HAMPDEN

A Happy New Year to all.

With a bright sunny day and the moon on the wane, the old year is passing out, leaving us with enough snow for good sleighing—and those who wish may still use their "Liz-zie's". Everything to be thankful for.

CRAWFORD

(Arrived too late for last week.)

The bright and happy Xmas concert and Xmas Tree put on by the pupils of the United Church S. S. was pronounced an unqualified success by one and all. The decorations were cheery and appropriate, consisting of a large Xmas Tree beautifully decked, combined with the Xmas colors of red and green.

The church was well filled with an appreciative audience and good order and attention prevailed.

A splendid program was submitted by the children, which reflected credit upon the participants and upon the S. S. teachers and all those who in any way helped to make it a success. Rev. Mr Young, the pastor, filled the role of chairman ably. The musical part of the program consisted of two choruses by the school, two anthems by the choir entitled, "Joy to the World" and "Starry Night".

A modern song, "The Wondrous Story" by the Junior pupils; solos by Miss Elsie Boyce and Master Steven Stinson. These were well received by the audience. "Christmas in Mother Gooseville" and "The day after Christmas, proved to be two humorous dialogues. Greetings were conveyed from the Mulock Baptist Ch. by Rev. Mr Crickington.

The Senior girls had a pleasing Star drill, while the Junior girls had the drill. "The six points of the growing subscription list. At their Good-will and Joy" and each girl recited, showing that if we as individuals possessed these six qualities,

We would surely have the true Christmas spirit. A pantomime illustrating the beautiful missionary hymn "O Zion haste" was well presented by the following young ladies: Misses E. Petty, Elsie Boyce, Jessie McCaslin, Margaret White, Edna Biefann, L. Kaufman and Myrtle McDonald, and the hymn was sweetly rendered by Miss Blanche Boyce.

The program was fittingly brought to a close by the presentation by Mrs Edgar Boyce of the pantomime, "A bid to me". The solo was sung by Miss Elsie Boyce.

Mr Alex McDonald, Supt. of S. S., was then called to the platform. He presented a prize to Mr Robt McCaslin for being the most regular attendant in the Bible Class.

The members of the S. S. showed their affection for their pastor and his wife by presenting them with a $5 gold piece, while Rev. and Mrs. Young presented the Supt with a gift, in recognition of his faithful work as Supt for 12 years.

Each child was given candies and a present. The Supt requested a continued cooperation of parents, children and S. S. workers for 1929.

School Concert Miss Petty, the teacher and pupils held a successful Xmas concert on Thursday evening, Mr Wm Campbell, as chairman, presided over the fine program in which the Xmas spirit reigned supreme.

There were recitations, tableaux, drills and humorous dialogues. Santa Claus in a very capable manner, distributed the presents. Miss Petty treated the pupils to a bag of candies and also gave a handkerchief to each. The section presented the teacher with silver candlesticks and candles.

Messrs Herman and Otto Kaufman of Detroit, spent the Yuletide at the parental home.
