Death of Robert Moore

The death occurred Wednesday, 25th April, of a well known farmer in North Egremont, Mr Robert Moore, who lived with his brother William on lot 12 con 19, a property that has been in the Moore name for about 70 years. Deceased was never married and has lived from infancy on the farm he died on. For several years he has not been well but able to go around and a stomach trouble has taken him off.

He leaves as chief mourners a sister, Mrs Wm. Lawrence, Durham, and three brothers, Thos. in the West; John in Holstein and Wm on the home farm. A brother Joseph died

Funeral on Friday. We have no further particulars.

NORTH EGREMONT

Mr and Mrs Isaac H. Hooper spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs Gordon Geddes, near Hutton Hill.

Mrs Dave Gilmour and son Gordon of Woodstock, visited at her brothers Mr W. H. Hunter the first of the week.

We extend best wishes to Mr Albert Lewis and Miss Jessie Hooper, who are being married this Wednesday.

Mr Jim Small has engaged with Mr Alf O'Neil of Pomona for the summer and started work the first of the week.

Mr and Mrs Jos. Moore, also Mr and Mrs Wm Moore of Durham, visited at Wm Moore's Sunday.

Mr Robt. Moore we regret to say, is seriously ill and very low at present.

Mr Peter Daly returned to Hillman, Mich. this week.

Mr Thos Gordon, near Mt Forest, spent Sunday at Mr Thos Moore's.

Miss Grace Ramage is spending a few days with her brother Reggie.

While making a few calls in this vicinity this week, Dr Ellis got his car stuck in a snowbank and it required four men and a shovel to extricate him. The Dr wanted to know why it wasn't shovelled long ago but we didn't know either. It seems like a case of just keeping cool and depend on old Sol to clear it out. Who is the Road Supt. of Egremont anyway?

A mistake occurred in last week's budget in stating Harrison Bros. had cut and delivered at McWilliams Station 5400 feet of logs. This should have been 66,000 feet which is some quantity.

YEOVIL

Some of the men have been busy patching roofs - the shingles being torn off by Thursday's gale: some are fencing, some plowing. There is always a variety of farm work awaiting the busy farmer.

Mrs Urquhart, O. Sound, came last week to see her daughter, Mrs F. Reid who is recovering from a severe attack of stomach flu.

Little Miss Florence Reid is having an enforced holiday from school as she had the misfortune to run a nail into her foot.

Mrs Jas. Brooks, Dorking, is calling on former neighbors. With her is Miss May Brooks of Loring, New Ont. who for the first time is visiting scenes around the boyhood home of her father, Sandy Brooks. Miss B. expects to be bridesmaid at the Lewis-Hooper wedding this week. She says her grandmother B. is extremely weak physically but quite alert mentally.

In the debate last Thursday ev'g at the UFYPO the affirmative side was taken by Miss Oliver and Donald McArthur while Miss Rolufs and Ewart Alles upheld the negative. The points were forcibly presented, but the judges, Misses Hunt and Orchard and C. McGillivray gave their decision in favor of the negative. Two other interesting items on the program were the reading of another humorous edition of the Yevovil Times by Miss Orchard - and Miss Hunt read a letter supposed to be written to her in 1943 - giving very interesting information regarding some of the present Club members.

Some from here were privileged to accept the invitation to attend the W. M. S. meeting in Mt Forest/Wellington on St. Church Friday last. We certainly enjoyed it, particularly the special feature - the illustrated address by Mrs Forbes, Weston, who went as one of the delegates to Trinidad to attend the Golden Jubilee recently held there. The pictures were clear and beautiful and her message instructive and inspirational.

Town Hall Re-opened

The Regent and Ist Vice, poured coffee from a prettily decorated table and several assistants served the refreshments. Judge Sutherland expressed the thanks of the O. Sound ladies for the hospitality shown and Mrs Kearney responded in a few remarks. At the close the orchestra was brought into use and for an hour dancing prevailed on the fine floor.

Can. Greys Chapter were pleased to have as guests Mrs (Dr) Farewell and daughter, Miss Helene of Walkerton. The Chapter feel they have a claim on Mrs Farewell since the Confederation pageant of 1927 and we think the feeling is reciprocated.

Durham orchestra certainly enhanced the program with their bright music while the gathering assembled and the Chapter appreciate the good will shown.

Over $125 were the door receipts and already the Chapter have a place to put any profits there may be in the further beautification of the monument grounds.

Expressions were heard on all sides of the improvements in the Town Hall and the new opera seats came through the initiation period with much credit to themselves.

The Town Hall has had a varied career, but it never appeared to better advantage than Tuesday night last when it held its official reception and is now at home any day or evening for the benefit of its friends - and of course itself!

VARNEY

The Ladies' Aid of Varney United Church held their April meeting at the home of Miss Winnie Blyth on Wednesday afternoon, April 11, with an attendance of 18. The meeting opened with the singing of "Jesus Keep me near the cross" followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Miss Winnie Blyth read the scripture lesson: Luke 24. It was decided to hold a progressive crokinole social the following Wednesday night. Mrs Norman Kerr gave a reading on an Easter service held on Miami Beach, Florida and a piano duet by Misses Florence and Janette Kerr was much enjoyed. Roll call was answered by a bible text on Easter. The hostess served refreshments at the close. Next meeting will be held at Mrs Elmer Fee's on Tuesday, May 8th.

Successful Social at Varney
A very successful crokinole social was staged in the Orange Hall, Varney, Wednesday, April 18th. 15 tables were in play. Fifteen or more Durham friends were welcomed to help swell the crowd. Miss Mary Morton Durham, captured the ladies' prize, winning all but one, as also did Norman Kerr, who won the gent's. Mr A. McCabe was chairman and presented the winners with the prizes. The receipts amounted to $17.25.
