

Sageen Presbyterial Meets in Durham

Many from a distance returned to their homes after tea, leaving only a partially filled church for the evening session.

In prefacing her remarks on the various stations of Presbyterial missionary work in Canada and foreign lands, Mrs Rochester wanted all to understand that the W. M. S. stood for "The World for Christ" and only by our prayers can we extend the Kingdom of God.

She first brought out the Home Mission work in Canada: (1) 4 hospitals under WMS supervision at Pt. McMurray, Vegreville, Canora, Sask. and South Porcupine; school homes at Prince Albert, Saskatoon and Vegreville; Indian boarding homes at Birtle and Lake of the Woods school; Port work at Quebec, Montreal, Vancouver, Windsor and Toronto.

The work of the Welfare Sec'y's in this line was far reaching as 9000 visits were made in this Dept. last year and 1110 were enlisted in active service.

Chinese work was undertaken in Victoria, Vancouver, Toronto and Brockville; Jewish, Hungarian and Persian missionary work were taken up in Toronto and Ontario generally.

In overseas work the stations were placed at North Formosa, where such wonderful work is being done at the Girls' School and in other avenues; in China, under Dr and Mrs Goforth; Japan, under Dr Caroline McDonald; in India, where they have suffered a great loss in the death of Dr Wilkie.

Dr Buchanan, a missionary among the Ishis, had just arrived in Toronto. They now have 14 missionaries in India.

The Deaconess Home in Toronto, had 21 young women in training and 11 had gone to labor overseas and in Nor. Ontario and Quebec.

Mrs. Rochester stressed the fact that all church ladies should take up their official church magazines, the "Glad Tidings", missionary information spelled better auxiliaries and interest was never lacking where there was knowledge.

T. L. Hamilton "What is it that makes the W. M. S. so successful, in comparison to Budget contributions," asked the speaker on arising. He laid it at the feet of publicity the ladies gave of their work and believed that the men would have to use similar tactics if they are to meet their Budget allocations.

He hoped for another Layman's Missionary Movement when men might be awakened to grasp the situation. He predicted that 25 yrs hence, Canada would have millions more people and we ought to leave our impress on these future citizens by our Christian influence, or they might dominate us. We do not realize who is our neighbor and to some the responsibility extends only to the next door or street.

FOR MOTHERS' DAY She shall come singing from another sphere, When Mother's Day unbinds the hands of May; And softly at her feet I then shall lay My adoration of her. Ne'er the year Comes round but her beloved self is here, And I am out upon a vernal way Communing with her on that verdant day That is of all the days, to me most dear. She is the fairest hope of all my dreams, The one glad light that leads my footsteps on; And I shall tread to reach those stary gleams That shed their radiance where she has gone,— In faith,—in trust,—till brighter glory gleams The rising of a new, eternal dawn. —ROSE E. deRIBICOWSKY

United Church Presbytery at Markdale The May meeting of the Grey United Presbytery of the United Church of Canada, was held in Annesley Ch. Markdale on the 1st inst., Rev. J. E. Peters, Chairman of Presbytery, presiding. There were over 30 items on the docket of business, amongst them being the election of Lay representatives, of whom there are 42, to the Toronto Conference to be held this week and their appointment, together with the ministers to the various committees of the Conference. Rev. J. L. McInnes of O. Sound and Rev. W. H. Smith, Durham, were nominated to the Settlement Com. for 1928-'29. There was only one application for change of pastoral relationship, namely that of Rev. S. G. McCormack of Pricieville. Rev. R. A. Paton, B.A., who has completed his course in Theology, was unanimously recommended for ordination at the approaching Conference. Notices of 7 applications for reception into the ministry of the United Church by ministers of other churches were received from Presbyteries as far east as the Maritime Conference and as far west as the Alberta Conference. Discussion also arose regarding the ordination of women to the work of the ministry. The resulting resolution declared that while Presbytery was not averse to the principle involved, it was not considered expedient to adopt it at the present time.
