TO ORGANIZE MUSIC FESTIVAL FOR GREY COUNTY

Mr. J. S. Atkinson, Toronto, Secretary and Director of the Canadian Bureau for Advancement of Music, was in Owen Sound recently, arranging with T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale, for an annual musical competition. Practically every music teacher in the county of Grey had received an invitation to be on hand for this meeting and there was a fair representation.

Mr. Cooper stated the great difficulty was that the North Grey Junior Farmers' Association had voted a 100 per cent rural program and for the present intended to abide by that policy, as yet not having sufficient self confidence to invite competition with urban centres.

Mr. Atkinson in addressing the music teachers, told of the interesting account of the work of the Bureau, in holding musical competitions one day each year at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, where nearly one half of the competition comes from outside points.

As an outcome of the discussion that followed, the representatives expressed their approval and co-operation with the idea. Mr. Cooper proposed that a Grey Co. musical competition be organized in three groups, O. Sound, Hanover and Durham the next group and all the remaining incorporated villages of the third group. Following competition within each group, the finalist would compete for County honors.

sending to the school library a quantity of Canadian books, the titles to be chosen by the schools themselves.

The basic idea underlying the contest, says the Committee in a letter to all High School principals, is the desirability of developing in the minds of the younger generation an appreciation of vital Canadian problems and of fostering the habit of studying and investigating them.

The Committee's announcement states that Canon H. J. Cody, former Minister of Education in Ontario; Brig. Gen. C. H. Mitchell, Dean of the Faculty of Applied Science, University of Toronto and Dr. Colquhoun, Dep. Minister of Education, have consented to act as judges.

The contest closes Thursday, March 1st, and announcement of prize winners will be made as soon thereafter as possible.

AGNES MacPHAIL IN WIARTON

(From the Warton Echo)

Agnes MacPhail was in town last week. I don't know whether I'd care to be in her shoes (literally speaking of course) or not. For instance as she passed our window, I made the remark to those in the office that "there's Agnes MacPhail." Instantly, every man and woman had to rush up to the front to take a peek at her, just as though she were Rudolph Valentino, the Prince of Wales, or the whole of Barnum's circus elephants, wild animals, brass bands and clowns, all rolled up in one. I don't know whether they were disappointed or not, any way, all they saw was a well dressed, fine-looking, modest personage, whose claim to distinction is that of being Canada's only woman M. P.

A little later, I was in an office across the road when she passed again, and I called Jim's attention to the fact. He jumped to the front window as quick as lightning to see the sights with the remark, "Gosh, I've never seen Aggie before. Darn, she's a fine looking girl, isn't she?" And there you are. I suppose that's the kind of stuff that's going on around her all the time except down in Ceylon, and in the neighborhood of South Grey, where they all know her since she was so high. Wherever she goes she's the cynosure of all eyes, gazing, staring and with all kinds of comments, nice, nasty and otherwise. Women being women, maybe 999 out of every thousand are the decision to honor each school which boasts a prize winner by personal. I believe I'd be inclined to tire

ESSAY CONTESTS FOR HIGH SCHOOLS ON CANADIAN COAL

Canadian Coal will be the indirect cause of additional bank accounts for seven Ontario High School students according to an announcement just made by the Produced in Canada Committee of Ontario.

With the approval of the Provincial Department of Education, the Produced in Canada Committee is inaugurating an essay contest for students in Collegiate Institutes and High Schools throughout Ontario on the general topic of heating Canadian homes with Canadian coal. Students are asked to discuss the advisability of this in essays of from 1000 to 1500 words.

$600 will be divided between the writers of the seven best papers on "Why Canadian homes should be heated with Canadian coal," with the sum of $150 going to the winner of the first prize. The second to seventh prizes are as follows: $100, $75, $60, $50, $40 and $25.

An unique feature of the contest, according to the Committee's rules, is the decision to honor each school which boasts a prize winner by personal. I believe I'd be inclined to tire of it, after a while and some day turn on the rabble and with fierce countenance and pugilistic gestures, exclaim in my most terrible staccato 'Go to the blazes,' only I would not pronounce blazes that way. So that's what I'd do if I were H. Agnes' shoes but then that's impossible for I wear nines and Agnes takes four and a half or thereabouts, I presume.

An Auto Spill near Chatsworth

It makes little difference the season of the year for motor accidents: they come just the same. On the smoothly worn snow road, it is a difficult thing for a car not chained, to keep the centre of the King's Highway. By the car refusing to do so, a thrilling accident resulted to three young men from Dornoch and vicinity recently, Messrs Joe Sullivan, A. D. McIntyre and Vern. Hamilton of Holland Centre. The car was a Chev. sedan and was the property of the latter young man. The three in question accompanied the Dornoch priest back to Owen Sound, after his morning service at Dornoch, leaving him safely there. They were returning to Dornoch quicker than they went to O. Sound and when coming down a grade this side of Chatsworth the sedan left the road, somersaulted three times and landed on a rail fence some 30 feet below the road it is estimated. The front wheels were still spinning when the car decided to quit its Lindbergh stunt and what is indeed strange and fortunate, neither car or occupants were hurt. It all happened so quickly that the young men scarcely knew they were getting more than they counted on.

Joseph Lindsay as his Western friends knew him

(From Evening Telegram, Superior, Wisconsin, Dec. 27, 1927)

Joe. Lindsay, a resident of Superior for many years, died at his home 1029 John Ave. Christmas eve, after a short illness. The survivors include his wife and three brothers, Robt., of Durham Ont.; Jas. of Portland, Oregon and Edward of Invermay, Sask.

Mr Lindsay was born in Durham, Ont. leaving home in 1882, to begin railroad work on the Canadian Pacific railway when the Canadian Pacific was first built through the Canadian Rockies. He began working for the Great Northern railway in 1888, on the Breckenridge division and after a short time on the northern division, came to Superior in 1895, to what was then called the Eastern Minnesota railway and with the exception of four years (1911-1915) has resided continuously in Superior.

Mr Lindsay was a member of the Veterans' Association of the Great Northern railway and his Masonic affiliations were in Sioux City, Iowa, where he was a member of the Blue Lodge, Consistory, and Shrine.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, Dr. L. A. Bechtel officiating at home at 1:30 p.m., followed at 2 p.m. by Masonic services at the Masonic Temple, under the auspices of Grace Lodge. Burial will be in Forest Hill cemetery Duluth. It is requested that friends omit flowers. Mr Lindsay had a wide circle of friends at the head of the Lakes and many were aggrieved at his death.

CRAWFORD Annual Meeting.

The annual business meeting of the Crawford United Church was conducted on Friday afternoon and was presided over by the astor, Rev. R. Young.

The business consisted of receiving reports of the various branches of the church life and work and the election of officials. All the reports were very encouraging, showing that the work of the congregation was in a very prosperous condition. The general fund showed a balance of over $125. The Maintenance & Extension Fund was well over the allocation and the reports from Sabbath School, W.M.S., and Y.P.S. showed marked advance. The former stewards and officials were all re-elected.

This is our church's Jubilee Year. The matter of a fitting celebration has been left in the hands of the Managers of the congregation. After the business was completed, the ladies served a dainty lunch.

C. Y. P. S. Meet.

The regular meeting of Crawford Y.P.S. was held in the church on Thursday evening, Jan. 5th. The program took the form of a New Year's one act play in charge of Misses Mary White and Clara Subject. The scripture lesson was read by Miss C. Subject. The minutes, collection and roll call were then taken. Misses Laura and Martha Kaufman rendered a very pleasing duet. Misses Jessie McCaslin and Margaret White favored the audience with recitations. The main feature of the program was a paper prepared by Mr Young and read and commented upon by Mr H. Bierworth. This splendid paper offered many interesting suggestions for making the year 1928 better than any that have preceded it.

Mr and Mrs. And. C. Milne, Brant, visited Saturday at the home of Mr. Jas. McDougall.

Miss Winnie Fisher, Elmwood, was a recent visitor with her friend, Miss Tena Livingstone.

Miss Jessie Twamley, teacher at Lamash, was the guest of Mr and Mrs Frank Twamley over the week.

Mr Russel Frides, Brant, was a Sunday visitor with Mr and Mrs Edgar Boyce.

Mr Alexander Brown, student at H. S., was a week end visitor with his cousin, Mr Dougald Hastie.

Mr Gordon McDonald recently spent a few days in Proton.

We extend sincere sympathy to Councillor McCaslin, in the loss of a brother, who was killed while at work at Burlington. Mr McCaslin attended the funeral the first of the week.

Mr Wm Campbell is the new trustee for S. S. No. 9.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

The U. F. W. O will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs R. Lawson on Friday of this week. This meeting will be somewhat in the form of a work meeting and members are requested to bring quilt patches.

Mr Alex Symon is spending a week with his sister in Buffalo.

Mr and Mrs Earl Vesale were visitors recently with Mr and Mrs Jack Caswell, Aberdeen.

Miss Beatrice Grasby returned to Toronto, after spending the holidays at her home here.

Mr and Mrs Neil McLean spent a day this week with Mr and Mrs Wm Banks, Zion.

Mr Wm Bell and two sons, spent Sunday with his father in Berkeley. Mr Norman Thompson is engaged with Mr S. J. Davey for a few days. Very sorry to hear Rev. Mr Armstrong is still very weak in the General Hospital, Toronto and his many friends here, hope he may soon be restored to good health and be able to resume his duties as usual.

SHOWERING THE BRIDE

Previous to her marriage, Mrs Wilfrid Brown, (nee Ruby Smith, Dornoch) was the guest of honor at a social evening, held at the home of Mr and Mrs Fred East, Ossington Ave., Toronto.

The evening was spent in games, music and social intercourse. At an opportune time, Mrs Brown was presented with a number of useful and beautiful gifts, among them being silverware in the "Adam Pattern Colonial plate" from the Dornoch friends now residing in Toronto.

Though taken by surprise, Mrs. Brown made a fitting reply. A dainty lunch was served, after which all joined in singing "For she's a jolly good fellow" and in wishing the bride a long and happy married life.

LESSON No. 17
Question: Why is emulsified cod-liver oil so efficient a food for young children?

Answer: Rickets or weak bones are evidences of lime-deficiency. Emulsified vitamin-rich cod-liver oil helps Nature supply this deficiency.
