

OWN TOPICS

All hats at reduced prices. Misses Truax.

Presbyterian Bazaar, Nov. 24th
At A. Y. P. A. rooms, Saturday, Nov. 24th, at 3 p. m., sale of home-made baking, fancy work, candy, flowers, afternoon and evening tea.

The Allan Park UFO Club will hold their annual banquet on Friday, Nov. 23rd, at Ebenezer School. Supper served from 6 to 8. A good program. Everybody welcome. Admission 50c. Ladies with baskets free.

Photographs
There's just one gift that money can't buy, and only you can give—your photographs. We are giving three extra photographs with each dozen. Studio open every day. Sittings made from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. F. W. Kelsey

Arm broken in Car Collision
At Hutton Hill corner last Sunday morning, another of the numerous car accidents occurred. Mrs. Fairnie, coming south from the 2nd con, crossed the Durham Road, collided with a westbound Ford sedan, driven by Mr. Ranney of Owen Sound, with his wife and two children. The car was overturned and top broken. Fenders and running board crushed. Mr. Ranney suffered a broken arm and was taken to Hanover hospital, but the others were uninjured.

I. O. D. E. Dance a Success
The dance arranged by Canadian Greys Chapter, I. O. D. E. last Thursday night was a great success and was termed one of the nicest ever put on by the Chapter. The Blue-Bell orchestra supplied snappy music. Mr and Mrs. Findlay, Mr and Mrs. Lennie, Owen Sound; Dr and Mrs. Milne, Friesville; Dr and Mrs. Livingston, Mr and Mrs. Armstrong, Flesher-ton; Mr and Mrs. H. H. Bowman, O. Sound, were outside visitors present. $101 was taken at the door.

Bride Tendered a Shower
Wednesday evening, Nov. 7th, a shower was held in honor of Miss Estella M. Lynn who was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Howard S. McCallum on Monday of this week. At 11 o'clock, the party being called to order, Mr. Wilfrid Adlam hung a beautiful white bell to the ceiling of the dining room, under which the bride couple-to-be sat. Messrs Jno. Mighton and McVillie Adlam carried in a gaily decorated basket, which was weighted down with beautiful gifts. Miss Eva Adlam then unparcelled the gifts and read the accompanying verses. The groom-to-be then made a fitting reply on behalf of his bride and himself. Several speeches were given by guests, all joining in singing "For them are jolly good fellows". The remainder of evening was spent in games and dancing.

Chester Presbyterians mourn Pastor
Rev. Wm. Smith, Chesley, who has been Presbyterian pastor there, since 1925, passed away at the Manse in that town, on Saturday, Nov. 10th. Deceased has made a brave fight for health and last year while on a visit to Ireland to his home, underwent an operation for cancer, which gave only temporary relief. This spring he was again a patient for many weeks in London Hospital, but all hope being abandoned, came back to Chesley to spend his last days. The late Mr. Smith was in his early forties and was one of the most highly esteemed pastors Geneva Church has had. The congregation were loyal to him in his long illness and as well as keeping supply, kept Mr. Smith's salary going as well. Fortunately for the church members, their annual fowl supper on Wednesday night last was nicely over. At this supper there were 925 paid admissions.

Knox W. M. S.
The monthly meeting of the W. M. S. of Knox United Church, was held in the schoolroom of church on Thursday, Nov. 8th, with Mrs. James Mather presiding. Singing opened the meeting, followed by prayer by Mrs. T. McGirr. After the minutes and other business, the Treasurer gave an encouraging report. Mrs. C. Mortley had the Bible reading, Ps. 105, and Mrs. Jno. Smith read the devotional leaflet, "My Possessions." After singing, three members led in prayer and Mrs. W. J. Derby followed with the topic from chapters 2 and 3 of the Study book "Drums in the Darkness," an interesting account of the habits of the people of our mission in Africa. The roll call was answered with verse on "Thanksgiving" and the meeting closed by all repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Rev. D. B. and Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. Andrew Derby, Mrs. J. H. McFadyen were in Chesley Tuesday, attending the funeral of the late Rev. Wm. Smith, pastor of Geneva Presbyterian Church there. There were over 800 in attendance at the church and the clergy of Bruce Presbytery had charge of the services. Rev. Mr. Wilson of Paisley, delivered the address of the afternoon.

Many Pretty November Weddings

SNELL — LIVINGSTONE

Durhamites were much interested in the wedding on Saturday last in Hamilton, of two young people, viz: Mr. William John (Willett) Snell, son of Mr. John H. Snell of Durham and Miss Kathleen Merle Livingstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Livingstone, Hamilton, but formerly residents of Durham. The wedding was solemnized at the parental home at 2 p. m. by Rev. Dr. Scott, the bridal couple standing among a beautiful floral arrangement of palms and mums. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a wedding gown of light beige georgette and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. Mrs. Harry Kress of Durham, rendered the bridal music.

Eighteen guests sat down to a dainty wedding luncheon and shortly after the young couple left on a honeymoon trip and upon their return, will take up residence in Durham, where they will be welcomed in their new relationship. The bride donned as going away coat, one of the new sand shades, with fur trimmings and purse, hat and shoes to match.

The bride's high school days were spent in Durham and since the family's removal to Hamilton, has been on that city's teaching staff. Friends from a distance at the wedding were the groom's father, Mr. John Snell; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kress; Miss Clara McCrae; Mr. Erben Schutz—all of Durham; Miss Isabel Marshall, Hampden; Mr. and Mrs. R. Robb, Toronto.

The Review joins in extending felicitations to the happy couple.

MARSHALL — MILLIGAN

A Bantick wedding of interest, took place on Wednesday, Nov. 14th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Milligan, when their elder daughter, Miss Effie Fraser, united heart and hand in marriage with Mr. Andrew Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marshall, con 16, Normandy.

The ceremony took place at 12 noon, by Rev. W. H. Smith, B. A., of Knox Church, Durham, the bride being given in marriage by her father. Miss Ethel Derby rendered the wedding music and Mrs. W. H. Smith contributed a solo during the signing of the register.

A splendid wedding dinner was served the guests and the bridal couple left on the 3.30 CPR for a trip to Toronto and Montreal. On their return they will take up home-making on the 16th con, Normandy.

The bride dress was of white georgette and tulle veil, with bouquet of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of white and yellow mums. The travelling dress took the form of beige georgette, trimmed with velvet, also blue coat with black fur collar and hat to correspond.

The very best wishes go with the young couple for smooth sailing on life's matrimonial sea.

MCCALLUM — LYNN

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Trinity Church Rectory, Durham, on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 12, when Rev. E. Hayes united in holy bonds of wedlock, Mr. Howard McCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCallum, Mulock, and Miss Stella Marie Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lynn, Aberdeen.

There were no attendants and after the ceremony, the bridal couple returned to home of bride's parents, where a few intimate friends had tea together. In the evening a large reception was held, at which over 100 guests were present. A large 5-storey wedding cake was much admired and sampled by the guests at lunch time. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

The young couple will spend a few days with relatives at Southampton, previous to settling down on the farm recently vacated by Mr. Ivy Walker, near Mulock.

The Review joins the many friends in extending congratulations to the young couple.

Veteran's Supper in Masonic Rooms

Address by J. A. Rowland to their Fallen Comrades feature of Evening

On Monday evening in the Masonic Rooms, from 35 to 40 ex-service men gathered to rehearse and exchange war time experiences and scenes, and practically live over again in the impressions made and left by the Great War, now 10 years in the distance. It was the comradely spirit exemplified once again, only under more pleasant conditions and surroundings. But during all the pleasures a sombre thread was interwoven and given expression to in the speech of J. A. Rowland of the Royal Bank, over those who do not return. It was a retrospective address and at the same time a tribute to their fallen comrades.

The banquet was a royal feast and in the hands of such stewards as Bert Willis, D. B. McFarlane and Will McGowan. At its close, Mr. C. Darling was chairman of toast list, and called upon Rev. B. D. Armstrong who proposed the toast to "The King." This was loyally responded to by the National Anthem. Mr. Rowland's address followed. At the close of evening, a local military club was formed, with a view to granting them license and power to act in case of any function wherein their services at any time would be in order. The officers of this club are: President, Dr. A. M. Bell; Vice Pres., Rev. B. D. Armstrong; Sec'y, Clarence Darling; Treasurer, John A. Rowland; Executive Com, Stanley McBeth, Ezra Schenk, Dan McCallum, Mack Saunders, H. H. MacDonald.

Mr. Joe Rainford was at the piano and from his finger tips came the familiar melodies of war time songs which were sung with gusto and levity that carried the true comradely ring.

Durham to have a 'Schubert' Choir

Organization took place Wednesday Night. Prof. Workman to be leader

On Wednesday night, Nov. 14, in the High School, the first gun was fired to inaugurate the newly formed Schubert choir for Durham and district. Whether it reaches the status of Toronto, will depend entirely upon the enthusiasm, faithfulness and persistency of its members. Prof. A. H. Workman, Chesley, was present and outlined the aims and objects for such a choral organization in Durham and also on what basis it might be managed financially. He also explained that indirectly it was one of the finest things any town might have and affected every choir in town for their betterment. But what was needed was faithfulness and sincerity for the members would find it was work and not fun they would gather for each Wednesday night at rehearsal. Prof. Workman's talk struck a responsive chord in the audience present and steps were henceforth taken to organize. It was first to have a name and on motion of Mrs. W. H. Smith, the name of "Schubert" was suggested to give inspiration to the movement and was heartily approved.

Miss Margaret Hunter was appointed to the chair to take steps to organize a society which resulted in the following:

President, Rev. E. Hayes; Vice Pres., Miss M. Hunter; 2nd Vice Pres., Miss K. Firth; 3rd Vice Pres., Mr. J. F. Giles; Sec'y, Mrs. Mark Wilson; Treasurer, Miss B. Lane.

The choral practice will take place each Wednesday night at 7.30 sharp, in the High School and the membership fees are to be $1 per month per member, in advance. Prof. Workman is not only going to take up choral work, but impart the rudiments of music, so necessary for amateurs. Sight reading will also be a special feature of the choral work.

Here is a grand chance to put Durham on the map musically and something which Durham has always needed. Next Wednesday at High School at 7.30 p. m.

Mr and Mrs Arch. McComb, Toronto, spent the holiday with Mr and Mrs Thos. McComb.

Mr and Mrs J. F. Giles and some other Baptist church members, were in Hanover Wednesday hearing Rev. Dr. Savage of Pontiac, Mich. of radio fame, speak.

'Their Name Liveth For Evermore'

Armistice and Thanksgiving Appropriately Observed

Durham, in common with every loyal community in Canada, observed Armistice Day in loyal and loving manner, in affectionate yet proud remembrance of those who fell in the great struggle as well as those who, though living, still show the marks of the strife.

The churches met on Sunday for morning service ten or fifteen minutes before 11 o'clock so that the service might be uninterrupted at 11, when in common with the British Empire, at that hour, the "two minutes of silence" might be impressively and prayerfully observed. To all, especially to those whose loved ones sleep in Flanders' Fields, the occasion was a solemn one, and the tenth year since the Armistice, coming on a Sunday, has made it more solemn than usual.

UNITED THANKSGIVING SERVICES

Thanksgiving Day, last Monday, brought about a union of the five town churches for a little over an hour to render thanks to the Almighty, whom all profess to worship, for many and precious blessings. The meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church, which was over three quarters filled by devout worshippers.

Rev. B. D. Armstrong, pastor of the church presided, and on the platform with him, were the pastors of the other four protestant churches in town. After opening with Praise, Rev. W. H. Smith of Knox United, read scripture; Rev. H. S. Fiddes of the Queen St. United, and Rev. E. Hayes Anglican pastor, led in prayer.

To Rev. Wm. Spencer of the Baptist Church, was assigned the duty of preaching the sermon and in an appropriate discourse he set forth the many blessings and opportunities that come our way during the year, which should arouse in us feelings of gratitude and thankfulness to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for all His mercies.

The hymns chosen were all appropriate to the day and the choir rendered appropriate special music. It was a fine service, but there is room for regret that a larger attendance was not present to render thanks to God publicly and unitedly for His many blessings.

SERVICE AT THE MONUMENT

Monday evening at 8 p. m. a memorial service took place at the monument to the fallen soldiers and some hundreds gathered, though the night was chilly, disagreeable and damp. Rev. W. H. Smith presided and others who took part were Rev. Mr. Fiddes, Rev. Mr. Armstrong and Rev. Mr. Hayes. The last named gave the address and vividly recalled thrills of the opening days of the war when the youth of Canada bravely and loyally sprang to the ranks and the equally thrilling days of the Armistice, when the war drums ceased to beat and Canada summed up her losses.

It was an eloquent oration and fitted into the ceremonies admirably. A squad of soldiers in civilian clothes, under the command of D. M. Saunders, marched in front of the monument with military precision and this was the only military touch to the occasion.

The proceedings had opened with the hymn "O God our help in ages past" and closed with one verse of "Nearer my God to Thee." Durham had done her part.

Miss Amy Kelly was home from Toronto for the holiday with her parents.

PERSONAL MENTION

Dr. and Mr. Park, son and daughter of Hamilton, spent the first of the week with his mother and sister here.

Mr and Mrs Thos. Atchison were pleased last week to receive a call from an old family friend, Mr. Norris of Bolton, who with his bride, were on their honeymoon trip to various sections of Grey County, also visiting their relatives, the Love families in Egremont. Mr. Atchison formerly came from Bolton and the not personally knowing the groom was pleased to have him as a guest for old associations' sake.

Dr. D. B. Jamieson was in Orangeville on Wednesday, giving evidence in the railway fatality case of the late John Highley, who met his death at McWilliams railway crossing two years ago. His widow is suing the CPR for damage and the offer, we understand, of $3500 made by that company, she has refused as insufficient comparable to the loss by death and expense she has since undergone in the restoration of her health.

Mr and Mrs Earl Baird of St. George, were visitors Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. B's aunt, Mrs. David Leith.

Mr and Mrs J. C. McLean and three children, Shelburne, spent the holiday with her mother and sisters. Mrs. Thos. McGirr and Miss Belle and Margaret.

Mrs. John McGirr and son Allie, Glenelg, spent over the holiday with Mr and Mrs Ernest McGirr in Oshawa.

Mr Arthur Allan of the Royal Bank, Montreal, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr and Mrs Thos. Allan. Mr and Mrs Alex. Kearney, Whitby, were Thanksgiving visitors with his mother and Mrs. K's brother.

Mr and Mrs Thos. Blair left last week on a trip through the Western provinces. Mrs. McFaden of Fergus is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. (Rev.) Fiddes.

Mr and Mrs J. F. McLean, Aberdeen, attended a 48th Highlanders' Reunion in Toronto over the week end and visited relatives in the city. Thanksgiving visitors at Messrs. Hugh and Don. McLean's, Aberdeen, were: Mr and Mrs Duncan Clark and son Jack, of Owen Sound; Mr and Mrs John McGillivray, Guelph; Mr and Mrs Robt. McGillivray, Kitchener.

Mr and Mrs Earl Fisher, Mr and Mrs Grass, Mrs. Mac Campbell and Mrs. Weber, all of Toronto, were the guests of Mr and Mrs Geo. Campbell of town and at Thos. Brigham's of Allan Park, over the holiday.

Mrs Wm. Patterson, her sister, Miss Anne McDonald and Miss Aitken, all of Acton, were guests with Misses Mary and Kate McFayden, Edge Hill, over the holiday.

Mr J. C. Moore, Warton, was in town last week and was the guest of the Weir and Burgess families. Mr and Mrs John Burgess spent Thanksgiving Day with the latter's aunt, Mrs. Thos. McComb, near Williamsford.

Mr Geo. Hahn was home from Upper Canada College for the holiday. Mrs. Pierce, Toronto; Mr and Mrs Nelson Harding and daughter; Miss Dorothy Douglas, Mr and Mrs. McLaughlin and sons, London, were guests of Mr and Mrs E. W. Limin.

Rexall Store News

OVALTINE
AT LOWER PRICES
50c, 75c, $1.25
TONIC AND NERVE FOOD

Our Own
Condition Powder 50c and $1.00
Gall Liquid 50c
Worm Powders 50c
Cattle Bloat 50c
Rheumatic Powder 50c
Cough Powder 50c
Physic Ball 25c

Ward off Colds and Flu
Take one of these:
Creephos $1.00
Wampole's Extract ... $1.00
C. L. Extract & Creosote $1
Peptona $1.00

New Wall Papers
ARE HERE
Newest Design and Best Assortment
we have ever shown. Nice ones at7c, 12c, 15c

McFadden's Drug Store
C. P. R. BOAT AND RAIL TICKETS
Durham, Ont.
Phone 21

Old Time Fiddlers' Contest and Square Dance

In Town Hall, Durham, Wednesday, Nov. 21, '28
Under auspices of Lacrosse and Junior Hockey Clubs.

1st, 2nd and 3rd Prizes for OLD TIME FIDDLERS
Some of the best Fiddlers in Grey county will be present

1st and 2nd Prizes for OLD TIME WALTZ
Everyone Welcome. ADMISSION 50c

Coal and Coke

5 per cent discount for Cash
We can supply you with nut, stove, bituminous Coal and Coke at any time from our bins

Leave your orders at the Central Drug Store or Phone 29.

M. Greig Calder

Tone Up Your System for the Winter Months with Pure Cod Liver Oil. Ayer's, Squibb's Wampole's and other Emulsions.

Try Tanlac or Wampole's Grape Salts for a Tonic and Blood Purifier
S. McBETH Druggist and Stationer
Phone 3. DURHAM