PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Mrs Hector MacDonald returned home from New York, after spending the winter months with her daughter Mrs. Willard Parslow. Mr and Mrs Alex Carson visited over the week at Wm Timmins' at Hayward's Falls. Messrs Wreford and Nell McLean are tuzzing wood these days. Mr Gregg of Knox College, Toronto, occupied the pulpit in the Hall on Sunday last. He spent the week end at Mr Colin McMillan's. Mr Donald Stewart and Miss Mae Stewart attended the funeral of their cousin at Orangeville last week. Mrs Wright and Mrs Dan Campbell are holidaying in Toronto. Mr Alfred Hincks purposes holding a box social in his school, May 4. Mr John McFarlane, sister Margaret and Miss Anna Mary McLean, motored to Toronto and spent the week end. Mr Gilvray McLean of Durham, spent the week end at his home. Mr J. C. McLachlan, Ceylon, visited Sunday at Mr Angus McLachlan's and attended church here. Some of the elders and wives of the Presbyterian congregation here, attended communion service at Flesherton Sunday p.m. The men are busy fixing the bridge on the townline and soon will be OK again. Mr Clifford Hincks returned Monday to Toronto Normal School. Mr Thos Spicer, our section man, has not been in the best of health lately and unable to do his work. Mr Lloyd Wauchope of Proton is relieving him.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

The Township of Glenelg has the lowest population in the Co. of Grey, with the exception of Sarawak, a small portion of Grey with only a few over 500 population. In 1927, Glenelg's population was 1532 and probably less in 1928. Before Durham was incorporated as a town the Glenelg which gave it some 2000 of a population. We find that after Durham was incorporated as a town in 1872, that from an old blotter of the Assessment Roll 25 years ago, there was some 1800 of a population. So many have passed away from different ailments and from old age, and others took an example from our very Premier King and lady member Miss McPhail. They may be classified as the highest class of citizenship but if their example were practised the world would soon come to an end for want of population. But no danger. Licenses are cheap now to what they were 50 or 60 years ago, when they were $12. An old bachelor getting married somewhere near Priceville and who had had scratching getting his $12, said it wasn't a cheap thing to get married and he paid $1 to the preacher who married him. We would have liked to have been in Priceville Sunday last to hear a young Highland Scotchman preach. Mr McInnis has the old language fluently and could also play the old Highland tunes on the bagpipes. The old Gaelic delighted to hear the tune, "Gabhailh sinn an rhaodh moine no math le caer e" or "Let us take the highway, good or bad as others may be." We congratulate Priceville for having a good writer and we hope if he or she is a young person, they will be privileged to engage in the business for 50 years in the future. We don't mean to say that the Senior editor of the Review will be proof reader then, but with good care and long experience in the business, he will occupy more than half of that time in the future. The many changes in the past 50 years is more than can be enumerated and what will it be 50 years into the future? No one can tell. The young man will then be the old veteran. We were sorry to hear of the death of Thos. Jack. Mr Jack leaves to mourn his loss his life partner, two brothers and four sisters, Mrs Harry Williams of Edge Hill being a sister, also Mrs N. McKechnie. Mr Jack was an old resident of Glenelg, being raised on the old homestead on the 9th con. The condolence of his many friends in this part goes out to his widow and family. We also are sorry to hear of Mr. Samuel McDermid, South Line, Glen. being in Durham hospital, having a bad eye taken out to save the other. We are pleased to hear he is getting along well. Mrs McDermid was confined to her bed for many weeks from some ailment but we hope to hear of her getting better again. Mrs McDermid was one of those good women who attended ailing ones and the many families she has attended will wish her a speedy recovery from her ailment. This Monday morning the 23rd of April, has a better appearance and all will be taking advantage of it to begin to cultivate the soil. Not much done yet but we heard of someone sowing oats a couple of weeks ago in North Glenelg. Fall wheat has a brownish looking appearance but a warm sun will soon move it again. The Sunday School at Edge Hill, will probably resume classes on the 1st Sunday in May, when Mr W. J. Ritchie will again be at the helm. Arch. McArthur of the 4th con. of Glenelg bought a span of horses from Mr Ernest Greenwood, Edge Hill. The McArthur Bros. run a large acreage of land being 350 acres and will take quite a bit of help to put in the Spring crop. Assessor Weppeler finished his job in Glenelg and is now at some other work in Toronto. We saw reference made to the death of the late Arch McDonald who was buried at Latcha cemetery. If all the relatives or this fine young man in the Co. of Grey as well as far away countries, were at his funeral, it would make a large procession. The faithful uncle and aunts of the departed, have the sympathy of all friends.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother and wife, Mrs Allan C. MacLean, who passed away April 21st, 1922. The rolling streams of life pass on. But still the vacant chair recalls the smile, the voice, the love of one who sat there. Sleep on dear Mother, your cares are ended: Rest in peace, your work is done. You are gone where those who love you, Will some day meet you one by one. —Sadly missed by husband and children.

HOPEVILLE

Miss Myrtle Clark spent over the week end with her sister, Mrs Bert Scott. Miss J. Nugent, Toronto, is a visitor at the home of Geo. Gilkes. Mrs Kinman Sr. Boothville, is visiting her sister Mrs Wm Scott. Mrs Kinman is a few years past her 80th birthday but thought nothing of walking over five miles from Boothville to Hopeville and arrived with a sprightly step. Mr Geo. Dyce came home from Mt. Forest hospital last week much improved in health. The Women's Institute purpose having a quilting at Mrs Hockridge's Friday to finish up some local relief work. Mr and Mrs Will McKinney spent Sunday with relatives at Bryce Hill. The high wind Friday left some wide gaps in many fences and set some chimneys on fire. Symp making has not been much of a success in this locality. A pleasant social evening was held at W. B. Scott's Friday last, when games, contests and music were much enjoyed. Mrs Jas Shand and son Orvilla visited Monday at Geo. Shand's.

A splendid debate was held at the Y. P. S. on Tuesday evening, when Mr Elmer Harrison and Miss Jewel MacArthur took the negative, and Mrs S. G. McCormack and Mr Stewart Muir, the affirmative. The negative side won, the subject being "The impossibility of a married woman to successfully conduct her home, and at the same time engage in a business or professional career." Messrs Sheffield, Datterton, and J. McGillivray were judges, the latter announcing the decision. Misses Annie and Donalda McLeod gave two fine instrumental duets on piano. Mrs Baxter, of Collingwood, sister of Mr Pefer Muir, was a visitor last week with his family. Mr H. Elliot of Sackatoon, husband of Miss Emma Robertson who used to be of Ceylon, was also a visitor there and took in the services at St. Columba Sunday. He was for several years agent at North Battleford for the C. N. R., and also travelling auditor some years later, but is now a motor car agent. We were pleased to make his acquaintance. Mr Ed. Watson and family, Durham, were visitors at his mother's on Sunday and later the two brothers visited their sister, Mrs George Drimmlie, near Yeovil. The funeral of the late Duncan Muir took place to McNeil's cemetery Monday last. He had been ailing for some time with some form of heart trouble. He had attained the age of 78 years. He and his brother George lived alone for many years, and the latter will now doubtless feel without him. The funeral, conducted by W. G. Watson, took place from the home of Mr and Mrs John Calder nearby where the services were conducted by Rev. S. G. McCormack and also at the cemetery. The pall bearers were all near neighbors John and Thos. Weir, T. Harrison, J. Jake Hillz, John Calder and Geo. Hargrave. A nephew Mr Cherry was present at the funeral from away down in Dufferin Co. We can recall many episodes of his prominent young days with the old style threshing machine, etc. Dr Ottewell, vet. of Flesherton, was required for a sick cow of Mr. McGillivray at the Ranch on Sunday with milk fever. The process of pumping air into each teat, and followed with massaging soon brought her around. Mr Frank Relly lent valuable assistance in the work required. The Vet. suffering from broken ribs recently, was unable himself to do it. After a winter's stay with his son in Toronto, Mr T. A. M. Ferguson returned to his home Friday night and looking fine and feeling equally well. Mr C. S. Sheffield is running the butcher shop for Mr McLean since the dam broke loose. What with four fox ranches in town, two others have been added of Chinchilla rabbits imported from Los Angeles by C S Sheffield, Master John MacVicar is the happy possessor of three of them. Watch Priceville grow.

Will you, too, be surprised?

"It was a delightful surprise" — writes a Toronto subscriber — "to find that I could talk to my Mother as far away as Sarnia for only 55 cts, by the Evening Rate. I'm sure few people realize how very little it costs to telephone even to points as far distant as Sarnia, by the Evening Rate, and you would do the public a service by emphasizing this point."

This is only one of many instances showing that many people do not know how low the Evening Rate on Long Distance is. Call up our Manager and ask him the Evening Rate to some point you are particularly interested in. You, too, will probably be surprised.
