

HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Young Life Passes Out in Toronto
 DAVID A. ALLES
 The home of Mr and Mrs Valentine Alles, 15th con, Egremont, was cast into gloom on Wednesday last, when death took from them their youngest son, David Alexander, at the age of 29 years. David was in the prime of young manhood and this first break in the family circle, is deeply to be regretted. A year ago December last deceased was operated upon in Durham Hospital for appendicitis and at that time it was noted also he had an adhesive bowel. He made a wonderful recovery and returned to Toronto where he has been engaged as a motor mechanic for some time. While in that city he made his home with his sister, Mrs McEachern and she states that he never complained of any illness or weakness.

The week end of July 29th, the Alles family spent in the city with their family members there and on returning home Sunday evening, David accompanied them as far as Aurora in the best of health and spirits. However that same evening, he became suddenly and acutely ill at his sister's home and on medical advice was taken to Wellesley Hospital, where he was operated upon late Monday afternoon for adhesions. It was from the first considered a grave case and the family were sent for. They immediately responded and arrived there at midnight of Monday. They found the patient remarkably bright and cheerful and he remained so until a few moments of his death. On Wednesday evening at 5.40 p.m., he passed away, just 48 hours after he entered the hospital.

David was a favorite of all and his bright disposition and sunny nature, filled many bright hours for family and friends. He had shown special aptitude for machinery and was doing well in the motor mechanic world.

The suddenness of it all has made it doubly hard on parents and brothers and sisters, who to-day mourn his loss. The sisters and brothers are (Mary), Mrs Arthur Renton, Dromore; (Georgina), Mrs W. J. McEachern, Toronto; Misses Bessie of Toronto and Ethel, at home; Messrs John and Hubert. A sad feature of the death was that deceased's brother John was to have been united in marriage Saturday to Miss Wilcox of Meaford. This has been postponed indefinitely.

The remains were taken in Toronto to D. M. Johnston's undertaking parlors, where Rev. Dr. Laidlaw gave a comforting discourse amid many Toronto friends of bereaved family. On Friday the remains were conveyed to Holstein, where that afternoon, Rev. John Little of Conn, gave the burial service as only Mr Little can. A solo much appreciated was that of Rev. F. G. Purnell, Dromore, "I heard the voice of Jesus say", which was sung most sympathetically.

Beautiful floral tokens were on and surrounded the casket of the sleeper and consisted of pillow from the family, Mr and Mrs W. A. Renton of Dromore; Mr and Mrs W. J. McEachern, Toronto; sprays from Mr and Mrs Geo. H. Alles and family; Mr and Mrs J. D. Drimmlie and family; Mrs Marion Reid, Miss M. Younger, Misses Gertrude and Beatrice Davis, Miss Kathleen McNeill.

At Holstein and Fairbairn Presbyterian churches, the pulpits for the next three Sundays will be filled as follows:
 Aug. 12th—Rev. Lloyd Griffith.
 Aug. 19th—Rev. Gerard Graham.
 Aug. 26th—Rev. Jas. M. Miller

BAND CONCERT
 In the Park, HOLSTEIN, on Sunday Evening, AUG. 12th, 1928 at 8.30 p. m. (after conclusion of Church services)

Mt. Forest Musical Soc. Band
 Silver Collection.

Successful Diamond Jubilee at Amos Ch. Many Former Members Return

"I love Thy Church, O God; Her walls before me stand, Dear as the apple of Thine eye, And graven on Thy hand."
 Such was the spirit prevalent among the large congregations present at Amos Presbyterian Church, Dromore, Sunday last, when the Diamond Jubilee of the Church was celebrated. The spirit of the services and people was one of thankfulness, that in sixty years, Amos Church had contributed in such large measure to the moral and religious welfare of the district it serves, and the inspiration and impetus received on these Jubilee days, were of such a high nature that while generations may come and go, the church will abide.

The people came from every concession in the Township and from many concessions of the adjacent townships. Many "old boys and girls" were also present for the occasion from a distance and warm were the greetings and handshakes. It was unfortunate that the limitations of the church prevented all from hearing the special speaker of the day, Rev. Dr. Inkster, Toronto. While the commodious church is usually capable of holding its own, it was simply unable to do so on this occasion and an overflow in the basement and perhaps 50 more outside, were unable to gain admission at the morning service. At this service one of the outside audience counted the cars along the roadside alone and they came to 105. This is exclusive of the number in the shed and yards.

The interior of church was beautifully decorated with floral bloom, the deft work of Florist Flett of Mt. Forest, who so generously did this for the congregation. Tall standards filled with bloom guarded the entrance to pulpit on either side and wicker vases were suspended from the rods supporting the chancel. In front of pulpit was a mass of bloom, surrounding the church's Jubilee cake which had inscribed upon it "1868-1928." This cake was tested by all at the Monday evening function and proved as good as it looked attractive.

The musical end of the services—always an important feature at Amos—was in the hands of Mr Wm. Ramage, now of Priceville, but for 47 years, leader of the musical end of church worship here. The anthems sung were melowed with age and given with that fervor and sureness, that marked the training behind them. Then as special privileges, the audience listened to Mrs P. C. Lister (Jean Renwick) of Vegreville, Alta, and her brother Lew, in that old favorite "In the Garden." Mr W. H. Isaac, Toronto, was also one of the "old boys" who gave of his musical talent in a beautiful solo "Does Jesus Care." At the evening service, he contributed another solo, and featured in a duet with Mrs. Lister. It would not have been a Jubilee, were a "Renwick" or an "Isaac" or a "Ramage" not on the program for the names are outstanding ones in Amos' pathway of progress.

The pastor, Rev. F. G. Purnell, conducted the opening part of the service and warmly thanked the donors for the fine new hymn book which had been placed on his pulpit. He regretted that former pastors of the congregation were unable to attend the Jubilee—Rev. Geo. Kendall was lying very ill in hospital, Rev. W. J. Burnett found it impossible to come, and he read letters from Rev. D. L. Campbell at Pine River, near Kincardine, expressing his regret at not finding it convenient to attend, but wishing for successful services; also from Rev. Don McVicar, now of Bladworth, Sask. Amos was his first charge 31 years ago. He would have enjoyed coming and hoped that the C. E. Society which he had organized in 1892, was still flourishing. Rev. Mr. Purnell complimented Mr Wm. Ramage "the old master hand" on returning to direct and assist in the musical services.

The preacher of the day, Rev. John G. Inkster, B.A., B.D., of Knox Church Toronto, delivered two earnest messages and left a most favorable impression upon the large audiences. In the morning he spoke from Phil. 1: 28, his topic being "The mystery of suffering." Health, sunshine, friends around us, are gifts from God. How can suffering be a gift? The bible teaches us it is a fact; our Lord, Job, and Paul all suffered; science, history of human experience all teach suffering to be a fact. In itself it is not a gift; it is a gift when characterized by two paths: 1.—Coming from the hand of a wise and mighty God; we don't understand it; we just 'grin and bear it' Presbyterians, he remarked, don't enjoy their religion as much as they should. 2.—When we bear suffering gladly and joyfully, then it does us and others good and becomes a gift from God. The Salvation Army flourished because they added a note of gladness to their religion.

Suffering had produced some of the finest literature, such as the book of Jeremiah, Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress", Milton's "Paradise Lost"; also some of the finest characters. Women know better than men how to suffer. Woman is the most beautiful character on two occasions—on her wedding day, and when she gives birth to her first child and is a mother. Motherhood is possible through great suffering. Our Lord and the saints of old all were perfected through suffering. Mr Inkster's sermon in the evening spoke of the trinity of the Godhead—the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and the wonderful supernatural power and workings of the Holy Ghost, as shown in John Bunyan in prison in the Pilgrim's Progress; John Milton in his blindness when he wrote Paradise Lost and many others. He regretted so many sects in the Protestant church as compared to non Protestants. He assumed that the prospects of Presbyterianism were bright judging from the large turn out at these Diamond Jubilee services. He lauded the form of the Presbyterian sacrament: had no penitent bench but characterized as a fine sight to see a fine old Scotchman coming down the aisle, carrying the emblems of the broken body and blood of Christ. A fine duet was given by that jewel of song, Mrs Lister and Mr Wm. Isaac, the latter also contributing in a solo "How lovely is thy dwelling place." The choir again contributed a fine anthem in good time and harmony.

On Monday rain threatened most of the afternoon and evening, but happily held off, and a huge crowd gathered on Mr Jas. Snell's lawn, which would have nearly twice filled the church. Over 800 it is estimated, were present when the program commenced. In the afternoon, horse shoe throwing, softball and football were the sports enjoyed by the men while the ladies prepared to satisfy the single men lasted scarcely half an hour when the ball came to grief with the single chaps ahead 2-0.

Adorning a place of honor on the tables set upon the lawn was the big four-storey Diamond Jubilee cake, the work of Mrs W. A. Lawrence. Rev. Mr Purnell called upon Mrs R. Renwick, Sr. to cut the cake and Mrs. John Denton and Mrs. Wm. Hunter, to assist her in removing the layers. This was done and all received a sample. These ladies have been the longest continuous members of Amos Church. From 5.30 till after 8 p.m. the tables were filled and refilled until all were satisfied and after a bountiful repast, much still remained.

No better program, it is safe to say has ever been heard in Dromore than that presented by Ye Old-Tyme Quartette of Toronto, and Mr Hamilton, comedian. From the time Rev. Mr. Purnell took the chair about 8.40, until 11.15, there was an almost continuous treat of song and merriment, broken only by intermission and a brief address by Rev. Mr Inkster. He was delighted to be back after 34 years and assured the audience it had been a great inspiration to him to see such wonderful crowds as on Sunday, and the present one. The Quartette were most liberal in their numbers, and their harmony in quartette and duet work was superb. All selections were enjoyed but perhaps special favorites were "Old King Cole", quartette arr. of "Sextette from Lucia", and the duet "Hunting-tower." Mr Chapman, the leader, and associates, will be warmly welcomed back again.

As a humorous entertainer, Mr Hamilton is the real thing, and his songs quips and actions kept the audience in rounds of laughter. In "the black sheep", he displayed serious dramatic ability as well. Near the close a vote of thanks was proposed to Mr and Mrs Snell for the use of their fine grounds and home, by Rev. Mr Purnell, with which all were in hearty accord. Mr. Snell voiced his thanks.

The social good time, and greeting old friends, so prevalent before the program, continued afterwards a short time, and it was nearly midnight before the crowd dispersed. The Jubilee celebration was over and every gathering will long be remembered. Monday's proceeds were over $330 at the gate.

YEOVIL
 A very large concourse of neighbors and friends gathered in the home last Friday, to show the last respect to David, youngest child of Mr and Mrs V. Alles, who passed away on Wednesday, Aug. 1, in Toronto Hos pital, after a sudden and brief illness, and Paul all suffered; science, history of human experience all teach suffering to be a fact. In itself it is not a gift; it is a gift when characterized by two paths: 1.—Coming from the hand of a wise and mighty God; we don't understand it; we just 'grin and bear it' Presbyterians, he remarked, don't enjoy their religion as much as they should. 2.—When we bear suffering gladly and joyfully, then it does us and others good and becomes a gift from God. The Salvation Army flourished because they added a note of gladness to their religion.

Suffering had produced some of the finest literature, such as the book of Jeremiah, Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress", Milton's "Paradise Lost"; also some of the finest characters. Women know better than men how to suffer. Woman is the most beautiful character on two occasions—on her wedding day, and when she gives birth to her first child and is a mother. Motherhood is possible through great suffering. Our Lord and the saints of old all were perfected through suffering. Mr Inkster's sermon in the evening spoke of the trinity of the Godhead—the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and the wonderful supernatural power and workings of the Holy Ghost, as shown in John Bunyan in prison in the Pilgrim's Progress; John Milton in his blindness when he wrote Paradise Lost and many others. He regretted so many sects in the Protestant church as compared to non Protestants. He assumed that the prospects of Presbyterianism were bright judging from the large turn out at these Diamond Jubilee services. He lauded the form of the Presbyterian sacrament: had no penitent bench but characterized as a fine sight to see a fine old Scotchman coming down the aisle, carrying the emblems of the broken body and blood of Christ. A fine duet was given by that jewel of song, Mrs Lister and Mr Wm. Isaac, the latter also contributing in a solo "How lovely is thy dwelling place." The choir again contributed a fine anthem in good time and harmony.

On Monday rain threatened most of the afternoon and evening, but happily held off, and a huge crowd gathered on Mr Jas. Snell's lawn, which would have nearly twice filled the church. Over 800 it is estimated, were present when the program commenced. In the afternoon, horse shoe throwing, softball and football were the sports enjoyed by the men while the ladies prepared to satisfy the single men lasted scarcely half an hour when the ball came to grief with the single chaps ahead 2-0.

Adorning a place of honor on the tables set upon the lawn was the big four-storey Diamond Jubilee cake, the work of Mrs W. A. Lawrence. Rev. Mr Purnell called upon Mrs R. Renwick, Sr. to cut the cake and Mrs. John Denton and Mrs. Wm. Hunter, to assist her in removing the layers. This was done and all received a sample. These ladies have been the longest continuous members of Amos Church. From 5.30 till after 8 p.m. the tables were filled and refilled until all were satisfied and after a bountiful repast, much still remained.

No better program, it is safe to say has ever been heard in Dromore than that presented by Ye Old-Tyme Quartette of Toronto, and Mr Hamilton, comedian. From the time Rev. Mr. Purnell took the chair about 8.40, until 11.15, there was an almost continuous treat of song and merriment, broken only by intermission and a brief address by Rev. Mr Inkster. He was delighted to be back after 34 years and assured the audience it had been a great inspiration to him to see such wonderful crowds as on Sunday, and the present one. The Quartette were most liberal in their numbers, and their harmony in quartette and duet work was superb. All selections were enjoyed but perhaps special favorites were "Old King Cole", quartette arr. of "Sextette from Lucia", and the duet "Hunting-tower." Mr Chapman, the leader, and associates, will be warmly welcomed back again.

As a humorous entertainer, Mr Hamilton is the real thing, and his songs quips and actions kept the audience in rounds of laughter. In "the black sheep", he displayed serious dramatic ability as well. Near the close a vote of thanks was proposed to Mr and Mrs Snell for the use of their fine grounds and home, by Rev. Mr Purnell, with which all were in hearty accord. Mr. Snell voiced his thanks.

The social good time, and greeting old friends, so prevalent before the program, continued afterwards a short time, and it was nearly midnight before the crowd dispersed. The Jubilee celebration was over and every gathering will long be remembered. Monday's proceeds were over $330 at the gate.

YEOVIL
 A very large concourse of neighbors and friends gathered in the home last Friday, to show the last respect to David, youngest child of Mr and Mrs V. Alles, who passed away on Wednesday, Aug. 1, in Toronto Hos pital, after a sudden and brief illness, and Paul all suffered; science, history of human experience all teach suffering to be a fact. In itself it is not a gift; it is a gift when characterized by two paths: 1.—Coming from the hand of a wise and mighty God; we don't understand it; we just 'grin and bear it' Presbyterians, he remarked, don't enjoy their religion as much as they should. 2.—When we bear suffering gladly and joyfully, then it does us and others good and becomes a gift from God. The Salvation Army flourished because they added a note of gladness to their religion.

Suffering had produced some of the finest literature, such as the book of Jeremiah, Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress", Milton's "Paradise Lost"; also some of the finest characters. Women know better than men how to suffer. Woman is the most beautiful character on two occasions—on her wedding day, and when she gives birth to her first child and is a mother. Motherhood is possible through great suffering. Our Lord and the saints of old all were perfected through suffering. Mr Inkster's sermon in the evening spoke of the trinity of the Godhead—the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and the wonderful supernatural power and workings of the Holy Ghost, as shown in John Bunyan in prison in the Pilgrim's Progress; John Milton in his blindness when he wrote Paradise Lost and many others. He regretted so many sects in the Protestant church as compared to non Protestants. He assumed that the prospects of Presbyterianism were bright judging from the large turn out at these Diamond Jubilee services. He lauded the form of the Presbyterian sacrament: had no penitent bench but characterized as a fine sight to see a fine old Scotchman coming down the aisle, carrying the emblems of the broken body and blood of Christ. A fine duet was given by that jewel of song, Mrs Lister and Mr Wm. Isaac, the latter also contributing in a solo "How lovely is thy dwelling place." The choir again contributed a fine anthem in good time and harmony.

On Monday rain threatened most of the afternoon and evening, but happily held off, and a huge crowd gathered on Mr Jas. Snell's lawn, which would have nearly twice filled the church. Over 800 it is estimated, were present when the program commenced. In the afternoon, horse shoe throwing, softball and football were the sports enjoyed by the men while the ladies prepared to satisfy the single men lasted scarcely half an hour when the ball came to grief with the single chaps ahead 2-0.

Adorning a place of honor on the tables set upon the lawn was the big four-storey Diamond Jubilee cake, the work of Mrs W. A. Lawrence. Rev. Mr Purnell called upon Mrs R. Renwick, Sr. to cut the cake and Mrs. John Denton and Mrs. Wm. Hunter, to assist her in removing the layers. This was done and all received a sample. These ladies have been the longest continuous members of Amos Church. From 5.30 till after 8 p.m. the tables were filled and refilled until all were satisfied and after a bountiful repast, much still remained.

No better program, it is safe to say has ever been heard in Dromore than that presented by Ye Old-Tyme Quartette of Toronto, and Mr Hamilton, comedian. From the time Rev. Mr. Purnell took the chair about 8.40, until 11.15, there was an almost continuous treat of song and merriment, broken only by intermission and a brief address by Rev. Mr Inkster. He was delighted to be back after 34 years and assured the audience it had been a great inspiration to him to see such wonderful crowds as on Sunday, and the present one. The Quartette were most liberal in their numbers, and their harmony in quartette and duet work was superb. All selections were enjoyed but perhaps special favorites were "Old King Cole", quartette arr. of "Sextette from Lucia", and the duet "Hunting-tower." Mr Chapman, the leader, and associates, will be warmly welcomed back again.

As a humorous entertainer, Mr Hamilton is the real thing, and his songs quips and actions kept the audience in rounds of laughter. In "the black sheep", he displayed serious dramatic ability as well. Near the close a vote of thanks was proposed to Mr and Mrs Snell for the use of their fine grounds and home, by Rev. Mr Purnell, with which all were in hearty accord. Mr. Snell voiced his thanks.

The social good time, and greeting old friends, so prevalent before the program, continued afterwards a short time, and it was nearly midnight before the crowd dispersed. The Jubilee celebration was over and every gathering will long be remembered. Monday's proceeds were over $330 at the gate.

Successful Diamond Jubilee at Amos Ch. Many Former Members Return

"I love Thy Church, O God; Her walls before me stand, Dear as the apple of Thine eye, And graven on Thy hand."
 Such was the spirit prevalent among the large congregations present at Amos Presbyterian Church, Dromore, Sunday last, when the Diamond Jubilee of the Church was celebrated. The spirit of the services and people was one of thankfulness, that in sixty years, Amos Church had contributed in such large measure to the moral and religious welfare of the district it serves, and the inspiration and impetus received on these Jubilee days, were of such a high nature that while generations may come and go, the church will abide.

The people came from every concession in the Township and from many concessions of the adjacent townships. Many "old boys and girls" were also present for the occasion from a distance and warm were the greetings and handshakes. It was unfortunate that the limitations of the church prevented all from hearing the special speaker of the day, Rev. Dr. Inkster, Toronto. While the commodious church is usually capable of holding its own, it was simply unable to do so on this occasion and an overflow in the basement and perhaps 50 more outside, were unable to gain admission at the morning service. At this service one of the outside audience counted the cars along the roadside alone and they came to 105. This is exclusive of the number in the shed and yards.

The interior of church was beautifully decorated with floral bloom, the deft work of Florist Flett of Mt. Forest, who so generously did this for the congregation. Tall standards filled with bloom guarded the entrance to pulpit on either side and wicker vases were suspended from the rods supporting the chancel. In front of pulpit was a mass of bloom, surrounding the church's Jubilee cake which had inscribed upon it "1868-1928." This cake was tested by all at the Monday evening function and proved as good as it looked attractive.

The musical end of the services—always an important feature at Amos—was in the hands of Mr Wm. Ramage, now of Priceville, but for 47 years, leader of the musical end of church worship here. The anthems sung were melowed with age and given with that fervor and sureness, that marked the training behind them. Then as special privileges, the audience listened to Mrs P. C. Lister (Jean Renwick) of Vegreville, Alta, and her brother Lew, in that old favorite "In the Garden." Mr W. H. Isaac, Toronto, was also one of the "old boys" who gave of his musical talent in a beautiful solo "Does Jesus Care." At the evening service, he contributed another solo, and featured in a duet with Mrs. Lister. It would not have been a Jubilee, were a "Renwick" or an "Isaac" or a "Ramage" not on the program for the names are outstanding ones in Amos' pathway of progress.

The pastor, Rev. F. G. Purnell, conducted the opening part of the service and warmly thanked the donors for the fine new hymn book which had been placed on his pulpit. He regretted that former pastors of the congregation were unable to attend the Jubilee—Rev. Geo. Kendall was lying very ill in hospital, Rev. W. J. Burnett found it impossible to come, and he read letters from Rev. D. L. Campbell at Pine River, near Kincardine, expressing his regret at not finding it convenient to attend, but wishing for successful services; also from Rev. Don McVicar, now of Bladworth, Sask. Amos was his first charge 31 years ago. He would have enjoyed coming and hoped that the C. E. Society which he had organized in 1892, was still flourishing. Rev. Mr. Purnell complimented Mr Wm. Ramage "the old master hand" on returning to direct and assist in the musical services.

The preacher of the day, Rev. John G. Inkster, B.A., B.D., of Knox Church Toronto, delivered two earnest messages and left a most favorable impression upon the large audiences. In the morning he spoke from Phil. 1: 28, his topic being "The mystery of suffering." Health, sunshine, friends around us, are gifts from God. How can suffering be a gift? The bible teaches us it is a fact; our Lord, Job, and Paul all suffered; science, history of human experience all teach suffering to be a fact. In itself it is not a gift; it is a gift when characterized by two paths: 1.—Coming from the hand of a wise and mighty God; we don't understand it; we just 'grin and bear it' Presbyterians, he remarked, don't enjoy their religion as much as they should. 2.—When we bear suffering gladly and joyfully, then it does us and others good and becomes a gift from God. The Salvation Army flourished because they added a note of gladness to their religion.

Suffering had produced some of the finest literature, such as the book of Jeremiah, Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress", Milton's "Paradise Lost"; also some of the finest characters. Women know better than men how to suffer. Woman is the most beautiful character on two occasions—on her wedding day, and when she gives birth to her first child and is a mother. Motherhood is possible through great suffering. Our Lord and the saints of old all were perfected through suffering. Mr Inkster's sermon in the evening spoke of the trinity of the Godhead—the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and the wonderful supernatural power and workings of the Holy Ghost, as shown in John Bunyan in prison in the Pilgrim's Progress; John Milton in his blindness when he wrote Paradise Lost and many others. He regretted so many sects in the Protestant church as compared to non Protestants. He assumed that the prospects of Presbyterianism were bright judging from the large turn out at these Diamond Jubilee services. He lauded the form of the Presbyterian sacrament: had no penitent bench but characterized as a fine sight to see a fine old Scotchman coming down the aisle, carrying the emblems of the broken body and blood of Christ. A fine duet was given by that jewel of song, Mrs Lister and Mr Wm. Isaac, the latter also contributing in a solo "How lovely is thy dwelling place." The choir again contributed a fine anthem in good time and harmony.

On Monday rain threatened most of the afternoon and evening, but happily held off, and a huge crowd gathered on Mr Jas. Snell's lawn, which would have nearly twice filled the church. Over 800 it is estimated, were present when the program commenced. In the afternoon, horse shoe throwing, softball and football were the sports enjoyed by the men while the ladies prepared to satisfy the single men lasted scarcely half an hour when the ball came to grief with the single chaps ahead 2-0.

Adorning a place of honor on the tables set upon the lawn was the big four-storey Diamond Jubilee cake, the work of Mrs W. A. Lawrence. Rev. Mr Purnell called upon Mrs R. Renwick, Sr. to cut the cake and Mrs. John Denton and Mrs. Wm. Hunter, to assist her in removing the layers. This was done and all received a sample. These ladies have been the longest continuous members of Amos Church. From 5.30 till after 8 p.m. the tables were filled and refilled until all were satisfied and after a bountiful repast, much still remained.

No better program, it is safe to say has ever been heard in Dromore than that presented by Ye Old-Tyme Quartette of Toronto, and Mr Hamilton, comedian. From the time Rev. Mr. Purnell took the chair about 8.40, until 11.15, there was an almost continuous treat of song and merriment, broken only by intermission and a brief address by Rev. Mr Inkster. He was delighted to be back after 34 years and assured the audience it had been a great inspiration to him to see such wonderful crowds as on Sunday, and the present one. The Quartette were most liberal in their numbers, and their harmony in quartette and duet work was superb. All selections were enjoyed but perhaps special favorites were "Old King Cole", quartette arr. of "Sextette from Lucia", and the duet "Hunting-tower." Mr Chapman, the leader, and associates, will be warmly welcomed back again.

As a humorous entertainer, Mr Hamilton is the real thing, and his songs quips and actions kept the audience in rounds of laughter. In "the black sheep", he displayed serious dramatic ability as well. Near the close a vote of thanks was proposed to Mr and Mrs Snell for the use of their fine grounds and home, by Rev. Mr Purnell, with which all were in hearty accord. Mr. Snell voiced his thanks.

The social good time, and greeting old friends, so prevalent before the program, continued afterwards a short time, and it was nearly midnight before the crowd dispersed. The Jubilee celebration was over and every gathering will long be remembered. Monday's proceeds were over $330 at the gate.

YEOVIL
 A very large concourse of neighbors and friends gathered in the home last Friday, to show the last respect to David, youngest child of Mr and Mrs V. Alles, who passed away on Wednesday, Aug. 1, in Toronto Hos pital, after a sudden and brief illness, and Paul all suffered; science, history of human experience all teach suffering to be a fact. In itself it is not a gift; it is a gift when characterized by two paths: 1.—Coming from the hand of a wise and mighty God; we don't understand it; we just 'grin and bear it' Presbyterians, he remarked, don't enjoy their religion as much as they should. 2.—When we bear suffering gladly and joyfully, then it does us and others good and becomes a gift from God. The Salvation Army flourished because they added a note of gladness to their religion.

Suffering had produced some of the finest literature, such as the book of Jeremiah, Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress", Milton's "Paradise Lost"; also some of the finest characters. Women know better than men how to suffer. Woman is the most beautiful character on two occasions—on her wedding day, and when she gives birth to her first child and is a mother. Motherhood is possible through great suffering. Our Lord and the saints of old all were perfected through suffering. Mr Inkster's sermon in the evening spoke of the trinity of the Godhead—the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and the wonderful supernatural power and workings of the Holy Ghost, as shown in John Bunyan in prison in the Pilgrim's Progress; John Milton in his blindness when he wrote Paradise Lost and many others. He regretted so many sects in the Protestant church as compared to non Protestants. He assumed that the prospects of Presbyterianism were bright judging from the large turn out at these Diamond Jubilee services. He lauded the form of the Presbyterian sacrament: had no penitent bench but characterized as a fine sight to see a fine old Scotchman coming down the aisle, carrying the emblems of the broken body and blood of Christ. A fine duet was given by that jewel of song, Mrs Lister and Mr Wm. Isaac, the latter also contributing in a solo "How lovely is thy dwelling place." The choir again contributed a fine anthem in good time and harmony.

On Monday rain threatened most of the afternoon and evening, but happily held off, and a huge crowd gathered on Mr Jas. Snell's lawn, which would have nearly twice filled the church. Over 800 it is estimated, were present when the program commenced. In the afternoon, horse shoe throwing, softball and football were the sports enjoyed by the men while the ladies prepared to satisfy the single men lasted scarcely half an hour when the ball came to grief with the single chaps ahead 2-0.

Adorning a place of honor on the tables set upon the lawn was the big four-storey Diamond Jubilee cake, the work of Mrs W. A. Lawrence. Rev. Mr Purnell called upon Mrs R. Renwick, Sr. to cut the cake and Mrs. John Denton and Mrs. Wm. Hunter, to assist her in removing the layers. This was done and all received a sample. These ladies have been the longest continuous members of Amos Church. From 5.30 till after 8 p.m. the tables were filled and refilled until all were satisfied and after a bountiful repast, much still remained.

No better program, it is safe to say has ever been heard in Dromore than that presented by Ye Old-Tyme Quartette of Toronto, and Mr Hamilton, comedian. From the time Rev. Mr. Purnell took the chair about 8.40, until 11.15, there was an almost continuous treat of song and merriment, broken only by intermission and a brief address by Rev. Mr Inkster. He was delighted to be back after 34 years and assured the audience it had been a great inspiration to him to see such wonderful crowds as on Sunday, and the present one. The Quartette were most liberal in their numbers, and their harmony in quartette and duet work was superb. All selections were enjoyed but perhaps special favorites were "Old King Cole", quartette arr. of "Sextette from Lucia", and the duet "Hunting-tower." Mr Chapman, the leader, and associates, will be warmly welcomed back again.

As a humorous entertainer, Mr Hamilton is the real thing, and his songs quips and actions kept the audience in rounds of laughter. In "the black sheep", he displayed serious dramatic ability as well. Near the close a vote of thanks was proposed to Mr and Mrs Snell for the use of their fine grounds and home, by Rev. Mr Purnell, with which all were in hearty accord. Mr. Snell voiced his thanks.

The social good time, and greeting old friends, so prevalent before the program, continued afterwards a short time, and it was nearly midnight before the crowd dispersed. The Jubilee celebration was over and every gathering will long be remembered. Monday's proceeds were over $330 at the gate.

Ready for the Harvest

Binder Twine
 We have a supply on hand at, cash - 13 1/2 c

Paris Green and Bug Finish 5c lb and 50c

Hay Fork Rope, 7-8 in. and 1 in.
 The best rope that can be bought, at 30c lb

Hay Fork Pulleys and Hooks

We Handle the Best of Motor Oils
VEEDOL and MARVELUBE
 Let us supply your needs.

Taylor & Co. Dromore

The People's Mills, Mt. Forest

Shingles Market advancing. Buy now. We have B.C. and New Brunswick. All grades on hand.

Feeds Recleaned Screenings, Feed Wheat, Oa Feed, Western Oats, Etc.

All the Best Grades of Flour.
 Give us a call. It will pay you.

W. M. GROAT & SON

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
 IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF FRANCIS COUTTS, late of the Township of Egremont in the County of Grey, Retired farmer, Deceased.
 NOTICE is hereby given that all persons having claims or demands against the late Francis Coutts, who died on or about the 9th day of May, 1928, at the Township of Egremont, in the County of Grey, are required to send postage prepaid or deliver to the undersigned Solicitor for the administrator herein of said estate, their names and addresses and full particulars of their claims and statements of their accounts and the nature of the securities if any, held by them, duly verified by Statutory Declaration.
 And take notice that after 30th day of August, 1928, the administrator of the said estate will proceed to distribute the assets of said deceased amongst the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have notice.
 Dated at Mount Forest this 28th day of July 1928.
 R. O. KILGOUR
 Mount Forest, Ont.
 Solicitor for Administrator of said Estate.

Stop! Look! Listen!

MR. FARMER:
 Are you helping to support and maintain a Creamery in your own community, or are you sending your cream to some outside point? We are in the Cream business and want your Cream and will try to give you service, plus satisfaction.

HOLSTEIN CREAMERY
 Phone 28 — Holstein

HOLSTEIN CHOPPING MILL

"Quick and Reliable Service" is our Motto

Full Line of All Feeds including
 Screenings, Bran, Shorts, Mixed Chop, Middlings, Feed Molasses, etc.

Five Roses Royal Household Flour Pastry Ben Hur Five Jewel One Jewel

Also Poultry Feeds, Calf Meal, Flax Seed, Salt, Oatmeal, Stock Tonics, Fertilizers, Tankage, etc.

We are in the market for all kinds of grain.

N. E. MCGUIRE

"JUST AS THE TWIG IS BENT, THE TREE'S INCLINED"

BELIEVING that the individual thrift of our citizens is the backbone of Canada's prosperity, the Bank of Montreal does all in its power to encourage systematic saving on the part of youth.

At all of our Branches we welcome the savings accounts of children. Start such accounts for all the young people of your family and let them early learn the earning power of money.

BANK OF MONTREAL

Established 1817
 TOTAL ASSETS IN EXCESS OF $860,000,000

Holstein Branch: C. R. LUCAS, Manager

VOL. LI, NO. 1

TOWNSHIP OF EGREMONT
 Rev. S. J. Farmer, will occupy the pulpit of St. Church Sunday, Aug. 12th, in the a. m.

The Baptist Ladies home made baking, Aug. 18th, in the a. m.

Western Seed Wholesale: $37.00 per ton, range to deliver. E. Murphy

Mrs. Lucy Legard, many years at Flesher way last week in the home of her daughter, Ter. One sister, Mrs. of Varney survives at three daughters and 6

Knox Church pulpit, on Sunday by Rev. R. Thornbury, while Rev. took his work in Thering on the Maintenance Fund work of the chary of the movement. Died in Ohio.

Mr. Arch McLellan, telegram last week at death on Aug. 8th. Norman McLellan of son of his brother, J. land. Norman was 26, civil engineer and was June last. No particular of death have been.

Anniversary Services. The 75th anniversary Baptist Church, will be day and Monday, 8th. The special speaker, Stewart, pastor of Onist Church, Stratford, of the late Rev. Alex. er of Durham Baptist. Monday evening, a m program will be fuller notice will late.

On Thursday, Aug. riage was solemnized Presbyterian, Mansie, Miss Ferial Julia Legd, Durham but now of William John Irvine place. Rev. J. T. 8th. Miss Amelia Legate, maid and Mr. Stanley ed his brother. The went on a honeymoon to and Niagara Falls return will reside in.

Covers three classes. "We are pleased Miss Elizabeth P. Mu and teacher of S. S. by, on the success of or Feick in passing animation. Elder is He covered 3 years' past year with his as he was in the 5th year. Miss Murdoch tributed to her skillness of her work at Signed by the parent Sec'y of school board.—Hanover Post.

Drowned in Holland. A drowning case on Sunday on the Tp., when Mr Sam his sister, Mrs Spel being near Mongie tea, on Sunday as to where he wa and left the hou McCartney's Lake away. Not return grew late, a search ventually his coat found on the water was later found. F ceased has been in at times appeared.

Close Finish in LEAGUE STAN

When Holstein 12 to