IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

From Review file, March 13, 1913

Last Friday a gentleman from the city of Guelph, at present running a factory there on a small scale for the manufacture of metallic window stripping was in town. The Mayor and Councillor Lenahan got busy and hurriedly called a meeting to listen to the proposition of Messrs Jacob and Furber. They have no capital to put into the business, only some machinery and stock. They desire the formation of a joint stock company to place $4000 or $5000 banking strength behind them and they will give their skill and best endeavor to work up a profitable business, one as technical manager, the other as traveller and their services to be required by the company at $1500 a year each.

A houseful of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs. Gillan Boyd, Glenora, for a farewell evening to Mr and Mrs Allan Boyd who are leaving for the West in a few days.

Born, in Durham on March 10, to Mr and Mrs E. A. Rowe, a son.

Much property is changing hands this spring. The latest we have heard is that Mr Walter McDonald has purchased the Ford farm in Glenelg, while Mr Ford has purchased the Chas. Arnett farm.

Swinton Park: Mr R. Aldcorn has disposed of his store and stock to Mr Howard Watson of West Toronto.

North Egremont: Mr and Mrs Jno. Manary leave here Monday for Holstein and on Friday will leave for their new home in West Toronto.

Holstein: The session of Fairbairn Church recently presented their fellow elder, Robt. Aitken, with a very eulogistic address and Bible on the occasion of his leaving that neighborhood for Holstein.

Orchard: Last week we reported that Mr Chas Wilson had purchased Mr Dods' farm, which report was correct at the time, but since the latter has declined.

15 YEARS AGO

From Review file, March 12, 1903

In Glenelg on Feb. 25, to Mr and Mrs Jas. Ledingham, a son.

Mr H. H. Mocker makes his bow to our readers this week, having last Saturday opened up in the old stand. By advertisement in this issue it will be seen that an old store in Dro-more is again in the hands of a Taylor. Mrs Taylor and son Robert, we suppose making the 'Taylor & Co.' Robert has acquired considerable experience at the counter and we trust he may worthily follow in his father's footsteps.

Rev. Mr Graham, Dornoch has placed his resignation in the hands of O. Sound Presbytery and in about two weeks more the official separation will take place.

Married, on March 4, Dornoch, at the residence of the bride's brother, Elsie Margarette Smith, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm Smith, Dornoch, to Mr W. Gordon Ross, of Tilbury East.

Hopeville: Mr Ham Allan, blacksmith, has sold out his property here to Mr A. Ferguson of Cedarville, and has rented a residence and is going into other business. It is reported here that he will study for the ministry and go out as a missionary, which is very likely as he is well adapted for the calling.

IN MEMORIAM

—Wife and family

Lady Willington has shown her regard for Agnes MacPhail, M. P. by sending her a silver mesh bag. We are not jealous at all, but wish Lady Willington might extend her regards.

The happy merchant

Never before in the history of the world has it been possible for a merchant in good credit to do so much business with so little capital locked up in stock

One important reason for the present prosperity is that instead of having to buy a big stock at the beginning of each season he is now able to buy small stocks and replenish them promptly by Long Distance.

Keep your customers for miles around coming to you for whatever they need. Invent ways of inducing them to visit your store, or to order from you by Long Distance and they tell us—you will not be seriously bothered by competition.

Long Distance is making happy merchants in some towns. Don't overlook its great possibilities.
