

EGREMONT ELECTION, 1928

The writer, who was defeated at the polls, has written the following lines in memory of the occurrence. They are dedicated to the electors of the Township. Some of the language is of course, figurative as the reader will quite readily understand. The chief issue in the election was the location of the county road, taken rather seriously by the "north." (The Review regrets this poem could not be published last week for lack of space.—Ed.)

I have a steed, called 'Duty,' and I ride him every day,
So to say he is a beauty, won't be going far astray;
I have had him all my lifetime, so he's just as old as me,
And we know the lanes and highways of my ain country.
We have trod the roads together, over hills and level plains
And listened to the songs of birds, in trees along the lanes:
We've enjoyed the children's laughter as they played
around the school,
And we've drank of crystal waters in the springs so clear and cool.

We've had many grand adventures mid the changing scenes of life,
Sometimes been sorely wounded in the rioting and strife;
But my steed is strong and gallant, where'er we chanced
to roam,
He has never left me stranded, but brought me safely home.

Just to mention one adventure: It is of recent date;
It is said by some, we tarried on the highway rather late.
Two highwaymen had posted up a neatly painted sign,
It read in splendid English words, "Don't cross the centre line!"

I read the proclamation bold and figured that it meant
A sign of an uprising, and a voice of discontent.
My steed, he hesitated, as he sniffed the northern air,
He seemed to say "Be careful, this might lead you anywhere."

From all the roads that led up to my own dear old Dromore
Were gallant men enlisting at the front of Taylor's store:
Displayed upon the banner that that army coming forth
Written in glittering gilt and gold, was "A United North."
The officers were busy with the password and the sign,
And the sleighbells all were ringing around the hour
of nine:

And messengers were flitting by and scurrying to and fro
And help was coming from afar in cars that were not slow.
As I surveyed that army grand, I saw an old recruit,
Who could not do much soldiering, nor could he play the flute.

But when it came to killing quiet for that disputed line,
Right manfully he did the trick, ten minutes after nine.
The week's highway men in Egremont and highwaymen in Grey;

There's highwaymen still higher up, chief actors in the fray,
And soon the mist of strife will rise and harmony's sun will shine.

And friendly hands will clasp again across the centre line,
And though I lost my bonnet and a stirrup in the fray,
My good old steed was with me at the closing of the day,
He has carried me so nobly, in the good old days gone by,
That my faith in him won't perish until the day I die.

To all who then opposed me and to those who with me stayed,
I wish you all prosperity and courage undisimayed:
Let's all join hands together with a vision broad and clear,
To raise our standard higher still throughout the present year.

January, 1928. "J. A. E."

SENATORS 7, BRUINS 5

The largest crowd of spectators yet was on hand Tuesday to see the Senators and Bruins in the first clash. The teams were very evenly matched as the score indicates. First one team were in the lead, then the other, a nip and tuck battle, a good game to win and a hard one to lose.

At the end of the first period the teams were tied. Senators were leading by 1 goal at end of 2nd period and the game tied at end of 3rd period, the Senators winning in overtime. Sam Fidler proved the hero of the game, scoring the tying goal with only a few minutes more to go and scoring the first goal in overtime, which cinched the game.

The teams battled to a one-all tie in the first period the Senators drew first blood on a lucky goal when Ar-nill in attempting to pass the puck behind the goal unintentionally passed in front of goal, the puck hitting McKenzie's skate and slipped into the goal. Pinder evened the count a few minutes later, when he eluded the who's team to tie the score. The Bruins had a decided margin in this period and only the wonderful saves by Smith saved his team from defeat.

In 2nd period the play was about even, though the Senators outscored the Bruins. The Bruins went into the lead when Pinder made another solo rush and scored. It was a nice piece of stick-handling. Jack Irvin evened the score on a shot from the right boards that McKenzie failed to see but Ellis came right back and scored from a face off in front of the Senators goal. In the dying minutes of the game, Sam Fidler and J. Irvin scored for the Senators to lead the 2nd period by 1 goal.

At the start of the third period, the Senators played defensive hockey but it proved disastrous. Fenton scored two in succession and held their goal lead until the last few minutes of the game when Fidler shot from centre and scored into overtime.

In the first 5 min. of overtime, Fidler gave his team a 1 goal lead on a shot from close in and in the 2nd half gave the pass to McDougall for the last score.

Line up: Senators, goal—Smith; defence, MacCaulay; forwards, Sam Fidler, H. McDougall, J. Irvin. Subs, Gordon Long.

Bruins: goal—Wm McKenzie; Defence, How. Pinder; Forwards, Fenton, Ellis, Arnill.

Penalties, MacCaulay 2, Ellis 1, Referee, B. Gibson

Scores: 1st Period: Senators (Arnill): Bruins (Pinder).

2nd Period: Bruins (Pinder); Senators (Irvin); Bruins (Ellis); Senators (Fidler); Senators (Irvin).

3rd Period: Bruins (Fidler); Bruins (Fenton); Senators (Fidler); First 5 min. Overtime: Senators, (Fidler); Second overtime (5 min.), Senators (McDougall) Fidler.

MAPLE LEAFS 9, MAROONS 2

The Maple Leafs won their game with the Maroons by the score of 9-2 on Monday night at the local arena. The Maple Leafs scoring ace, Geo. Brown, who was held scoreless in the first game against the Bruins, was responsible for six goals, scoring the first 4 goals and the last two of the game.

The game had been under way for 5 min. when Brown received a pass from Woodyard to make the first tally. The next three came from his stick also while Woodyard scored the fifth on a shot from right wing. The Leafs had much the best of this period and were a threat to the opposing team from going to Ross having few stops to make.

The 2nd period was very even with the Maroons having the better of the play but were held scoreless until the closing minutes of play by some clever steps by Ross. Eccles scored for the Leafs in this period on a solo rush while Raymond Pinder batted in a rebound for the Maroon's first goal.

The third period was very even, with the Leafs having an advantage going and outscored their opponents 3 to 1. In the first minute of play, Lucas shot from centre ice and it was in the net before Ross saw it.

In the closing minutes of play, the Leafs made the game certain by running 3 more goals, the first one by Rife and the last two going to Brown.

The score does not indicate the strength of the two teams as the Maroons were continually out-guessed by the clever net minding of Ross. Individually the teams were about on a par but it was the combination of the winners that made the difference between gain and defeat.

For the winners, Brown at centre and Ross in goal, were the stars, while for the losers Brown Irvin was the pick, his individual rushes being a treat to watch and was unlucky in not scoring some goals for his team. Although badly outscored in this game, they will be heard from yet and will likely be contenders for the play-offs.

Line up: Maroons—Goal, S. McKenzie; defence, Lucas; forwards, R. Pinder, Red Pinder, Brown Irvin.

Maple Leafs: Goal—Earl Ross; defence, Eccles; forwards, Rife, Geo. Brown, Woodyard; subs, Jas Christie, Referee, Bert Gibson

First Period: 1. Map. Leafs, G. Brown: 2. M. Leafs, G. Brown: 3. M. Leafs, G. Brown: 4. M. Leafs, G. Brown: 5. Woodyard.

Second Period: Mr. W. J. Philip returned Saturday evening from Millbridge, Hastings Co. where, on Friday, he attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. J. Greaves, who passed away on Jan. 11th. Maria Philip was born in 1875 on the old home farm, near Dromore. Thirty three years ago she was married to John Greaves, then teacher in No. 10 School. Twenty years ago they went to Fort Stewart, thence to Millbridge, where he still teaches. Besides her aged mother brother, sister (Mrs. Mather), and husband, she leaves one son, Dr. F. P. Greaves of Toronto; one daughter, Mrs. Nelson Lavendar, of Wellington, P. Edward Co. and four grandchildren. The son and the daughter were with their parents during their mother's illness. The funeral services, held in the United Ch. at Eldorado, were conducted by her pastor, who at the time he based his "At evening times it shall be light" in which the departed one was held. We extend sympathy to the bereaved.

Adams as housekeeper.

Quite a number from here enjoyed the Ladies' Aid Social in the United Church basement last Friday evening, when the Northerners provided the program and the Southerners the lunch. Next time it will be vice versa.

The UFYPO open meeting on last Thursday evening was enjoyed by a fairly full house. The readings, instrumental and vocal music were appreciated, but the chief item of the program was the debate "Resolved that conditions of community life were more conducive to happiness 50 years ago than conditions are to-day." Interest was keen as this was one of the League debates. The affirmative was well taken by Miss Bessie McDougall and Alex. Sim, both from Holstein Continuation School. The Yeovil club, represented by Miss E. Oliver and Murray Henderson upheld the negative and won by a small margin. Mr. Hildyard of Holstein was the judge. The UFYPO are having their meetings every two weeks, the next one being along with the UFO Club, so there'll likely be a good time again.

RLYTH'S CORNERS

The terrible tragedy in the wiping out of almost a whole family over the week end in Toronto, is just another glimpse of the woeful misery thousands are subjected to in our over crowded cities.

Messrs. John and Robbie McVean of the "Corners", killed off 26 of their Silver Black foxes lately, for which, we were informed, they received $2000. That greatly discounts farming, eh?

Knox Church, Normanby, voted on Sunday last and on Sunday following to fill the vacancy left open by Mr. Andrew Stewart, resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall and son James and Mrs. Jas. Marshall visited Rev. Mr. Purnell at the Manse, Dromore, Tuesday last.

That cattle law suit dead in Durham, unlike most other lawsuits, had two good object lessons: 1st, it does not pay to go to law and 2nd, it doesn't pay to sell any other way than co-operatively when the same cattle sold for $183 more through the co-operative system than they realized through the old system of grab as grab can.

We're fully two months ahead with the weather, whether Boves thinks so or not and to be accurate we'll await further developments and the verdict.

SOUTH BEND

Mr. Vernon Raw, Riverview, spent the week end at his home here.

Miss P. Rolufs, teacher at No. 9, was the week end guest of her friend Miss Edith Hunt.

He leaves his widow, formerly Miss Teresa Kelly and three small children, who will sadly miss him. We extend sympathy to them, thus benefit of husband and father, all so young, Miss Mary Kelly attended the funeral.

We regret to state that Mrs. Jos. Patterson has suffered a relapse and is being cared for at the home of her son Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ritchie and Miss Freda and cousin, Miss Grace Ritchie, spent Monday at Mr. Wilbert G. Blyth's.

Edgar Morice is assisting his uncle for a couple of weeks with the winter work.

Dr. Smith of Durham has a narrow escape from an accident and perhaps serious consequences on Sunday afternoon last. He was descending Varney hill in his coupe and due to the icy and slippery condition of the hill, the car skidded, and ran into a ditch between the cable guard and Bogle's mail box, a drop of about six feet. Happily no one was hurt.

Mr. Allie McCalmon, son of Wm. McCalmon, of Guernsey, Sask. is becoming of some importance in the hockey world. He has been for some time a star player of the Saskatoon "Shleks" and now he has been sold to the Chicago "Black Hawks" for this season.

Mr. Alf McCabe is in Toronto this week attending a banquet put on by the "Star" people for their agents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morice visited on Tuesday at Mr. Davi Hamilton's.

The Ontario Government has authorized that there is to be no increase in the gasoline tax during the year 1928 at least, although the increase is bound to come, owing to the fact that the current road expenditures greatly exceed the income for that purpose. The motor license fee is also to remain at $9 for the coming year.

ONE MILLION READERS

Canada has one institution at least that compares favorably with anything of the kind the world over. It is that great weekly paper, the Family Herald & Weekly Star of Montreal, with its 72 big pages each week of the very choicest material, and all for $1 a year. It is marvelous how its editors fill its pages with such interesting and valuable news, stories, farm news and hundreds of other features that please and delight its great army of readers every week.

There are thousands of homes in Canada where that great paper has been a regular visitor from generation to generation. The Family Herald has been a money maker and a money saver to its readers, and $1 a year invested in a year's subscription is the best investment any family can make. It is said to have one million readers in the Dominion.
