'Fresh from the gardens'

"THE

R.W.SATTERTIELD

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Clare Jewett, in love with the Rev. Daniel Gilchrist, marries Jerry Good- simply. "I've left him." kind for his money. Daniel is dismissed from the fashionable Church of the Nativity in New York because of his radical sermons.

"Overcoat Hall," a refuge for the unemployed, is established by Gifchrist, and apartments with baths for the poor are maintained. George Good-Mary Margaret, a poor little cripple "I can't believe-" Gilchrist was girl, helps Daniel with the work at taken aback. Overcoat Hall. Pearl Hennig comes in "He's been drinking," she went on and warns Daniel that her husband is in a monotone of despair, "more and "I know you do," said Clare, There was a certain desolation in her tone, graphers, women of our own class. Do a certain self-pity, that told of some- you remember-in your church-a thing she knew. The two women look- Mrs. Thornbury? He's been quite open ed at each other for a moment. Each about her. Tonight we were going out gave something of commiseration to to dinner. He came to my roomthe other in that exchange of glances drunk-and babbled that he'd refuse between these two who had been be- to go until she was invited. Then I trayed in such dierent ways, yet simul- refused to go, and he accused me of-

It was Pearl who turned away. "I guess you ain't got much use for me," she said, quailing.

Clare looked at her as though sharing the pity she had for herself. lornly. "What's the dierence between that did not understand. Somehow your way at last," she said, in sur- girl out there." she felt that there was no bitterness render. "In the past two years I've here, but she did not know why. She learned what degradation means. I've to degradation?" she mocked. had no answer to make. She backed come to realize that the material "That little girl's known degrada-appealing eyes toward Gilehrist. They met a gentle reproach.

CHAPTER XIX PEMPTATION

TOBACCO LEAF

(Reduced)

Ready for consumer in 1-lb. Hands For Smoking and Chewing. Also in 25-lb. bales, Prepaid, 26c

Guaranteed Smooth Smoking, Sweet and Mild

Smokers' Formulas on Request. COOPER PLANTATION

TOBACCO CO., Limited 426 Queen St. E. Toronto, Ont. Phone Waverley 7915

"Clare, I asked you-" he began. "You don't know what love means. "I'd nowhere else to go," she said, You're only half a man."

BOLLOCK

"Left Jerry?" His inquiry was in-

"Yes," she replied calmly. "For good. He struck me."

"No," aDniel protested.

"Yes," she returned. "Here-in the dind, Jerry's father, calls and orders breast. And he's lying now-brandy-Daniel to cease seeing Clare, who fre soaked and half-conscious-across the quently visits the hall to help Gil- foot of my bed." She put her hands to her face as if to hide the sight.

out to "get" him. Pearl tells Clare more. And, of course, there have been women-from the beginning. All kinds NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY of women. That woman"-she waved toward the door-"salesgirls, stenoof you-and struck me with his fist."

"He accused - you?" Daniel my strength," he returned, "to save "Yes, And then he tried to take me in his arms. Night after night fully. he'd come to me, drunk, and hold me Why?" she questioned, calmly, for. in his arms." he paused in reflection. people. "And I said once there was nothing Faintly there came the voice of more degrading than poverty." She Mary Margaret singing to the cadence Pearl turned toward her with eyes looked up at him. "Tve come to see of her crutch-steps. "For the little things are nothing and that love is tion that you and I will never know,"

> Jerry suspects us. He's made his what he wants." She appealed to him

Burley 1st Grade 20c lb. Don't you understand that I'm moaned.

offering myself to you?" she asked "Play the game," Gilchrist said conbewildered herself now.

happiness. Pve been blind and stupid "Duty, duty," she echoed me-and eruel, but it isn't too late." She chanically. "What about happiness?" me and hold me (and we'll both for- returned. "Oh, don't you see, my dear, that's been your greatest mis-

"Forget?" He looked at her won- take! You're always orying-you and the world-'I want to be happy.' Hap-

"I don't deny it," he said simply.

"I love the good in you-the good you're trying hard to kill," he said withearnestness. "I love you because you're big enough to do what's right."

"Go back to your husband." Daniel

"I'd rather you died-than this." he

"You fanatic," she sneered. "You

"Love," she cried contemptuously.

"And I'm praying to God with all

"You fanatic!" she sneered.

"For what?" she demanded resent-

"For you-and him-and for my

"And for them you'd send me back

"I don't know what to do," she piness is service. Rappiness is clean iving and clean thinking and self-

"And love?" she asked like a child.

"Love isn't all," he said. "Not the love you mean. You said 'Take me, and we'll both forget.' Could we have forgotten promises unkept, faith disappointed, aspirations unrealized?"

He smiled tenderly. "No, my dear, love isn't all, nor even happiness.

There's something bigger, and better, and more important, and that some-

"The world doesn't think that," she

"That's what's wrong with the

"You want me to go back?" She

"I want you to be right," he said.

flung her head back and looked at him. "Well then-" she said, "-I'm going through. I'm going back and play the game—with you in my heart always. You don't forbid that, do you?"

"You are in mine always," he told

She paused undecisively. Then she thing is-duty."

said doubtingly.

was calm now-very calm.

forgetfulness and self-respect.'

us from the other half."

"hat is right?" she asked bewilder-

"Then take me," she preed.

spoke with cold deliberation.

She flushed and straightened.

Anger stormed and swept her.

"I love you," he said simply.

"I'd rather die," she flared.

"I love you."

said cheerlessly.

blind fanatic."

MAKE BETTER HOME MADE

He opened the door for her and held out his hand.

"Clare-" he said. She knew what it meant. "Good night," he added. "And " she looked back at hir -thank you."

CHAPTER XX.

A PITIFUL CONFESSION. nunciation, Gilchrist sank into a chair. There was no smile on his wan face fine lines. Save for his eyes, there was something of desolation there. The eyes, though, still held the spark of a fire that seemed to have burned itself out in the rest of him.

Mary Margaret found him huddled there, his face in his hands, motion-. (To be continued.)

Minard's Liniment for Coughs, Colds.

The Agony Column

The "Agony Column" (Want Ads) of the London Times carries many curious and affecting ads. The following are some:

"Every so often all who seek to peer into the heart of the English must scan the famed 'Agony Column' of the London Times. Last week in a single issue, on a single page, occurred the following revealing and significant ads, each smacking inimitably of Old England:

WILL ANYONE LEND LADY 50 pounds for 12 months, 10 per cent.?-Write B. T. 1218, The Times, E.C., 4. GIRL 19, suffering from RHEUMA-TOID ARTHRITIS. One hope of cure-warm climate now. Will some good Samaritan offer financial help to make this possible? Mother (widow) earnestly appeals.-Write Box T. 1219, The Times, E.C. 4.

WILL someone HELP gentleman, 30, ex-service; no income; ill, severe neurasthenia; with cost of treatment? -Write Box D. 1761, The Times, Sentimental Agony BLOHENGRIN .- All the same to you; loving and mourning for ever and always. I shall further pray. Mouse .- All rights protected. Do not worry-N.B.

Snobbish Agony EXCEPTIONAL REMUNERATION best of the bargain." to anyone in good society who can introduce friends for decorating and antiques .- Write Box S. 84. The Use Minard's Liniment for the Flu.

Times, E.C. 4.

It would be a mistake to suppose side of existence has been completed. know a whole raft of parents that But it has progressed far enough so need it, too. that a moderate amount of industry and thrift is all that is needed to relieve the great mass of our people from the pinch of poverty.-President

I can always say what I am trying to say with a gesture.-Charles Chap- These people will be arriving after

Your food doesn't do you any good if you're tired nervous tension before eating. Wrigtey's will refresh and tone you up-so that you're ready to enjoy your food.

Then, after meals, Wrigley's helps digestion, cleanses the teeth, removes all traces of eating or smoking-

First Draper: "Why do you employ such stupid-looking assistants?" Second Ditto: "It makes the customers this place? Shall we buy it?" His gart on her way. Wife: "Oh, it's perfectly lovely! The Her parting gift from the King was view from this balcony is so fine that a prayer-book inscribed: it leaves me speechless." "Then we'll "Remember yr kynde and loving

A number of earnest persons are that the organization of the material urging the spanking of children. We

> FARMERS Requiring British help-Single men, women or families, to assist with farm work, should write Rev. Alex. MacGregor, 43 Victoria St., Toronto.

Margaret Tudor Rides to Scotland

The trumpeters blew, the minstrels played in the best and most joyful manner, news of the bandfasting of the Princess Margaret to King James was proclaimed at St. Paul's Cross. and late in the evening all partook of a most notable banquet, to which. as Queen of Scots, Margaret walked hand in hand with her mother.

The months that intervened be tween the betrothal ceremony and Margaret's departure were busy ones. for Henry and his consort. Queen Elizabeth (of York) gave their little daughter an elaborate trousseau, including "a gown of tawny cloth-ofgold tissue," another of "purple velvet with two kirtles, and one formed with ermine," no less than three thousand two hundred little black tails being used for its trimming . . . Margaret had two petticoats, two hats. five pairs of knitted hose and six of woolen, three pairs of shoes and six pairs of slippers-one "lined with cloth"-two dozen pairs of gloves, twelve thousand pins, and some pounds weight of needles and alsoother articles. . . .

King Henry VII rode the first stage with the little Queen of Scots, takfeel that they cannot help but get the ing her to bid farewell to her grandmother, the Countess of Richmond, at whose residence half the nobles of Mr. Richman: "How do you like England had gathered to sped Marfader in yr good prayers. . . . Pray for your loving fader that gave you thys booke, and I gyve you at all times Godd's blessing and myne .-Henry R." Mounted on her white palfrey, with bishops riding on right and left, and the Earl of Surrey in command of the party , Margaret started on her month-long ride with a cavalcade nobles as an escort, and minstrels and trumpeters to play her in and out of the towns through which she passed Sometimes the young Queen slept at a castle or manor-bouse, sometimes at a convent, and occasionally at a village inn, while her escort increased in size and magnificance day by day, for every town added its quota, and, till the Northern lords took on the task of guarding her, the Southerners were loath to relinquish their chivalric task. In all between fire and six hundred people rode with this "fayre ladie . . . and a great company Lordes, Ladies, Knightes, Esquires, and Gentlemen," to announce her progress.

York gave her a great welcome. The gates were flung open when word of the Queen's approach reached officialdom, church-belis pealed and out rode a procession almost as gorgeous as Margaret's own. On a "curvetting horse bedecked with bells," sat the Earl of Northumberland, "in crimsen velvet, with bejewelled collar and boots of black velvet worked with gold"; beside him was the Lord Mayor in his civic robes.

Margaret herself was vivid in the sunshine; a youthful figure in her cloth-of-gold gown, a girdle studded with gems, fair glittering hair, and the brilliant pink and white complexion that was her Tudor heritage.

She reached Berwick at the end of July, with English border troops two thousand strong behing her. On August 1 she was carried through the gates in her litter, footmen running behind her in their doublets of green cloth and scarlet hose, and here the Scots met her: "Lords, Knights, Gentlemer and Squires honestly attired, and a multitude of people of the country, perhaps half a thousand, all on horseback. . . . As the English approached, the Scottish clarions blew 4 melody which was good to hear, and the Archbishop of Glasgow and the Bishop of Moray knelt to receive their child-queen as she stepped on Scottish soil."-From "Thir Majesties of Scotland," by E. Thornton Cook.

Household Hints

"If you will sprinkle a handful of coarse salt on the bottom of the garbage can after it is emptied, it will prevent the garbage from freezing to the bottom of the can."

"Strips of adhesive tape placed around the casters of the bed, dresser or other furniture which must be moved more or less while cleaning will prevent the black streaks caused by constant rolling of the furniture."

"When goloshes or overshoes become dusty inside, try cleaning them by inserting the nozzle of the upholstery tool of your electric sweeper in them. The brush may be effective in cleaning the outside."

"On 'blue Monday' ir winter pour some water into the hot water bag and slip it into your clothespin bag while the clothes are in the last rinsing water. Keep the hot water bag under your pins when you go out to the line and your hands will keep warm while putting out the clothes even in near zero weather. A generous handful of salt added to the last rinse water will keep clothes from freezing fast to the line."

Ontario has invested $200,000,000 in its highways. Quebec has authorized new road improvements costing

He: "May I kiss you?" She: "Have you ever kissed a girl oefore?" He: "Never!" She: "That'e all right then-I don't like men who kiss and

441,244,000 144,747,000

An Increase of $142,836,000 Total Income -An Increase of $41,972,000 Surplus earned during the 40,264,000

Payments to Policyholders and Beneficiaries 49,920,000

Reserve -66,938,000 An Increase of $9,157,000 422,020,000

Assets, at December 31st, 1928 488,958,000 An Increase of $87,652,000 Rate of Interest earned on

mean invested assets (net) FOR NINTH SUCCESSIVE YEAR

EXTRACTS FROM DIRECTORS' REPORT

After deducting amounts re-assured, the total an increase of $408,925,254.48. Policies in force number 633,240, and in addition 136,203 certificates of assurance are held by employees of corporations and firms under the group plan.

While every field of operation contributed its foll share to these impressive adjunces, the rapididevel opment of our business in Great British and the United States is especially noteworthy. The generous reception of our Company in countries saved by powerful domestic institutions is particularly coatroing, as testifying to widespread appreciation of our record and services.

The amount paid to policyholders since organisa-tion, together with the amount at present held in their security or benefit, exceeds the total amount received from them in premiums by $111,370,229.10. The strength and resources of the Company have been still further enhanced.

The net rate of interest earned on the mean invested assets, after making provision for investment expenses, has risen to 6.56 per cent. Dividend in creases, bonuses and stock provisions accurate of many of the Company's houses, contributed as stantially to this gratifying result.

A net profit of $11,028,854:59 has been realized from the redemption or sale of securities which had fisen to high premiums.

The securities listed in the assets have been valued at figures substantially below the valued placed to them by the Government. This under valuation our securities represents an important discussion against possible adverse number fluctuations, and conal to the reserves specifically provided under

We are again able to report that on the bonds an preferred stocks listed in the same in the dollar due either as interest or as dividend, is in arrear for a single day; while the dividends accruing to common stocks exceed by several million dollars those payable on the same stocks at the time of purchase. The surplus earned during the year, based on the dues given in the accounts, amounted to $40,264,-$10,000,000. has been deducted from the already beavily marked-down value of securities, as additional provision against possible fluctuations, increasing the amount so set aside to $20,000,000. The special amount set aside as a liability to wide for unforescen contingencies has been main ined at $12,500,000. $15,822,339.65 has been paid or allotted as profits to policyholders during the year. After making all deductions and allocations, 9,157,966.34 has been added to the undivided surhas, bringing the total over liabilities, contingency ecounts, and capital stock, to $54,438,862.48. The continued prosperity of the Company enables our Directors to announce, for the ninth successive sear, a substantial increase in the scale of profits to be distributed to participating policyholders during be distributed to participating policyholders during the ensuing year.

In addition, your Directors have inaugurated the principle of granting a Special Dividend on participating policies maturing after having been in force on years or longer. This new bonus will enable policyholders or beneficiaries whose withdrawal is occasioned by the maturity of policy contracts, to participate in the accumulated surplus which it has not as yet been considered prudent to divide.

The chort to provide life assurance at the lowest net cost obtainable has been increasingly appreciated. Our policyholders will be gratified by this further evidence of our desire that the Company's prosperity shall be fully shared by its members.

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA

PROOF OF DYES is in the dveing/

It's the anilines in Diamond Dyes that do the work; that give the colors such brilliance; such depth and permanence. It's real aniline that keeps them from giving things that redyed look; from spotting or streaking.

Next time you have dreing to do, try Diamond Dyes. Then compare results. See how soft, bright, new looking the colors are. Observe how they keep their brilliance. Your dealer will refund your money if you don't agree Diamond Dyes are better dyes.

The white package of Diamond Dyes is the original "all-purpose" dye for any and every kind of material. It will dye or tint silk, wool, cotton, linen, rayon or any minture of materials. The blue package is a special dye, for silk or wool only. With it you can dye your valuable articles of silk or wool with results equal to the finest pro-fessional work. When you buy—remember this. The blue package dies silk or wool only. The white package will dre every kind of goods, including silk and wool. Your dealer has both packages.

Diamond Dues

all. It ion't too late?" he said. "And she's singing. Her "It's never too late," said Daniel constant companions are poverty and pain-and she's singing. She's crip-"I knew you'd say that," she said, pled. She may never walk again. with relief in her tone. "I'll share And she can say 'God's will be done." your word -your want-if need be- She believes in me I can't disappoint Clare had turned fatigued, worried, gladly. Only take me away. her and the rest. I'm going on with "But my work is here," he replied, my job-and you're going back to not quite comprehending. "We can't stay here," she protested. "You mean Jerry?" she asked. "Yes." was the answer. father suspect us. Do you know what "You think that's God's will?" She nodded. "Forry wants to send you to was helpless and hopeless now. "I know it's your fob," he said firman asseum. He said so tonight. And "You took it with your eyes open. he'll do it, too. The strange thing It's up to you to see it through." about Jersy is that, with his mind go-"Must I go on forever paying for ing, and his health gone, he still gets "Somebody must pay for our mis-again: "Take me away, and we'll have takes. That it was wrong to make a five or six rooms and each other." bargain doesn't make it right to break "Clare!" Daniel was a man torn the bargain when we get tired of it."

vincingly. "Go back to that poor, mis-"Yes, I understand," he said simply. taken man lying across the foot of "I love you," she breathed. "I need your bed-his mind going and his you. I've always loved you, and need- health gone. Bear your nunishment ed you, even when I lied to you-and and help him to bear his. That's your myself. This is our last chance for duty."

A TOWER OF STRENGTH 1928

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA

Assurances in force (net) $1,896,915,000 An Increase of $408,925,000 New Assurances Paid for

Surplus and Contingency

Total Liabilities (Including Paid up Capital)

The Company has also inaugurated the practice of paying a special maturity dividend on participating policies, ten or more years in force, terminating by death or maturity.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO

The F Home

In Past F Taugh Over By ANN

with high I edge I can at marry John a why students point of view special training cialized tasks The twelve tions deal wi hygiene; the sickness; sign ing and treats municable dis slight ailments care; feeding t

A glance at the Home N

food needs of A course st it is scarcely the hundreds structed have I departments of nomes in town tories, settlem unfortunate or clubs, hostels ! colleges, Home sional and Bus ations, the Y. girls in training

In order to p