BEGIN HERE TODAY

A delegation of strikers comes north to interview the president and directions. They meet in Jerry's home. The Him rot. If I don't like that, I quit three strikers, meeting three carefully and starve." men in evening clothes in the "You want to live on Fifth avenue," pretentious library of the man of said Jerry disgustedly.

There was none of this uncertainty girl. Got gold hair. Got blue eyes. did not. Whatever might have been ness of a mine. there had been starved off. He was "She wanna go church. She ask all bone and brawn. His face was me: 'Pop, buy me pretty new dress for ed forcedly and waved a hand jerkily, night she die."

responded nervously. "This is Mr. height. Goodkind, the president. And a couple "I tell you we got right to quit," lain gave as his reason that, as the o' directors. Well, now we can get he said feverishly. "We got right to duction. Then, picking up a flashy |-we gonna live-we gonna-by God." humidor, he advanced to the three. There came a sudden blare of music abruptly. He held the humidor be- to the music room opened and Dilly fore Hennig, who helped hismelf with Gilliam burst in upon the tense peran air of suspicion. Stedtman reached over boldy and took a cigar. Goodkind moved on to Umanski with the humider. As he held it out the Pole stared past him and made no move. Goodkind looked at him strangely and returned the box to the table.

Hennig feeling a little more important with a big cigar in his mouth, broke the ground of discussion. "I guess you know all about our grievances," he blustered with an air of significance. "I didn't know you had any-" Joe didn't understand the employers' approach. . "Ah, you fellows are never satisfied." Benfield broke in warmly.

"You're getting plenty for what you do," Goodkind followed up. "What are you complaining about? You've left good jobs to follow a lot of idle, discontented agitators. We've got to win this fight on principle. The work is there. I pay what I can get men for, and not a cent more. Take it or

"We got to hang together to get; anything," retorted Joe.

you got?" Goodkind had centred on memories. Hennig, but it was Umanski who ans- "New look here, Jerry, you're not benefit by reducing their transport Patterns sent by an early mail. wered. Still standing quietly with going to-" Dilly began. Then she charges for raw materials and goods ceedings scornfully. He broke his sil- helpless he sank into a chair. ence now, sneeringly.

"You don't even know English," he! said derisively.

"How I gonna learn English-work 12 hours a day?" Umanski's query A heavy pall descended upon the was pathetically earnest.

Jerry ung. "Nobody asked you to enacted in this man's soul. Stedtman her, or the other sort?" What other come over here. You're not an Am- swayed a moment between two loyal- sort?

a strange dignity. "When?" sneered Jerry. "When I fight in the war." Goodkind senior had turned to Umanski now. "What do you want?" he asked, in- petulance in his tone. terested.

I wanna chance to see sun."

taking the word. "God's sun," replied Umanski. "I "Yes,-certainly," she said nervousnever see him. Go to mines-him not iy. "I'm so sorry." And she was gone.

home-him gone. Got baby five years looked after her. Stedtman, his arm ago. Never see him. Go to mines- still around the man, signalled Good him not up. Come back-him sleep. Go kind to go on. one day-him gone."

gravity.

many to feed'." Hennig, easily swayed, had caught "Ne-I'm all right. Excuse." something of Umanski's note of pro- You're a little upset,' sail Good-

"It sin't fair," he whined.

Jerry, apparently uninterested, an hour and I want to talk to him drew out his eigaret case, a lavishly before I say anything definite. Supengraved affair, and took out a cigar- pose we meet here tomorrow at noon." et. Suddenly Umanski lost his stoic- Hennig had stirred at the mention ism and unfolding his long, strong of Gilchrist's name. arms, crossed with rapid strides to "Not Gilchrist," he protested churlthe younger Goodkind's side,

"That little box-" he shorted. "No, just we six," assented Good-"What you pay for him?" He pointed kind, "-and maybe one or two-more to the eigaret case, Jerry anticipat- of our directors." ing turned his back on the burning "All right," said Stedtman, seeing eyes of the man not deigning to ans- it was his business to agree. ISSUE No. 52-'28 Umanski had assumed his firm, wer. "I know," said Umanski. "Gold. Clare Jewett, in love with the Rev. You pay more for him than I got for Daniel Gilchrist, marries Jerry Good- swing pick thirty years. Me and six kind for his money. Daniel is dismiss- families-we live in one house you ed from the fashionable Church of the own. We got one room upstairs, two Nativity in New York because of his down cellar. Sleep there. Eat-cook the coal mines by Goodkind senior and brick yard and clothes hang up to dry. free himself of the Pole's gaze.

wealth, feel disturbed by the sur- "If I don't like, other mans will," folded just a step within the room. His eyes went far away-looking Benefitting the Poor about Umanski. He stood with arms Her take sick. She sorry she's sick." frame. It was a frame that would a yard with clothes hung up to dry, have carried ample weight, but it and beyond that into the dank dark-terse and earnest-something about church. Buy me pretty pink dress. that had been born of suffering. Once and he say: 'Air—sunshine— Chamberlain, declined the Chancellor-ship of the Exchequer, second highest "You said you be on sidewalk," he milk-eggs? Got no job. My little post in the British Cabinet, in favor of said, turning to Stedtman. Max smil- girl, she cough—and cough—and one what is regarded as the far less im-hang together. We got right to fight Goodkind had bowed at the intro- -to live-and, by God, we gonna fight

"Smoke?" he queried amiably but and ripples of laughter as the door

Umanski stretched two trembling hands toward her.

arms folded, his voice was as unemo- saw that she had interrupted. "I'm for export. sorry." she said haltingly.

thirty years—got nothing," he said was 20! She had gold hair! She had says: "In its main features this is a blue eyes! She had a pink dress! bill by which the poor will benefit and "Why should you have," broke in Unmanski stretched two trembling struggling industries will be releved." arms toward her, then brought them No Conservative voted aganst its sec-Jerry had been surveying the pro- back to cover his face. Haunted and ond reading, while seven Liberals room. Somehow, all felt the grim "Nobody asked you to take the job," tragedy that phantom figures had reties and then walked to the chair in Umanski straightened quickly at this which Umanski huddled, bowed and quaking, and put an arm around the "I was an American." he said with man. Gookind took a step nearer and looked down at the broken figure sympathetically.

CHAPTER X.

A SUBSTITUTE.

Jerry alone seemed not to mind. "You'll have to wait, Dilly," he said to the girl with still a trace of his

"Ask the ladies to stay in the draw-"I wanna chance to learn," replied ing room," the elder Goodkind said. the stark figure, "and a chance to live. | "We'll join them in a few minutes." Dilly did not fathom it all, but she "Your son?" asked Goodkind, mis- had a feeling that somehow she was to blame. up. Work in mines-him not see. Go Umanski heard the closing door and "I think we'd better let this go for "Dead?" Goodkind's face took on tonight," the president said, shaking his head at Steatman.

"My wife say: 'Good. Not such Umanski was on his feet in an instant. 'No," he said half-apploretically.

kind soothingly, "and I have guests. Besides, Gilchrist will be here in half leteical position again.

"I wanna know what we gonna do -tenight," he said emphatically.

"We're going to get together," said Coodkind with a confident smile. "You fellows have got the wrong idea. We're not tyrants or monsters. We're Christians and we want to act like Christians. Only-we've got to live, too. We've got to have the things we're used to, just as you have. But I think I can promise if the strike's called off. you men will be kept, and put back just where you were. Ring the bell, Jerry."

Jerry pressed a button beneath the table. Benfield excused himself and rejoined the other guests. Umanski radical sermons. Gilchrist is sent to —wash—upstairs. See nothing but then turned to Hennig, attempting to "You live in Black River?" he asked by way of making conversation. "Yes," said Joe, flattered at the at-

"Married?" roundings. Clare is angry because continued Umanski, unmindful. "Other in West Virginia. Been married a NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY mans take my job. I got little girl year. Got her in the five and ten." (To be continued.)

in Britain

Something of a sensation was caused four years ago when a then comparatively unknown man, Neville portant office of Health Minister, "I really just got in myself," he He straightened now to his full which carries with it responsibility for municipal affairs. Mr. Chamberentire system of legal government in Britain was in need of reform, he thought he could do best service to the state by turning his attention to the urgent questons pressing in this latter connection.

His plans have taken some time to es inequitably upon productive indusneed (block grants) for the present grants according to spending capacity (percentage grants), where funds supplied by the National Treasury to help local finances are concerned. One of its provisions is to free factories of HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS.

"I work twelve hours-every day- Umanski stood looking at her. She supporter of the Conservative party, voted for it. The British Government hopes to pass it into law before the general election, which is to take place next year.-Editorial in Christian Science Monitor.

> A lady writer asks: "Does a woman prefer a husband who gives way to her."

Minard's Liniment for Chapped Hands. -Aristide Briand.

Paris -- New York

SIMPLE CHARM Too much cannot be said about the made into a meal." importance and simple charm of shear.

M. Maurice of the Trocadero restfor the wireless, and the messages mature. All the great municipal corwoolen, as expressed in chic slender aurant, went further. "Peas," he said, porations in Englan dand Wales have Style No. 336. It combines youthful- "can be made into a delicious meal by the most complicated nature and afout weight for all-day wear. The ter and sugar, and some chopped letness, serviceability and warmth with- cooking them with onions, a little butfecting the widest changes, however, frots of bodice are underfaced and tuce. If possible a casserole should has received second reading in Par- rolled forming revers, with straight be used. Only chough water to cover liament and is now well on its way in collar attached, with separate inset the bottom of the dish is required. The fection had spread to Kabul, the capthe University of Teronto Golf team, bill seeks to accomplish several Skirt has cluster plaits at each side cook the peas. The lid of the casserof centre-front, with straight slim ole should be kept hermietically sealby readjusting a great burden of back, which makes it equally suitable for women of larger figure. It is de- "Artichokes are another vegetable" tries. It is to widen the basis of the 40 and 42 inches bust. Patterned hearts are served with a puree of authorities (Guardians of the Poor) homespun in new rust shade, navy wool jersey, plain black wool jersey, mushrooms. Ordinary French beans shall no longer be divorced from the blue wool crepe, navy blue wool repps, cream." county and borough councils respons- black crepe satin, bottle green velveible for raising the necessary funds. teen, printed sheer velvet, silk crepe in tweed pattrn, and cocoa brown dull silk crepe with vestee of beige silk crepe are smart suggestions. Pattern price 20c in stamps or coin (coin is preferred). Wrap coin carefully.

local taxation, but are to pass on the Service, 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto. office in the atmosphere of internation-fellow who stole your wife." "Going to try to make him keep

FIT PUNISHMENT

Military Rugby Match

Fine tea is always the most-desired. The slight falling off in price of cheaper teas cannot entice the tea-lover from his discriminating choice.

Delicious Meal of Vegetables Alone

The Worshipful Company of Gardeners, one of London's ancient trade guilds, in making its annual presenta- Army Reported to Have Turnof London this year, called attention to Great Britain's need of knowledge as to to the cooking of these valuable articles of food.

Useful advice on the subject has since been given to the Press Association by two of London's premier authorities on the culinary art.

"In England," said M. Latry, chef cover a variety of ways of cooking small forts and munitions. the humblest vegetable. Over here, you cook peas in water, and they can- Khaguani tribes ceased negotiations themselves. "In the same way cabbage is cooked in sait and water, whereas by braising it with a little bacon, it can be can be finished off with a little

Uncanny Cal.

Vancouver Province (Ind. Cons.) Either it is Mr. Coolidge's misfortune to turn a sour face to the world, or else it is his fault that he wilfully Britain Plans to hides his more generous self. He is three-quarters of their present local Write your name and address plain. President, and if he came to that ofgoing out of office after five years as taxation, and agricultural land of the ly, giving number and size of such fice by accident, and if he has filled it whole of this impost. This last-men- patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in without any great distinction, or aptioned relief is to be at the cost of the stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap peal to the imagination of the world, You're hanging—and what have cration of this creature hounded by similarly lightened of 75 per cent. of address your order to Wilson Pattern of peace. . . . And yet he is leaving al uneasiness, a large part of which is the creation of ihs own provocative utterances.

The Old National Policy

Ottawa Journal (Cons.): No prothe number of their customers in their throughout the world and also to see own coutnry. No program will help that the visitor has a good time while more people upon farms, and as a con-"What are you going to do to the sequense reduces the selling price of farm products. The program which can help this country is the old National Policy to promote industry, spent in that country between $350,- mains," declared one alderman. "The health of which means a bigger working world, spent in that country between $500, mains, declared one and the health of town is full of them. The health of Until now war has been licit and a bigger population attracted by that, Britain numbered only 412,000. legal. I wanted to make it a crime, and more customers thereby for our

Afghan King and Queen Take

ed Against Them-Western Reforms Opposed

New Delhi, India.—Reports from the frontier state that King Amanullah of duty, courage, sympathy, capacity for Afghanistan and Queen Souriya have taken refuge in a fort, the army having turned against them. The situation in Afghanistan has at the Savoy, "we eat more meat than between the Government and the changed for the worse, and fighting participation in games or in other they do on the continent. In France, for example, families live on vegetables the whole week, only having meat on Sunday. Naturally they disconnected the Government and the rebels was reported, both from Kapal friends of Trinity College that it numbers amongst its students men posteriors in a connected to the continent. In France, for example, families live on vegetables was reported, both from Kapal friends of Trinity College that it numbers amongst its students men posteriors in a connected to the continent. meat on Sunday. Naturally they dis- the vicinity of Kabul, capturing two not possibly be eaten alone. But try with the Government and took the cooking them in butter and you will field. They capured the Afghan outpost of Kaja, and also inflicted casu- of Toronnto in 1903. Five students garding Kabul and the safety of the Communications have ceased except Second Class and 25 in the Third.

ital, a city of about 100,000 population. which won the Intercollegiate Cham-The trouble at Kabul was attributed pionship.

Britain Not Likely to Act London.-British official circles say and 70 at St. Hilda's-the Trinky Colthat the situation in Kabul is "seri- lege residence for women, ous," but that they are not aware of the exact nature of it. There is no likelihood of Great Britain taking any action in Afghanistan.

Attract Tourists

Association Formed to Ensure Attractiveness Becoming Known

London-Britain has long regarded with considerable envy the huge inceme France derives from tourists, and efforts are now being made to attract visitors to England and Scot- sounding names and organizations. land. The scheme being formulated On the other side is the Town Coungran, will help our farmers if their industries most likely to benefit from industries most likely to benefit from by sociation, financed by those national cil.

Between the two are seven acres of low tariff, which would check indus-trial development in Canada and limit the Government to ensure Britain's the tourist traffic and supported by disputed land upon which are the reattractiveness becoming known Colchester was a thriving Roman city contributions amounting to $40,000 a year for five years and he wants to belong." make this amount $150,000.

Douglas Hacking, secretary of the ruins, which they claim are as valu-Dept. of Overseas Trade states that Council wants the seven acres for last year 1,800,000 people visited tennis courts, and wants them soon.

A huge publicity compaign will be undertaken in Canada, the United Membership Drive for League States and in other parts of the world. Many are doubtful, however, Ottawa .- The weekly and daily if the scheme will prosper so long as newspapers of Canada are warm supthe present restrictions on the sale porters of the League, it was stated of liquor and night life in Britain at the regular monthly meeting of the continue, and sceptics emphasize that League of Nations Society held here there is very little to attract visitors when arrangements were discussed to England beyond the beauty of the for the membership drive to take countryside and the old-world atmos- place next April. Throughout the phere. It is also emphasized that the length and breadh of the Dominion, it hotel accommodation service in Bri- was said, editors have shown an intain must be improved if the cam- terest in the activities of the League paign is to bear fruit.

breathing exercises, old boy? . Royal Military Academy (Woolwich) met the Royal Military College (Sandnurst) on the Richmond Athletic rooming next to a tannery at pres-

Minard's Liniment for Asthma.

Trinity College Sets High Record

Supplies Three Out of Six Rhodes Scholars from Ont. During Past Three Years

MARKED PROGRESS

The award of one of the Rhodes Scholarships for Ontario for the year 1929 to Mr. George Stevenson Cartwright, a student in the Fourth Year in Arts in Trinity College in the University of Toronto, has been announced. This is the third consecutive year in which one of the two Rhodes Scholarships open to the stu dents of all Universities in Ontario has been awarded to a student of Trinity College. In December, 1926, Mr. Escott Meredith Reid was awarded a Rhodes Scholarship. Again in Refuge in Fort 1927 the Candidate from Trinity College was successful in the person of Mr. William Lyndon Smith, B.A. The late Mr. Cecil Rhodes in establishing this scholarship wished that in the choice of scholars regard should be had to (a) Force of character, devotion to

(b) Ability and scholastic attain-

(c) Physical vigour, as shown by sessing these qualifications in a conepicuous degree. The standing of Trinity College students at the Annual Examinations of the University of Toronto last May is regarded as the best since Trinity Considerable anxiety was felt re- whole University in their Honour Courses. In all, 17 obtained First Class Honours, 33 being placed in the over it stated that the legations were College secured places on University While disurbances in the remoter legiste Rugby team and two on the

to the King's drastic westernization It is hoped in the near future to proreforms and to Queen Souriya's desire ceed with the erection of Collegiate to abolish purdab, or the seclusion of residences for men and for women in Queen's Park. There are at present

Sport Wins

English Town Prefers Tennis Courts to Roman Temple Ruins

Colchester, England,-This ancient town is in the throes of a controversy between age and youth, archeology and sprouting tennis stars, Roman* ruins and English boys and girls. On one side the local antiquarians, backed by the inspector general of ancient monuments in Great Britain, the national committee of distinguish-mains of a Roman temple that stood about two thousand years ago. The archæologists insist on excavating the Hacking has already been promised our young people is far more importano matter to what ancient period they

of Nations

of Nations and in the efforts of the Society to promote it in this country. The support of the press will prove a great asset in the annual "Coast to Coast" Membership Drive due to take place on April 16th, 1929, which will be known as "League of Nations

Bolivia and Paraguay Washington Post: War is not a co

trolable duel between two comisants. It is a fire that would consume a continent if not stamped out. If ab intrigue is on foot, seeking to bring about war between Bolivia and Paraquay for ulterior ends, it is a conspracy against all Latin America and Jim: Do you still do your deep ated, could not fail to bring down upagainst the world, which, if perpetut Naslum: I haven't recently. I'm calamities now unforeseen and beyond credence. Let the broken and scattered remnant of recent empires in Europe give testimony to the retri bution that follows deliberae war.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO

SOLDIERS MEET IN ANNUAL EVENT

ground in England. A Sandburst player is seen getting away with the bell.