'Home & Country' well exemplified at Institute Meet'g came through lower town, when the contents of the future buildings were yet standing on Lambton St. The road angled somewhat from the future Cochrane foundry and came out at the late Dennis McFadden's, father of the late Thos. McFadden and grandfather of the present owner, Robt. McFadden. It took four days for the teamster to come from three miles east of Kleinburg, Tp of Vaughan, before arriving at the new home on the Durham Rd., Glenelg. House chinked with moss, no chimney, lots of big trees standing, some leaning over the old cabin. Fortunately some 8 or 10 bags of flour was part of one teamster's load so there was a treat to be found in the woods of Durham Rd., Glenelg. Years have passed and gone away but the old farm is there and only one member there now of a once large family and he is unfortunately deprived of his natural vision but trusts the Good Protector to take care of him.

Mr Norman McIntyre, S. Line, paid a pleasant visit to his old neighbors, the McDonalds of Edge Hill lately. It is always pleasant to see good old friends who kindly visit their old neighbors. The teacher of No. 3, Edge Hill and two more young men are unfortunately laid up from the effects of bogging down Mr Geo. Ritchie's big hills (or mountains). Mr Ritchie was always careful not to venture down the big hill with his binder. The neighbors of Mr and Mrs Bebb the new residents on the old Greenwood home, which was bought from Mr Ernest Greenwood, gave him and family a kindly reception one evening lately.

The Durham Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs Chas Moore, on Feb. 7th, with an attendance of 53 ladies, the president, Mrs Glass presiding. The minutes of previous meeting were read, also a number of appreciative letters from 'shut-ins', who received a beautiful basket of Christmas cheer, also thanking the Institute for their kind thoughtfulness toward them. Quite a number of business items were dealt with by the committee appointed to be held in 'At Home' which is to be held in March. $10 was voted towards the distressed Welsh miners. The business session over, a song from the Institute sheet was sung heartily by the audience.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

This week we feel it our duty to write a little in addition to the many writers on the death of our esteemed friend, Mr Arch. MacCuaig. Personally we have known Mr MacCuaig from childhood and when he came to school age he attended for a couple of years the old section No. 2 on Durham Road, Glenelg. He served with us for 40 years on the school board at Top Cliffe and was always faithful in attending to the duties thereof. Mr MacCuaig accumulated largely of the world's prosperity by good management. His home was always ready to receive those in need from the contents of his table. We had the honor of nominating him for the Council of Glenelg the first time he ran and was elected by a large majority. He was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church. His family of nine daughters and three sons are hard to surpass anywhere for respectability and to his faithful duty as father, educated four of his daughters, who passed as successful teachers. We didn't attend the funeral owing to circumstances over which we had no control. It was largely attended from the different parts of the country by his many friends and it is gratifying to the bereaved family the sympathy shown to them from friends coming a long distance to pay last respects to a highly respected friend. The pastor of the Presby'n Church, Priceville, Rev. Mr Corry, preached in his usual manner a comforting sermon on the solemn occasion. His remains are resting beside his beloved life partner who passed away 20 years ago. We join with the many who send condolences to the bereaved family in the loss of a faithful father. The words of the poet are suitable here:

In Death's cold arm lies sleeping here
A tender mother, a father dear;
Great is the loss we here sustain,
But hope in Heaven to meet again.

We saw another death, that of an old resident of the Tp. of Egremont, W. J. Wilson. Mr Wilson's father and family, the late James Wilson, came to Egremont in the early 50's.

We recall Mr Wilson's father carrying a bag of flour from our old home when he had to travel an all bush road. The price didn't matter—it was to get the flour, even at $10 bbl. So the old settlers are going fast.

Monday, Feb. 11, 1929, fine and frosty, snowed some last night but the roads are good. Our memory goes back to 14th Feb. 1851 when the writer's father and mother and family,

We are pleased that our good old neighbor, Mr Hugh McKinnon, S. L. Glenelg, is keeping fairly well. His son Chas and wife are spending while with him at present. (Birds of one feather, always like to be together.)

We haven't been at our old town, Priceville, for a long time, but always pleased to hear that their spiritual advisers give good sermons every Sunday in their different worshiping places.

HOPEVILLE

Mr Oswald Dingwall, Royal Bank, Dundalk, was home over the week end. Elder D. Cameron of L.D.S., Toronto, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr Chas. Waie.

The W.M.S. of the United Church, meet at the home of Mrs W. R. Scott on Friday Feb. 15th, to take part in the Day of Prayer.

A colored gentleman made a few unwelcome calls while passing through this burg last Saturday.

Mr and Mrs Chas. McGillivray and Miss Anne Sinclair were visitors last week at Mr John Sinclair's.

SWINTON PARK

Mrs Hardy, Sr. has gone to Toronto for a visit with son Richard and other friends. She intends visiting her sisters, Mrs Blakeston and Mrs. Lawrence in Stratford.

Mr Jno. McMillan of con 14, is holidaying in the city at present.

Mrs Wm Mead of the O.D.R. is at present making a lengthy visit with her parents, Mr and Mrs Knox here, also with other relatives and friends.

Owing to a break in the mill at Berkeley, Mr Richardson and Billy Lane were home an extra day at week end, but have again returned to work. Wm Kinsman and son Elwood have been for some time working in the bush for Wm Stewart.

Mr Stewart is taking out saw logs of all descriptions, also a quantity of wood.

Mr Hugh McLean is supplying the wood at S. P. School.

Considerable progressive eucure is being played here at present. We expect St Valentine Day will be celebrated with a dance in the hall.

Mr R Lane deserves a job on the Prov'l Highway. He broke the road through the big swamp at Proton one day last week by mistake. He says 'Never again.'

LATE WILLIAM JOHN WILSON

They died at the home of his daughter, 24 Beatrice St., Toronto, on Monday, Feb. 4, Wm John Wilson.

They were conveyed to the old home Tuesday evening and from there the funeral was held Wednesday to Salem United Church. Rev. Mr Sullivan, pastor, assisted by Rev. Mr Corry, conducted fitting services at the home, church and graveside.

Undertaker W G Watson, Priceville, was in charge. The pall bearers were three nephews, Geo. Parslow, Robt. Parslow, and Wm Porter; and three old and true friends, Frank Reilly, Donald McCannel and Neil A. McQueen. There was a goodly gathering of friends and neighbors to their last tribute of respect, but all of a younger generation. We think not one of deceased comrades of 50 years ago was present.

Mrs Wilson was unable to make the journey from Toronto owing to the cold weather, the enjoying good health and for her in her loneliness all in the community extend sympathy. Also for the family of 7 daughters. With the two daughters in the city, Mr and Mrs. Wilson have made their winter home for the past few years, coming each summer back to the old home at Boothville. Mr Wilson was in his 90th year, being born on the ocean

Funeral of late Arch. MacCuaig largely Attended

The funeral of the late Archibald MacCuaig was a marked demonstration of community respect to one of themselves whose task was over. Rev. Mr Corry's text, the floral offerings, friends from a distance, all spoke respect for the memory of deceased and sympathy for the chief mourners.

The text was taken from 2 Samuel, chap 3: 38 "A great man hath fallen this day in Israel," and from this Mr Corry preached a sympathetic and comforting discourse to an audience of sympathetic hearers. Two favorite hymns of deceased, "The Lord is the Shepherd" and "Blest be the tie that binds," were sung with feeling and the closing hymn "Good Night" was appropriate.

The undertaker was Mr E. Kress and eight nephews of deceased were pall bearers: Neil MacPhail, Neil Clark, Archie Clark, Neil Calder, Jas Calder, Andrew Hincks, Earl McLeod, Edgar McLeod.

Flowers were beautiful, contributed by 'Gates Ajar' by the family; by Ida MacCuaig, by the grandchildren; by 'Willing Helpers' of Priceville Presby'n Church; by Nurse Smith; Miss Orma Meuser, of Hamilton; Bible Class, Y. P. S. and Choir of Knox Church, Tiverton; Mesdames K. MacKenzie, A. E. H. Couch, I. Patterson, G. McArthur, of Tiverton.

Pillows by Presbyterian Church of Priceville and by trustees, pupils and teachers of Tiverton Continuation School; wreaths by Executive of Grey and Bruce Fire Insurance Co. and by Mesdames J. Montgomery, J. MacDonald, Misses M. Alexander and B. Jowse of Tiverton.

Friends from a distance were Miss Pearl MacCuaig and Mrs Russell Baird, Pontiac, Mich.; Mrs Neil McPhail and Mrs R. Pierson, Toronto; Mr Neil and Miss Florence McQueen of Stayner; Mr Wm Ruttie, Hanover; Mr Alex McCannel, Burgoyne.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all the friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown and the sympathy extended during the illness and at the death of our dear father, the late Archibald MacCuaig and also for the many floral tributes.
