PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Don't forget the play "The Little Clothier" to be given in McKinon Hall on Friday night, March 29. Admission 25 and 15c.

Born: On Tuesday, March 19, to Mr and Mrs Sterling White, a daughter, Congratulations. An address: Miss Kate McMillan, Ceylon, visited Tuesday with Miss Gladys Hincks. Mrs K. McArthur received the sad news that her sister had died in Vancouver.

Mr and Mrs Wilfrid Watson and Betty of Toronto is visiting her parents, and attended the funeral of her Uncle John.

Mrs Dave Nichol returned home on Saturday night from Durham hospital, having spent over three weeks there. She is much improved and hopes she may soon be out and around soon.

Mr Jack Ferguson and sister, Sunday at Mr Colin McLean's.

Mr Dan Campbell spent the week end in Toronto and Mrs Campbell purposes returning with him.

While working putting sleepers in his house, Mr Colin McLean had the misfortune to fall on some timbers, breaking some of his ribs.

Miss Jean McCannel, teacher of the O.D.R. School spent the week end with her cousin Mrs A. L. Hincks.

Much sympathy is expressed to Messrs A. B. and Angus MacArthur in the death of their brother; also to Mrs Bon McKenzie in the death of her sister Mrs Galbraith of Menford and Mrs Robt Shortreed whose sister Mrs Aikens died at Buffalo.

Mr Alfred Hincks and Miss Gladys spent Sunday at McLean's.

The cars are out again on the roads and the highway is very good too. There is little snow left only on the hills. The farmers are busy tapping the trees these days.

We congratulate our friend Mr. John A. MacDonald on reaching his 95th year on March 22nd. We hope he may be spared to see many more years of health and happiness.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

March is passing away and soon will end with its predecessors of the past ages. Time is on the march and to thea god pedestrian reminds him of the many "Marches" he has seen in his long journey and the many obstacles he has come in contact with. What is man anyway? When he gives a retrospective view of the many score of years he has passed, it is only as a dream of the past night to him. And this reminds him that the 22nd March was our 88th birthday and he thank friends far and near for their kind remembrances of greeting.

We have had some fine March weather and by all appearance some may have "wee" in a week or two.

Miss Margaret Leith of Durham High School, spent a couple of days with her friends, the McDonalds of Edce Hill.

Pleased to hear Mrs David Nichol is getting along well in Durham Hospital and will soon be able to go home.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs Albons (nee Bella Melchior) sister of Mrs Shortreed. Bella was a favorite with all her schoolmates when at the old home on the Durham Road, where she lived for many years. As we did not hear the cause of death, we cannot say more but send condolence to the bereaved husband, sisters and brother.

Many will recall Tena McDonald, (Hugh's S. Line, Glenelg), now Mrs Vanwert. Her husband died this winter, leaving her with two girls, 12 to 14 years. Her home is at Cal. Jolly good hearted girl by her old chums on the South Line.

Also Marjorie MacLachlan's husband, Mr Kennedy, died this winter. Mrs Kennedy is a daughter of the late John MacLachlan (John Ban) who lived on the Durham Rd., 1 1/2 miles west of Priceville. Mrs Kennedy is a sister of Mrs Nichol and Janet MacLachlan on the 2nd con east of Garafaxa Rd. Her many friends send condolence to the bereaved ones.

Old Marchall Foch has passed on. Our noble King is fairly well again. God Save our King.

We might add that all his subjects as well, need the prayers of the universe.

The many friends of Miss Margaret McLean will be pleased to hear she is at home and getting to feel better after her long experience in the hospital. Miss McLean often acted the Good Samaritan in the many years of the lone are.

Those falling by accidents are getting better after their long invalidism. The many friends of Mrs John Graham will be pleased to hear she is improving fast after her long ailment.

After spending the past three weeks with Toronto friends, Mrs McPherson returns home this Monday.

We extend congratulations to the birthday and may be long sparer to be Sr. Editor of the old Review. He will excuse us by beating him by eight years, but at a natural consequence, the majority may be reversed.

THE ROLL CALL

JOHN MCARTHUR

There passed away at his late residence, at Timmins, Ont., March 29, John MacArthur, in his 65th year. Deceased was the eldest son of the late John and Isabel MacArthur of the Glen and was born July 2, 1864, on the old homestead which is now occupied by his brother Angus.

The late Mr MacArthur has been a mining engineer in Nor. Ontario for 19 years. He was of a kindly disposition and highly respected by all who knew him. Deceased had disposed of his property in Timmins a short time ago and was preparing to leave Timmins March 21st for Priceville where he intended to make his home. The day he had planned to leave for Priceville was the day his remains were sent home. The remains were forwarded to the Glen by the C. P. R. Friday, March 22, and were taken to home of his brother Angus. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Corrie and followed by the family at Priceville cemetery. The chief mourners were his widow and three brothers, Arch, and Angus at home and Alex of Hailybury.

Those present from a distance were Mr and Mrs A. D. MacArthur, Hailybury; Arthur Moran, Mr and Mrs Wilfrid Watson and Miss Mary-Be Black of Erin, both cousins; W. Ruttle, Hanover.

The pall bearers were Arch, and Dan MacArthur, Duncan Black, cousins; Malcolm McInnis, Thos McKeown and Jas Brown, all neighbors of deceased.

Gone Beyond These Shadows

It is true this life has its darker side, yet this world is full of light. So long as our eyes are fixed upon the hindrances that vex, we become blind to the opportunities that continually appeal to us and enshroud the possibilities that stretch skyward before us. Many of these opportunities, only to be thwarted by the clouds of weakness or dismay. Still there are many who struggle along through this life, full of hope of a crowning immortality and here is one who weathered the storms of oppression and hindrance through her allotted span of life in this discordant sphere and now enters the portals that lead into the spaces of eternity. Her eyes now behold the beauties of His universe, she grasps the hand that shed the blood for our transgressions and fills her heart with that Divine love which He bestowed upon us on the agonizing cross of Calvary.

In this foregoing, we refer to an old and highly respected resident of Priceville, who lived as all should live, a life full of love for all and devotion to duty and whose name is now cherished among the blest at the foot of His throne. After nearly 75 years of useful life, Mrs Mary K. Runciman, widow of the late David Runciman of Proton, passed beyond the Great Chasm, at the home of her only son, Fred Runciman, 61 Shannon St., Toronto, on March 13th, following a brief illness. On the following afternoon, a funeral service was held at the Runciman home, conducted by the Rev. G. A. Leichter of College St. Baptist Church, after which the body was conveyed to Proton Station on the 5:40 C.P.R. train, then borne with tender care by Messrs Thomas Wyville, Jas Devers, Jno McNalty, I. B. White, Jno Hemphill and Jas Vaute, to home of deceased's only daughter, Mrs Neil McCannel, where her numerous friends and neighbors were given a chance to take a last farewell look on the familiar features of their beloved friend, on whose breast and by her reposed farewell tokens of love in the form of wreaths and sprays from the family of Mollie Ferguson, Miss Jean McCannel, Mr and Mrs Eldon Runciman, Miss Nellie McLean, Mr and Mrs Wm Gilmore, Mr and Mrs Wm Strong, Proton Women's Missionary Society, Carpet Dept. of T. H. Brown, where Mr. Runciman is employed.

At 1 o'clock on Friday, March 16, after a short benedictory service, the mortal form of this estimable lady, left for home in the hands of the family, and was conveyed to the Presbyterian Church at Swinton Park, where a last service was held and where those who had not seen it, had a last view of the remains. In the service, Rev. Mr Corry of the Priceville and Swinton Park circuit, paid in glowing terms, a high tribute to the deceased's noble character, which was full of love, honor and sincerity, as one who held the respect of all, as one who followed in the wake of a true Christian, as one who brought up her family in the best way possible and who herself was prepared to go the true and only way, knowing very well that "He who sows to the Spirit will also reap the life of the age to come." St. John 14:6. After the service, one of the grandsons, Eldon Runciman and five nephews, gently stepped forward and raised the casket, bore it tenderly to its last resting place in the cemetery, where it was laid to rest by the side of her husband, who died 15 years ago.

The late Mr. Runciman was born at Belfast, Ont., near Goderich, being the youngest daughter of the late Mr and Mrs D. Phillips, who came over from Ireland in the pioneer days with a family of nine children, all of whom have answered the Boatman's call except one brother, who is now spending the latter part of his life in Melvin, Mich. but not being strong, was unable to come so far to the funeral of his only remaining sister, who now lies in peace along side of her old friends and pioneer days at Proton, waiting for the clarion call to forerather at the judgment seat on the coming day of days. During the services at Toronto, Proton and Swinton Park, beautiful and awe inspiring old hymns were ever more sung, including "A Few more Years shall Roll"; "Breathe on me, Breath of God"; "Shall we Gather at the River" while the choir chanted "The Beautiful Land". To the bereaved children and relatives we extend profound condolence.

With an apology to Mr Runciman and his only sister, Mrs McCannel, I beg leave to give these lines: "Through the window of memory, Glims a smile for ever bright; Like a lamp amid our sorrows, In a realm of starless night. There in recollection's palace, On the mountain of her soul; We can see her smile still flaring As the swift days onward roll. From the glowing hearth of childhood, Doth her smile still gleam and shine Though our home is but an ember, Just a vestige of divine. Yet her smile,—in glory's graveyard, Is a relic, sweetly sad; For it soothes and cheers and makes Our forlorn spirits glad. And when Life's evening zephyrs, Lull our souls to slumber's shore, We will join the countless angels Praising God for evermore. Yet her smile, just like a beacon, Blazing from afar at night, Through the window of sweet memory, We can see it smiling bright. Herbert W. Roberts, Toronto, Ont.

You don't have to nurse a grouch very carefully to make it grow. Lots of people think the world owes them five or six livings. People who talk in their sleep should tell the truth while awake.

LADIES' AID & W. M. S. of ST. COLUMBA CHURCH, PRICEVILLE

The W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid held their March meeting at the home of Mrs F. McKinnon on Thursday last and a good attendance was registered. The meeting was opened by the President of Ladies' Aid, Mrs McKinnon presiding. The usual opening exercises over, business pertaining to the Society was taken up. It was decided to hold a play in the near future. Miss L. Watson and Rev. F. Sullivan to be in charge of the same.

The meeting was then taken over by the President of W. M. S. and Mrs Hazard was called upon to read the Easter lesson, followed by prayer by Mrs Parslow. It was decided to start a baby Mission Band with Mrs F. Karas as the leader. The main theme of the afternoon's program was the report of the Toronto Conference of Women's Missionary Society by Mrs A. Muir, who was present from start to finish with interest and attention. The report was an impressive one and the audience of the progress of the Church's missionary program. After singing, lunch was served by a number of ladies.

Among the Churches

The W. M. S. of Queen St. Church held the March meeting at the home of Mrs Twamley. There was a good attendance and a very interesting and instructive program. Mrs McCrae presided for the opening and business part of the meeting. After opening hymn and prayer by Mrs. Groves, plans for Easter Thank offering meeting were made, which is to be held in the church basement on April 11th. Mrs (Rev. J. W. H. Smith has kindly consented to give the report of the Toronto Conference Report of the Women's Missionary Society, held in Toronto recently Mrs Twamley took charge of the remainder of the meeting. Four heralds responded for different countries and the Watch Tower. Mrs Twamley read a leaflet "Preparation for the Easter Thank offering". Mrs Groves read the Devotional leaflet "Budget Making". The topic for study was "Oriental Work in Canada" which was divided into sections and very interesting accounts of it read by Mrs Wolfe, Mrs Fiddes and Mrs Wiggins. Arrangements for and against Oriental Immigration were given, making clear the magnitude of this great problem. There was approximately 70,000 Orientals in Canada now. An outline of the service the United Church is rendering these people was also given. Singing closed the meeting, followed by prayer by Mrs McCrae.
