClocklin, P. J. McLean, Robt. McLean, Albert Noble, Arnold Noble.
