To Mrs McDougall and family It was with regret that friends and neighbors learned that you had decided to leave this community and it was for the purpose of spending a few pleasant hours with you ere your departure that we have gathered here to-night. Our associations with you in the past have been such that we are indeed sorry to see you go away and we trust you may return to our midst at some future

We felt however that you should not be allowed to go away without having some little remembrance from us as a small token of our esteem and for that reason we ask you to accept this purse and with it, our very best wishes for a happy and prosperous future. We assure you a warm welcome awaits you should you ever return. Signed Fred Knox, Don McCannel, Alex.
