Senate Overworked; Parliary Social Functions

Ottawa, Feb. 23, 1929
The unexpected has happened and the Senate is overworked; not all of it, but a part of it, the Divorce Committee, and that any part of that august and leisurely body should be straining every nerve and crowding every hour to keep up with its work is surprising enough...

WINTON PARK

We have enjoyed the month of February in Winton Park—a clear steady cold month, yet never extremely cold. Every day fit to be on the job. The roads too have been all along fit for travel. Now we will take March as it comes, hoping all will have health and strength to enjoy it also. What tho' we may have a few stormy days: the Spring is at hand. John Coulter of Swamp College is engaged at James Hardy's, working in the bush by day, he having a good driver and cutter and at night may be found elsewhere. John Lane with his big team, did the great act last Thursday evening, when he loaded on 30 live people and drove to the home of Mr and Mrs Walter Knox. Several other smaller loads were also there and an enjoyable night was spent in games and dancing. Some of the old sports of the Park purpose going to Orangeville on the 27th inst to Orangeville, to the Campbell golden wedding, weather permitting. On Friday night in the church, the Priceville young folk will give their 3-act play, 'The Little Clothopper'.
