HEARS RESEMBLANCE TO SIR WILFRID LAURIER

Did it ever occur to you that Cameron McIntosh, M.P., for North Battleford District and the former Dornoch boy, closely resembled the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier? That some body else evidently thinks so also is evident, when you read the following skit from the Border Cities Star, in which city he recently spent a week with a party of members from the Dominion House, Ottawa:

"Cameron Ross McIntosh, as his name denotes, is of Irish descent. But he didn't descend on Greenly Id. He was born at Dornoch in Grey Co. and after putting in a number of years at Kingston—at Queen's University, not the other institution—he went West with a B. A., a clean collar and a pioneering spirit. In those days the literary taste of the prairie folk was lamentably low. Their only knowledge of the progress of world events was gained from the catalogues. So C. R. McIntosh established beacons of liberty and torches of truth at North Battleford, Turtleford and St. Walburg. Editing hinterland papers was an exciting racket. Many a time our hero had just completed a resounding editorial on the need for pasteurization of buffalo milk or longer skirts, when an Indian arrow would whizz through the window and pin the manuscript to his desk. When the inhabitants of North Battleford were beleaguered by Chief Standing Cow and his bloodthirsty redskins, publication would be suspended and his type would be used as shotgun slugs in defence of home and fireside. Mr. McIntosh bears a startling resemblance to the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier. So startling in fact, that when he rises to speak in the House of Commons, veterans in the Conservative party instinctively listen for a speech in favor of reciprocity."

"MOTHER MINE"

By J. W. Greenwood

(Dedicated to the dearest little woman in the world—My Mother) There's a singing in my soul, Mother Mine! There's a ringing in my soul, Mother Mine! Through the tears that dim my eyes I am seeing Paradise, As you live Love's sacrifice, Mother Mine! Night is heavy on my soul, Mother Mine! Gloom is darkening my soul, Mother Mine! For I'm far away from you, And my skies no longer blue, But I'm trying to be true, Mother Mine!

Mothers' Day may come and go, Mother Mine! Thoughtless children hurt you so, Mother Mine! But for you my love is deep, You who watched me in my sleep, You who prayed "my soul to keep", Mother Mine! Some lone day will soon be here, Mother Mine! Some sad day of haunting fear, Mother Mine! When no longer you'll see, And my heart will lonely be, But your Christ will comfort me, Mother Mine! I am planning on a Home, Mother Mine! Where no longer children roam, Mother Mine! And with your fond love's caress, And a Mother's tenderness, Heaven shall be all happiness, Mother Mine!

Faster means of travel would be a great aid to business if they didn't enable one's competitors to get there at the same time.

Don't suppose that self control is unnecessary, simply because we have government control in Ontario.

Happiness is largely a matter of refusing to want what you can't get. If you have a better definition let's hear it.

It takes a woman to make every word tell when it comes to imparting a secret.

The latest craze in Durham is naming the baby Bob—after his mother's hair.

The surprising thing about some people is that so many have just as much sense as you have.

If a bride isn't homesick for her family six months after her marriage it's a sign that she married the right man.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

The UFWO will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs Stewart McArthur on May 11. The meeting is to start at 1 o'clock in order that the quilt and bale may be finished. Miss Myrtle Mortley spent the week end with Miss Catherine McLean. Mrs A. Symon spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs Hugh Vaughan. Mr and Mrs Jas Lawrence spent an evening this week with Mrs A. Lawrence, Durham. Mr R. Wright, public school inspector, paid our school a visit Friday and found everything in fine shape. Mr Schlorf and family have moved into the vacant house on the Legate farm.

Dr. Bell, Durham, gave a very instructive address at the UFO meeting in the school on Friday night, and was much enjoyed by all present. Miss Kathleen Firth was a guest of Mrs L. McLean Monday night. A number from here attended the funeral of the late Mr Duncan McGillivray whose remains were interred in the Rocky cemetery on Saturday. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family. Mr and Mrs Geo. Searls, Guelph, visited with Mr and Mrs Wm. Hill on Sunday.

SOUTH BRUCE ELECTION NOT LIKELY THIS SUMMER

The Ontario Government has no intention, it is understood, of holding a by-election in South Bruce this summer. When the Legislature closed last month, it was the popular belief that June would be selected for such a campaign, but now it looks as if it will not be held until October, if then. Meanwhile the seat remains vacant.

TOWNSHIP OF BENTINCK ROAD SUPERINTENDENT

Applications will be received for the position of Road Superintendent of the Twp. of Bentinck for 1928, until the 12th day of May, 1928, the salary to be at the rate of 40c per hour. J. H. CHITTICK, Clerk

Where oh, where are the fish catches of 1928? To date that envious fish story is not heard and we wonder if the fish themselves are in any combine.

HAMPDEN

Mr and Mrs O. E. Hickling spent a day recently with friends near Walkerton. Mr and Mrs A. Fulton and family and Mr and Mrs Arch. Park of Allan Park were recent visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Wm. Henderson. Mr and Mrs John Shupe and family were the guests of Mr and Mrs W. Backus the beginning of the week. A few of the farmers are getting their flock of sheep sheared these days. No doubt there will be a change in the weather again. Mrs M. V. Byers returned the beginning of the week from Detroit, where she was visiting her daughter Mrs. Smith, and other relatives.

DORNOCH

The Women's Missionary meeting was held at the home of Mrs E. Dargavel, Monday, May 7, eight members being present. Roll call was 'twelve'. It was decided that the members make a quilt, and other useful things for the bale. Mr John Lowe, wife and family, Mr Lewis McIntosh, Misses Ruth and Jean Lowe, all of Niagara Falls, motored over on Saturday and spent the week end with the Dargavels. Mr and Mrs Will Greenwood visited with Mr Angus McIntosh and sister Friday evening. The remains of the late Duncan McGillivray who died in London, were brought to Dornoch and laid to rest Saturday in Rocky cemetery. The widow and family who were present, have the sympathy of the community in their loss. The Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs A. McIntosh on Wednesday when quite a number were present, it being the annual meeting. Mrs A. McIntosh was re-elected President; Mrs E. B. Dargavel as Sec'y. All other officers are also the same. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Will Robertson. Mrs J. E. Picard, Toronto, is spending a week at her summer home and has Mr Will Runnings busy building the platform for a verandah along the front and north side which will make a great improvement to the place.

CRAWFORD

Last Week's Budget Mrs Archie Brown and sons of Hanover, visited with the Hastie family over the week end. Mr Russell Fiddes of Brant visited on Sunday at the home of Mr and Mrs Edgar Boyce. Mr and Mrs John White and Mrs White Sr were the guests on Sunday of Mr and Mrs Dougald McDonald of Lamplash. The regular monthly meeting of the Crawford W. M. S. will meet this Thursday afternoon at the home of the Misses Henderson. Mrs Malcolm Livingstone and Miss Mary McGillivray of Elmwood visited last week with Miss T. Livingstone. Mr and Mrs Andrew Hastie and Dougald were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr Tom Scotchies near Hanover. Mr Donald McKechnie of Glenelg was a recent visitor with friends in this community. Mr and Mrs Herb Livingstone and family, also Mr and Mrs Wm. Livingstone of London, were recent visitors with Mr Duncan Livingstone and sister, Miss Tena. Mr Dougald Hastie, who was one of the young men of Grey Co. to win the free trip last fall to the Royal Winter Fair, has won 2nd prize for the essay which he wrote on what he saw and heard at the Fair. The prize is a well-bound volume on "Livestock." If more farm boys and girls were as interested as Dougald is in the different farming activities, surely a Junior Institute or some similar Junior Farmers' Club could be organized in Bentinck. Congratulations, Dougald.

(This week's budget) Mr and Mrs Neil McDougall motored from Hamilton to spend the past week end with the former's brother, Jas. and sister, Mrs Jno. McKechnie. Miss Mary White returned home on Monday from Hanover Hospital and where she underwent an operation for appendicitis two weeks ago. Mr and Mrs Frank Twamley and baby Murray visited Sunday with her parents, Mr and Mrs C. McClocklin, Zion. Mr and Mrs Edgar Boyce, Beverly and Bruce, Mr Edward and Miss B. Boyce were the guests Sunday of Mr and Mrs A. G. Fiddes, Chesley. It was the re-opening of St. John's United Church. Rev. Major Graham, former pastor of Geneva Pres. Church, delivered inspiring addresses morning and evening. Mrs Wm Lamont, Brant, spent over Sunday with Mr and Mrs D. J. McDonald.

The annual meeting of Louise W. Institute met at the home of Mrs W. Honeas May 2nd. The same officers were re-elected: Pres, Mrs Robt McCaslin and Sec'y Treas., Miss Annie Schultz. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Peter Krauter on May 31. The delegates will attend and address the meeting. The YPS of the United Church met Friday night, May 4. Messrs Jas. Stinson and Wilbur Anderson were in charge of program. The meeting was presided over by Jas Stinson. A vocal trio was well rendered by Misses Martha and Laura Kaufman and Mrs D. J. McDonald; a pleasing solo by Miss Nellie Stinson. Papers were read by Miss Nellie Stinson and Wilbur Anderson dealing with the value of a Young People's Society to any church.

Miss Irene McKechnie is spending a fortnight with her aunt, Mrs Louise Shildroth of near Chesley. Mr and Mrs Gillen Boyd spent a day with Mr and Mrs John Laughlin of Waudby. Miss Lena Schafer spent a day with her friend, Mrs R. Mortley of Latona. Mr Nicholas Melosh has erected a fine brooder. They are going in for a large quantity of fowl this year. Mr and Mrs James Ewen spent an evening recently with the McKechnie family. The W. M. S. of the Rocky Saugeen church met at the home of Mrs Gillen Boyd Wednesday last. A good meeting was held, and a large crowd attended. Mr and Mrs John McKechnie and daughter Blanche, spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs James Ellison. Mrs D. C. McKechnie has returned home after spending the winter months in Durham. Mr and Mrs John Boyd spent an evening with Mr and Mrs Roy Trafford at Holford. A number of our ladies attended the Saugeen Presbyterian W M S in Durham Tuesday. Mr and Mrs Gillen Boyd attended the funeral of the late Duncan McGillivray on Saturday from Dornoch to Rocky Saugeen cemetery. Quite a few of our men have made fine catches of fish at Balaclava. Mrs Alex Symon spent a day or two with her daughter, Mrs Hugh Vaughan, Jr.
