day at the home of Mrs Robt Sim. After the usual business proceedings were over, Rev Mr Jay gave a splendid address on 'Do parents know their children?" A pleasant part of the meeting was the presentaion of a very pretty fruit dish to Mrs Frank Eccles. The address was read by Miss Myrtle Cowan and the gift presented by Miss Ella Ellis. Mrs Eccles thanked the ladies in a few well chosen words. A bountiful lunch was served at close of meeting.

One of the most enjoyable socials of the season was held Friday in the United Church basement when the men of the congregation put on a splendid program. Every number was appreciated, especially the choruses The weather was wet and the roads in bad condition, yet a goodly number from country and village turned out to hear what the men could do and I am sure no one was disappointed. There is a good deal of talent in the community which these socials help to bring out. Rev. Mr Jay was chairman. Coffee, sandwiches and cake were served, with pie extra for the gentlemen.
