

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

A St. Patrick's Social will be held in the schoolroom of St. Columba United Church by the energetic Ladies Aid of the church, on the evening of Friday, 15 March, when a good time is promised by way of program, plays, portray, etc. You pay according to your height and perhaps capacity. This fine institution is worthy of all praise and support. God bless them!

The young people of the village with commendable enterprise, under the leadership of our new teacher, Mr. John F. Cook, have flooded the Agricultural Hall and made a fine skating rink of it. With the addition of another "bent" or two to it, would their crowded exhibits and give a chance for the formation of a curling club as well. Think and dream over it.

We had our share of the recent storm—the mail couriers think they had more than their share, sure! Logs—long, straight, crooked, still continue to come in, in great quantities to the fields adjoining the station.

Mr. Arch. Conkey, well wrapped up in robes and blankets, was conveyed in a sleigh to Durham Hospital last week end by Dr. Milne and Alex Carson, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. We wish for the strong robust young man a speedy recovery.

Rev. F. Sullivan at the evening services, has been preaching on the "Temptations of Jesus." The first two were certainly masterly efforts. The third will be next Sunday p. m.

Mrs. Chas. Braiden (Vicky McMillan) was on a short visit to her parents this week end. The kind of weather prevailing denied us the privilege and pleasure of seeing her at church as expected.

Mr. H. B. McLean is now quite convalescent and around town. Mrs. J. G. Gardner is also on the improving list. Our new blacksmith, Mr. Sherman, is living with his family in Mr. Alexander's house, over the river eastward.

The Willing Helpers and Missionary Society will meet in the Hall, cordially invited to attend. Lunch com. are Mrs. Corry, Misses Olive McMeekin, Jessie Nichol, Erma McLean.

Miss Edna Ferguson spent a few days visiting Mrs. Earl McLeod. Misses Jessie Nichol and Olive McMeekin, spent a couple of days visiting their friend, Mrs. Arthur Richardson of Swinton.

Mr. Wm. Burnett has gone to Toronto for further treatment. Messrs. Donald and Colin McMillan spent a few days in the city recently. A sleigh load of our youth recently beauty drove over to the dance at home they must have had a good time.

About 20 braved it out last Friday night to the Parlor Social. It is to be held this Wednesday and we are planning for a big time and hope the weather will keep fine.

We are glad to know that Mrs. D. Sinclair is recovering from an attack of pneumonia, they yet very weak. Her sister, Mrs. Jack Gilbert, of Toronto and niece, Miss Lavina Konold is with her.

Mr. Alfred Hincks has been appointed as Supt. of the Sabbath School. We wish him every success.

Mrs. John McRae visited Monday at Mr. Angus McLachlan's. Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Stonehouse visited Sunday at Mrs. Sinclair's.

Miss Mary McEachern is suffering from neuralgia in her face. We hope she may be out soon and around again.

SWINTON PARK

There is little use in saying we had a storm last week, as you all know that. It caused detours in the roads around the Park, but this Tuesday morning it is quietly slipping away to the Saugreen, then on to Lake Huron to help make up for the Chicago water sale. An account of bad roads last Sunday we had no service with Swinton Park or Salem churches.

However, the blame is not laid on the ministers as they are not held to it not fit for them to face out and phoned them not to come. But we hope for better conditions next Sunday, when the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in Swinton Park Church.

Auction sales are taking the attention of the men at present, Geo. Dunlop, auctioneer, having 11 sales in two weeks. This Tuesday, Mrs. Berlington is having a sale and on Thursday John Plesday's sale. We regret the losing of these families, but hope they may have good luck in their new homes, also that their place this locally.

We hear that Gordon McArthur, son of John McArthur, Egremont will occupy the Plester farm. We wish him good luck for we know he will have good neighbors with Wm. Kinsman on the right and Mr. Philip Harrison on the left and looking across the road at Neil McLean's. He is fairly well situated. They will no harm befall him that they can withstand.

There has been some horse-trading going on throughout this section of the country lately that is leading a man to quiet but solid lodgings if not discontinued. But no doubt there will be a reform soon.

Last night the cold and stormy, the home of Mrs. McDougall was invaded by the young folk, bent on enjoying an evening with Mr. McArthur before their departure. A presentation of money and good wishes was bestowed upon the family and a dance was enjoyed by all.

(Crowded out last week.)

About the Campbell Golden Wedding which was celebrated in Orangeville on Feb. 27th. We were privileged to be there and as many readers of the Review are interested, we will endeavor to give some description. Donald Campbell and Mary McDougall were married 50 years ago, a few miles north of Durham by Rev. Mr. Grant. They lived for 41 years at Swinton Park and 9 years ago gave up farming and moved to Orangeville. To them were born 12 children, 7 sons and 5 daughters. When just a young man, Archie, the second son, lost his health, taken in Minneapolis. The body was taken home and buried in S. Park. The others were all able to be home for their parents' golden wedding, also Roderick Campbell, a brother, who was celebrating his 73rd birthday that day and Mrs. Campbell, Toronto. Mrs. Drennan, a sister, (Bella Campbell) of Batavia, N.Y.; a niece, Miss Campbell, of Montreal; nephews John Hector Campbell of Sault Ste. Marie, and Archie Campbell, Toronto. Of old neighbors at Swinton Park, some of them now living elsewhere, were John and Mrs. McMillan and Mrs. R. Parlow, Ceylon; Jas. Aldcorn, Corbetton; Mrs. Jas. Kennedy, Shelburne; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hannam and son Ritchie, Guelph; Herbert Hannam and two sons, Toronto; Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Dingwall, Cedarville; Miss Sinclair, Walkerton; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John Aldcorn, Swinton Park; Orangeville. All of these enjoyed the hospitality of the home for dinner and tea, some remaining over on account of train connections, also some other callers, the having made all arrangements for the day. When all had assembled they were seated closely.

With Mr. and Mrs. Campbell in the centre, John the eldest, made a little speech and presented father and mother with an electric radio from the family, which had been installed the night before. This was also Mr. and Mrs. Goheen's 15th wedding anniversary and they also were fittingly remembered by sisters and brothers in cut glass. Then the wedding dinner was served.

At the chief table were Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, daughters and sons, uncle and two aunts along with Rev. Armour and wife. When all were satisfied with the abundance of good things, Mr. Armour gave a fitting address to bride and groom, in which he said he felt lonely, as he too was one of a large family, but all were on the other side of the world, he being a New Zealander. He closed by asking all to stand and drink with him in Adam's ale to the health of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, 50 years ago the wedding cake was baked by Margaret McDougall, sister of the bride. This one was also baked by the same sister in Vancouver and sent home. A section was reserved for the McDougalls and Turnbull's in Vancouver, who were celebrating the same time. Afterwards calling by friends they talked with the people in Orangeville. The afternoon was spent in chat, music, vocal and instrumental—also step dancing, there being some real artists in this Highland Scotch family. There were many letters of remembrance from far away friends and gifts both useful and ornamental, among them about $100 in gold, as well as other coin of the realm.

While we noted all these things, what took our attention was the attitude of the family to their parents, all quietly but so kindly anticipating every thought or movement of father and mother. We concluded that Mr. and Mrs. Campbell were the richest couple in Canada, as we have known them all since birth and have tried to follow their movements since. We felt honored to be privileged to enjoy the day with them and we hope they may all be spared to meet again. This, we believe, was the first time in 30 years, when all were home together.

And this was the end of a perfect day.

ONWARD

(Arrived too late for last week.) Mr. Jos. Oliver and family visited a night recently at Jas. Oliver's. Mrs. Jas. Turner and Miss Margaret visited Proton friends last week.

ARE THEY RIGHT? The Toronto papers reported the other day that a Collegiate Principal in that city had been "booted" by the students for refusing to permit a fancy dance to be put on as part of a literary society program. The Principal is reported to have said that the dance was not objectionable but a literary society program was not the proper place for it. We believe the Principal was right. High School pupils are entitled to their full share of fun and social enjoyment. It is quite as necessary as school work. Wise parents will see that they get it. But is the providing of social amusement part of the function of a Collegiate Institute? Our idea is that it is for parents who are responsible for the bringing up of their children to look after the social activities of the young teen age boys and girls rather than the Collegiate teacher or more often the student committee.—St. Mary's Journal-Argus.

THE ROLL CALL

MRS. ROBERT WEBBER

On Wednesday evening of last week, March 6th, Mrs. Robert Webber passed beyond the shadows at Durham Hospital, after a lingering illness of several months duration, two of these being spent at Durham hospital. It took the form of an anemic nature and during her long invalidism she accepted her lot with Christian patience and resignation. Deceased was 57 years of age and word of her death caused sadness among her relatives and friends, for to them, she was ever held in the highest respect and veneration.

The late Mrs. Webber was a native of Glenelg Tp., being a daughter of the late M. J. and Mrs. Davis and about 25 years ago was wedded to Mr. Webber, who to-day with three children, deeply mourn the loss of wife and mother. The family are Irwin and Elmer and one daughter Mildred Mrs. John Caswell of the Rocky. An aged mother, two sisters and five brothers also mourn, viz: Miss Jennie at home; Mrs. A. Venetta, Aldergrove, B. C.; Basil, at home; James at New Westminster; Allan at Coghlan, B.C. Another sister Annie, Mrs. Joseph Firth, passed away 20 years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday, from her late home in Bentinck, to Durham cemetery, Rev. H. S. Fiddes having charge of services at house and grave.

Floral offerings on the casket bespoke sympathy and esteem from "The Neighbors," Durham Women's Institute of which she was a valued member; Mr. and Mrs. H. Allan and Mr. and Mrs. D. Allan.

The bearers who carried the remains to their last resting place were Messrs Wm. Picken, John McKenzie, Gordon Geddes, John Petty, Wm. Ritchie, Frank Marlock.

The Review extends sympathy to the bereaved ones.

MRS. JOHN McLEAN

There passed away in Toronto, on Saturday morning, March 2nd, Mrs. John McLean, aged 66 years. Deceased has been in failing health for some years and since an accident a couple of years ago when she broke her hip bone, has never had the same health.

The late Mrs. McLean was formerly Miss Margaret McDougall, daughter of the late Colin and Mrs. McDougall of Durham and about 46 years ago was married to her husband who survives her with five children. Another son Colin was killed overseas.

Toronto. The surviving are Alex and Lochie of Toronto; Sarah (Mrs. Minion) of Toronto; Sarah (Mrs. Baldwin), of near Wariart and Miss Florence, at home.

After their marriage the young couple resided on the South Line, Glenelg for many years and from here resided for 20 years. Two years ago the family removed to Toronto.

With the husband and aged mother there also mourn two sisters and three brothers, Miss Kate of town; Sarah (Mrs. Boone) of the States; Archie and Allan in Toronto and John in town. A funeral service was held at the Toronto home on Sunday and on Monday, the remains were conveyed to Owen Sound where interment was made. Deceased's brother John of Toronto, attended the funeral on Owen Sound Monday.

THE 36th Annual Report of the Great West Life, covering the Company's operations for 1928, is another of the outstanding examples of business achievement which has been reflected in these columns by the splendid reports recently published by the important financial and industrial institutions of the Dominion.

Last year the Company reached the half billion mark in the amount of business in force. A remarkable achievement for a Company established in 1892. That is to say, it enjoyed the distinction, never equalled by any other Canadian Company, of placing five hundred millions on the scale within the short period of thirty-five years.

With over 80 millions of business, written by the Great West Life in 1928, increasing the business in force by almost $45,000,000 and bringing the total business on the books to over $547,000,000, the report reveals an income for the year of close to $27,000,000. A substantial increase is recorded in the reserves for future profits to policy holders. The accounts show earnings in excess of the amounts required for the dividend scale which enables this Company to maintain its traditionally generous dividends to policy holders.

While this Company is native to Western Canada and is the largest Western financial institution, it does a splendid business in the States of N. Dakota, Michigan, Minnesota and Illinois, as well as maintaining a leading position in every Canadian province. Its investments show a wide geographical distribution. They consist mainly of gilt-edged first mortgage and guaranteed bonds. Since 1922 this Company's mortgage investments have been confined to the large territory from Port Arthur, Ont. to Victoria, B.C., and the Directors finding the funds of the Co. growing so rapidly, decided last year to extend its mortgage operations eastward, notably to the larger Ontario cities and to the city of Montreal. The published annual report of the Great West Life contains a summary of the Company's bond investments, totaling approximately $40,000,000. It is noteworthy that their market value is considerably greater than the ledger amounts shown in the Annual Report.
