PRICEVILLE
Last Wednesday night there was a pleasant time spent at the Hall, evening, over 70 assembling. With the Pres. Wm Hincks as chairman, singing opened the meeting; Miss Jean McLean was appointed Sec'y in place of Miss Jessie Nichol. The latter is unable to attend as she is attending Fiesherston H. S. The program consisted of a humorous reading by Mrs. Dan Campbell; violin music by Dan McCannel, with Mrs. W. Knox on piano. A rousing encore was given them and they responded. There was a solo and encore by Miss Jean McCannel; reading by Miss Smith; song by Gordon McCannel; quartette, Mrs. W. Knox, Miss Marjory Kinnel, Messrs. Fred and Walter Knox accompanied by Marjory McLeod on piano. 3 contes were enjoyed and prizes handed to winners, after which a bountiful lunch was served by the ladies.

Friday night last a large-crowd gathered at the manse, about 130, to spend a social hour with Rev. and Mrs. Corry and family before leaving for their new home in Toronto. Mr. Corry presided over the gathering in a happy manner and a short program was enjoyed. A reading by Mrs. A. Carson, "Six feet of earth make us all one size"; violin music by Messrs. Colin and Hector McLean with Brady Irwin on guitar; reading, Mrs. W. J. McMillan; duet by Mrs. A. L. Hincks and Mr. Murray Nichol; reading, Sadie Carson; songs by Mrs. Bill McKenzie, Murray Nichol, and W. W. Ramage gave two songs in fine voice; reading, Miss Beth Hincks "The rural teacher"; brief speeches by Angus Hooper and Rev. F. Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan thanked all for the invitation on behalf of his wife and family said he was delighted to be present and wished Rev. and Mrs. Corry and family every success in their new charge. Rev. and Mrs. Corry and family were asked to come forward when an address was read by Miss E. M. McCuaig and the presentation made by Mr. Angus Hooper. The address:

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY
TI Rev. and Mrs. Corry and family
Dear Friends: Knowing that you are about to leave us, the Presbyterian congregation of Priceville desire to spend a social hour with you and to express our appreciation of you. Life is not measured by length of time but by its aspirations and services done. In the short space of time of less than a year amongst you, you have faithfully and lovingly endeavored to fulfill the duties of your high calling. You have sown the seeds of the Word of Life into our lives and so will you recognize the value of the part shared by our young people in the church is shown by the active interest you have taken in S. S. and Young People's organizations in both churches. We hope your efforts have been appreciated by them and they will strive to continue the good work. Also your sympathies and prayers have been given freely in the home and especially where there was sickness and this was much appreciated.

As a tangible expression of our appreciation, the Priceville congregation ask you to accept this purse as a remembrance of friends here. A best wishes for prosperity and God's richest blessing in your new charge. We are glad of your assurance that your thoughts will often turn to your friends at Priceville and S. S. frequently possible. Signed on behalf of the congregation, Mrs. Jno. McMeekin, Sr. spent Sunday at McMeekin's.

PRICEVILLE
Last Sabbath, Rev. Corry preached his farewell sermon to a full house. The choir contributed "We'll never say good-bye." The morning service was from Neh. 4:10. Rev. Mr. Purcell, Fiesherston, dismissed the morning service. Priceville regrets to see Mr. Corry and family leave but our loss is someone else's gain. The evening service, it was filled to the doors and Rev. F. Sullivan assisted in the pulpit. Rev. Corry took for his text, Rom. 12: 13 and 2 Cor 13: 11. Mrs. Dan Campbell and Rev. F. Sullivan sang a duet beautifully "The United Church withdrew their service in the evening and attended service at the Hall. Rev. Corry and family are leaving to-day, Tuesday, for their new home. We wish them peace and happiness.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was duly dispensed in St. Columba's United Church on Sunday last, with becoming reverence and sanctity. A large turn out listened to a fine discourse by Rev. F. Sullivan. A quartette voluntary "Heaven is My Home" was given by Mrs. H. B. McLean, Mrs. Earl McLeod, and Messrs. Ramage and T. Weir. The evening meeting was cancelled owing to the farewell sermon of Rev. Mr. Corry in the Hall, many of the members taking advantage of the opportunity to hear one who is held in high respect. At the Hall services, Rev. Mr. Sullivan who was present, was invited to the platform, and gave out the hymns, and also led in fervent prayer. Rev. Corry took for his text, Rom. 12: 11. While it was a minister's duty to preach the gospel, counsel and advice should be given. "Live peaceably with all men, if possible was emphasized,—sometimes not possible. Though not a pleasant year he had some of the best friends he ever had and paid a high compliment to his brother minister, Mr. Sullivan, saying we may not see eye to eye at all times, we should remember we are all God's children. We were glad to see so many of his people here. Misunderstandings and also been cleared away. He asked for prayers of the people in going to his new charge of strangers, where a minister needed friendship. God's love was manifested in His Son, it was our privilege to meet every Sunday to sing His praise and hoped that God's blessing may rest upon us all. One of the three things that Mr. Sullivan was thankful for (we only mention one) that he was privileged to testify to the friendship and love he felt for Mr. Corry. He urged young people to rally round the standard of Christ. How many of us could show, like Paul, marks because of our love for Jesus? Love is the greatest power, the greatest dynamic of Christ's love leads to union of hearts. A stirring evangelical address for young and old. A duet was given by Mrs. Dan Campbell and Mr. John Nichol.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Darroch, Harriston, visited at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ramage Sunday last.
Mr. Peter J. Gardner is now the happy possessor of the latest convenient mail box, the best yet made.

SWINTON PARK
Winter seems loath to leave us in this northern clime, but is no doubt bidding farewell this morning with just a sprinkle of snow. Very little seeding has been done yet. James Hardy has the field where the famous plowing match was held, sown. He wanted to get it in early before the grass got up too much in the first plowing. He claims that the part plowed by Bill Young and the other boys worked up fully the best, at least smoother to ride over. Fred Knox displayed his ability with the gun on Saturday evening, when he shot an animal that was molesting his sheep. He had driven on when he had no gun. It is described as a species of a young dog, but of a breed not common to this part. It apparently had never worn a collar or tag. Could it possibly be a descendant of those notorious arctic amnesia wolves? At least the Council will never have to pay for the sheep that it will kill.

Mr. Donald McMillan and sister Jessie motored from Toronto to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMillan, and were accompanied by Mrs. E. M. McCuaig, who returned to the city Sunday evening. Mrs. Paton, Fiesherston, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Haw and other friends around the Park. On Sunday last, Rev. Corry conducted communion services here, it also being his farewell sermon. Tho' the afternoon was wet and disagreeable, there was a goodly number out, and all are sorry that he is leaving. After scarcely a year with us, On the 2nd Sunday of May last year was his first sermon here and all feel they have lost a wise friend and counsellor.

On this Monday the young people are holding a social evening in the church, when Rev. and Mrs. Corry and their boys, Jack and Jim are especially invited guests. There will, we believe, be a presentation. All the young people under 75 are invited. We will try to have there. We enjoyed a drive last week in James Wilson's car as far as Shelburne. The day was good and roads were fine and company entertaining. It consisted of 5 men—mostly of everyone any of the Scotch will differ in their views. Some of us got on to plowing and what we could do with a plow, even to betting 25 cents that one could beat the other fellow. So I expect there will be some new contestants at the next plowing match. All in good fellowship, honest conviction but true to breeding.
