Mr Percy Chambers, accompanied by Misses Flo and Marjorie MacLean and Miss Dorothy Carson...

Dr. MacFarlane and brother, wife and family of Arthur, spent Sunday at Mr Angus McLachlan's.

Mr and Mrs Craig, Mr MacCannell and daughter of Burgoyne, spent the week end at Mr Arch. MacCaig's...

Mr and Mrs Davis and daughter and Mr John McFarlane of Toronto, spent the week end at the MacFarlane home.

Miss Jean McLean spent Sunday at Mrs Cameron Smellie's.

There appears to be much sickness around yet. Mr Donald Stewart has been laid up and Dr Milne was in attendance.

Mr and Mrs Geo. McLellan, Miss Brown and Billie Hines, motored over from Niagara and spent the week end at Mr Dan Campbell's.

There was a little error crept in last week's news when it read that a daughter was born to Mr and Mrs Arch. McEachnie. This should have read a son.

In celebration of the completion of the fifty years since Mr. W. W. Ramagie first led in the service of praise, his choir here gathered in force to rejoice with him, augmented by several old time members, Mrs H. B. McLean, Toronto; Allan McInnes, of Mono Mills; Mrs Alf. Tucker and Thos. Harrison of Ebenezer and contributed two anthems: "Be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands of the earth" by Richard Earle and the "Doxology" in anthem form, with a "Hallelujah, Amen" finish, mostly memorized.

The pastor, Rev. S. G. McCormack of the United Church, referred to the event in a congratulatory spirit. At the Saturday evening rehearsal the lady members of the choir put up a fine lunch in honor of the occasion. Congratulations were freely bestowed by friends at the close.

Mr Ramagie wishes to thank all those who so kindly helped with the choir on Sunday and for the kind expressions and good wishes given.

Rev. S. G. McCormack, Priceville, has received a call to Arthur and has accepted. Rev. Mr Smith of Port Robinson preached here for a call on Sunday last very acceptably.

Do You Look for Food Values in the Foods You Buy?

You should. You cannot be happy unless you are healthy and you cannot be healthy unless you eat food with real nourishment in it.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

The weather we have had the past week has been more like fall than near the close of May. However grass and early sown grain are looking fairly good.

Changes of a different nature are generally experienced by the tillers of the soil and those of us who have passed the days of activity, will only be as a drone in the hive. But their thoughts often fly backwards scores of years, when they had to be satisfied with the hardships of the time.

This Monday morning, the 28th of May, is somewhat damp and the rain does a lot of good after the cold spell of the past week.

The sick ones are getting some better. Mrs Wm. Firth of Edge Hill is home now after spending some months in Durham Hospital and is able to be around. It's a source of pleasure to her to be able to be with husband and family after her long experience away from home.

A Gaelic paper is in existence again in Sydney, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, called, "Mac na ceilidh," or "The Visitor."

Mr and Mrs Thos. Firth of Lindsay are visiting friends at Edge Hill at present and will be staying for some time.

Mr Geo. H. Gilkes has been laid up a few days with the flu. A carload of relatives from Detroit spent over the week end at Mr Robt. Webster's.

Miss Lydia Spence spent over the 24th with her parents, Mr and Mrs Thos. Spence.

Mr and Mrs J. Acheson and daughters, Inistogee, were early week visitors at Mr Thos. Walton's.

Mr and Mrs John G. Calder and children, Mt Forest; Mr and Mrs W. R. Weir and boys, Durham, were visitors during the week end at Mr J. Sinclair's.

Mr Jno. McEachnie is re-shingling part of his barn roof.

Mr and Mrs Geo. Gilkes are enjoying their new Chev. sedan and were out to visit their daughter, Mrs J. Troup, Holstein, on the 24th.

A South American missionary assisted with the services at Bethany chapel Sunday.

Rev. A. Bentum preached his farewell services in Hopeville and Cedarville United Church Sunday and with Mrs Bentum leaves shortly to take up his chosen work in Alberta.

SWINTON PARK

Mr and Mrs Jno. Montgomery, Mr. Ed. Hunt and Miss Florence Hunt, Toronto and Mrs Percy Hunt and family, Ceylon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs J. J. Peart Saturday.

Misses Gladys Firth, Katie May Firth, Margaret Greenwood, Chas. Robson, attended the nurses' graduating exercises in Owen Sound last Friday evening.

Mr Sam Jack, Winnipeg, is visiting with his brother, W. R. Jack. Mr Clifford Cook spent the week end with his sister, Mrs Victor Fairweather, Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Hugh McArthur spent the holiday with Mr and Mrs James Crutchley, Dornoch.

Miss Verbera Ryan, Durham, spent over the 24th with her aunt, Mrs. W. R. Jack.

Mr R. Cook and Miss Millie, Ceylon, spent a day recently with his brother, W. J. Cook.

Mr Will Edwards, Eugenia spent a couple of days last week with his parents.

Mr Wm Paylor has been improving his home lately by erecting a new verandah.

Miss Gladys Baker returned home recently from Toronto after spending the winter months there.

Mrs J. O. Greenwood and family, spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs Arch Beaton, Bussan.

Miss Gladys Firth spent the week end with Durham friends.

The annual U. F. O. Picnic will be held in Flesherton on Friday, June 22nd, afternoon and evening, in Jake Lever's fine picnic bush.

Field sports, vaudeville, speaking and dancing. Bigger and better than ever. Just the place to meet your friends. Remember the date—you'll want to be there.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of Kenneth McLean, who died May 20th, 1925

What would we give to clasp his hand? His smiling face to see; To hear his voice, to see his smile That meant so much to us.

His name we oft recall, There is nothing left to answer But his picture on the wall.

Sadly missed by father, mother, sister and brothers.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO From Review file May 28, 1903

Last week Miss Katie Black, a daughter of John S. Black, Glenelg, underwent an operation for the removal of 'cystic tumor' the operation was successful and the patient is progressing nicely.

The funeral of the late Lloyd Bean was largely attended and very marked were the feelings of sympathy to the bereaved parents.

While assisting at the hoisting of the barn at his son-in-law's, Mr Jas. Matthews the other day, Mr Wm McFadden got a severe cut on the head.

Mr John Wright, for 11 years in the bakery business here, has sold out to Messrs Geo Stinson and Homer Hind.

Mr and Mrs D. B. McFarlane came home from their wedding trip Thursday and have taken up residence in his old home.

Mr Russell, Stratford, architect for the new House of Refuge going up at Markdale, was in town Monday and in company with Com. McKinnon, viewed the sports for he could not for love or money get a horse to go to Markdale.

SWINTON PARK

ANTHONY — HAW In Toronto, on Saturday, May 19th, in Centenary United Church, Dovercourt Road, a pretty wedding was solemnized, when Ruby Mae, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Geo Haw of Swinton Park, became the bride of Mr Garfield Anthony of Toronto, son of Mr and Mrs Lawrence Anthony of Sydney, Nova Scotia.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Thos. Haw and was daintily dressed in mauve tulle with mauve mohair hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. Mrs Chas. Littler, Toronto, acted as bridesmaid, gowned in coral georgette with hat to match and carried a bouquet of American roses, while Mr Chas. Littler assisted the groom. The church organist played the wedding march and also played softly during the ceremony at signing of the register.

After a dainty luncheon served at Mrs Strong's on Oakwood Ave., the bridal party left for the bride's home at Swinton Park where a wedding supper awaited them. The dining room was decorated in mauve and pink, the table being centred with a three story wedding cake, the other members of family away from home, along with uncles, aunts and cousins, being present to welcome them.

The bride travelled in a blonde, flat crepe dress with coat, hat and shoes to match. An enjoyable evening was spent by all present. The party was welcomed by the pipe band and an abundance of the best music during the evening. The bride for years has been a member of Swinton Park church and the wedding party were present for service on Sunday.

Then on Monday evening in the Orange Hall a reception was given, when over one hundred were present — just immediate neighbors and friends. Many useful gifts were presented showing the esteem in which the bride was held in the community. A few hours were spent in dancing after which all went home wishing bride and groom a long and happy wedded life.

Still there was a little sadness with all the pleasure. Mrs Haw, mother of the bride, was stricken with the flu and could not be present at the reception and has been very sick during the week, but at present is slightly improved.

The community wish to bride and groom is Where'er you bide in the world see wide.

I wish you a nook on the sunny side: W! muckle o' love and little o' care, A wee bit pursie w! siller to spare: Your ain fireside when day is spent, In a wee bit housie w! hearts content.

The sick in our midst are reported to be improving at present but handkerchiefs are much in evidence as colds are very common, the weather being so unsettled.

Mr Martin Wilson and son Goldie, accompanied by his brother Will and family of North Egremont, spent the week end with Milverton relatives, returning Sunday evening.

Mrs Palmer Phillips and her little daughter, also Marjorie Kinnell, are spending a few days with mother and brother at the old home here.

Miss Margaret Knox, Toronto, spent a few days with her parents, Mr and Mrs Robt. Knox.

Mrs Jas. Kennedy and children of Shelburne, spent a few days at the parental home last week.

Mr and Mrs Nell McMillan entertained friends from Port Elgin over the week end.

Mr and Mrs Noble Wilson and children in their new Essex Six, visited with friends at Honeywood on Sunday.

There is some seedling still to be done and the blossoms on the fruit trees in this locality do not indicate many pies next winter. But we will grow pumpkins.

There is considerable kicking going on and some of it in the football field. A few of us old grouches kick at many things.

Mr and Mrs Chas. Littler, Toronto were in the Park with the Haw—Anthony wedding party. Mrs Littler was Ettie Sackett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Wm Sackett, well known in South Grey.

If it is true, as declared by 'Duke' Schiller, that Montreal and Toronto flying fields are not fit to land on, then it is high time that something should be done to put Canada on the air map of America.
