

Would You Build A House Without A Roof?

You won't start to build a house unless you know you can finish it. The Bell Telephone Company tries to be equally sensible.

The company does not need all its $75,000,000 of new capital now but will spread its issue over years to come.

But it does need the assurance that, when equipment is started now for future telephones, money can be obtained to finish the job.

By 1934 Ontario and Quebec will need a million telephones. These telephones cannot be ready unless central exchanges and other equipment are started now.

GLENROADEN

Miss Mae Bell returned home Saturday after a week spent with Durham friends. Mr Bert Marsales spent Sunday with his wife and twin daughters at the home of Mrs Jas. Miller. Mr and Mrs J A Boyd and nephew Stanley Marsales, spent a day with Mr and Mrs J. Lauchlan, Waudby. Mr Dirstein, of Elmwood, is busy around the burg measuring up his fine piles of logs. Mrs Will Timmins and Mrs Mike Kenny spent a day with Mrs Nicholas Melosh. Glad to know that Miss Ada Hanks is somewhat on the mend and hope to see her out soon. Mr and Mrs Roy Trafford and family and Mrs McClung, Holford, spent a day with the former's parents, Mr and Mrs Herbert Trafford. Mr Roy Braun spent a day with his brother-in-law, Mr Tom Lauchlan of Waudby. Mrs Jno. McKechnie visited recently with Mrs Jno. Ellison, of Waudby, who is in poor health at present.

Deaths six Hours Apart

The passing of Chesleys town clerk, R. T. Kidd and that of his wife's mother, Mrs Milne, Sr, within six hours of each other in the same home at Chesley last week end, was as sad as it was unusual. Both were laid to rest on Sunday, the motor hearse requiring to make two trips to the cemetery. Due to the heavy condition of roads, another motor hearse from any of the neighboring towns could not be secured.

In the Editor's Mail Box

Rev. Jno. Bell, Brookdale, Man. "We appreciate the Review very much: it is the first paper we delve into when Tuesday's mail comes in. I see by the Pricerville news, Mrs. McManus from the 'Glen' is a resident of Rivers, my new field of labor. I have not had the pleasure of meeting her but no doubt will shortly and it will be good to have one from 'The Old Durham Road' for a neighbor. Thanks very much to the Pricerville correspondent for the glad news. Conditions in the West are very favorable. Last year's crop put new life into business generally. The West, I believe, is on the threshold of an era of great prosperity and development. Our natural resources are being opened up with an earnestness: the Hudson Bay Railway is gradually nearing completion and other roads are being started, opening up the northern part of our province where untold wealth lies buried. Good old Ontario, our banner province, I'm afraid, will be superseded (at least in some respects) by some of our western provinces during the next decade."

Donald McCormick, Castor, Alta. "We are having quite a cold spell. This morning it is 20 below and a week ago it was down as low as 10, so you see we are having a little winter, altho' no reason to complain. Up to Jan. 1st we had ideal weather with little frost. The Review is always a welcome visitor, just like a letter from home."

PROSECUTED FOR BREACH OF PHARMACY ACT

Retail Merchants in Trouble on various counts in Brantford. The way of the retail merchant is a hard one in these days of chain store competition and other things. Among other things is the Pharmacy Act, as local merchants in Brantford have found out to their sorrow. Charges of breach of that act were heard against Walter Menzie and L. and Richard Patterson, it being alleged that they sold A. B. S. and C. pills, aspirin, calomel, without being qualified druggists. On their behalf counsel put up a strong protest against actions being launched without the merchants receiving even a warning that such sales were illegal, for if they sinned, they sinned innocently, not knowing it to be against the law. They had purchased the goods from travellers of the National Drug Company and had no reason to suspect that resale was illegal. J. C. McGregor for the department of making purchases, while P. S. Mears, K. C. stated that ample warning had been given $20 and costs, while a technical objection was made in the Patterson case that the prosecution had not proved jurisdiction and the case was held over for a week to consider it. Those unclad Doukubors who in the middle of winter have been attempting to defy authority in British Columbia must be thick-skinned in more ways than one.

Game Preserve for Bentick Township

The Ontario Government has established five new Crown Game Preserves in Ontario and of these five, Bentick Tp. is singled out as one of them. The preserve will be known as the "Mallard Lake Preserve", situated on con 11, lot 18, and consists of approximately 100 acres. This is the same locality that the beavers operated in in 1928, building a dam at Copp's Lake. It proved a great attraction for tourists but was damaging to the farmers' crops of that district, as these little furriers in their desire to be busy, flooded the surrounding areas to such an extent that the farmers affected considered taking action against the township. Clerk Chittick informs us that the beavers have now left these haunts and where their next scene of operation will be is hard to say. The remaining four game preserves established are placed at: Caverly Preserve, consisting of 25 acres, Tp. of Malahide, Elgin Co.; Abbey Dawn Preserve, Tp. of Pittsburg, Co. of Frontenac, 300 acres. Toronto Tp. Crown Game Preserve 1st, 2nd and 3rd cons. Toronto Tp., Co. of Peel. Wilder's Lake Preserve, comprised of several parcels of land in the Tps. Glenelg and Egrement. The usual departmental restrictions apply to these preserves. Hunting, taking or killing of any game bird or animal in or upon these preserves, except under the authority or supervision of district wardens of the Dept. of Game and Fisheries, is prohibited.

1056 PRESENTED TO THEIR EXCELLENCIES

Miss Macphail, M. P. one of the Number. The great ceremonial function held annually at the opening of Parliament, the "drawing room" of their Excellencies, the Governor General and Lady Willingdon was more than usually brilliant this year. Among the 1056 presented was our own Agnes Macphail, M. P. who was attired in "black georgette with brilliant trimmings."

"The far-famed" Red Chamber with its rich-hued deep piled carpet, vaulted galleries, intricate carvings in wood and marble and mural paintings of Canadian war scenes formed an ideal setting for the pageant of brilliancy and splendor. AUCION SALE At Lot 27, con 2, W G R, Bentinck, Feb. 18, 1929, at 1 p. m. stock and implements. Victor J. Scheurman, Proprietor: C E Shevell, Auctioneer. See bills.

Presented with Medals

Pleasing function in High School. Friday afternoon last in Durham High School the semi monthly meeting of the High School literary society was held, the chief item on the program being a debate "Resolved that the mail order system of Department stores is unjust to merchants throughout the Province of Ontario." The affirmative was taken by Miss Annie Campbell and Gordon Kent, the negative by Miss Reta Vollett and William Kent. Each of the speakers had five minutes to present their views, the affirmative leader having an extra two minutes to reply at the close. They used their time alright and some of them would have liked more. Had a committee of merchants sat in judgment on the arguments presented, they might have differed on the value of arguments presented. Both sides spoke convincingly. Rev. Wm. Spencer was the judge and he gave his decision for the affirmative after a brief but fair summing up of the speakers and their remarks on the value of debates and advice that will stand them in good stead again. It was a close victory. Another feature was the presentation of medals, won at last year's mid-summer examinations by Misses Orma Burnett and Eleanor Marshall, the former a daughter of Mr and Mrs Geo. Burnett of town and the latter a daughter of Mr and Mrs And. Marshall of Knox, Normanby. Miss Orma not being present, her mother received the medal on her behalf. The presentation was made by Mr. C. Ramage on behalf of the Trustee Board and he congratulated the winners on the recognition and hoped it would be but the beginning of other successes in life before them. The winning of medals should be a stimulus to all their school mates to try to be worthy of medals, even if such should not come their way. Helen Young was presented with a gold medal from Durham Public Sch. Board for the highest standing in Durham School in the Entrance examinations. This was presented by Mr J. A. M. Robb, High School principal. George Hay, son of Mr and Mrs E. A. Hay, now of Brampton won the silver medal in Form 4 and this was forwarded to him. An interesting program of readings, recitations and choruses before and after this function helped to make a pleasant hour. There was a chorus by the Glee Club, a reading by Miss Isabel Jamieson, a pretty dance by eight young girls, an instrumental by Miss Jean Grant, all worthy performers, which won hearty applause. The reading of the Gazette by Miss Corinne Lawrence, who has a dash of humor in her make-up, was also appreciated. A happy afternoon was closed with God Save the King.

Thursday. To all the bereaved family we extend sincere sympathy. Mr and Mrs A C McDonald and Mr Dug. McDonald, Lamash, attended the funeral of the late Mr Kidd and Mrs Milne in Chesley Saturday. Sorry to hear of Mrs Philip McDonald being operated upon for appendicitis in Durham hospital recently.

HYMENEAL

McKINNON - SCOTT

(The groom in white-up is a son of Mr Dan McKinnon, for many years past of the Robert Simpson Co., Toronto, but whose native health is at Rocky Saugeen and one of the well-known McKinnon brothers. He yet makes periodical trips to his early haunts.—Ed.)

Calvin Presbyterian Church, Toronto, was the scene of an interesting wedding last week, when Dorothy Myrtle daughter of Mr and Mrs J. S. Scott, Lansdowne Ave, was married to Mr Bruce McKinnon, only son of Mr and Mrs Donald McKinnon, Deer Park Crescent. The bride, given away by her uncle, looked charming in a dress of softly flowing white georgette, fashioned in tight fitting bodice and skirt of petals, longer at back. She wore a filmy tulle veil, hemmed in heirloom Carrickmacross lace, and caught at the head with Juliet cap, banded with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and wore a platinum diamond and sapphire wrist watch, the gift of the bridegroom. The maid of honor was Miss Marion Scott and bridesmaid, Miss Eleanor Higgins. The groom was assisted by Mr Melville Howarth, Mr Proctor played the wedding music and at the signing of register Mr Wm MacCuaig sang. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Granite Club, Mrs. Scott and Mrs McKinnon receiving the guests, the latter wearing an orchid-shaded chiffon and lace Paris gown, her hat in baku straw with orchid velvet chou and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of orchids, violets and lillies-of-the-valley. Mr. Doris Pratt, Harold Atcheson, Jimmie Arnett. B—Archie Lawrence, Grant Greenwood.
