

Presbyterian Ch. Anniversary at Durham

given of their time and talent to make funds for worthy civic enterprises in his town.

The Supper on Monday evening, was well attended and enjoyed. The long tables in basement were decorated with salvia and as well with the many tempting edibles the seasons afford.

A little after eight, Rev B D Armstrong occupied the chair and before proceeding to his address on his trip to England and Scotland the past summer, called off a short musical program.

Rev E. Hayes of Trinity Church, Durham, and Rev. J. Corry of Priceville Presbyterian Church were present and brought greetings from their respective churches.

While Mr Armstrong's particular object in going overseas this summer was to see an aged relative, with Mrs Armstrong, they took further advantage of seeing more of England and Scotland. Judging by Mr Armstrong's itinerary, there was left little of importance to visit and he made the most of their time. He sketched briefly that delightful capital city of Scotland—Edinburgh, with its famous historical traditions as found in the 'Castle', St Giles, etc. The National War Memorial carried a strong appeal and this building opened in 1927 by the Prince of Wales, reflects in stone and glass the devotion and sacrifice of the fallen of Scotland. From here the tourists went north to the Trossachs country, made immortal by the pen of Sir Walter Scott; returned by way of Glasgow and on to the Burns country, another shrine dear to all Scotchmen.

SWINTON PARK

Once more we believe we are on the map on account of having Proton Tp. Plowing Match right in the corner field on the well known Hardy farm, one of the best for that purpose in the Township. The field—all sod, was in excellent condition. Altho' we are near the corner of the Tp. plowmen and teams came from all parts, to the number of 16, which were divided in 4 classes as follows:

Class I (Boys under 18 yrs of age) 1. Wallace McCormack; 2. Tom Clark, Thos Copeland. Class II (Men who never plowed at a match before): 1. Ivan Carson; 2. Gordon Haw; 3. Thos Connolly; 4. Nelson Copeland 5. Wm Young.

Class III (Men who never plowed at a match previous to 1927): 1. Peter McEachnie; 2. Jas Pickett; 3. Walter Knox. Class III (Open to any plowman in Proton): 1. Jas Gilles; 2. Pat Reidy; 3. Jas. Porter; 4. Thos. Spence; 5. Melville Fraser.

Thus Judge McLean, Richmond Hill placed the awards and we suppose they are right. There was some room for criticism tho' and we believe the judge should be on the field from the start to fully size up the situation. This being Monday, Judge McLean came from his home and did not see the early part of the work.

However, taking all things into consideration the Proton Plowman's Association are to be congratulated on the success of the day. The weather was ideal, a great gathering of people witnessed the event and we believe will benefit thereby. We enjoyed watching the interest taken in the plowmen by other members of families, fathers coaching and advising their sons, mothers, sisters and brothers—also more distant relatives and neighbors showing great interest in their friend's work, everything quietly and in order. President W R Jack and Sec'y John G Russell were busy men and had things well in hand. Arrangements for feeding the plowmen and friends were not fully understood by the Swinton people as this was the first event of the kind pulled off here. However we think all were taken care of and we promise better and more definite arrangement next time. Some of these men came 12 or 13 miles just bringing their plow in a car and got the use of a team from the obliging friend here. Some teams were a little thin in flesh and would look better if fitted up, but we think the show team is not the best on the plow. The best fitted teams were those of Neil McLeod, Jno Lane, Thos Connolly and Walter Knox, but in action perhaps a little fast. The day was fittingly wound up with a dance in the Hall, a great number taking part.

This week our lumberman, J H Richardson has gone to the bush which he lately bought near Berkeley to make a start on this winter's work. Born, on Sunday, 14th Oct., to Mr and Mrs Wm Kinsman, a daughter. Congratulations. Sorry that Miss Marjorie McLeod is a sufferer from grip and hopes she may soon be better.

HOPEVILLE Mr N McTaggart arrived home from the West last week. Miss Mary McLean spent over the week end with Miss Bessie Wale. Mr and Mrs Thos Spence and sons visited recently at Jas Henderson's, Yeovil. Mrs J McMeekin, Hamilton, was a visitor with her aunt, Mrs Wm McEachnie, Dromore. Mr Robt. Taylor and family were first of the week visitors at Mr Jno. Russell's. Mr and Mrs Will Reid and Miss Jessie Merchant, Yeovil, were early in the week visitors with friends in the vicinity. Mr and Mrs Jno Sinclair and family were first of the week visitors at the homes of Messrs Jno Stevenson and Walter Hastie, Holstein. Mrs Wilfrid Black entertained the Women's Institute at their regular monthly meeting last Wednesday. A few from here attended the School Fair at Durham Saturday, while the whole community is represented at the Plowing match at Swinton Park.

Instead of writing that weekly letter to distant friends, why not have the Review tell them the news of the district. Save yourself the trouble of worrying over what to say each week for $2.00 for a whole year.

"I never knew it was so easy" It was a red-letter day in old Mrs. Jones' life — the day she made her first Long Distance call. But she simply had to speak to her son before he went abroad! The operator was sympathetic and helpful. She asked Mrs. Jones her telephone number, name, the city and the telephone number of the party she wished to reach. Mrs. Jones didn't know the number, so the operator looked it up for her. After the pleasant experience was over, Mrs. Jones exclaimed, "I never knew it was so easy! Why didn't I do it before!" There is nothing complicated about it. Just say, "Long Distance."
