Play "Our Wives" to be Repeated Tuesday Night

To-night, Wednesday, the tickets for the Holstein Dramatic Club's humorous play "Our Wives", are almost all sold out for Friday night. To accommodate many who are unable to go Friday or cannot get seats the play will be repeated on Tuesday night next, May 14th, in the Agricultural Hall here, under Agricultural Society auspices. If you miss it Friday, be there early Tuesday; if you want another good laugh, come again. Same popular prices, 35c and 20c.

FOOT BEATS

This is going to be a stiff argument and both teams know how to give and take.

The local boys will likely have the same line up as last year with the exception of Murray Ross.

We're going to miss Murray on the right half this season. He was a never-say-die player and could hand out as stiff a body check as anyone. Anyone who has rubbed calloused shoulder blades with him will know what that means.

The boys of Holstein should get together and build a diving wharf in front of the Men's Bathing House. They will never have a better chance, now that the dam is empty and a gang could put up a wharf in an evening, which would last for years.

We have a lot of promising talent in that line and a wharf would help more than anything to stimulate an interest in aquatic sports. Bob Scarlett has taken the agency for the Adams Jam Co. He has a special brand of raspberry jam for distribution at the creamery. Those who have sampled it, have expressed their great surprise at its quality.

Brown Bros. have knocked $30 off the annual rental of the Athletic Field. This should help the financial condition of the Club which at present is rather acute.

IN MEMORIAM

FERGUSON — In loving memory of John Ferguson, who passed away May 8, 1928.

May brings back sad memories of a loved one gone to rest. He will always be remembered by those who loved him best.

A link of love was broken Just one year ago to-day, Sad farewell words were spoken Dear father when away.

We miss him, oh we miss him, Oft memories bathed in tears, Flow back of hours together We spent in bygone years.

Oh the day that Jesus called him To that happy land afar, To join those other loved ones May the link God chose to sever When our earthly cars are o'er, Again be joined together soon, On that happy golden shore, Sadly missed by wife and family.
